INTRODUCTION.

In presenting ancestry of the living in a book of genealogy it seems appropriate to refer the reader to some similar records preserved in ancient history, sacred and profane.

Adam and has descendants to the death of Saul, King of Israel, are recorded in Chapters I to IX of First Chronicles.

"The Lord spake unto Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai in the tabernacle of the congregation on the first day of the second month in the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying:' Take ye the sum of the congregation of the children of Israel, after the families by the house of their fathers with the number of their names, every male by their polls, from 20 years old and upward."

Numbers, Chapters I to IV inclusive, is a record by Moses of this enumeration.

The Lord again spake to Moses, as recorded in Numbers, Chapter XXVI, to make a similar enumeration after a plague had destroyed 24,000 Israelites, which showed only Caleb and Joshua of the former enumeration surviving.

When Moses was dead and Joshua had succeeded him as the leader of the Israelites, a similar enumeration was made and recorded in Joshua, Chapter XV .

Upon return of the children of Israel from captivity in Babylon for the rebuilding of the temple at Jerusalem a similar enumeration was made and recorded in Ezra, Chapter I.

Other enumerations of the children of Israel are recorded in Nehemiah, Chapters VIII and X.

Forty two generations of the ancestry of Jesus Christ, extending back to Abraham, are recorded by Matthew in Chapter I

Luke traces the ancestry of the Saviour back to Adam, the first man, in Chapter III, verses 23-38 inclusive, -immediately following his account of His baptism when the voice from Heaven called Him:"" My beloved Son in whom I am well pleased "

Some further quotations here seem appropriate:

"And the Chief Captain came and said:"Art thou a Roman? and Paul ansered:"Yes". And the Chief Captain answered and said: " With a great sum I obtained this freedom." and Paul said: "But I was born free."

"Our ancestors were not wholly free when they came on the great adventure across the Atlantic. They paid a great price that we might be born free."

Since pride of ancestry may be stimulated by genealogical publications the following are quoted:

" It matters little where I was born, or whether my parents were rich or poor.
Whether they braved the cold world's scorn or walked in pride of wealth secure.

But whether I live an honest man and hold my integrity firm in my clutch,
I tell you, my brother, as plain as I can
It matters much. "

"A people who take no pride in the noble achievements of remote ancestors will never achieve anything worthy to be remembered with pride by remote descendants." Macauley.

Heredity.

" Somebody labored years ago
Whose name I do not know
Ploughed ground or saild the open sea
And loved a maiden that I might be.

Two centuries ago or more
A woman at an English door
Looked fondly at a lilac tree
And passed that bid of pride to me

One stood enraptured when her heard
The music of a singing bird.
And now with each returning Spring
I find I do the self same thing.

Could we untangle all our lives
And learn how much in us survives,
We might discover just how far
Goes back what makes us what we are. "
-Edgar Guest

The " Laws of Heredity" worked out in painstaking experiments by Gregor Mendel, an Austrian monk, and obscurely recorded by him in 1865 are marvels of simplicity, uniformity and certainty. His record was discovered about 1900 A.D.

Many thinkers , in many lands, had done much experiment on the assumption that such laws existed. In the nineteenth century many people were busy on these same problems. The discovery of Mendel's record greatly stimulated activity in testing , applying and expanded these laws in most species of the vegetable and animal kingdom, resulting in far-reaching benefits in all kingdoms of life, including human.

Yet Socrates' philosophy that one's destination is more important than life's origin remains valid.

Biographical and genealogical records of CALHOUN, HAMILTON, NOBLE, PICKENS and Related Families by many descendants and other biographers, genealogists and historians have been busy probing the remaining available records covering the last nearly one thousand years. They have each worked with more or less skill in their dilligent efforts, unstinting expediture, many enduring hardships in many generations and many lands that they might contribute something to the most complete preservation yet possible to a more fully recorded and widely distributed story of these people from medieval ages. Every one who so worked is entitled to credit in this publication of every thing and used which could be traced to the devotion of all who had any part in making it available, -although desceased in many instances for many generations.

The most practical way found by compiler for assigning credit to whom it belongs is a Bibliography, or "Sources of Information" for any and all matter presented in text of this book and to this end has inserted pages to of this book. Whichever of these few pages lists a numbered item naming a person whose contributions are printed in the text of the bookis also indexed to such person as an additional facility for informing the reader of a debt of gratitude to such person'whose other merit may also be listed in whatever biographical sketch of such contributors appaers with him or her in their appearances herein, -in the order of descent from remotest known ancestor found in early Colonial North America, or traced to Europe.

Among contributors who appear to have contributed but once there are many who provided the indispensable "keystone" through which the very ancient and remote ancestor of many hundred of descendants, arranged herein in their generations order all of whom are solely dependent on such "keystone" informer for the knowledge so many of us gain herein.

The sustained interest of many other contributors of information printed there is further indicated by the many dates of the whole period compiler has been actively engaged in bringing out this edition of the book. Compiler here makes grateful acknowledgement to all others who have worked at any time or place, whose efforts are reflected in the contents of this book.

In private publishing by an individual of such a book as this space has to be conserved and limited generally to little more than registering full names of members of a family, dates and places of birth, marriage and place of burial, with location in which they lived or acted with present mailing addresses, where known for the living, adding the occupations followed and principal events of life and outstanding unselfish service to one's community, or to humanity in general from any station in life, however humble. For such many people listed herein deserve much praise.

To publish this book within the reach of the most people likely to become interested in it no change o addition can be made, in the same connection of one's own family and generation, after it is typed for the printer, but can, and will be carried into other pages in an "Appendix", or other miscellanous groups and brought together with its own group listed on earlier pages of the book through the index of Persons and the Index of Places, by which any group may find all thhir own group.

Often people in this book of whom much has been printed earlier and elsewhere, some of this other published material is cited instead of being repeated, so that the reader, who may have further interest also learns where else to read it.

Compiler here confesses inability to write this book so that it might be understood by as many readers, and with as little effort by them as experienced daily in gaining knowledge by daily newspapers, magazines or from radio or television screens.

Writers of much history seldom witness many of the events chronicled by them. From such, readers have a right to have cited to them for verification the sources of information they so disseminate.

Compiler has heretofore and herein accepted that obligation and has inserted on pages 353 to 363 of this book a consecutively numbered definite list of all such source material herein used and invites the reader to check at the sources cited, for any corrections or omissions discovered herein. The numbered items are the same as the numbers and /or parenthetical subdivisions of such numbers, in numerals or lower case letters found inserted at end of paragraphs all through the text of this entire book. It is hoped that this arrangement will reduce the interruptions of the reader in the midst of an individual's sketch to turn to these "reference" pages and numbered reference items for citations of authority for the statements read.

Such citations were deemed necessary as a basis for confidence in the book, and permit some abbreviation.

The reader is urged to become familiar with this feature in this book, and also get all the benefit possible from constantly consulting the unusually complete indices, of Person and of Places, locations they each occupied in life.

Some seventy five to 90 per cent of the people in this book are identified as to the "degree" of their kinship to the descendants of the earliest known CALHOUN, HAMILTON, NOBLE OR PICKENS recorded herein by a "chain" of numerals separated by a dash for a punctuation marked, which is, in fact, the complete known pedigree from two to twelve or more generations,- an in connection with "tables" of European Calhoun earliest preserved ancestors gathered and numbered on pages 6 to 8, and for similar early European HAMILTON family ancestry on pages 115 to 119 from 25 to possibly 40 generations, or from about 850 to nearly 1000 years.

These "chain" pedigrees are inserted at beginning of first praragraph of sketch of a head of family in their descent,-usually no further back than the departure of their European immigrant ancestor for the American Colonies, but for many a sojourn in North of Ireland, after migrating from Scotland to North Ireland, and some English families, who are known to have lived in England before coming to either Scotland or North Ireland in stages of generations movements to present United States of America.

As will be seen from the text of this book this "chain" of "pedigree" symbols consists of a capital letter and followed by hyphens separating numerals. These numerals are generally the the order of birth of children in parent's family from the first to the last.. The Capital letter is omitted from the "chain" of pedigress except for Archibald HAMILTON and wife, Frances Calhoun and for Patrick CALHOUN and wife, Catherine MONTGOMERY, ancestors of the two larger groups listed in this book. For other and lesser groups so listed they either appear in the Appendix for "CALHOUN" or Apendix for "HAMILTON", or as for PICKENS are intermarried with the name "CALHOUN" and carried under the Capital letter, "C" for Calhoun in the "pedigree chain". The last numeral in a "chain" indicates the order of birth of the person whose sketch is started in narrative in space next typed herein. The next numeral to the left from this last numeral is to indicate the order of birth of the parent of the subject of the sketch,-the third numeral, from the left is the order of birth of his grandparent, the fourth of the great grandparent and the remaining numbers to the left of these other numerals is for the order of birth in famili- of more remote ancestors of the subject of the sketch in the paragraph introduced by the "pedigree chain" of numerals, hyphens and the Capital letter "C" or "H" is the immigrant ancestor of the subject of the sketch, who first settled in American Colonies, unless it is affirmitavely stated in the text that the subject of the paragraph was born in North of Ireland, Scotland, England or elsewhere. Each numeral in a "pedigree chain" stands for one and only one person listed in this book. The number of hyphens separating numerals and Capital letter indicates one less than the number of generations in which the subject of the sketch is a part. Adding the Capital letter and counting the numerals separated by hyphens shows the full number of generations the subject has a proven right to claim for themselves and descendants.

Compiler has not been impressed with the adaptability of the "so-called " universal system of pedigree symbols employed by most other compilers of published genealogies found in the largest libraries for "simplifying " the display of descendants.

HOW TO BECOME SKILLFUL in writing your full direct ascending ancestry recorded in this book:

Copy at the top of a sheet of paper your "pedigree chain" in a Capital letter, followed by numerals, each separated from the other ancestors by a hyphen punctuation point.

NEXT write near the bottom of the same sheet of paper the name of the person represented by the numeral beyond, or to the right of, the last hyphen in the "pedigree chain".

NEXT, cancel off the numeral in the right hand end of the chain and write the name of the person left at the right hand end of the "chain" as father or mother of the person cancelled off the "chain":

NEXT, cancel off the numeral nearest to the one last previously cancelled, and write the name of the person third in position from the right hand end of the "chain" above the second, or parent of the first one cancelled, the third to cancel off being the grandparent of the one first cancelled, writing the name of such grandparent as third from the bottom of the sheet, or above both the person and also above the person's parent.

Continue this cancelling off the remaining numeral uncancelled at the "new" right hand end of the "chain", each time the numeral representing the name of the person to be cancelled must also be written next above the last person whose name is listed from near the bottom of the sheet of paper upward toward the "pedigree chain" first posted at top of the practice sheet of paper in hand.

Finally all numerals are cancelled off and a person's name is listed from near the bottom of the sheet upward one line and one generation at a time until the Capital letter at the left end of the "pedigree chain" is included in the list of names of one's own ancestors.After this list is finished all the page numbers inserted in the text following the name of the person who heads the paragraph of his or her sketch,whose name is next after the right hand end of that "pedigree chain" should be written on reader's practice sheet after the name to whom these page references belong, as well as the page on which the person's"pedigree chain" and sketch appears in the text of the book. By turning to the Index of Persons pages 380 to 445 at back of the book other page numbers belonging to such person may be taken and inserted on the practice sheet. When each name recorded by the reader in this list of names of all his or her ancestors there is there presented a bird's eye view of how much reading is to be done to know all that the book contains of his own people.

Charles E. Little — #12.50

This list of names,and the individual numeral for each member, of the reader's "pedigree chain" may be written horizontally,the oldest above, the next oldest next below from the common or oldest known ancestor at the apex of an equilateral triangular diagram,the individual's numeral being kept on outside of either of two oblique lines of the equilateral triangle and on the same horizontal line as the individual's numeral,the corresponding name of that indivual being written or typed still further outside the traingle.

Once your whole pedigree is assembled on and outside the triangle,or along and outside one such "rafter",then a similar pedigree of any other descendant from the same common ancestor may be placed horizontally across and outside and beyond the opposite oblique side or "rafter of the equilateral triangle. When these opposite oblique lines are filled from the common ancestor at the apex of the triangle to its base,the degree of realtionship of any two people in the two lines of descent from the common ancestor may be read horizontally across as related in equal degree to the common ancestor. The relation of two people to each other is the degree of the one of the two most remote from the common ancestor .

Such a trianglar diagram as attempted to be described in the next preceding two paragraphs of this page is illutrated from the genealogy of the descendants of Patrick CALHOUN and wife, Catherine MONTGOMERY printed in this book:

CALHOUN RELATIONSHIPS CHART.

To find a person's name,first consult the last index, that of Persons,pages 380 to 445 .There two or more page numbers often follow a person's name and the States or countries of residence.The lowest numbered of these pages often contain the persons name,place and date of birth as a member of parents' family .The next lowest numbered page for such child is usually ,or often for the child,when grown with his own wife and children, or as head of a family of parent's younger children,orphans and often contains the personal biography of the child upon becoming of age,or head of a family. Other page references to the same person in the index of persons may be only incidental mention of the person in events less important to him as an individual.It is here urged that all page numbers recorded with a person's name in the Index of persons be followed through by the reader so as to know that nothing more is recorded herein of such person.

The page number, if any,following the full Christian name and date of birth of a child should be consulted to learn what became of such child,and the composition of its own family,if any,it ever had,and are recorded herein.These cross-refereances to other pages show later as well as earlier generations. These page numbers inserted in the text are additional indices from parent to child and child to parent through all the generations herein listed.

The devices hereinbefore described are keys improvised by compiler with the hope that through their use the reader will find more of his people in this book. Study each of these intended aids.

Absence of a"pedigree chain " or symbols in front of a name means only that compiler at time of compiling was unable to identify earlier ancestry for such name.When interspersed with or immediately following others having such complete "pedigree chain" or symbols of connection such placing may have been made from that person being found associated in time and place with those immediately preceding, or it may be that it is a miscellaneous listing placed there more or less arbitrarily as an alternative of omission altogether,with the hope that some reader may find it and connect him properly to others listed in this book.

For many limited groups no better arrangement could be devised by compiler than to list them by countries of origin,as ascertained ,or within the United States of America to group all these in Appendix by family or surname,arranged ,first by States in alphabetical order and within in each such by counties of principal residence,also arranged in alphabetical order.

Compiler has omitted none of the family names,CALHOUN, HAMILTON,NOBLE, PICKENS or THOMPSON for whom connecting data had been verified at time these families were reached in the order assigned to them by compiler in planning this book,adding ,as to each, as such as then known of the direct ascending ancestry of "in-laws" of these family surnames, intermarried with such family surnames,-but including none of the collateral kin of these family surnames through such intermarriages with CALHOUN, HAMILTON, NOBLE,PICKENS, BASKIN or THOMPSON.

If the name of an ancestor,-of any generation,or of any person is not remembered but the place of residence,such as State,county,town,river,creek,bay,lake,fort,mountain,battleground,church,etc. is learned,the first index, "Index of Places (Geographical) pp. 366 to 379 which precedes the Index of Persons,pages 380 to 445 may provide the reader a suggestion to so browse as to come to the names of persons in whose life stories recorded herein may be found .

The Divine edict at the exit from the Garden of Eden placed on every human the necessity of individual effort and personal thrift. All who can not,or will not conform to this just requirement can live only at the expense of others. In quest for easier places to gain a living,mankind has sought another Garden of Eden,or Utopia,-generally with disppointment.

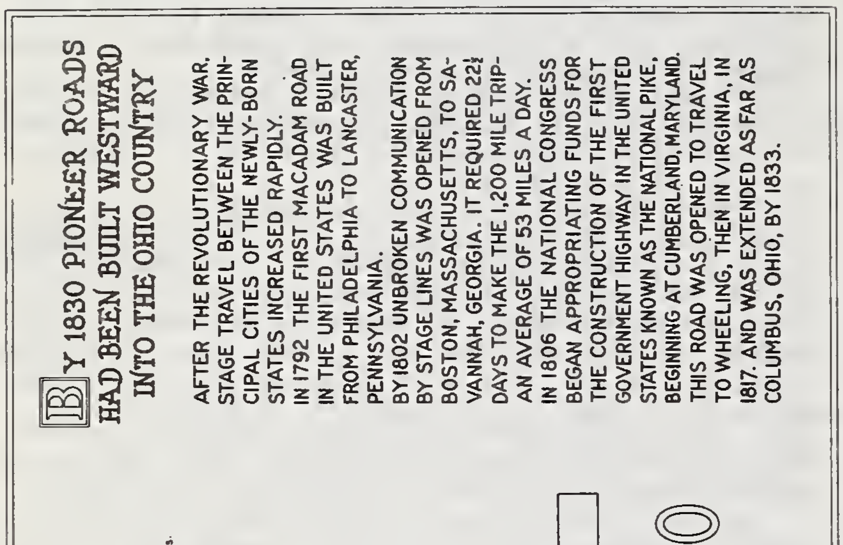
With little to carry many have wandered far on foot,-- often alone. The natural routes of early travel into the interior of a country was on streams,-in canoes.Later,as necessity challenged human ingenuity to make modes of travel and transportation easier the primitive boat was constructed an equipped,when men had learned to steer it. It was used on streams,bays,inlets and small lakes at first,then extended to coastwise,and later to large lakes,seas and finally across the oceans before the adoption of steam boats.

Overland exploration was aided by people domesticating various beasts to serve them,-among the earliest being the donkey,camel,ox and elephant,and later horses and mules.

Perfecting the steam engine in relatively modern times made possible the steam boat and the Iron Horse and its railroads These seem to be a proper background for the study of the dispersion of a family as treated in their genealogies.

Each mode of transportation figured in its members being where they are found recorded herein.

The extent of their overland movements warrants presentation of the map next following showing some routes most frequently traveled in migrations within the present United States of America in 1830 and prior. Notably missing from this map are most of the great caravan routes to the Pacific Coast,-among which were the important Mormon Trail to Utah and the Oregon Trail. If authentic maps of these are obtained before this book is on the press it is planned to add it.



BY 1830 PIONEER ROADS HAD BEEN BUILT WESTWARD INTO THE OHIO COUNTRY

AFTER THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR, STAGE TRAVEL BETWEEN THE PRINCIPAL CITIES OF THE NEWLY-BORN STATES INCREASED RAPIDLY.

IN 1792 THE FIRST MACADAM ROAD IN THE UNITED STATES WAS BUILT FROM PHILADELPHIA TO LANCASTER, PENNSYLVANIA.

BY 1802 UNBROKEN COMMUNICATION BY STAGE LINES WAS OPENED FROM BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS, TO SAVANNAH, GEORGIA. IT REQUIRED 22½ DAYS TO MAKE THE 1,200 MILE TRIP—AN AVERAGE OF 53 MILES A DAY.

IN 1806 THE NATIONAL CONGRESS BEGAN APPROPRIATING FUNDS FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE FIRST GOVERNMENT HIGHWAY IN THE UNITED STATES KNOWN AS THE NATIONAL PIKE, BEGINNING AT CUMBERLAND, MARYLAND. THIS ROAD WAS OPENED TO TRAVEL TO WHEELING, THEN IN VIRGINIA, IN 1817. AND WAS EXTENDED AS FAR AS COLUMBUS, OHIO, BY 1833.

Before the arrival of the American Indian in the present United States wild animals,-principally those traveling on hoof, seeking salt licks, water and new pasture,-whether seasonly, intermittent or regularly,-surveyed instinctively paths along the lines of shortest distances with the least resistances to the destinations suppling their needs and food.

Their "beaten paths" were largely adopted by the Indians, who added to or relocated the animal paths by removing some obstacles the animals could not surmount. These animal paths became known as "Indian trails". Along these the white man came, removing more obstacles finally making the most of them into roads over which the ox cart could be guided when loaded with some camping or home equipment and food. Further improvement of these ways made passable for Conestoga wagons of " Covered Wagon" fame, or as "Prairie Schooners ", the most efficient overland vehicle",-drawn by oxen at first and later by horses and mules.

"COVERED WAGON " OF AMERICAN PIONEERS

Along these road American surveyors directed the laying of more steel rails in making the great American network of steam railroads that any country ever enjoyed and by this mass transportation brought settlers to most American communities capable of supporting a dense enough population to warrant the building, maintenance and operation of railroads throughout the United States of America.

When population adjacent to the navigable streams flowing from the eastern mountain regions into the Atlantic Ocean had so increased as to require more good land a demand arose for improved transportation inland by the time of the American Revolution Some of the needs for these roads was military,-occasioned by Indian wars,

General Forbes built a military road from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to Fort Du Quesne ,-across the Pennsylvania mountains.

General Braddock opened a road in 1755 through the mountain wilderness to connect the same military posts with Fort Cumberland, now in Maryland.

Neither of these roads were much used by the colonists.

Daniel Boone in about 1765 located the Wilderness Road through Cumberland Gap near where the lines of Kentucky, Tennesse and Virginia now meet.

This soon became the immigrant trail into Kentucky accounting for the extent Eastern and Central Kentucky was settled by Carolinians and Virginians.

McAdam designed a gravel or crushed stone road which was built in 1792 from Philadelphia to Lancaster, Pennyslvania, a distance of sixty five miles which was the first removal of blockade to winter travel in the United States of America.

By 1802 freight-wagon and stage-coach schedules were offered to the public on the 1,200 miles overland route between Boston, Massachusetts and Savannah, Georgia.

The beginning of the nineteenth century saw the territory adjacent to the Ohio River opened to settlers and the trails across the Appalachian mountains were used by large numbers to reach it.

In 1806 Comgress appropriated for the first Federal road construction,- the "National Pike."It extended from Cumberland, Maryland across the Appalachian mountains to Wheeling, West Virginia on the Ohio river,-in 1817 and later to Columbus, Capitol of Ohio,-in 1833, to Capitol of Indiana and Illnois and to St. Louis, Missouri on the Mississippi River. It is now U.S. Route No.40,- a link in the transcontinental route from the Atlantic to Pacific Oceans.

The Santa Fe Trail into the Southwest was opened in 1822,-for trade between the United States of America and the new Republic of Mexico. Previously the most western American settlement had been at the site of present Independence,Jackson county,Missouri. On the Santa Fe Trail the "prairie schooner"became the vehicle of this new commerce.

The Pacific Northwest was opened to settlers in 1842 and over the Oregon Trail to it moved caravans of prairie schooners, carrying migrations surpassing anything in history,- all difficulties,hardships and danger considered. .The Oregon Trail became U.S Route 30.

.In 1847 the Mormon Trail started from Nauvoo,Illinois; ran westward to Platte River,-then followed the Platte,-on the opposite bank from the Oregon Trail,which it joins in the South Pass across the Continental Divide to southwestern Wyoming,- and ran thence to Salt Lake City,Utah.

The discovery of gold in California in 1849 started another exodus to California from all settled sections of the United States of America and other countries. Many from east of the Oregon Trail followed it to a connection with the California Trail leading to San Francisco,-at a point north of Salt Lake City.

All these trails were only the direction the emigrants sought to go,modified by intervening streams,lakes,deserts and mountains,-to find the best fords,lowest accessible gaps,or shortest distance between oases.

In the more densly settled sections of the East turnpike companies multiplied,building and operating toll roads for stage coaches,freight carriers and others.

The building of the first railroad in the United States of America in 1830 was followed by many others so that by 1850 turnpikes had such competition from railroads that highway improvement suffered until about 1890 from steel rails being laid on over one-quarter million miles of main line of American railroads, serving most well settled regions.

On these steam locomotive operations had defied all competition for overland travel and transportation.

Perfection of the internal combustion engine in the beginning of the Twentieth century,followed soon with improvements in automobiles revived and intensified the demand for improvement in highways, which ,withing less than a half century has linked more communities togehter in a national system of concrete or other hard,smooth-surfaced roads.

Many hundreds of persons printed in this book can have their year of birth no more definitely given than one of two consecutive years,as the information to fix it that definitely referred to a specific page in the U.S. Censuses of 1850,1860,1870 and relatively few from 1880,which lists names members of a household by years of age each had attained at last birth day before the enumeration. Listing from only such information requires the genealogist to insert two consecutive years as possible year of birth.

COLQUHOUN GENEALOGY.

The name has been spelled in many different ways:COLHOUN,CALHOUN,CAHOON, COLQUOHOUN,CULCHONE,COLQUOHOWNE and the surname COWAN,is the old Scottish way of pronouncing COLHOUN* * * 353

"Colquhoun means "SON OF A WARRIOR"Colhoun is a distinguished CLAN. The Chief is Sir IAIN COLQUHOUN OF LUSS.

The CLAN COLQUHOUN
WAR CRY - CNOCK EALACHAIN. Evergreen Badge. Hazel.

Home of Chief - ROSSDHU,near Luss,LOCH LOMOND,SCOTLAND.356.

The early history of the Colquhouns is involved in obscurity,some going so far back as to insist that CALGACUS, the general of the CALEDONIANS,was a COLQUHOUN,who bravely defended his country against AGRICOLA at the famous battle of the GRAMPLANS * * * whether or not Calgacus * * * be or not Latin for for COLQUOHOUN, the family is a very ancient one: its immediate ancestor out of the mythical period being UMPHURIFUS de KILPATRICK,who in the time of Alexander, the Second received a grant of the lands and barony of COLQUHOUN,whence he assumed the future surname of his house" 357

"Like many other families,the Colquhouns seek to derive their origin from an Irish progenitor. Their genealogist say that Conach, one of the reguli of the sister Isle came to Scotland in the reign of Greigear Mor,or Gregory, the Great (875-891 A.D.) and obtaining certain lands from that monarch in the county of Dumbarton,he named them "Conochon" which was subsequently corrupted to Colquhoun in that county,-from Alexander,II,when,according to custom,he was distinguished by name of his property.

Luss ,situated on the side of Loch Lomond,was then in possession of the old Earls of Lennox,and it was not until the time of King David Bruce (1329-1370) that these lands became the property of the Colquhouns. Sir Robert Kilpatrick of Colquhoun married the daughter and sole heiress of Umphred de Luss. At the battle of Glenfruin Sir Humphrey was Chief of the Colquhouns. The Buchanan and Graemes united their force with his. It is said that some 220 Colquhouns were killed by their antagonists,the McGregors. The Colquhouns made an extraordinary appeal to King James,VI, who aroused by exasperation,proscribed the whole Clan of McGregor by an Act which so crushed them that they could never again molest the Colquhouns ** *."

The Colquhouns retain their old estates. The estate of Luss covers a great part of the west side of Loch Lomond, and the home estate is called "Rossdhu".

So long as the time of the great-grand father and mother of the baronet of 1895, and possibly before the naem in Scotland was "Colquhoun " . The significance of the name is said to be a sea coasting conemon or point * * *. The spelling has varied,being Conach,Conochon,Colquhon,Colquhoun,-and in America,Colhoun and Calhoun."

As a Scottish clan their Snaich eantas,or Badge was the Braoileag nancon,of bearberry:arbutus uvaurse. In the illustration given in Scottish Clan" the Colquhoun clansman wears a common flat bonnet and in it a sprig of arbutus-the clan badge. The figure has no neck cloth: a"band" being seldom worn but at court and on high occasions.The plaid is blue and green with a oin stripe of red." 393

There are three main branches of the family: 1.Colquhoun- Luss, 2.Colquhoun-Tillyquhoun,(in Ireland) and 3. Colquhoun-Camstrodden.

Amexander,the third son of the XV,the Chief,was the ancestor of the Tillyquhoun branch from whom the American Calhouns are supposed to come. 393

The immediate ancestor of the Colquhoun family was :

I Umphredus de Kilpatrick,who in the reign of King Alexander ,II,obtained a grant of land in the barony of Colquhoun in Dumbartonshire pue servitio unius meletis whereupon he quitted the name Kilpatrick and assumed that of Colquhoun, which he and his posterity have enjoyed ever since. He had a son ,

II.Ingleramius de Colquhoun who succeeded him and lived in the reign of King Alexander,III. In a charter of Malcolm,4th.Earl of Lennox of the lands of Luss -"Malcolm, filio et haeridi dominii Johannie de Luss ",etc. Ingleramius de Colquhoun was a witness in A.D. 1280 He was father of

III.Umpredes de Colquhoun,designed " dominus de eadem " and is witness in charter of Malcolm,5th.Earl of Lennox "Johanni de Luss ",etc.,confirmed by King Robert BRUCE, A.D. 1316 . He left a son,

IV. IV. From Sir Robert came three sons, Sir Humphrey, Robert and Patrick

V. Sir Robert's 'Robertus') descendant, son to great-grand son ? was ordered by King David BRUCE to take the castle of Dumbarton which was strongly fortified. He wrote the King these words: "Li je pevis ,(if I can ")

Calling together his Clan and hounds, he gave a great hunt, and resorting to this strategy, the castle being for the time unguarded and most successfully took poseesion of Dumbarton Castle, of which he was created earl, the crest conferred on him for this deed of valor being a stag's head indicative of the chase, supported by two ratch hounds with the motto "Lije pevis" Below the arms are the words, "Snock Lockon ", or " Cnock Elachan ", the war-cry of the Clan Colquhoun . 393

This Sir Humphrey, son of Robertus lived in the reign of King James, II, -had two sons, Sir John and Patrick;

VI. Sir John succeeded Sir Humphrey and was appointed Governor of the Castle of Dumbarton, in the minority of James, II. He had a son, Malcolmn,

VII Malcolmn was succeeded by his son, John,

VIII. John was highly esteemed and was succeeded by James,, III and knighted by James IV

XIV. Sir John of Luss was in 1625 made a baronet of Nova Scotia by Charles ,I. He was a great Loyalist during the Civil War for which he was fined 2,000 pounds by Cromwell.

Another Colquhoun("Calhoun") genealogical chart seems needed,limited to the first 18 generations,including Umphridus,the first,since in 1917 an apparent descendant of Patrick CALHOUN and wife,Catherine MONTGOMERY,immigrants from county Donegal,North of IRELAND to Lancaster county, Pennsylvania in A D.1733 are identified as the ancestors of the largest group of descendants available for inclusion in this book of American born descendants of the Colquhouns of Scotland ,seated there by 1190 A.D. published in a book entitled:"The Life of John Caldwell CALHOUN " inserting a chapter entitled:"The Ancestry of Hon.John Caldwell CALHOUN ",who was an early American statesman of outstanding prominence in American history. That book ,in tracing his ancestry,placed said Patrick Calhoun as "18th.in descent" from the first ,or"Umphridus". The following chart reverses the order ,and starts with an 18th generation from and including Umphridus,taking a contemporay Colquhoun of said Patrick from other charts as a starting point for "18th,in descent ", as follows: 204

18. William COLQUHOUN,born 1686,brother of Alexander,Audley and James, were sons of Rev.Alexander Colquhoun,born 1662, and wife,Judith HAMILTON,daughter of James,and was the son of
17. William Colquhoun of Newton-Stewart,county Tyrone,IRELAND, and wife ,Catherine MacCAUSELAND,born 1643, daughter of Alexander. William of Newton-Stewart was son of

1. Umphridus de Kilpatrick and Colquhoun. 44(a),282.

A review of the several genealogical charts in connection with the conclusion in the book published in 1917 by apparent descendant of Patrick and Catherine (MONTGOMERY) Calhoun it appears plausible that the "18th.generation of descent from Uphridus,born about 1190 A.D."is not without plausibility. There is reord of the birth of Catherine (MONTGOMERY) CALHOUN in county Londonderry ,North of IRELAND in 1683 or 1684,of the residence of her, her husband,Patrick CALHOUN and their children,Mary,James,Ezekiel,William and Patrick,Jr. removing from county,Donegal,North of IRELAND to Lancaster county,Pennsylvania in 1733 and this book present a very extensive listing of the descendants of all of them,and includes many apparently of their branch who emigrated from these two adjoining North IRELAND counties and of county Tyrone county adjoining these other two counties .Other Colquhouns(Calhouns) contemporary in time and place with this Patrick and Catherine (MONTGOMERY) CALHOUN in these North IRELAND counties include:

William Colquhoun ,born in 1686,son of Rev.Alexander,, born in 1662,son of William of Newton-Stewart,Tyrone county, IRELAND,who married Catherine MacCAUSELAND,born in 1643,son of Robert Colquhoun,born in 1622,son of Adam, born about 1601. Persons experienced in assembling from authentic dates available for three or more centuries will probbly also regard as plausible the fitting of 18 generations in the period from 1190 A.D. to the birth of Catherine (MONTGOMERY) CALHOUN in 1683 or 1684 and that of a probable near kinsamn of her husband,Patrick CALHOUN, namely, William Colquhoun (Calhoun),born in the same area in 1686 or about five centuries 204

One Patrick Colquhoun of Kenmure,Scotland is charted a son of Patrick,son of Sir Humphrey,son of LUSS,son of Sir Robert de Colquhoun and wife,Lady _____ ,daughter and heir of Godfrey of LUSS,son of Sir Humphrey,son of Ingleramus,son of Robert,son of Umphridus de Kilpatrick and Colquhoun. Patrick of Kenmure married Margaret HAMILTON of Bathgate and had sons,John,Adam,Rector of Stobco, who had sons,James and Adam.

Another son of Patrick of Kenmure and wife,Margaret HAMILTON, was Patrick of Burrowfield,who had son ,Patrick,, married Elizabeth LINDSAY, daughter of John of Bonhill,and had son,Arthur, first of Kenmure, who married Katherine LOCKHART and died in 1626. They had son,John,who died in 1632,married Janet WADDROPE,daughter of Alexander of Dalmornock and had son,Humphrey, who married in 1663 Margaret WADDROPE daughter of Alexander, and had son,John,who married Elizabeth WYNRAM,daughter of James of Wistoun,who had son,Alan,who bought lands at Kenmurefrom Gavin THOMSON,writer in Edinburgh,SCOTLAND March 27,1735,married Margaret Colquhoun,daughter of William of Craigton,and wife, Mary STIRLING of Law and had children,Alan,who died childless. 282

The Colquhoun family came from Loch Lomond area of SCOTLAND and settled in North of IRELAND at Convoy and Raphoe town area of Donegal county about 1670.Of the family there were eight brothers,among them Rev.William Colquhoun, born at Castlefin, county Donegal about 1650.Two of the other brothers went to the North American Colonies,-now States. Convoy and town of Raphoe are about half way from Lifford to Letterkenny,Ireland,or about 6 or 7 miles West and a little south of Lifford,both Convoy and Raphoe being in Donegal county,IRELAND. 253

The death notice of Hon.John Caldwell CALHOUN,C-5-6,p. published in Washington,D.C. in 1850 referred to his father, Patrick CALHOUN,Jr.,C-4,pp. as being of Bushfield,Londonderry,IRELAND, Partick,Jr. being recorded as being born in county Donegal,Ireland, 1727.204

" It was probably from the vicinity of Portlough in county Donegal,IRELAND that the father of John Caldwell CALHOUN came with his father,Patrick in 1733.Portlough is in the Laggan District at the Londonderry county end thereof, there being Colquhoun (Colhoun) grave inscriptions in Monreagh Presbyterian Church cemetery in Laggan Distirct, which church was first estalished there in the 1600s ." 361

C- Patrick CALHOUN married in ULSTER,North of IRELAND,probably in Londonderry,Donegal or Tyrone counties Catherine MONTGOMERY, born county Londonderry,IRELAND 1683-4,d.in Indian massacre in Granville (now Abbeville) county,S.C . Feb.1,1760 daughter of Hugh.

One Hugh MONTGOMERY joined Rev. Patrick HAMILTON,minister of Enderwick,brother of James HAMILTON,afterwards, Lord Claudeboy,- in planting county Downe in ULSTER,IRELAND.

in 1606 A.D. Rev.Patrick HAMILTON married Elizabeth GLENN, born Renfrewshire, SCOTLAND,1570-75,daughter of James,who accompanied his brother-in-law,Patrick HAMILTON to ULSTER in 1606 A.D. and had a lease from James HAMILTON of county Downe upon which James GLENN was living Nov.15,1518.These GLENNS had descendants in Pennsylvania,Maryland and Virginia. The next HUGH MONTGOMERY found in this research was the father of Catherine (MONTGOMERY) CALHOUN ,born in Londonderry,Ire.in 1683-4.Later and other Hugh Montgomerys were found in association with this Catherine and her five CALHOUN children in Augusta county,Virginia and Abbeville District, South Carolina,the one in South Carolina signed his will there Aug.25,1794 recorded in Abbeville District,South Carolina as "Hugh MONTGOMERY of Fawny,county Tyrone,IRELAND naming as executors:"son,Hugh,James NOBLE and Fleming BATES making bequests to"wife,Jennett","children,Ezekiel and Mary" the latter designated as then wife of George MORROW".140(g) 152 page 60,476(53)(e)

A branch of the noble family,MONTGOMERY,Earls of Eglinton in SCOTLAND emigrated to IRELAND with their kinsman Lord Mount ALEXANDER.By marriage this branch baceme representative of the estate of DUNBAR.Katherine DUNBAR married Hugh MONTGOMERY.393.Sir Hugh MONTGOMERY,6th.Laird of Braidstone,became first Viscount of Montgomery of the Great Ards, county Downe ,IRELAND. In 1605 he received title to part of Con O'Neil estate in IRELAND and placed desirable emigrants from SCOTLAND on the large possessions he had secured and within five years had 1,000 men at the service of the King  all these families were of that sturdy,industrious,honest class which so much improved the society of IRELAND,- and afterwards their descendants did much to develop and establish a permanent form of government in the United States of America. 353

William MONTGOMERY,grandson of Sir Hugh MONTGOMERY, 6th.Laird of Braidstone in SCOTLAND traced his ancestors back through IRELAND,SCOTLAND and into FRANCE more than 25 generations to one Roger de MONTGOMRIE,Count, before Rollo, in the year 912, whose ancestors were natives of NORMANDY for many generations. 353.

General Richard MONTGOMERY,born Convoy House,near town of Raphoe,in county Donegal,IRELAND,son of Thomas served as member of British Parliament from Lifford,county Donegal,IRELAND,just across the River,FOYLE from Strabane,county Tyrone,IRELAND. General Richard died Quebec,CANADA,July 24,1773. He was born Dec.2,1736. 353.

One Hugh MONTGOMERY of Roanoke,Virginia had seven sons who served in the Colonial Army in the American Revolution. Of these the youngest,Thomas, removed to Kentucky.Hugh came from Pennsylvania down the Valley of Virginia to Roanoke 476(75)(c)

Family tradition is confirmed by Irish history of bad crops in North of IRELAND in 1727,1728 and 1729 impoverishing its people, who were not altogether satisfied with the religious siuation there and by about 1733 as many as 4,000 a year emigrated from IRELAND to the North American Colonies and continuing for many years.

Patrick CALHOUN, his wife, Catherine (Montgomery,their daughter,Mary and her hsuband,John NOBLE,their son,James NOBLE, and Catherine's sons James,Ezekiel,William and Patrick CALHOUN,Jr.embarked in 1733 on an Atlantic Ocean voyage of many weeks which ended according to some tradidition New York harbor.or it may have been Philadelphia,as they are next located as settled,and apparently farming at a place called ,"Chesnut Level" in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania,where husband and father died by 1741 when administration of his estate was begun by his sons,Ezekiel and William, their mother,Catherine relinquishing her prior legal right for appointment as administratrix , in their favor inventory of the estate made in 1741 indicated assets of the estate was in household and kitchen furniture farm equipment and live stock enough to indicate animal husbandry as part of the family's econemy.The administrators' bondsmen was their sister's husband,John Noble and James Mitchell all of Lancaster county,Pennsylvania. A plantation and growing crops were part of the inventory.The administrators' report was prsented to the Court there May 4,1743 and settlement of the estate was completed by May 4,1744.135,147(27a).It was not until 1936 that these administration proceedings were found ,-by George T.Edson of Beatrice,Nebraska,correcting the long outstanding publications and /or traditions that this immigrant CALHOUN was named James.135,147(27a). Calhoun Mays of Greenwood,S.C. has photostatic copies of these administration proceedings in immigrant,Patrick CALHOUN'S estate in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania from 1741-1744 inclusive, which he exhibited at a reception meeting of his kin,other descendants of immigrant,Patrick in Columbia,South Carolina later signatures being checked against these earlier for convincing all.148(b),353.

Lancaster,York,Berks,Northampton and Cumberland counties,Pennsylvania as late as 1763 were the" frontier " clamoring for help from Eastern Pennsylvania counties of Philadelphia City,Philadelphia ,Chester and Bucks counties, against Indian invasions  Quakers gave up enough seats in the Pennsylvania Assembly in 1750 to permit the State erecting frontier forts  " Braddock's Defeat in 1755 by French and Indians opened the Pennsylvania frontier to Indian warfare. 199(29).

By 1746 Patrick CALHOUN's widow, Catherine,their daughter,Mary,husband John Noble,and their children and Catherine and Patrick's sons,James,Ezekiel,William and Patrick CALHOUN,Jr, and such of these four sons as were then married,with their families,- were re-esttled in Augusta county,Virginia as shown by records in Augusta county of the activites of the four sons and of the husband of the daughter,Mary,John NOBLE ,including public services assigned to and performed by each and the numerous and extensive areas of land they bought or sold within the 10 years extending through 1755 before they removed to Long Cane Creek in Granville (now Abbeville),county,South Carlina leaving behind much valuable unsold land much of it on Crab and Reed's Creeks in original Augusta (since Wythe) county,Virginia. Their last location soon became known as Calhoun Settlement" in the South Carolina in the uplands watered by steams flowing into Savannah River and near the confluence of the large creeks taking the names of "North Fork " and "South Fork" of Calhoun creeks near their entrance into Little River about 16 miles from the nearest Indian lands,and in a region full of game: buffalo,deer, bear,wild turkeys,beaver,otter,muskrat,wolves,panthers and wild cats. The land was without underbrush,the fertile portions being covered by dense cane brakes."55(d),134(b) 204

Their removal from Virginia was caused by Braddock's Defeat in that region in 1755,which left the Western frontier of Virginia exposed to Indian invasion against which no immediate adequate protection could be hoped for.147(4, 98)

They abandoned their homes there in almost precipitate flight,returning several years later to sell. Such a long removal,-mainly through wilderness,imposed great hardships and much suffering en route and at destination stopped until housing could be provided in the wildness ,-all in the dead of winter. The following narrative is of some of the places and times of fortifications againts Indian attacks most accessible to residents in the "Calhoun SETTLEMENT" newly made on Long Cane Creek,Granville county,South Carolina when first made there:

In 1752 a fort had been built at "96",South Carolina of puncheon logs for the protection of the people of the settlement and several years later by the Calhouns,Nobles and Houstons on Cheves Creek, the "blockhouse " at Fort Boon. About the same time "Bulltown fort was built just west of present Vienna-Abbeville road,between the Davis Bridge road and Little River(North West Branch of Long Cane Creek) not far from the River Swamp ". "General Pickens built the block house in 1768. He made it a refuge for neighbors to protect themselves from the Indians.When he built the neighborhood was a great resort for the Indians who brought thither ginseng,pink root,deer, bear and beaver skins,-in great quantities."

White Hall on Hard Labor Creek,a branch of Little River was first settled in 1754 and Cambridge near "Ninety-Six" were the only two white settlements established in Abbeville District,South Carolina before the"Calhoun Settlement there on Long Cane Creek in Feb. 1756.55(d.1),134 (a,b),140(e),147(27).

In the Long Cane Settlement all the Calhoun families and members thereof eligible to claim public lands as their private homesteads and otherwise,-and perfect titles thereto,secured surveys and caused plats thereof to be recorded in the South Carolina Land Office,the youngest of the Calhoun sons, Patrick,Jr.being the officially appointed Deputy Surveyor therefor.July 18,1756 was the first record of their land surveys. Reference is here made to the separate biographical sketches of the five children of Patrick and Catherine (MONTGOMERY) CALHOUN,immigrants, to whom compiler assigns the "pedigree symbol" a Capital "C" and to each of their 5 children as follows: Mary(Mrs. John NOBLE,C-1 pp. 11-20 to immigrant's sons as follows:James CALHOUN, C-2,pp. 20 to 48 ;Ezekiel CALHOUN, C-3 ,pp. 49 to 58 ; William CALHOUN,C-4,pp. 58 to 64 and Patrick CALHOUN,Jr., C-5,pp. 64 to 77 . for the activites of each while in original Augusta (since Wythe) county,Virginia after their arrival there in 1746 ,noting in such biogrgphical sketches of each the size and locations of lands they obtained in Virginia and South Carolina,or to their children in South Carolina while these new countries were being filled up by settlers as well as the parts played by each of them and their children in building up the frontier countries there and elsewhere.

"All who came to American shores of their own accord from Great Brittain,-and those "bound hither for cause" had before receiving ship tickets for their passage had declared their adherence to the Church of England and had taken the oath of allegiance to the temporal head of the British Empire who was the supreme head of the Christian Church .

For a hundred years and more the Scotch-Irish had dissented from these dogmas and had paid for their own religious teachers,secular magistrates persons of their own choosing and to obey those rules only so long as doing so was the acknowledged good of the governed.

During the early years of Colonial settlements such men were carefully shut out from disturbing the political and religious homogenity of the Virginia and Carolina colonies. Although from earliest times a few Presbyterians had found their way into the Colonies through trade channels and though they had begun to make their appearance in Pennsylvania in the early 1700s they had not settled in Virginia and the Carolinas until about 1730. 36,217(i).

It is believed that the earliest settlers came from Pennsylvania up the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia.It was several years later before any settlers entered the valley from the East and throigh the gaps in the Blue Ridge mountains. 196,217(i)

From the Scotch and Irish settlements in Pennsylvania immigrants began to pour into the Shenandoah Valley as soon as the more fertile lands in Pennsylvania and Maryland were located.

These people followed the southern border of Pennsylvania and crossed the Potomac River in the vicinity of Harper's Ferry. Some of them remained in the Valley as permanent settlers,but thousands upon thousands others poured through the Valley, following the great rivers along their courses, some into Tennesse and Kentucky and others in to North and South Carolina. The hardy pioneers who entered the New World through Pennsylvania were immediately concerned about schools for their children and churches for worship.Two of these churches were the Old Nerristown,Lower Providence Presbyterian Church at Norristown,Pennsylvania,thirty six miles southwest of Philadelphia,the other Upper Octorara,-now on the outskirts of Philadelphia,the latter holding its 175th. Centennial Sept.4,1895.

They were pre-eminetly God-fearing men  who came here for liberty to worship God according to the dictates of their own consciences ,so that at the beginning of the Revolution one third of the original thirteen States were Scotch-Irish ." 185

In the year 1745 all that portion of the Colony of Virginia which lay west of the Blue Ridge mountains was erected into a county which was named Augusta.In Dec.1745 the County Court of Augusta county was organized and held its first sitting. Prior to that time it had become the refuge of a strong body of Scotch immigrants, a people whose characteristics has ever been truth,honesty,simplicity, singleness of purpose and courage." 203, 217(i)

Children of Patrick and Catherine (MONTGOMERY) CALHOUN, born in county Donegal,North IRELAND,1-Mary Catherine?1714 2-James , 1716, 3-Ezekiel, 1720, 4-William,1723, 5-Patrick,Jr.,Jan.11,1727. This latter birth is recorded as occurring in county Donegal,IRELAND,the others being assumed as the same as Patrick,Jr. The order of their births being obtained from letter of Hon.John Caldwell CALHOUN , C-5-6,pp.69-75 quoted next following:"My father,Patrick CALHOUN,with his three brothers and his sister  arrived in Prince William Parish,Abbeville District,South Carolina Feb. 1756 and settled at the fork of the two streams. His brothers were: James,the oldest,Ezekiel next,William, third and my father, the youngest. The sister had married Mr NOBLE. The late Governor Noble was her grandson.

William settled in the forks of Calhoun Creek and Little River. The NOBLES settled in the forks of the two Calhoun creeks. Our Calhouns were the pioneers and came alone.

James, the oldest brother was killed in Indian massacree. The attack was on the east side of Long Cane Creek. A tombstone was erected by my father in memory of his mother 76 years of age ,killed where it stands.Patrick kept a diary of the Calhoun removal in Feb. 1756 from Wythe county,Virginia/following Braddock's Defeat.Only two earlier Abbeville settlements,one at Whitehall on Hard Labor Creek in 1754 and another at Cambridge,near Ninety-Six." Country was full of game including buffalo.

" In 1760 the Cherokee Indians beganto give trouble to the people of the "Up-Country " of South Carolina and on the first day of February,1760,while the people of the Long Cane Settlement were moving with their families to Augusta,Georgia for safety,they were attached and twenty three of their number were slain.The following contemporary accounts of the massacre were published:

"Yesterday the whole of the Long Cane Settlers,to the number of 150 souls,moved off with the most of their effects in wagons to go to Augusta ,in Georgia,and in a few hours after their setting off were surprised and attached by about 100 Cherokees on horseback while they were getting their wagons out of a boggy place.They had amongst then 40 gunmen who might have made a very good defense , but,unfortunately,their guns were in the wagons;the few who recovered theirs fought the Indians half an hour,and were,at last,obliged to flee. In the action they lost seven wagons and 40 of their people killed or taken prisoners (including women and children)and the rest got safe to Augusta;whence an express arrived here with the same account on Tuesday morning." 83(a)

Mr.Patrick Calhoun,one of the unfortunate settlers at Long Canes,who were attacked by the Cherokees on the first instant,as they were removing their wives,children, and best effects,to Augusta ,in Georgia for safety,has just come to town,and informs us,"That the whole of these settlers might be about 250 souls,55 or 60 of them fighting men;that their loss in that affair amounted to about 50 persons,chiefly women and children,with 13 loaded wagons and carts;that he has since been at the place where the action happened in order to bury the dead and found only 20 of their bodies most inhumanly butchered;that the Indians had burned the woods all around,but had left the wagons and carts empty and unhurt; and that he believed all the fighting men would return to and fortify the Long Cane Settlement with part of the Rangers so stationed as to give them some assistance and protection."83(a).

" We have no late advice from Fort Prince George,or of consequence from places in the route. But from Fort Moore we learn that a gang of about 18 Cherokees,divided into three or four parties on the 15th.instant waylaid,killed and scalped Ulric Tobler,Esq., a Captain of Militia in these parts,as he was riding from his father's to that fort; and shot Mr. William CALHOUN in the hand as he was with;three other persons in the company escaped unhurt.The Indian who killed Captain Tobler left a hatchet sticking in his back,on which was three old notches, and three newly cut." 83(a,b)

Patrick CALHOUN,C-5,pp. 64- susequently erected two stones to mark the site of the Long Cane Massacre,upon the larger of which appears the following inscription: Patrick Calhoun,Esq. In Memory of Mrs. Catherine CALHOUN aged 76 years,who with 22 others was here murdered by the Indians the first of Februrary 1760 "

These stones are located about two hundred and fifty yards to the right of the road from Abbeville to Troy,about three-quarters of a mile beyond Patterson's Bridge over Long Cane Creek,about two and one half miles from Troy and twelve from Abbeville. They stand in a little valleyupon land owned in recent years by Dr. Mulwee of Greenwood,S.C., in recent years.

" Part of the Rangers were later stationed so as to give these settlers some assistance and protection." 44(a-e),83 (a,b),134(b),135,204

At 4 O'clock P.M.May 8,1954 a cast of local actors of Abbeville, South Carolina at two and one-half miles from Troy re-enacted the pageant of the massacre there Feb.1,1760 by Cherokee Indians of twenty three residents of Long Cane Settlement then in Granville(now Abbeville) county,South Carolina, descendants of the victims participating.217.

* HEADRIGHT LAW in South Carolina,before American Independence,limited the acreage to be granted to people entitled to enter land." " at this time land was given by " headrights "according to the number of members of a family. A single man, or a married man with no children was allowed to take 100 acres. No married woman could take lands A single woman could take 100 acres. A widow woman could take 100 acres for herself and an additional 50 acres for each dependent,under the age of 16 years,-in some periods , under 15 years. Each child older than 15 o5 16 years,-for a short period,- were allowed to take 50 acres each,- for the remainder of the period these older children could take 100 acres each. As families increased in size additional could be added.

From 1745 to 1775 this law as in effect in South Carolina by the Royal Crown and the only exception to that was that a man who had done service for the Colony could be paid in land grants, as an example,Patrick CALHOUN,Esq.,C-5,pp. 69-75 who served the Colony as land surveyor had additional grants in payment for his services as such.*

Many settlers in South Carolina could not find lands vacant where they wanted to settle and often bought land rather than take a grant. Absence of a name from land grant records is not evidence that the person did not life in Colonial South Carolina. "Up-State"Colonial county lines were not definite, and often a land grant would be recorded in a named county,when the location of it was actually then in a different county.

*" After the Revolution, a married woman,-not a widow,- could take land for herself,but it was very unusually done, in such cases she generally became so eligible so to do,-by her husband publishing her as a "free dealer ".476(53)

C-1-Mary Catherine CALHOUN,page 10,usually referred to as only "Mary" married in county Donegal,North of IRELAND about 1730-31 John NOBLE,who signed will in Augusta county, Virginia Nov.6,1752,which was proved in Court there Nov.16, 1752 and came together with his wife's parents,Patrick and Catherine (MONTGOMERY) CALHOUN and her four Calhoun brothers from county Donegal,Ireland to Chesnut Level,Lancaster county,Pennsylvania in 1733,-an Atlantic Ocean voyage ,-this John Noble signing as one of the sureties in Lancaster county Court for his wife's brothers,Ezekiel and William CALHOUN to administer the estate of Mary's father,Patrick Calhoun, deceased in 1741,moved his family with wife's mother and four brothers from Lancaster county,Pennsylvania to original Augusta county,Virginia in 1746 His wife's brothers,Patrick Calhoun,Jr. and William Calhoun, and the latter's wife,Agnes signing John NOBLE'S will as witnesses ,in which will he named his wife,Mary (CALHOUN) NOBLE and her brother,James CALHOUN as executors,her brothers,William and Patrick CALHOUN,Jr. signing as sureties on the executors' bond.In the will he made bequests to : "wife,Mary","son,Alexander,of land on Cripple Creek at Big Springs"; " sons,James, Patrick and Ezekiel NOBLE, the latter as"infant " and to "daughter, Jean NOBLE." 206(126),203(120) Children(of John and Mary Catherine (CALHOUN) NOBLE,born in county Donegal, IRELAND) 1- James , 1731.(born aboard sail ship in Atlantic Ocean),2-Alexander, 1733;born near Chesnut Level, Lancaster county,Pennsylvania) 3-Patrick, 4-Jean, (born Augusta county,Virginia) ,5-Ezekiel, 1751-2. GOVERNOR PATRICK NOBLE OF S.C.

C-1-2-5-Patrick NOBLE,p 12,was prepared for college by Dr.Moses WADDELL,D.D.of Willington,S,C,,partly prepared to practice law in the office of Hon. Landgon CHEEVES in Charleston,S.C., in latter part of 1904 he entered College of New Jersey, at Princeton from which he graduated in 1806,was admitted to S.C. bar in 1809,when he became partner of Hon. John Caldwell CALHOUN,future South Carolina statesman,C-5 6,pp.69-75, his father's cousin with office in Abbeville,S.C..and practiced together until John Caldwell CALHOUN was elected to Congress in 1810 .Andrew NORRIS in his will signed July 15, 1824 recorded in Abbeville, District,South Carolina bequeathed his law library to Patrick NOBLE who served as Representative of Abbeville District in the South Carolina General Assembly,as Speaker in the House,1819-23 and 1933-3 and as President of the South Carolina Senate,1836-1838 and as Governor of that State from 1838-1840,his legislative service to his State began in 1812 and was nearly continuous. He was an excellent parlimentarian using his official prerogatives in a way to facilitate business,preserve the strictest order with a good natured dignity and render his decisions in an impartial way. He desired to retire from official life,but in 1832 was again elected member of the House and chose as its Speaker Governor NOBLE although not what the world calls a great man was the possessor of such good and substantial qualities as to win for him the highest respect of his fellow citizens. Throughout his official career he preserved an exalted moral standard,never swerving from the path of high personal rectitude. His public speeches and legal please were characterized more for their strong common sense and directmess than for oratorical ornamentation and were better calculated to inform and convince than to rouse and entertain".From a contemporary of another State he received the following eulogy:"His mind was rather more practical than brilliant.He had little imagination but a retentive memory.He was a well-read lawyer,and without brilliant parts he was a safe counselor.He was one of the most amiable of men I have ever known. What he was one day you were sure to find him on the next.I never saw him out of humor, and he was my intimate friend and associate from our boyhood to near the close of his life. With the people he was always popular, and the steadiness and uniformity of his principles and character made that popularity fixed and durable. His moral character was without a blot."

Another intimate associate of his official position wrote the following ,which is engraved on his tomb:"As a public man he was distinguished by moderation resulting from a mild and even temperament,and by firmness of purpose proceeding from a high sense of duty and sound judgment ,drawing its conclusions from careful and dispassionate examination. In all the relations of private life he was singularly exemplary,and in public and in private,such was the unblemished purity of his character that both friend and opponent would concur in inscribing on his tomb :"Here lies the bones of an honest man."

Another prominent public official spoke thus of his political career:" "After a voluntary retirement from public life of several years he was returned to the House of Representative in 1832 and 1833 and was elected Speaker in place of Henry Laurens PINCKNEY who had been elected to Congress In 1836 he was elected Senator from Abbeville District and elected President by the Senate  He was Lt. Governor in 1833-35 and was popular with the leading lawyers of the State in his day. " Another wrote of him:"if he had not abandoned the Legislature as its most popular member in 1824 he would have been placed on the bench  , He had a fine engaging personal appearance, was five feet ten inches tall,perfectly straight dark hair,blue eyes,perfectly white teeth and his countenance kind and benevolent." He was an aid of Gov..Andrew Pickens of S.C. ,-his uncle ,-by marriage.

Ten letters preserved as written to Governor Patrick NOBLE of S.C. from 1812 to 1837 reveal that:"Patrick NOBLE of Abbeville,S.C. had frequent letters from Hon.John Caldwell CALHOUN at his office through out that long period of public life of each showing that Patrick NOBLE often sought advice and assistance from CALHOUN in political and personal matters . In return Calhoun would ask Noble to handle his local law business and to explain to his constituents the reasons for his political actions in Washington. During the War of 1812 Patrick Noble was commissioned as Major; was defeated in his race for a seat in the U.S.Senate in 1924,when he returned to State politics,being elected Lieut-Governor in 1830; was elected Governor of his State in 1838 on the Democratic ticket witha state-rights platform.

Calhoun's interest in Governor Patrick NOBLE'S public career remained constant and sympathetic,recognizing Noble's ability and modesty urged him to offer for high honors,as occasion arose within the period of this correspondence. Among such encouragement from Calhoun was congratulation of Noble's advance to the Speakership of theSouth Carolina Legislature in 1819,saying :" it has afforded the Legislature an opportunity to give a sure distinguished proof of the confidence they have in your talents and judgment. With prudence the post you occupy now will enable you to attain any office which you may desire withing the gift of the state."

Patrick NOBLE was one of the principal actors in organizing The State Agricultural Society of South Carolina in 1839,while Governor, and was elected its first President. He died before expiration of his term of office; married Sept.5,1816 Elizabeth Bonneau PICKENS ,C-3-2-2-,pp ,his first cousin,Rev. Moses WADDELL,D.D. officiating. Governor Patrick NOBLE died in office as Governor,Apr. 7,1840 and is buried in the NOBLE family burying ground in the Willington section of Abbeville county,S.C. having fitting inscription on his grave stonas to his accomplishments and services to the State of South Carolina.

His estate was administed in Abbeville District,S.C. Aug.27,1840 by his son , Ezekiel Pickens surety on his bond for $50,000 being William CALHOUN. Ezekiel Pickens NOBLE was appointed Mar.L4,1842 as guardian for minor sons of Governor Patrick,namely ,Edward,Alexander and Samuel NOBLE and same date John CUNNINGHAM,husband of Governor NOBLE's daughter ,Floride Calhoun(NOBLE), was appointed guardian for Elizabeth Bonneau NOBLE,C-1-2-5-6,p.19 ,minor daughter of Governor Patrick Noble..33(28),44(c),55( ), 134(b),140(i),147(98,101,104),155 p.423, 206(78),217(c),294, 295,300,322, 327(c),335,392,393,406,421,476(80)(d),(81)(b,d) 443 (86)(c)

C- 2 James CALHOUN,p. 10 , by authentic records was among the four brothers,who became the founders of the CALHOUN Family in "Old Ninety-Six", then Granville county, since "Abbeville District",now Abbeville county, South Carolina,the other brothers being Ezekiel,William and Patrick CALHOUN,Jr.or "Esq" as the latter pioneer there became generally known. The authentic records of these four brothers are found in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania,next in the part of original Augusta county,Virginia now in Wythe county,Virginia ,whence they moved in Feb.,1756 to Long Cane Creek in present Abbeville county,South Carolina.. 147(5) . The fled the Wythe Co ,Va. settlement upon Braddock's Defeat in 1755, which left the western frontier of Virginia open to Indian raids and attacks.James CALHOUN is confirmed as the oldest of the four brothers,minor sons of Patrick,Sr. and wife,Catherine (MONTGOMERY),immigrants from Donegal county,North of Ireland to Lancaster county, Pennsylvania in 1733,the order of their birth being preserved in a letter written by Hon.John Caldwell CALHOUN,C-5-6,pp.69- South Carolina statesman,son of Patrick,Esq .or "Jr.", and nephew of the other three Calhoun immigrant brothers,as written Nov.21,1847 within the last three years of the stateman's life. 443

James CALHOUN was made party to a suit in Augusta county,Virginia September 6th. and 19th.,1746 which suit joined him with his brothers,Ezekiel,C-3,pp.49-58 ,William,C-4,p.58-64 34(b),44(b),55(d.1),140(5), and Patrick Calhoun, C-5,pp.8- ,all 4 brothers being made parties defendant and joined in such suit.The suit involved disputed title to specified lands in Augusta county,Virginia ,205(b).

James CALHOUN was appointed Nov.19,1746 as oversser of a road from Reed's Creek to Eagle Bottoms and to the top of the ridge between the waters of the South Fork of Roanoke and New Rivers,-all in Augusta county,Virginia,appointed May 21,1747 overseer of same road,his three brothers and George CALHOUN being then assigned to work under him as overseer on same road:appointed constable there May 25,1947 on Roanoke: survey was made for him there April 3,1749 for 610 acres on Reed's Creek,Augusta county,Virginia and March 7,1850/1851 for 594 acres on a branch of the place called "The Cove";served August 20,1752 as appraiser of estate of Jacob GOODMAN;qualified Nov.16,1752 in Augusta county,Virginia as joint executor with his sister, Mary (CALHOUN) NOBLE,C-1,pp.11- ,of the will of her deceased husband,John NOBLE,C-1,p.11-20,their brothers,William,C-4,p.58, and Patrick,Jr.("Esq."),C-5,p.65- signing as sureties on their executor's bond. James CALHOUN made peace bond in Augusta county,VirginiaNov.20,1752 at the instance of James McCALL. 205(f). Nov.21,1752 in a suit of James PATTON against James CALHOUN the jurors returned to the Court unable to agree and asked to be discharged,having been four days in retirement,but the plaintiff's counsel objected and they were ordered to consider further and if they could not agree then to return next Court.205(g).March 22,1753 the jury impanelled in the cause of PATTON against James COHOON being called and one of them,John SMITH not being present was fined. Defendant's attorney moved the Court to dismiss the jury,and impanel a new one,but the plaintiff in person objected court being of the opinion that the cause be continued and that the same jury try the issue. May 22,1753 the jurors in the case of PATTON against CALHOUN failed to appear and were summoned to the next Court.Aug.12,1753, a mandamus was issued from the General Court to the County Court of Augusta county requiring it to dismiss the jury in the cause of PATTON against James CALHOUN,which was done and the cause was continued. 205(h,i) . May 1754,James Patton against James CALHOUN(COHOON) SLANDER:"Cohoon said in 1750 that Patton had made over all his estate to his children to defraud his creditors and that he had no title to the lands he offered for sale on Ronoake and New Rivers. Mandamus from the General Court to discharge the jury from rendering a verdict 147(6),205. May 20,1754 the cause of Patton against Calhoun was submitted to arbitration.Patton had obligated himself to deliver two patents for Calhoun at a time when there was no fee to the Governor for signing patents before the patents were obtained by Patton, a law was enacted giving the Governor a fee. Patton charged this to Calhoun. The arbitrator award was that each pay the fee for one patent of two in dispute. 147(5,6), 205(n).

April 8,1754 sixty four acres of land on the head waters Hay's Creek, a branch of James River in Augusta county,Virginia was surveyed for James CALHOUN 55(d.1),147 (6), 291(d), In 1756 James, Ezekiel,William and Patrick CALHOUN and their sister,Mary(CALHOUN) NOBLE, widow removed to Long Cane Creek, Prince William's Parish,Granville county, S.C. where they took up lands. 134(a). C-2-1- Patrick CALHOUN,Jr.(III),"Little Partick" settled the estate of his father,James CALHOUN,C-2,p.20,in Provate Court at Charleston,S.C.,before any other Probate Court was organized elsewhere in South Carolina.That he was oldest child, "son and heir" of James is evidenced by he alone selling the lands surveyed for and acquired by his father, James CALHOUN, 610 acres on Reed's Creek in original Augusta (now Wythe) county,Virginia in 1765 and 594 acres at a place called "The Cove" also in original Augusta county,Virginia, the first,-in 1765 for the 610 acres and in 1771 for the 594 acres tract, in neither instance was the sales made by him joined by any of the four other living heirs of his parents, nor in either instance was their any power of attorney to him for the other four to sign for them by him. Both deeds by "Partick CALHOUN,Jr" conveying these estate lands were dated before the American Revolution and, therefore,the title had passed to "Patrick Calhoun,Jr." by English law then prevailing in the Virginia Colony known as "primogeniture", meaning in Latin "first born", under which all lands left by a deceased parent descended to and vested in such oldest son as "son and heir" to the exclusion of all his brothers and/or sisters. These two tracts of land had become vested in their father,James CALHOUN,C-2, 1 April 31,1749 and March 7,1850/51 and James had abandoned only possession thereof and not title thereto when forced to flee the Western frontier of Virginia upon Braddock's Defeat in 1755. As "Patrick CALHOUN,Jr." he received grant of 200 acres on the Northwest fork of Long Cane Creek in Granville (now ABBEVILLE) county,S.C. bounded on all sides by vacant land and there was surved for him as "Patrick CALHOUN,Jr." Jan.23,1763 100 acres on Long Cane Creek at Calhoun Creek and bounded on the north by lands of James CALHOUN, the father of said Patrick Calhoun,Jr.and on other three sides by vacant land,the survey being made by Patrick CALHOUN,Esq.C-5,pp 65.his uncle, return of the survey for memorializing in the records of the Colony of South Carolina in Charleston being made March 15,1764 by Alexander NOBLE,C-1-2,pp.12-,first cousin of"Patrick,Jr ."206 (78,79) 476(53(a,g)

Calhoun. survey was made by Patrick CALHOUN,Sr. for Patrick CALHOUN Feb.1,1768 at Mulberry Bottoms near Ft.Boone bounded by lands granted to John,James and Catherine CALHOUN and other sides vacant.Patrick Calhoun had another survey by Matthew LONG'May 30,1767 for 150 acres,bounded by the lands of John SIMPSON,John DEAL,Robert NORRIS and Patrick CALHOUN,Esq.,,C-5,p.64-75,As "Patrick CALHOUN,Justice of the Peace" witnessed power-of-attorney signed Oct.7,1765 by "James LOCKRIDGE of Long Cane Settlement,Granville county , South Carolina,planter " to convey to John POAGUE 168 acres on the Calfpasture River in Augusta county,Virginia. It was published of this Patrick CALHOUN ("Little Patrick") in 1904 that "James CALHOUN,killed by Indians in South Carolina ,Feb.1,1760,brother of Ezekiel,William and Patrick ,had a son ,Patrick CALHOUN,Jr..,C-2-1.p. 22,called "Little Patrick " ,older than Ezekiel CALHOUN, and the first named was probably the oldest child of this Calhoun family." 140(f),203(135),206(74,75).Quotation from letter to compiler from Sarah Rebecca (CALHOUN) WILLIAMSON:"my grandmother said Patrick Calhoun,Jr. was Justice of the Peace in Abbeville ("Old Ninety-Six") District,S.C. and that he signed all legal papers as "Patrick CALHOUN,Jr." She called him "Little Pat" although he was 6 feet tall-; that he married Sarah McKINLEY and that she knew for a positive fact that he was brother of William CALHOUN,C-2-5 p.29- and that they had a sister, Catherine CALHOUN,C-2- - p. and two other brothers,whose names she bad forgotten" (Hutton supplies names as James and Ezékiel.). 476(53)(g)

C-2-1-3- Jane Calhoun's dates of birth and death ,as previous reported and probably published seems to here merit review,as it made her close to 103 years old at her death in 1865,whereas her parent's marriage date is recorded as Feb .26,1767,making her age as five(5) years too old,or only "nearly ninty eight(98) " when she died. The error is here attempted to be explained by compiler from reported inscriptions read on her grave stone and that of her second husband,Charles MILLER in a cemetery,now destroyed when the inscriptions were nearly 100 years old, and probably eroded so much as make the last figure in the year of her birth look as much like the figure three "3" as a figure eight "8" and copied as a basis for the error of 5 years too old for her, making it appear that she was born in year 1763 instead of correctly "1768". This is further supported by the fact that Jane's mother was Sarah McKINLEY, born in 1750, Jane's father having previously married Alice CRAIG about 1757 and they had 2 children, both of whom had died before his second marriage to Jane CALHOUN Feb.26,1767. A biographical sketch of this Jane(CALHOUN)(HOLMES) MILLER, C-2-1-1, p.   was published in a genealogical book in 1927 compiled by the widow of her grandson, reading, in part, as follows:" In writing of her I would fain dip my pen in liquid gold, so great is my admiration and reverence for her name  born in Abbeville District, S.C. a few years after the Indian massacree, Feb.1, 1760, in which a number of members of her family lost their lives, Jane CALHOUN lived through the horrors of the Revolutionary War and had a vivid memory of it. She also remembered much of the constant Indian warfare between that race and the white people, and she lived through the War of 1812, the Mexican War and the greater part of the Civil War. Although by that time quite old, she was still wide awake to the doings of the country and often recounted with interest the number of wars through which she had lived the crowning work of her life was her practice of simple medicine in her own family and those of her neighbors utilizing her knowledge of combining various herbs gained in her long life experience. Her practice often extended considerable distances from her home,-into the period of the Civil War because of the scarcity of physicians left to minister to civilians when she was apporaching her 97th. birthday." 412, 424

Klea Catherine (BEAN) HAYNIE,C-3-1-3-4-5-4-10,in opposite column of this page, specialized in accounting and has been active as teacher and office in organization for youth welfare in her church Her greatest sustained interest outside of these,her home and family has long been in genealogical research into the ancestry of her children.She became an early and enthusiastic member of a volunteer group organized and pooling their data on hand, and as added to circulating all of it among members of such group,-principally in the last decade,gathering ,verifying and documenting individual manuscripts unpublished of all research in the States of the American Union, and abroad,principally in Scotland and Ulster,North of Ireland,some in England and other foreign countries as to CALHOUN (COLHOUN, COLQUHOUN and some other earlier forms of spelling the ancestral name of"CALHOUN" in the United States of America.

These combined and sustained interests has so done with the intent of having it all published in a genealogical book,with only the hope of preserving more of it for posterity in a substantial ,if not comprehensive gathering.

Compiler became more acutely aware of the possibilities of such a publication in the closing days of 1952 and all available time in waking moments have been concentrated on that objective.

Mrs.Orson (Klea Catherine BEAN) HAYNIE was among the earlier members of the organization whose devotion,efforts,and travels to gather and verify genealogical material for such a book long outdates compiler's relatively recently acquir-knowledge of descent from the CALHOUN and HAMILTON famillies so extensively gathered by the research group herein referred to. She is entitled to unstinted praise by compiler and others who may read this book for her great enrichment of its contents. C-2-5- William CALHOUN,p.22. ,is here presented as youngest ch. of James and Nancy (LONG) CALHOUN,C-2,p.20 James being killed in Cherokee Indian massacre of Long Cane Creek Settlers in Abbeville District,S.C. Feb.1,1760 .Some of the confirmation of this relationship follows: An ancient genealogical manuscript of .ancestry and descent of Calhouns,first settlers on Long Cane Creek in old Granville county(later Abbeville Distict,now Abbeville county) S.C. compiled by Gen. Joseph HUTTON,C-4-10,pp. 59- husband of Agnes Nancy CALHOUN,b. in Long Cane Settlement Aug.29, 1773 records this William CALHOUN as son of "James CALHOUN killed in Indian massacre of Feb.1,1760"; a positive statement by Mrs. Robert Childs (Emma Rebecca TURNER)CALHOUN, who was b.May 23,1852,d. Jan.20,1916 who lived near Ninety-Six,S.C. that this William Calhoun,C-2-5-p.,22 was a brother of Patrick CALHOUN,Jr.,known as "Little Patrick" and that they had an only sister,Catherine CALHOUN,C-2-4, p. who m. her cousin,Col. Joseph CALHOUN,C-4-1,pp.59- and two other brothers,whose names were not remembered. This statement was made to Mrs.W.L.(Sarah Rebecca CALHOUN) WILLIAMSON ,C-2-5-18-3-2,pp. 35 This statement included the reference to Patrick CALHOUN,Jr.C-2-1,pp.22-7 as the one who married Sarah McKINLEY in which this Sarah Rebecca CALHOUN(Mrs. Williamson) was advised by this her own grandmother that this William CALHOUN,C-2-5,p.22 belonged in Mrs.Williamson Calhoun ancestry as her great-great-grandfather,who was youngest of five orphans left by James CALHOUN,C-2,pp .20,when killed in Indian massacre there Feb.1,1760 consisting of four sons and an only daughter, Catherine,as aforesaid. The information from HUTTON'S manuscript comes from a person, who wrote:"I was fortunate enough to see a copy of the manuscript on the South Carolina Calhouns written by Gen.Joseph HUTTON,which gives the family of the brother,James CALHOUN,born about 1716, killed in the Indian massacre in 1760,said to have married Nancy LONG, a sister of William CALHOUN'S wife,C-4,pp.58-64 Issue:1-Patrick,Jr.,known as ("Little Pat"),2-James 3-Ezekiel, 4-Catherine, 5-William . 322,367(a),476(53) (a-e-,g,k,o)

This William CALHOUN,C-2-5,p. 22 ,is recorded in the 1790 U.S. Census of Abbeville District,S.C. as"William CALHOUN, Jr.",head of a family of : males,1,over 16 years,2,under 16, 2 females and 1 slave..As "William CALHOUN" joined his mother,"Nancy CALHOUN,Sr.',C-2,p.20-48,(Nancy LONG) Oct. 21,1793 in Abbeville District,S.C. in witnessing will of John MATTHEWS recorded there May 25,1794.

A tradition has been handed down through Judge Frank McGOWAN of Laurens District, S.C. that his wife, Motte CALHOUN, was a descendant of this William CALHOUN,C-2-5,pp.29-48. and that this William was 9 years old when his father, James was killed in the 1760 Indian massacre in Abbeville District,S.C.,which would fix the year of birth of this William as 1751 before his parents left Augusta(now Wythe) county,Virginia. This William CALHOUN m, about 1787 Loraine SIMS, b. 1760-65,d. Aug.1,1823,daughter of Nathan and his first wife,Agnes BULLOCK.Nathan SIMS signed will Dec.15,1802,recorded Jan.20,1803 in Abbeville District,S.C. in which he made bequests to:"wife,Mary ",to:Ch."Pamelia GRIFFIN,Leorana CALHOUN,Sarah SMITH,Susannah BOND,Agnes SMITH,Downs,Martim, John,George,Starling,Leonard and William SIMS." and named as executors, "sons,Martin,John and Leonard SIMS " bond in amount of $5,000. This SIMS family "seems to have been large in old Lunnenburg and Hanover counties,Virginia before moving to Granville county,N.C. and from there to Coronaca,S.C. Ch.(or William and Loraine (Leorana, Loraney?)(SIMS) CALHOUN b. S.C.:1-Boyd, 1788,d.unm.Jan.11,1809,2-Nathan,July 18,1790,3-Leonard, 1794?, 4-Downs,April 20, 1796, 5-Sarah, 1800, 6-John, 1802,7-Agnes, 1804? ,8-Permelia ("Milly"), 1806,9- William,Jr.,Sept.18,1812,d. Nov.29,1844.

From Bible record of parents of this family the following five children survived both parents: Nathan,Leonard, Downs,Sarah and William CALHOUN,Jr.,their relationship as "son" or "daughter" being recorded in the handwriting other than either of their parents. Some researchers into this family have inferred that "son,John and Leonard CALHOUN were one and the same person. John CALHOUN's death is recorded as occurring April 1,1837. Leonard is not found in father's will.Note above that the mother of William's family,Loraine SIMS) CALHOUN had a brother ,"Leonard SIMS ".

This William CALHOUN signed will July 12,1833,recorded in Abbeville District,S.C. Oct. 16,1833 naming as executor,"son,Nathan CALHOUN"and making bequest to Nathan of $1,269."and to:"son,Downs CALHOUN, $1,600.00.James A WARE signed as surety for Nathan,executor a bond of $40,000.The will disposed of 43 slaves. William will further named ch.:William,Agnes and John CALHOUN" and "daughters,Sarah FOOSHE and Permelia ("Milly") McCRADY.William CALHOUN,Sr.d. Abbeville District,S.C. Sept.19,1833.William and Loraine (SIMS)CALHOUN have inscribed grave stones standing in Methodist Church cemetery in Coronaca, S.C.,adjoinin graves marked :"Hugh CALHOUN ,d. 1799" and "Hugh Sims CALHOUN ".As William's will does not mention his wife,Loraine,it is assumed that she was dead when it was dated July 12,1833.45(i), 152 pp.52,300,327(c),476(51)(a),(53)(a,c,d,m),(87)(a,c C-2-5-2- Nathan CALHOUN joined J.W.H.JOHNSON as sureties on bond of his brother,Downs CALHOUN,C-2-5-4,in amount of $16,000 as executor of the will of Johnathan JOHNSON,signed Feb.27,1847,recorded Abbeville District,S.C.Nov.2,1847, where deceased had lived,some of the land disposed of in his will lying in Cherokee county,Alabama. Nathan CALHOUN qualified in Abbeville District .as administrator of estate of George W. CALHOUN Jan.1,1855 giving sureties in the amount of $25,000 with James W. RICHARDSON and John W. CALHOUN on that bond,George W. CALHOUN, deceased, left no wife,nor children. .Nathan made settlement therein Jan.17,1859 mentioning seven distributees of George W. "The Stollenwercks were next in Island of Dominique, the French portion of which was about the size of Maryland and became the "sugar bowl" of Europe.They settled in 1771 in La Cap ("The Cape"),HAITI,where they traded as merchants from a store supplying ocean-sailing vessels,producing coffee and indigo on Pierre Hubert STOLLENWERCK'S plantation on Champaigne River in Upper Plaissance, a parish to the north,one of the most important in HAITI. He made and lost two fortunes there. In the end slavery caused the destruction of the Fench regime,brining unspeakable suffering to both white and black,there being 11 slaves to one white man.

Pierre Hubert STOLLENWERCK m. Therese GOSSELIN of Blaye,near Bordeaux ,FRANCE.Following the insurrection of slaves in HAITI,the Stollenwercks were refugees to Philadelphia,Pennsylvania in 1793. Theresa d. of exhaustion from privation and horror of thsir flight.voyage in the great plague of yellow fever in Philadelphia and the broken-hearted husband had to hollow out the earth with his bare hands a grave for Theresa's corps. He was put in charge of French soldiers billetted in Philadelphia.

The Stollsnwsrcks came to Alabama about 1819 and joined the Vine and Olive Colony associating themselves with the French refugees who had settled on the Tombigbee River in present Marengo oounty,-following the downfall of Napoleon. The Colony failed but the Stollenwercks learned to grow cotton.Pierre Hubert STOLLENWERCK d.in Philadelphia in 1817. 476(87)(c)

Alan Talifero CALHOUN,b.Nov.18,1916,graduate of Harvard College, mwmber of Midwest Stock Exchange,opearting with private leased wires from his office at 130 Morgan Square,Spartanburg,South Carolina.,in stocks,bonds and mutual funds.Ch.1-Margaret Erskine, ,2-Julia Warren, ,3-Amelia Nickels, ,4-Patrick Talifero,April 24, 1954, namesake of Patrick Rice TALIFERO,grandson of Rev. Robert Rose TALIFERO and wife,Elizabeth ,descendants of "King" CARTER of Virginia and of Robert TALIFERO .476 (Photographs of Amelia Todd and Alan Talifero p.42)(87)(c)

Alan Talifero CALHOUN was son of Julian and wife,, Julia Gilbert JONES, 1890,son of Clinton Flowers CALHOUN ,Sr.and wife,Mary Hays (WARREN),daughter of Dr.William Baker and wife,Mary Savannah (HAYS). Clinton Flowers CALHOUN,Sr.was son of James Young,Jr.and wife, Jeanette Elizabeth (FLOWERS),daughter of William Wallace and Jeanette Bryan (GOLDING),son of James Young CALHOUN,Sr.and wife,Cynthia Watson (BROWN) of Barnwell District,South Carolina,daughter of Bartlett and wife,Patience (OVERSTREET) BROWN. James Young CALHOUN,Sr.d.1826,son of Dixon

ALAN TALIFERO CALHOUN and wife AMELIA TODD NICKELS

CALHOUN, b.about 1765,d.1824,received a land grant of 79 acres lying in Barnwell District,South Carolina in 1790 from the Colony of South Carolina in name of "Dickson CAL HOUN ". who m. Rebecca YOUNG,sister of Sarah, wife of Micajah CALHOUN,3 ,p. Dixon("Dickson") CALHOUN was son of Micajah CALHOUN,Sr. of Edgecombe and Bladen counties,North Carolina,son of John CALHOUN ,who with his brother,James CALHOUN,came to Edgecombe county,N.C. in early 1760s apparently with Thomas DIXON, who signed will recorded in Edgecombe county in 1790,bequeathing his estate to:"sons,William,Thomas and Hickman DIXON", to:"daughters,Jemima BOHOON (here assumed to have been written to mean :"Jemima (DIXON) CALHOUN").

Micajah CALHOUN is recorded in the 1790 U.S. Census of Orangeburg District,South Carolina as head of a family consisting of 7 males over 16 years old, 2,under 16 and 2 females..

Other Calhouns descended from John and James,the first Calhouns found recorded in North Carolina,as above,,who,if not immigrants there direct from Luss,Dumbartonshire or Loch Lomond region of SCOTLAND,or from counties in the North of Ireland,especially,Londonderry,Donegal,Tyrone,Antrim , Downs or other neighboring North Ireland counties,include the following found in Bladen county,North Carolina in the 1780s:John "CAHOON", John "CAHOON",Jr.;William "CAHOON",Micajah "CAHOON" and James "CAHOON".

Traditions preserved in this branch of North Carolina-South Carolina or other early American colonists Calhouns date as far back as 1790 say that Micajah CALHOUN and wife, Jemima (DIXON) were the parents of the first Calhouns to settle in Barnwell District,South Carolina,from whom Julian CALHOUN and wife, Julia Gilbert (JONES),parents of Alan Talifero CALHOUN trace descent to Julian CALHOUN.Within the past two decades at most the 40 years Calhoun genealogical research by Dr. John Charles CALHOUN,M.D.,of Pittsburgh,Pa. before ,or since the latters death,almost by chance came to the attention of Julian CALHOUN.Among such of it as he was privileged to learn was much of the descent of Patrick CALHOUN and wife,Catherine (MONTGOMERY) ,founders of the numerous and illustrious CALHOUN families of South Carolina families first seated principally in "old Ninety-Six" and Abbeville District.Of especial interest to him was Calhoun genealogical manuscript prepared there by Gen. James HUTTON, whos wife was a granddaughter of said Patrick and Cahterine (MONTGOMERY) CALHOUN. With the interest created from the Calhoun collection ,or the parts thereof,seen by Julian CALHOUN and wife, and otherwise they toured ,Scotland and North of Ireland for a considerable search for earlier traces there,than they knew of previously for Colquhoun,Colhoun,CALHOUN ancestry ,including his own.They found ,and purchased a rare copy of an edition of 150 printed copies of a much earlier Colquhoun ancestry. From this and much gathered of early Colquhouns of SCOTLAND, the table of Colquhoun,Colhoun,Cahoon and CALHOUN and the CALHOUN,Colhoun ,Colquohoun APPENDIX herein ,pp.78- has been much extended and enriched. Grateful acknowledgement of the results of Julan CALHOUN'S planned pilgrimage to Scotland,Ireland or other probable European sources of CALHOUN genealogical data is due and is made for his conception of the project, his energy, courage and devotion to this project.His son, Alan Talifero CALHOUN took up the work his parents had so auspiciously begun and soon organized a group of about 10 Calhoun descendants who were anxious to gather,organize by connecting relatives in to "trees" of genealogy,and their several "branches and consolidate into the most comprehensive COLQUHOUN,COLHOUN,CALHOUN genealogical book yet reasonably possible to circulate.This group has for many years cooperated whole-heartly each with the others in exchanging much rare data,not earlier know to many to be yet preserved. Compiler learned of his own connection to this ancient Colquhoun,COLHOUN,CALHOUN family about the end of 1952,and being stationed then for 17 years in Washington,D.C.,working intensively with his wife in utilizing the facilities found only in Washington, for the latter 13 of these years in gathering and publishing genealogies of more than 100000 people,-in 3 large copyrighted volumes and a great cooperation to fourth such book,published and copyrighted by another in 1949.Alan Talifero CALHOUN was mutually recognized by others of the organized group as the spear head or leader for coordinating the united group's activities .He had consolidated all their incoming data into a whole , and generously volunteered to have the whole typed in several carbon copies,- a considerable expense, and provided compiler a copy, which being used herein, was, by compiler,released to others of the original group. He and all his group have generously continued cooperation assured by compiler that he would dedicate the years spared him since 1952 to putting all of their material into a bound and fully indexed book ,at his own expense ,of considerable volume,including as its first section all Colquhoun,Colhoun ,Calhoun genealogical data available, and make the volumes available at lowest non-profit price possible,preserving the negatives for a second edition in demand seems to justify.

Grateful acknowledgement of the high worth of Alan Talifero CALHOUN'S indispensable services in bringing this publication on its way to general circulation,is here expressed by compiler.

C-2-5-6-2-2- Martha ("Mattie") Jane WARE was sent to her grandmother,Agnes (GRIFFIH) CALHOUN,C-2-5-6,p.44 at Ninety Six,S.C. to attend school,living one-fourth mile from Siloam Batpist Church where most of this group of Calhouns maontained membership for several generations,that church building having been erected in 1833,much of the material put in it then being taken from old Cambridge Presbyterian Church erected before the Revolution at old Cambridge or Ninety Six,S.C. where the Star fort was located, Nathan CALHOUN,C.2-5-2,pp. and brother ,John CALHOUN, C-2-5-6-,p.44 ,being members of the rebuilding Committee at Siloan site. Martha Jane WARE being the only daughter,remained with her widowed grandmother,Agnes ,most of her youn life until 18 years old, when by Secession and resulting War of 1861-65,she went to Georgia to live with her parents and never returned to S.C.,but often wrote her mother's people there. She m. in Macon county,Alabama Aug.4,1864 Marshall Lafayette ("Fate") SHARP of Waverly,Alabama,who had been wounded while serving as a Confederate soldier,-in Battle of the Wilderness in Virginia and had come home and while convalescing there married and lived in Tallapoosa county, Alabama until after the close of the war,when they followed his parents' families to Leake county,Mississippi where they had settled in about 1856 and lived near them. After her life of comparative luxury in South Carolina,the favorite of her uncles,George Washington ("Watt"),C-2-5-6-5,pp. 44, and Leonard Lewis, CALHOUN,C-2-5-6-4,p.44, life became hard for her in rural sections of Georgia,Alabama and Missisippi.

As a girl during that war she had attempted a trip from Opelika,Ala. to Misissippi,first on train to Montgomery Ala.,thence by steamboat to Moblie,Ala. to encounter Federal gunboats in the besiging the city. She took another steamboat up the Tombigbee River to Columbus,Miss ,crossed over by carriage to West Point,Missssissippi where she boarded a Mobile & Ohio Railroad train to Meridian,Mississippi,where she transferred over the A.& V. railway to Forest,Mississippi and there took a stage coach to Hillsboro,which had the year before been burned to the ground by General Sherman's raiders.There she was met by a brother-in-law and rode 20 miles more by horseback to meet her husband at his mother's home at Good Hope,Leake county,Mississippi.In later life she travelled often between Opelika,Alabama and West Texas,crossing ing the Mississippi River by ferry at Vicksburg,Mississippi 22 times by ferry and twice over the bridge,which superseded the river ferry there. She lived with her children and visited her brothers' families until 1915 when she took up permanent residence with her son,Robert H. SHARP,whose wife had d. leaving three minor children to rear.She continued active in this son's home as housekeeper until three months before her death at Vernon,Texas,Sept.14,1929,age 87 years. C-3- EZEKIEL CALHOUN, p 10, immigrant from Donegal county, North of Ireland in 1733 to Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, Augusta (now Wythe) county, Virginia and to Granville (later Abbeville Dist., now Abbeville county, South carolina is recorded as second son of parents, Patrick CALHOUN and wife, Catherine (MONTGOMERY), so stated in a letter of his nephew, Hon. John Caldwell CALHOUN, C-4-6, p.67-74 South Carolina statesman. Reference is here made to the biographies of Ezekiel's older brother, James, C-2, p.20-48 and sister, Mary Catherine? (CALHOUN) NOBLE, C-1, p.11-20 for asciation and other transactions in which both participated, which are not here repeated. Ezekiel was appointed Nov .19, 1746 in Augusta (now Greenbrier county, W.Va.), Virginia as overseer of working of the road from Reed's Creek via Eagle Bottom to top of ridge dividing the waters of North Fork of Roanoke and Woods (now New) Rivers, continuing past homes of William HAMILTON, Robert NORRIS and others. A road was authorized May 25,1750 in Augusta county, Virginia from "Ezekiel CALHOUN'S to Woods River (since called "New River "; movwith his family and families of his mother, sister and three brothers from Augusta (now Wythe) county, Virginia in January 1756 to Long Cane Creek, in Prince William's Parish, Granville county (since Abbeville District, now Abbeville county, South Carolina, arriving there in February 1756, where he had survey of 350 acres of land as his homestead July 11,1756 to which he hadded an additional 350 acres, surveyed for him July 11,1758. He there soon "took up the eart of healing ,-'doctoring ' ailing people in that vicinity, to the best of his ability, his son, Dr. John Ewing CALHOUN, M.D., succeeded to his father's interest in medicine and surgery. Ezekiel CALHOUN was in, and escaped death in the Cherokee Indian massacree inflisting on the "Calhoun Settlment " Colony there Feb.1,1760, after which he abandoned their settlement, taking refuge for his family at Waxhaws, S.C. for the better protection from Indians that earlier settlement afforded, but soon returned to his own lands first settled, m. about 1742, while a resident at Chesnut "Level", Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, by or soon after the death of his father Partick CALHOUN, C., pp.   Jean ("Jane" EWING of NEW JERSEY. The origin of the EWING family is near Glasgow and Loch Lomond, SCOTLAND, who had been described as " that long descended race, that loyal and patient people of deep piety, essentially inspirers of men, have magnetic manners, intense earnestness, boundless energy and enthusiasm .". Their reason for departing from SCOTLAND has been described: "In 1605 two Earls Of Ulster, North of IRELAND, who claimed title to that land, were,-under the law, suspects in a plot which James, I, regarded as seditious. They escaped to FRANCE. The King declared their lands escheated to the Crown. The Irish people there were ejected and fled to the mountains. Scotch and English Protestants were induced to accept the escheated lands. Thirty [illegible] thousand emigrants moved there from SCOTLAND between 16[illegible] and 1618 "* * * " those Scots were of the best blood [illegible]. John Ewing CALHOUN, C-3-3, p.56-7, oldest son of Ezekiel an Jane ("Jean") (EWING) CALHOUN sold the lands in Augusta county, Virginia patented or acquired there while Ezekiel remained a resident there after Ezekiel's death, as did his cousin, Patrick CALHOUN, Jr. C-2-1, pp.64-75 also acquired there by his father, James CALHOUN, C-2, pp. Patrick, Jr. also being oldest son. SEE note as to Patrick Jr. taking his Virginia lands under the English law of inheritance,-"primogeniture",-("oldest son") which English law, in effect in Virginia may have prevailed in favor of Ezekiel's son, John Ewing CALHOUN, that land being under the jurisidiction of the Colonial Courts then ruling in Virginia against the S.C. will of Ezekiel directing that John Ewing's two brothers sharing "equally" with John Ewing in Ezekiel's Virginia lands. Even so, John Ewing CALHOUN may have shared the proceeds from the sale of his father, Ezekiel CALHOUN'S lands in Virginia, although he under such English law of "primogeniture " could and might have made a good title to the purchaser without his brothers joining him in signing the deed ,which was made Sept-26,1771 and recorded in Augusta county, Virginia, 15 years after Ezekiel's precipitate flight with his family his mother, brother Patrick, Esq. and families of his brothers, James and William CALHOUN. In the year 1761 he served as a volunteer with Generals Moultrie and Marion,in a bloody but successful expedition,under Lt.-Col.GRANT, a British officer,sent by Gen.Amherst to command against the Cherokee Indians.After the termination of that war he removed to the Long Cane Settlement in Granville county(later Ninety-Six and Abbeville District,-now Abbeville county,South Carolina where in 1768 he built a block house on Long Cane Creek. He owned all the land about the fort where the present town of Abbeville ,S.C. now stands,some of which he sold to his friend, and companion officer in the Revolution, Major ANDREW HAMILTON, H-1-3, p.138. SEE the latter's biographical sketch ,pp. 138 to 143 for a narrative of many of their Revolutionary activities together,not repeated here.

This ANDREW PICKENS signed Jan.2,1769 in Court of Ordinary of Abbeville District,South Carolinaa a pleading in administration of the estate of Robert NORRIS,deceased.

"ANDREW PICKENS (1739-1817) was captain of the South Carolina Militia in 1775 and led a partisan corps when the British overram South Carolina. With 400 men he defended he defended against a superior force in the battle of Kettle Creek "Many South Carolina Colonist gave their parole  to save their property from British confiscation and their families from British insult.Gen.ANDREW PICKENS and Col.Isaac HAYNE did the same thing but broke their paroles,because the British first broke their part of the agreement to provide protection asured the Colonies as a condition of paroles granted by the British.

HAYNE was hanged for it, and PICKENS doubtless would have been if captured. The amercement was a sort of direct tax on such estates as had been protected."

Gen ANDREW PICKENS' letter from "Camp,Enoree River,S. C." dated April 8,1781 contained:"Col. CLARKE of Georgia retreated from Long Cane Settlement,S.C. after March 23, 1781". Pickens had"a smart action with Major DUNLAP commanding about 90 men of cavalry and infantry which he won. Gen. PICKENS ,was wounded supporting Gen.GREENE at Eutaw Springs,S.C. Sept.8,1781 of which Gen. GREENE wrote "The militia under Marion,Pickens and Malendy did honor to this class of soldiers." .Pickens served in campaign against Cherokee Indians in 1782.South Carolina,Georgia, Alabmaa and other States named counties in his honor.He was candidate for United States Senator from South Carolina as a Federalist in the South Carolina Legislature Dec. 6,1798 but lost by a vote of 63 to 79 to Charles Pinckney, Republican (Democrat.General PICKENS had settled early in old Pendleton District,South Carolina on a fine body of land on Seneca River in view of present Cherry Bridge over it. He became one of the first elders of the Hopewell-Keowee Presbyterian Church,organized, first,in 1789,built, first,of logs in 1790 rebuilt of stone in 1800,which became famous as the "Old Stone Church of Pendleton,South Carolina" the first pastor being Rev Thomas REESE,D.D.the church being located on the north side of the road about 40 rods east of the late Ezekiel PICKENS'residence.

General Pickens individually provided the pulpit and seats.He and his son, Governor Ezekiel PICKENS graves are within brick inclosures in that church cemetery.

At the close of the Revolutionary War all of the territory embraced in the present counties of Greenville,Anderson,Oconee and Pickens counties,South Carolina belonged to the Cherokee Indians,although embaraced within the State's lines. All this territory except the extreme upper portion of Oconee and Pickens counties,S.C. was ceded to the State by the Cherokee Indians shortly after the close of the Revolution,-by a treaty negotiated by Gen. ANDREW PICKENS near his home on Seneca River. Tradition points out a large oak tree near the banks of Seneca River,under which Gen.PICKENS met the Cherokee chiefs and made with them the treaty by which the State secured the exclusive possession of this territory.

By the Act of March 16,1783 commissioners were appointed to divide the six judicial districts into counties of not more than 40 miles square for the purpose of establishing county courts. Andrew PICKENS, Richard ANDERSON,Thomas BRANDON,Levi KEYSEY,Philemon WATERS,Arthur SIMPKINS and Simon BERWICK were appointed commissioners to divide the District of Ninety Six. By the Act of 1785 the District of Ninety Six was divided into the counties of Abbeville, Edgefield,Newberry,Laurens,Union and Spartanburg." The National Congress voted Gen. ANDREW PICKENS a sword inscribed:"Congress to Col Pickens,March 9,1781,Cowpens,Jan.17th" which sword his great grandson,Col. S.B. PICKENS wore in the military parade at the Cowpens Centennial in 1881 and later was in the keeping of the widow of Gov.Francis Wilkinson PICKENS *** "

" Col. Andrew PICKENS was member of South Carolina Legislature and afterwards of the Convention which formed the South Carolina Constitution;elected a member under the new Constitution until 1794,when he was elected member of the Third U,S, Congress then meeting in Philadelphia.A horseback round trip every year.

By the Act of 1789 the new counties of Pendleton and Greenville counties,South Carolina were allowed representation in the Legislature. At the same session commissioners were appointed to locate a Court House for the county of Pendleton.The commissioners were ANDREW PICKENS,John WILSON,Benjamin CLEVELAND,William HALBERT,Henry CLARK, John MOFFATT and Robert ANDERSON.On the 10th.day of May, 1790 the first quarterly court was held in the new Court House. Among the petit jurors drawn for the same date were: Hamilton MONTGOMERY and William LEWIS.

By the Act of 1791 Gen.ANDREW PICKENS and Col. Robert ANDERSON were appointe to purchase land and superintend the building of a Court House and jail for the District of Washington.

By the Act of 1792 it was enacted that the village in Pendleton county where the court house and jail of Washington District have been located shall be called Pickensville,so named in honor of General PICKENS..." His mountain home,"Tamassse", where he died is in Oconee county, South Carolina. A description preserved of him departing from home to attend the Congress sitting in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1794 reads,inpart :"of martial figure and dignified demeanor,mounted on a spirited milk white steed,Of pure Andalusian breed, whip in hand and holster filled with a brace of pistols,the silver mountings of which gleamed in the sunlight, a three-cornered hat,from beneath which grows the silvery gray hair,put smoothly back and tied in a queu;an undress military coat,ruffled shirt and small clothes and fair top boots,with massive silver spur * * *."

"In addition to immigrants from the low country many other people from various sections of the State,-many of them wealthy,also came to Pendleton,to secure the benefit to be derived there,in many ways. Among them were the Calhouns,Adams,Earles,Harrisons,PICKENS,Andersons,Taliferros,Lewis,Maxwell,Seaborns,Symmes,Kilpatricks,Rosses,Warleys,Lattas,Shanklins,Dicksons,Sloans,Smiths,Taylors,Bensons,Mavericks,Van Dycks,Whitmers,Reeses,Cherrys,Simpsons, Hunters,Clemsons,Willers,Gilmans and Sittons.

C-3-2-8-1-9- Eugenia Frances Dorothea ("Douschka") PICKENS " was a dashing young woman had gorgeous red hair"; was active outdoors; enjoyed horseback riding as she grew to womanhood. Her leadership and skill as a rider was made impressive during the tenseness from military occupation of Edgefield, South Carolina by Federal troops during Reconstruction days, when she led out of darkness into the streets of Edgefield, S. C. 1500 of Gen.Wade HAMPTON'S "Red Shirts" vigilantes to disperse an uprising of ex-slaves who were being misguided as to the mutual welfare of all races of people who had to live together there. This was the beginning of the removal of Federal troops patrol and the retoration of rule to the white people of the Confederacy. A daily newspaper in South Carolina characterized her ride : " as inspiting as Joan of Arc leading her victorious soldiers into battle." She later visited kin in Asheville, North Carolina traveling by six to eight horse stages through the mountains. On approaching Asheville she mounted the driver's seat and requested that she be permitted to drive and showed her skill in controling as many horses as a Western stage driver.

Eugenia Frances Dorothea ("Douschka") PICKENS' maternal ancestry is carried back to county Devon ,ENGLAND before Oct.12, 1680, through her immigrant ancestor, William HOLCOMBE, who was seated before this early date in Northumberland (now New Kent) county, Virginia through "Douschka" mother, Lucy Pettway (HOLCOMBE) PICKENS, C-3-2-8-1, pp.53-55. Lucy Pettway HOLCOMBE b. "Woodstock", seat of her parents, near LaGrange, Fayette county, Tennesse ,Jan.11, 1832, d. at her husband's seat, "Edgewood", Edgefield county, South Carolina, where she is buried. At the age 17 years she was the composer of a published poem: "The Free Flag of Cuba "As guest in the home of Governor QUITMAN of MISSISSIPPI she "looked in " on a Session of the Mississippi Legislature. On her departure the Legislature adjourned to accompany her to the State line. The following quotation is offered as typical of her:" a radiant maiden,blue-eyed,of fair hair and lithe frame'.She attached as a condition of her acceptance of Senator PICKENS' proposal of marriage that he obtain appointment as Ambassador to RUSSIA,which he succedded in getting and thereupon they were married. She applied herself to study of French and Russian languages and preparation of a suitably elaborate wardrobe in anticipation of her marriage and stay in Russia.When they arrived at and settled in St.Petersburg,RUSSIA:"Her beauty and cleverness made her a favorite. The Czar sought a dance with her and had her features carved in marble ".During and since the War between the States ,1861-1865 she was widely publicized in print in the Confederate States. Before her marriage she was credited with another literary publication ,entitled:"The Yellow Rose of Texas."476(81). She was daughter of Beverley Lafayette HOLCOMBE,b.Prince Edward county,Virginia,d. at his seat,"Wyachuling",Marshall, Texas, and wife,Eugenia Dorothea (HUNT),b.near Petersburg, Dinwiddie county,Virginia in 1811,d. Fayette county,Tennessee 183_ ,daughter of Thomas,"gentleman" of Mecklenburg county, and wife,Sarah (CLARK), daughter of Captain James of the English Navy,and wife,Henrietta Maria (HARDEMAN),b.Paris, FRANCE about 1730 daughter of John and wife,Henrietta Maria (TAYLOR). John was son of Baron, Von HARDEMAN,a Russian officer of State. Henrietta Maria TAYLOR was daughter of John of Flowendraj, reputed to have been maid of honor at the Court of Austria and of the Royal House of Hapsburg,and related to Marie Antoinnette,Queen of FRANCE.

Major Philemon HOLCOMBE,III, was son of Philemon HOLCOMBE,II,sometimes recorded as "James Philemon HOLCOMBE" b. in King & Queen county,Virginia in 1720,d.at his seat, "The Oaks "in Prince Edward(formerly Amelia) county,Virginia where he,his wife and many of their descendants are buried in a family burying ground,where descendants not many years ago enclosed the whole within stone and brick walls as a more permanent protection to the many inscribed tombstones still preserved are standing. He served as Captain of the Virginia militia in 1755 conveying drafted soldiers to Fredericksburg. He m. after June 19,1744 Ann or A na Eliza WALTHALL,b.Bristol Parish,Virginia,Oct.25, 1721,d. Ann(WALTHALL) HOLCOMBE had a brother,Henry WALTHALL,b.Bristol Parish,Virginia , March 16,1733,who by will dated March 21,1801 bequeathed his estate to "nephews,John Philemon and Walthall HOLCOMBE"

Captain Philemon ("James Philemon") Holcombe was son of John HOLCOMBE of King and Queen and Prince William counties,Virginia ,b.New Kent county,Virginia about 1690 to 1695,who d. in King & Quuen or Brunswick county,Virginia , m. by about 1711 Elizabeth GRYMES ("GRIMES") of a very prominent family of English gentry or nobility,then and for several generations later numerous there. One biographer wrote:"She was most certainly a daughter of John GRYMES son of Lt.Gen.Thomas GRYMES of Cromwell's Army'this John being the first of the family to come to America."

Neither the date of death nor the place of burial of either John HOLCOMBE,or of his wife, Elizabeth GRYMES ("GRIMES") has been learned by compiler. John HOLCOMBE was son of William,b. ENGLAND,*apparently county Devon,or in Pembrokeshire ,WALES,who was seated in St.Stephens Parish, Northumberland (since New Kent) county,Virginia by Oct. 12,1680 when birth of his son,Henry HOLCOMBE, was recorded in that parish register. This William HOLCOMBE,apparently immigrant, signed as one of 66 "Inhabitants and Householders of of St.Stephens Parish,New Kent county,Virginia" to the vestry of that Parish about A.D. 1682 142(e)

C-3-3- John Ewing CALHOUN,p.49,56-7,was the first college graduate from the "Up Country" of South Carolina.392 studied law in Charles Town just previous to and during the first years of the Revolution and was admitted to the bar in 1783;joined Captain Charles Drayton's Company of volunteer militia for services in the Revolution at its organization in Charles Town, Aug.16,1775 signing his name to the roll thereof as "John Ewing CALHONE ";adopted the spelling og his surname as "COLHOUN" and maintained that spelling until his death; served several terms in the House of Representatives of South Carolina between 1778 and 1800; served as Ordinary (Probate Judge) of Abbeville District,South Carolina in 1782 continuing in that office until he resigned just prior to January 20,1786;was strongly supported for Governor of South Carolina in 1796; was elected Dec.8,1800 U.S. Senator for South Carolina for the full term of the 7th.Congress,beginning March 4, 1801 defeating READ, the incumbent by a voted of 75 to 73. He was elected member of the Privy Council of South Carolina in 1785 ,also served as Commissioner of forfeited estates. He had attained wealth and distinction in the lowlands of South Carolina,partly through his marriage Oct.8, 1786 to Floride BONNEAU,who inherited from her Huguenot family a plantation on Cooper River,bringing John Ewing and Floride a modest fortune,which because of his objection to the lowland customs of marriage settlements,was put under his control. This property when added to his own patrimony and savings made CALHOUN financially independent. though nine children kept a degree of frugality expedient. He enlarged his holdings and in 1825 established a commodious plantation homestead in his native District,Pendleton, South Carolina,-in a fortified spot,-in the days of Indian which he named"Fort Hill",still standing on what is now the campus of Clemson College, South Carolina.

Floride (BONNEAU) CALHOUN and her sister,Elizabeth, are named as "daughters " in the will of Samuel BONNEAU, signed in 1788,who d. in South Carolina in 1788, ,being of his first marriage Dec.4,1748 to Frances de LONGUEMARE, Samuel being a second or third generation descendant of Antoine BONNEAU and wife,Catherine DuBLISS of LaROCHE , FRANCE,who were Huguenot refugees to South Carolina in 1685, whose sons,Antoine,Jr. and Jean Henri,were born in FRANCE,their younger son,Jacob,being born in South Carolina. Floride (BONNEAU) as the widow of U.S.Senator,John Ewing COLHOUN,C-3-3,p.56-settled at"Cold Springs",a plantation adjoining "Clergy Hall", or "Fort Hill", a place which later was the home of J.W. CRAWFORD. She continued the practice common among the "grandees" of the "rice coast " of South Carolina of spending Summers at Newport,, Rhode Island and the winters in Charleston,South Carolina, at the Pendleton plantation. 443

C-3-7- Patrick CALHOUN,p.49 ,was published in 1904 as son of Ezekiel, immigrant, C-3,p. 140(f)

C-4- William Calhoun,p.10 , is identified as next to the youngest of 4 sons of parents,PATRICK CALHOUN,p. and wife, Catherine (MONTGOMERY),immigrants from Donegal county,North of IRELAND to Lancaster county,Pennsylvania in 1733,all of whose 5 children accompanying them were born in North of IRELAND. Much of the events in which this WILLIAM CALHOUN participated with his parents' family in American Colonies,Pennsylvania, in Augusta county,Virginia and Granville county.originally in Old "Ninety Six" or Abbeville District,now Abbeville county,South Carolina will not be repeated Williams biographical sketch here,as much of it appears in such sketches writtn on previous pages of this book in the biographical sketches of his parents, his sister,Mary Catherine (CALHOUN) NOBLE and her husband,John NOBLE,C-1,pp. 11-20, of William's older brothers,James CALHOUN,C-2,pp. ,Ezekiel CALHOUN, C-3,pp. 49-58, and some of this William CALHOUN'S activities may appear on subsequent pages containing biography of William's younger brother,Patrick CALHOUN,Esq.,C-5,pp. 64-75 as all the children of their parents,Patrick CALHOUN and wife, Catherine (MONTGOMERY) came together in same ship across Atlantic Ocean.,moved together and lived each as neighbors to all the others in Pennsylvania,Vigինia and South Carolina until all died. Their descent is approximately six-seventh of all CALHOUNS decended from Colquhoun,Colhoun,Calhoun European ancestry,-principally from SCOTLAND to the North of IRELAND and thence to the American Colonies and States of the Amrican Union in pioneer periods, and who,like ,Patrick CALHOUN and wife, Catherine (MONTGOMERY) yet represented in present United States by a numerous lineage. Many immigrant CALHOUNS descent are included in APPENDIX to the section which lists the descent of Patrick and Catherine, although the lineage of many is relatively scant in comparison. None obtainable from all sponsors for collecting lineages for this book have been suspended, whether their immigrant ancestor was learned or not,-if the apparent head of the lineage was found seated as a pioneer in any of the present American States.

Such items of the activity of only this son,WILLIAM CALHOUN,whether in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania, in original Augusta county,Virginia, -or the part thereof which became Wythe county,Virginia ,or on waters of "Long Cane Creek" or elsewhere in original Prince William's Parish of original Granville county,-since part of "Old Ninty-Six" and Abbeville District(now Abbeville county,South Carolina are here next listed:"appointed Nov.9,1746 to work on road from Reed's Creek via Eagle Bottom to top of the ridge dividing the waters of Hoods (or New) River, and North Fork of Roanoke River"; had" survey March 25,1748 for 335 acres on Reed's Creek,part of 100,000 acres ordered by Council for James PATTON,Robert SLAUGHTER and other Lord Proprietors"; is named as "an abutting land owner in a deed dated June 3, 1752 signed by John VANCE to Robert MILLER as his boundary on"WILLIAM CALHOUN'S Meadow Run, a branch of Reed's Creek".

William CALHOUN and 1 or more of his brothers left land owned in original Augusta (now Wythe) county,Virginia when they fled through winter weather with their families and personal property to Long Cane Creek in Granville county South Carolina through January into February 1756 to avoid expected Indian attacks. A diary kept by William of a return trip by horseback alone from Long Cane Creek to Wythe county Virginia,apparently to sell his land and settle any unfinished business left there has been preserved and is here quoted as a "log" of that round trip during which he consumed "three months and nine days".It reads:"Journal of William CALHOUN.' Set from home,Dec.20,1762;came to Hard Labor Creek a branch of Little River on 22nd.;over Broad River 23rd.to Rocky Creek where I stayed until 25th;my horse died 26th.; to Catawba River 28th.; to Archibal Crockett's 29th.;to Moses Davis' 30th.;to Twelve Mile Creek 31st. and so on to Virginia,arriving home again on Long Cane Creek,March 29th. 1763. 140(e),391.

Upon arriving on Long Cane Creek from Virginia in 1756 obtained a survey of 400 acres there July 18,1756 from the Colony of South Carolina and other surveys there later,one survey made for him March 17,1763 was described as " a plantation of 400 acres bounding northwest on William CALHOUN'S land, northeast,part on Hugh CALHOUN'S and part on vacant land  southeast 'Mill Seats"  " on a branch of Savannah River called the Northwest Fork of Long Cane Creek in Granville county,South Carolina,140(i). The following quotation from report of events in Abbeville District,South Carolina about the time of attack and massacree of Long Cane Creek settlers,Feb.1,1760:

"We have no late advice from Fort Prince George,or of any consequence from places in that route. But from Fort Moore we learn that a gang of about 18 Cherokee Indians,-divided into 3 or 4 parties on the 15th.Inst. way-laid, killed and scalped Ulrich TOLBERT,Esq., a Captain of militia in those parts as he was riding from his father's to that Fort and shot ,-in the hand Mr.William CALHOUN,who was riding with him. Three other persons who were in the company escaped. The Indians who killed Capt.TOBLER left a hatchet sticking in his neck on which were three old notches and three newly cut.". 55(d),83(a,b),134(a,b),140(j),

William CALHOUN took deed July 25,1763 (147(g) from Joseph WOODS for 550 acres on Long Cane Creek in Abbeville District,South Carolina,that creek an both forks of Calhoun Creeks there the latter emptying into Little River above Long Cane Creek and were regarded as forks of Long Cane Creek.. 147(4)

WILLIAM CALHOUN served in South Carolina's Colonial Government as Justice of the Peace in Granville county(Abbeville ,-old "Ninety Six" District,in the part thereof which is now Abbeville county,South Carolina.He kept a little journal in which he recorded accounts,notes of fines, he had imposed while serving as magistrate,marriages he had solemnized and records of his own family,one item being of his own marriage to Agnes LONG Oct.19,1749,and also recorded therein the names and dates of birth of all their ten children..It also contains many accounts of customers for credit he extended them to purchase articles sold by him from his store as a merchant covering the period 1762 to 1776 in Granville (now Abbeville) county,South Carolina, one item beaing a purchase by "William HAMILTON."

This WILLIAM CALHOUN carried heavy responsibilities from the time of the Calhouns arrival at Long Cane Creek, Prince William's Parish,Granville(now Abbeville) county South Carolina in the South Carolina militia for protecting the white settlers from attacks by Cherokee Indians.He d.before 1790 U.S. Census was recorded there,his widow,recorded as "Agnes CALHOUN",head of the family,consisting of two males over 16 years old,one under 16, 2 females and three slaves. He m. in Augusta county Virginia,Agnes LONG,b. 1733,daughter of Joseph and wife,Ann or "Anna" as named in Joseph's will dated in 1752 and recorded in Augusto county,Virginia. Agnes' older sister,"Susanna","Ann" or "Nancy" LONG,-as she was variously called,had m. some 12 years before Agnes,-in Lancaster,Cumberland or Union county,Pennsylvania JAMES CALHOUN, C-2,pp.20-48, older brother of William CALHOUN, C-4,this page, husband of Agnes(LONG) CALHOUN SEE C-2,pp. 20-to 58 inclusive. These Long sisters had a brother,John LONG, who m.Jane YOUNG and lived in Augusta county,Virginia and Hawkins (now Hamblen) county, Tennessee, John's descendants being transplanted from Hawkins county,Tennessee to Carroll and Coweta counties Georgia , Walker county,Alabama and elsewhere in a very numerous, prominent and wealthy descent.All these have preserved their family traditions of kinship to these immigrant brothers, James and William CALHOUN and respective wives,Nancy and Agnes LONG, sisters,including a tradition that these Longs were related to JEFFERSON DAVIS,President of the Confederacy,1861-1865..

This WILLIAM CALHOUN"was captured near his home,Calhoun Mills,South Carolina by Tories during the Revolution who forced him to walk in a hurry through a ford,while the Tories rode through taking him two miles away to a secluded spot to hang him ,but were overtaken by Colonists who cut him down from a water oak tree in time to save his life." For description of the tragic massacree of his mother, his brother,James,and several other members of the Calhoun family in Abbeville Distric,South Carolina Feb.1,1760 through this Patrick went and survived and for memoralization of that tragedy by Patrick CALHOUN,Esq. SEE his mother's sketch,C-,p.8- .He shared in division of the estate of his father ,Patrick CALHOUN as administered in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania from 1741-1743,by his two next older brothers, Ezekiel and William CALHOUN,Patrick then being a minor. He was called for road work duty in Augusta county ,Virginia Nov.19,1746 leading from Reed's Creek via Eagle Bottom to top of ridge dividing waters of New and North Fork of Roanoke Rivers.147(5),291(c).He had a survey of land in Augusta county,Virginia March 15,1749 for "159 acres on waters of Reed's Creek,described,in part, as "near where he lives." He kept a diary of the removal of his mother,Mrs. Patrick (Catherine (MONTOGOMERY) CALHOUN with families of her five children, a widowed daughter,and four sons from Augusta (now Wythe) county ,Virginia to Long Cane Creek,or "Calhoun Settlement" in Granville(now Abbeville) county,South Carolina where they arrived in Feb. 1756 55(d.1),134(a,b),147(5),291(c).Soon after their arrival in South Carolina this Patrick CALHOUM,Esq. was commissioned by Egerton LEIGH,Surveyor-Genral of the Colony of South Carolina as a Deputy-Surveyor and as such he proceeded to lay out to early settlers at Long Cane Creek there much acreage as homesteads to all of his Calhoun families and others. The first survey of lands there for him was Nov.7, 1756 for 200 acres. Six conveyances of land there to him were made in the early 1760s,three of which were"located on waters of Long Cane Creek and a fourth on Calhoun Creek" He was appointed by the South Carolina Assembly June 5,1764 as Captain,-without pay of a Company of Rangers to protect the "Long Cane Settlement " against incursions of Indians to consist of a commissioned officer,a sergeant and 20 men He was made Justice of the Peace for Granville county and after 1769 for Ninety Six District;at the election March 7th. and 8th.,1769 Patrick was elected to the Commons House of Assembly from Prince William Parish,Granville county and served until the next election in Oct. 1772 the first Representative from the "Up-Country" of South Carolina.He practiced law in South Carolina. At the commencement of the Revolutionary struggle in South Carolina he was sent as a Deputy to the First Provincial Congress(Jan.11 to Nov.1,1775) and a member of that body became a member of the first General Assembly (March 26 to Oct.21,1776) of the State of South Carolina,when that Congress adopted an independent constitution on March 26,1776 and resolded itself into a General Assembly. He subsequently served in almost every General Assembly until his death,being Senator at that time; was elected with James Lincoln and Andrew HAMILTON in 1791 by the General Assembly as Judges of the County Court of Abbeville (Ninety Six) District,South Carolina;is recorded as head of family in U.S. Census for Abbeville District,South Carolina in 1790 composed of three males over 16 years,4 under 16,three females and 31 slaves:built near Calhoun Mills, South Carolina the first frame house in Abbeville District in 1790,sending to England for papering for its inner walls,which were printed with English hunting scenes and named his new home there "Rossdhu" for Calhoun ancestral seat in SCOTLAND. Patrick's nephew,Joseph Calhoun had built a mill near the site of "Rossdhu". "Cub Creek is the name of a historic Presbyterian Church in Charlotte county,Virginia about twenty miles from Hampden-Sydney College, Prince Edward county,Virginia.

John CALDWELL,native of Northern IRELAND,of genuine Scotch-Irish Presbyterian descent married there Margaret PHILLIPS,who with their five children settled in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania in 1727 , after aa few years they migrated to Cub Creek ,now in Charlotte county,Virginia;  with neighbors they began to look for a Presbyterian minister. John CALDWELL for his and neighbors families appeared before the Synod of Philadelphia in May 1738 requesting that it send to them a minister,home missionary or Presbyterian representative to preach at Cub Creek and that Synod petitioned for Cub Creek to the Governor of Virginia for permission of a Presbyterian minister to preach there. Five such ministers did come from time to time,whose names are engraved on a tablet arising from the "Two Hundredth Anniversary of Cub Creek."

John CALDWELL became an elder and leader in the Cub Creek church,dying in 1751 and is buried in its cemetery, leaving six sons and a daughter,William being the eldest son, to whom John had left his "great Bible" in his will. This William CALDWELL married, raised a family and died a comparatively young man being also buried in Cub Creek church cemetery. After his death ,his widow and children moved to Abbeville District,South Carolina,where their daughter, Martha, married as 2nd. wife of Patrick CALHOUN, Esq.,C-5,pp.64- and became the mother of Hon.John Caldwell CALHOUN,C-5-6'pp.69-75,becoming the namesake of his emigrant grandfather, JOHN CALDWELL.".Ch.(of Patrick and Martha (CALDWELL) CALHOUN,Esq.b. He had served as a member of the Legislature in this State for many years,was the first person who ever acted in that capacity from that part of the State in which he resided and was a member of the Senate at its last session. During the past summer he was attacked by a lingering fever,which much enfeebled his constitution.On his return from Columbia he was seized with a bleeding at the nose which exhausted him gradually until his life came to a close. He was a friend to virtue and piety; and a foe to vice in every from. The fidelity and patriotism which he exhibited as a public character are too well know and acknowledged by most of his numerous acquaintences to need any encomium or eulogium."

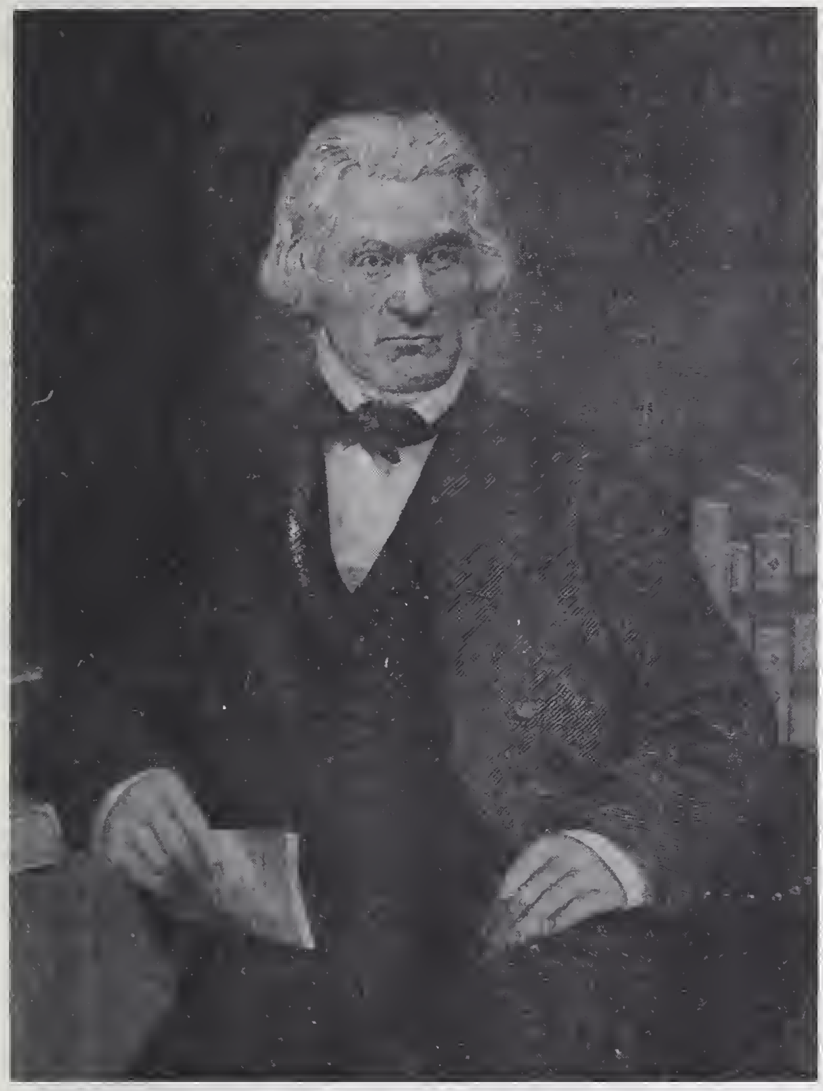
C-5-6- JOHN CALDWELL CALHOUN,p. 65, is probably regarded by most American kin as the most historic character the name has ever produced.



JOHN CALDWELL CALHOUN OF SOUTH CAROLINA,NATIONAL STATESMAN.

Before recording here details of his life,at the expense of some repetition compiler here inserts a quotation which he thinks more compactly covers his Colquhoun,Colhoun CALHOUN origin or ancestry:

"The origin of the family has been traced back to the reign of Gregory,The Great, and connects with the Earl of Lennox in Dumbartonshire,SCOTLAND and one of the younger sons of King CONNOCK of IRELAND who came to the same region at that period.The name of "Connock" soon became corrupted to "Colquohoun,"Colquhoun" and finally "CALHOUN".

The first ancestors,who obtained the barony of Colquhoun in Dumbartonshire,SCOTLAND was Umphredes,who lived in the time of ALEXANDER,SECOND, and his posterity has enjoyed successive possession ever since.

His son,Robert, who lived in the reign of King DAVID, was ordered by the King to storm and take the Castle of Dumbarton,which was strongly fortified. His written reply to the King was :"Si Je Puis (IF I CAN). 356 . He effected the capture of the Castle by strategy. Collecting his trusted friends and followers he arranged for a great hunt in the immediate neighborhood,which drew out temporarily from the Castle most of the defending warriors and retainers and when the chase was at its height he suddenly sounded the recall of his clan and hounds and took unresisted possession of Dumbarton Castle,for which deed of personal valor and warlike strategy he was subsequently created Earl.

The crest was bestowed upon him. This consists of a stag's head,indicative of the chase,supported by two ratch hounds and below this, the words:"Cnoc Ealachain",the War Cry of Colquhoun Clan. The cognomens of James and Patrick have had the preferences for the eldest sons of the family Hon.John Caldwell CALHOUN'S father d.when he was 14 (34(b). years old. His mother d. when he was 16 years old." he grew up to know the hard labor of the farm life of the period."."Dr.Moses WADDELL,D.D.,a famous educator, became very much impressed with the intellect of John C.CALHOUN, being so far above the average,his widowed mother accepted his offer to take him to his school and prepare him to enter YALE UNIVERSITY,completing in remarkably short time: with assistance of relatives,John Ewing CALH UN,C-3-3,p. and wife,Floride (BONNEAU) and others complete a full course at Yale and attended law school in Litchfield,Connecticut, Floride sending her coachman and span to escort him to Litchfield.He entered the Junior class at Yale in 1802 and graduated with A.B.Degree there Sept.12,1803;stud- in Litchfiled Law School July 22,1805 to July 28,1806 and entered practice of law in Charleston and Abbeville,South Carolin ,being admitted to practice in South Carolina in 1807." It was an international incident that gave his peculiar talents their first opportunity.In the Spring of 1807 ,the British man-of-war,"Leopard" upon an American frigate,the "Chesepeake" off the Virginia capes and carried off three American sailors for impressment into his Majesty's service. A public indignation meeting was held at the Abbeville court house and CALHOUN was asked to draw up resolutions. In the Fall he was elected without opposition to a state in the State legislature.His career was off to a generous start. 217(i)." it was November 1808 before CALHOUN took his seat·In the meantime his popularity was growing.During the ensuing two years he showed himself so strong an influence in that body that by the Summer of 1810 he was running for Congress.And here he won, not by a majority but by a landslide!

Two days before CALHOUN arrived in Washington to take his seat in Congress of 1811-1812 HENRY CLAY had been elected to Speaker of the House. Mr. Clay knew Calhoun ,by reputuation,knew his enthusiasm for the war with England that now seemed to be necessary for the protection of the prestige and dignity of the young nation and saved a place for Calhoun on the important Foreign Relations committee. Soon after the selection of the committee,Buell,the chariman, withdrew from Congress and Calhoun was chosen from his fellow members as their acting head.Other committees,too,had been filled with men with whose policies Clay was in full accord,and with the first session of the Congress the reign of the "War Hawks" had commenced " 217(k) In the South Carolina House of Representatives as an aid of the staff of Governor DRAYTON with the rank of Lt.-Col.Dec.15,1808.He was re-elected from 1812-1816 to the 12th.to 14th.Congresses serving as Representative until March 4,1817,when he was appointed Secretary of War in President JAMES MONROE'S cabinet,serving until March 4,1825,when he was inaugurated as VICE-PRESIDENT of the United States and was re-elected Vice-President in 1928,-to serve for four more years;resigned the Vice-Presidency during his term ,having been elected U.S. Senator by the South Carolina Legislature,-to succeed Robert Y.HAYNIE,who had been elected Governor,Calhoun taking his seat in U.S. Senate Jan.4,1833 , serving there in the 22nd.to 27th Congresses inclusive; was re-elected in 1834 and 1840,but resigned in 1842,serving until March 4,1843;was a candidate for the Presidency in 1844,but withdrew January 20,1844;was Secretary of State under President TYLER from March 6,1844 to March 6,1845;was elected by South Carolina Legislature November 25,1845 U.S.Senator to succeed Judge Daniel Elliott HUGER,who resigned in order that Mr. Calhoun might be returned to the Senate,serving in the 9th. to 31st. Congresses.He d. Washington,D.C.March 31,1850. Of his philosophy of government during his long career participating in high rank therein some published observations of him are next quoted:

"Mr Calhoun,son of Scotch-Irish mother and father of strong political views,believed firmly in the people as the source of all government and that no government has a valid claim to exist after it no longer serves the best interest of the governed."-"Mr. Calhoun, the thinker,the framer of policies,placed by mandate of the people in positions of great responsibility saw a cloud much"bigger than a 'man's hand"gathering ominously on the political horizon and felt himself impelled to dispel it. Thus purpose drove him on and on,even after all hope of political preferment for himself was gone, and even after life itself was despaired of." " Calhoun,looking forward ahead of his time,believed that the civilzation of his was ready for a "conflict of moral and not physical force" that enlightened men would be ready to concede a sister State rights and liberties, which only a short time before 'they had openly claimed for their own." " I once had a little side light on the wonderful Carolinian from an old gentleman in Springfield,Illinois,who had been a trusted young secretary and messinger to ABRAHAM LINCOLN in his first campaign. He quoted "Mr.Lincoln (in Springfield they never say "Abraham",always the title) as having said:"I should rather had John C. CALHOUN to contend with than DOUGLAS,-for Calhoun would not lie and Douglas does." "A portrait of John C.CALHOUN  a magnificent face, so sparkling yet so strong .".Quoting from publication as to his Calhoun ancestry:"Their first settlement was in Pennsylvania and from thence they removed to the waters of Kanawha,Wythe county,Virginia.They were driven from there by the Indians after Braddock's Defeat and established Calhoun Settlement in Abbeville county,South Carolina in 1756".

Quotation follows from a letter her wrote: .(34(b). "At Wytheville I remained two days to visit the ancient residence of our family on Reed's Creek ,a few miles from Wytheville.It is now in possession of wealthy and respectable families connected to us through the Montgomerys,who returned to the country after the termination of the old French war. They pointed out to me the place where resided and also of the rest of the brothers." 353.Another letter he wrote at Fort Hill,South Carolina, May 30,1847 to Miss Nancy CALHOUN Cornwall,Conneticut reads:"Although a Republican I am not indifferent to the character and reputation of those from whom I am descended .I am happy to find them so highly respected through so many generations. My family emigrated from Donegal,IRELAND in the year 1733 when my father was a child.His name was Patrick .The spelling of the name was changed about that time from Colquhoun to Calhoun. My grandmother on my father's side was a MONTGOMERY and related ,as I understand, to General MONTGOMERY who fell in our Revolutionary War. There was another branch of the family in this State,the head of which was Hugh MONTGOMERY. I recollect him when he was an old man ,in my boyhood.I have heard my father say they were related." 154(c)

Upon admission to practice law in South Carolina of Patrick NOBLE,C-1-2-5,p.13- ,son of John Caldwell CALHOUN'S cousin,Major Alexander NOBLE, C-1-2,pp.12-,a law partnership was formed with office in Abbeville ,South Carolina which was the basis of long and continued cooperation between them as evidenced by about 10 letters preserved as written by Mr.Calhoun to the later, Governor Patrick NOBLE of South Carolina,these letters being principally over the years 1812 to 1837 inclusive. These letters shown that Patrick Noble often sought advice or assistance from Hon.John Caldwell CALHOUN in personal and political matters.In return Calhoun asked Noble to handle his local law business and to explain to Calhoun's constituents the reasons for his political actions in Washington,D.C. In the 26 years covered by this correspondence appears the views Calhoun urged before House and Senate in National Congress and his actions as Vice-President,Secretary of War and Secretary of State reflecting Calhoun's influence in national and international political and diplomatic circles in behalf of the United States,especially in the approach by the United States as a new nation toward the War of 1812 and is conduct as well as in the controverises arising during the administration of President ANDREW JACKSON,in which Calhoun supported the President. His letter further further reveals his sustained interest in Governor Patrick CALHOUN'S public career,and recognizing Noble's ability and modesty urged him to offer for higher honors as occasion arose in Noble's lifetime . Among such encouragements were :Calhoun's congratulation of Noble on the latter's advancement to the Speakership of South Carolina Legislature in 1819 in the following language:" it has afforded the Legislature an opportunity to give a sure distinguished proof of confidence they have in your talents and judgment .With prudence the post you occupy now will enable you to attain any office in the gift of the State which you may desire." 406

"One of the great events in the history of Pendleton, South Carolina was the removal of Hon .JOHN CALDWELL CALHOUN, South Carolina statesman from Abbeville,S.C. to "Fort Hill" in 1824,which he was persuaded to do by his wife's brother, John Ewing CALHOUN,Jr.,C-3-3-3, by buying a place in the fertile land of the Seneca River valley there and on which he built a house on present site of Clemson College,South Carolina.Incidentally,it connects his family with the origin of Clemson College." "The great struggle,the fierce "War between the Sections" left the entire South barren in almost every respect. An agricultural people was bereft of labor and capital, and to add to this, our political condition was rendered almost intolerable by the unrelenting disposition of the victor in its hour of success. Our educational institutions went down in the general wreck.They had been,too,mostly of a literary character.Something practical in this respect was necessary." "Fort Hill " in Clemson College became the home Of Hon John Caldwell CALHOUN. The home was originally built in 1803 by Rev.James McIlhaney,pastor of the "Old Stone Church" and called "Clergy Hall". After the minister's death the home was added to the estate of Mrs.Calhoun's father. In 1825 Hon.John Caldwell CALHOUN brought his family to live on the old plantation and renamed the home "Fort Hill" to commemorate a fort built in 1776. He lived there until his death March 31,1850. He received a grant of 10,000 acres of land in Pickens District,South Carolina Nov.28,1840 ,791 acres of which was surveyed for him and recorded Jan.5,1842 by Martin McCAY,Deputy Surveyor.

he was distinguished as one of the three greatest orators in the United States and was often referred to as"a political philosopher"

The State of South Carolina because of its love for Hin John Caldwell CALHOUN,its distingiushed statesman refused to interfere until the United States Court of Appeals had passed on the validity of the will of Hon John Caldwell CALHOUN which left to Mrs.Gideon (Floride CLEMSON) LEE of New Yok City $15,000 in addition to her mother's share which made a total of $30,000. $80,000 after all expenses went to Clemson College and is a living monument to the memory of John C·CALHOUN and his daughter,Anna Maria (CALHOUN, C-5-6-3,p.73) CLEMSON and her husband,Thomas G.

CLEMSON. The will contested in this case appears to have been a reciprocal will to one left by the statesman, Hon.John Caldwell Calhoun in which he and wife left their estates to the surviving husband or wife,with property to be divided according to the will of the survivor,Mrs. Floride (BONNEAU) CALHOUN surviving her husband from 1850 to 1866 after which the contest came on the terms of her will, the wills having been drafted by Edward NOBLE.C-1-2-5-4,p.19.Hon.John C.CALHOUN"survivor in 1844"in parents'family preserved its history by recording inscriptions on tombstones he had finished and set in the private burying ground of his parents,Patrick,C-5,pp.54-75 and wife, Martha (CALDWELL) CALHOUN on the Parental homestead plantation in Abbeville District,South-Carolina for all descendants of his parents buried there,marble being the material engraved.These graves were found in a forest thickly wooded with trees, and the graves heavily festocned by poison ivy vines which did not deter Mabel L. WELLER from reclaining in recent years the history covered thereby concealed-,at great risk of personal injury to herself,in cutting through,exposing,copying and publishing the vital records there concealed and preserved.Grateful acknowledgement is here made to her in the name of all interested in her discovery and this republication seeks to perpetuate the information she found,- " until ink fades and paper crumbles,"citing others to the more permanent records here disclosed at the site of the graves. The information revealed will be found in the biographical sketches herein of the members of his parental group named.Gratitude is here expressed to Mr. Calhoun for so planting these more permanent records, within 6 years of his own death,also reciting in some of the inscriptions he caused to be engraved on the marble headstones to his parents' children that he then was,-in 1844" the sole surviving child of his parents." May 5,1836 Margaret Maria GREEN,b. Elizabethtown,Kentucky Feb.16,1816,d. 1891,daughter of General Duff of Dalton,Georgia,Member of Congress and wife,Lucretia EDWARDS, daughter of Ninian, a distinguished jurist and first Governor of Illinois.General Duff GREEN,M.C. was son of William and wife,Anna MARSHALL,daughter of Markham and wife,Ann (BAILEY),who lived for some time in Shenandoah Valley of Virginia before moving to Wayne county,Kentucky. Anna MARSHALL being first cousin of JOHN MARHSALL, Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

William GREEN was youngest son of Duff GREEN,Sr.,who became a Revolutionary soldier at age of 15 . years and was with General GEORGE WASHINGTON in camp in Winter of 1777-1778 at Valley Forge and afterward with General Morgan in the battle at Cowpens,South Carolina

Duff GREEN,Sr. was son of Robert,born in 1695 and 2nd. wife,Ann WILLIS,daughter of Col.Henry,founder of Fredericksburg,Virginia, and wife,Mildred WASHINGTON,aunt or grandmother of General GEORGE WASHINGTON,"Father of Our Country."

Robert GREEN emigrated with his uncle,Sir William DUFF Quaker about 1717 ,settling in Prince George county,Virginia, acquiring large land possession.This Robert was son of William GREEN,found in 1693-1694 in a census of the officers of Court and Government,-both civil and clerical,- among the select guard of 100 under command of CHARLES, Earl of Manchester in daily waiting upon the King. They were required to be men of the best quality and not less than six feet high. Their attire consisted of scarlet coats to the knees, scarlet breeches,richly mounted with black velvet bands and distinguished by ribbons of the King's color,

Similar ties to families of LEE,LEWIS and HENRY in Virginia,it bein claimed for Anne BAILEY and Mildred WASHINGTON that their descendants included more distinguished names than any other families in Colonial America.

The ancestry of last above named William Green is claimed by descendants to have been traced back to the reign of King William,III,in ENGLAND.

At the time of marriage of Martha Maria GREEN in Washington,D.C. she was classed there :" a leading belle in first circles in Washington". The depth of her natural feminine nobility is revealed in the crises in her life,upon the death of her husband,Andrew Pickens CALHOUN, one of the largest plantation owners in the South, both in Marengo county,Alabama and Pendleton District,South Carolina,devoting his energies to agricultural pursuits,rearing his family in baronial surroundings incident to Southern plantation ownership of that period. She had then been bereft of the companinship of a son who had been away as an officer in the Confederate army over 4 years. The effect of the desolation of invading armies in their home area caused her to jot down a charge to her soldier son in writing that he"carry on" in the stead of of his deceased father to rear and educate his sever minor brothers and sisters,left fatherless

Evidently,realizing that she too might not live through the tremendous impending changes she penned with the stated purpose that it was for the absent warrior son to see: "Dear child:-"Life is uncertain, * * * if departed spirits are permitted to watch those on earth,I shall continue to bless you even in Heaven. I have taught the children to look to you as the means that has given us shelter, food and clothing since your father's death, let them feel that to you they are indebted to you for the greatest blessing in life, education * * * Despite the gloomy foreboding which prompted her to "pour out her heart" to this son away from home, she lived to enjoy life and the progress of her orphan children until 1891, and witnessed fulfillment of her hope and faith in this sons usefulness.

In appreciation of the courteous and diplomatic manner in which the whole matter was conducted by Captain CALHOUN he was also presented by THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION with a beautifully engraved and illuminated set of resolutions in acknowledgement of his efforts in behalf of the Society and country.

Captian CALHOUN served as as one of a committee of five and as such had entire management of the City of New York's ovation reception to ADMIRAL GEORGE DEWEY,"Hero of Manilla" of 1898 upon his victorious return to the United States following the Spanish-American War. His ambassadorship for the Society to FRANCE was in 1897. His career as a planter extended from South Carolina to Alabama,Mississippi and Arkansas and covered the years 1865 for a decade or more later; serving meantime as a delegate at large from Arkansas to to the Cotton Exposition at Louisville,Kentucky in 1883 and in New Orleans in 1884 which memoralized Congress in relation of improvements in the Mississippi River;later served as Vice-President and Chairman of the Finance Committee of the Central Railroad and Banking Company of Georgia;became owner and operator of the Baltimore Coal Mining and Railway Company ,a corporation of Baltimore county and New Brunswick, controling thecannell coal fields of that region,his eldest son,James Edward CALHOUN, C-5-6-1-2-5, serving as managing director of the mines . He offered to buy some of his ancestral shrines in S.C. in his last years, when he was residing at 617 West End Avenue,New York City. C-5-6-1-6- Patrick CALHOUN,p.71, was"tall,erect and an ideal specimen of manhood",moved to Dalton,Georgia in 1871,at age 19 years was admitted to the bar there; entered politics, organized the Young Mens' Democratic Association and made speeches for the nomination of Samuel J. TILDEN as Democratic candidate for President;entered practice of law in Atlanta,Georgia,where he also engaged in politics, and specialized in railroad corporation law; abandoned practice of law and engaged in developing street railway properties in Baltimore,Pittsburgh,St.Louis, Cleveland and San Francisco.His residence in Cleveland,Ohio was in the suburbs of Euclid Heights,also at 9 East 88th.Street New York City;moved to San Francisco just before the devastating earthquake of Spring of 1906 there and there engaged to salvage what was left of the transit lines of Greater San Francisco ,gaining control and utilizing his prestige in city railway or street car circles around Wall Street New York and brought San Fancisco's transit problem into solution as the "United Railroads of San Francisco in which he served as its president from 1906 to 1913.Early in his career as a promoter and financier in steam railway circles as an outgrowth of his specilization in corporation law practice when the railroads were the principal corporations he interested many of the holders of the 108 original charters under which about 8,000 miles of the rail road in the Southeastern part of the United States had into linking the parts of each into a consolidation constituing what had become by,or soon after 1900,the later SOUTHERN RAILWAY SYSTEM at a period of its greatest operated mileage.He was reputed to have fought the last duel below the Mason-Dixon Line under the old "Code Duello" His opponent was John D.WILLIAMSON of Walker county,Georgia with whom he had an arument on railroad matters .This John D. WILLIAMSON was also a promoter arranging the financing and const uction of railways in his home region in Northwest Georgia,Northeast Alabma and adjoining East TENNESSEE and became President of corporations organized to build links connecting railways and Tennesse River, steamboat transportation,then near the head of important tranportation by water and the railroads converging on Chattanoog with the similar head of important steamboat transportation on the Chattahoochee River at Columbus, Geoegia falls in that River and projected the route via Lafayette,Summerville, Rome,- at similar head of river transportation and railroad converging at Rome,junction of Oostanala and Etowah Rivers into the Coosa River,-proing the venture a name "Chattanooga,Rome and Columbus Railroad Company, which ended at 126 miles length in Carrollton Georgia,now consituting the Chatanooga to Griffin Division of the Cemtral of Georgia Railway Company. It is not know if Partick CALHOUN and John D. Williamson's duel arose out of this undertaking that corssed the Southern Railway system at Bremen in Haralson county,Georgia,where the townsite lands went into a land company owned by John D. WILLIAMSON,Bremen being one of the three crossings of other railroads by WILLIAMSON'S 126 miles long new railroad,much of it through virgin timber lands.

Several versions have been given of the CALHOUN-WILLIAMSON duel, one being that CALHOUN fired into the air, but the men renewed their former friendship.

C-5-6-3- Anna Maria CALHOUN,p.71, inherited "Fort Hill" now in the grounds of Clemson College, South Carolina,granting "Fort Hill" ,the plantation and all the land around it to the State of South Carolina for the purpose of founding and agricultural and mechanical school. In 1889 Clemson College was founded. on its grounds are a few trees which were presented Hon.John CALHOUN,her father, by famous men.Stephen DECATUR brought a varnish tree from Madagascar. Daniel WEBSTER, the great orator,gave CALHOUN a hemlock from his own State.HENRY CLAY gave an arbor vitae. The cedar were planted by the CALHOUN family in hope of warding off the dreaded miasma,-the vapor that supposedly brought malaria up from the swamps.

On these grounds near by is an interesting little separate building,Calhoun's study,where he did much of his work.

The little pine log school house, called "Thalian Academy" was located not farm from the house. 476(84)(b).Miss Anna Maria CALHOUN,2nd daughter, of Hon. John Caldwell CALHOUN was among women what her distinguished father was among men Her love for her home and country was suberb, and to this noble, generous and yet gentle woman South Carolina is as much indebted for Clemson Collage as to her distinguished husband,THOMAS Green CLEMONS.Colonel CLEMSON was a great admirer of John C. CALHOUN and supported his political views and opinions. Anna Maria was in Washington,D.C. on a visit to her father and there met Col. CLEMSON and they were m.at bride's home,"Fort Hill",Pendleton District,South Carolina Nov.13,1838.He was b. in City of Philadelphia July 1, 1807 and d. at "Fort Hill"April 6,1888 and is buried at Pendelton,South Carolina. He was six feet and six inches tall.His features were handsome and his appearance commanding . His deportment and manner were dignified and polished. His intellect was of high order, and he was gifted with fine conversational powers. His views and opinions were broad and liberal and there was nothing narrow or contracted about him.

Very early in life Col. CLEMONS developed a great taste for the study of the sciences,especially chemistry, mineralogy and geology.. In 1823, when hardly 16 years old he ran off from home,not on account of any disagreement with his parent,but simply for adventure and to see the world.At that time, though so young,he was six feet tall and exceedingly handsome,both in form and feature .He first went to ENGLAND but remained there only a short time and then visited Paris. At that time FRANCE was particularly friendly toward the United States and this handsome young American very soon attracted the attention of the young nobility of the great city. Through these young men he also became acquainted with some of the leading officials of the city . During his stay in Paris he shouldered a musket and joined his young friends in several of the revolutions and outbreaks for which that city has been famous. His gallantry displayed on these occassions earned for him the respect and esteem of the officials,who rewarded him with a position in the celebrated School of Mines .He remained at the school for four years and graduated with high honors.

During his stay in Paris he found time to indulge his tsate for painting and had as his teachers some of the celebrated artists of that time.. By these means he became acquainted with many painters,both in FRANCE and GERMANY,which enabled him in after years to collect the many valuable and beautiful paintings which adorn the walls of John C. CALHOUN'S old homestead at Fort Hill.

During his stay in Europe his father died and his large estate was divided in such a way as to leave him no part of it, and just at the age of manhood found himself penniless,but he cheerfully set to work in the practice of his profession and very soon earned an enviable reputation. His services as mining expert were particularly valuable, and although established in Washington,D.C.,his labors were not confined to this country alone,but extended to Cuba and South America also. His fees were large and he soon after amassed a comfortable fortune. At Washington he was a conspicous and prominent person,and he had entry into the most exclusive families.

During the administration of President JACKSON he was appointed Minister to Belgium,but having very little taste for politics,he,at the expiration of his term,returned to his home in Washington,D.C. and resumed the work of his profession.At the beginning of the war in 1861 Col. CLEMSON was residing at his home in Washington with his family,which consisted of his son,John C. CLEMSON and daughter,Floride CLEMSON. It was well known to the authorities that the sympathies of Col. CLEMSON were with the South,and for this reason,his movements were closely watched, and some time in 1862 his arrest was ordered,but being warned by friends that he would be arrested next day,he and his son escaped during the night and crossed the Potomac River in a row boat. Landing on Virginia soil they did not stop until they reached Richmond,having walked the entire distance. Upon arriving in Richmond they both tendered their services to President DAVIS. John C.CLEMONS was, at once,appointed a lieutenant in the army and assigned to duty. Col. CLEMONS was assigned to the Mining Department of the Trans-Mississippi. Here he remained until the close of the war.

At this time Mrs.John C. CALHOUN resided at Pendleton, South Carolina and here Col. CLEMSON was reunited with his family and here they resided until the death of Mrs.CALHOUN in the latter part of 1866.

Previous to the war Mrs. CALHOUN sold their old home,-"Fort Hill",-and all her property thereon to her son,Col. Andrew Pickens CALHOUN,taking his bond and mortgage.The mortgage was foreclosed and Mrs. CLEMONS bought in "Fort Hill" and divided it with her daughter,Floride CLEMSON in proportion to the interest of each under Mrs.CALHOUN'S will,which was three-fourths to her daughter,Mrs.Thomas G. CLEMSON and one-fourth to her grand daughter,Floride CLEMSON.

While possesed of ample means Col. Thomas Green CLEMSON had no disposition to spend more upon himself than was actually necessary.His great desire was to take care of his property and increase it that he might the better carry out his promise to his wife which was to found an agricultural college upon"Fort Hill" upon the very spot she had herself selected for the location of the main college building.How faithfully he redeemed his promise to his dear wife,let Clemson College as it stands to-day in all its magnificence speak. Col.CLEMONS well knew that the property lonated for the purpose would not be sufficient to build and maintain such a college as he conceived of,but having a firm reliance upon the liberality of the State of South Carolina he felt assured that when the people,growing out of their changed conditions resulting from the effects of the war,were properly understood and appreciated,his efforts to benefit the farmers would be recognized and that the State woukd supplement his donation by whatever amount might be necessary to establish the dream of his life. He reasoned wisely and correctly. During this time he looked carefully after his finances and tried to save all he could for the college,but still provided generously for the faithful helpers who remained with him, and wished very much to help othfriends in distress and dus so. During the last two years of his life he talked freely of his life and experiences. He portrayed in a manner never to be forgotten,the South was sure to be plunged into if something was not done to arrest the desteuctive tendencies of the times.During the latter part of his life he talked a great deal about religious matters and became very much concerned about the salvation of his soul. Ch (of Col.Thomas Green and Anna Maria (CALHOUN) CLEMSON,b."Fort Hill",Pendleton,South Carolina): 1-John Caldwell,July 17,1841, 2-Floride,Dec.29,1842 . The loss of their two children was a terrible shock to Col. and Mrs.CLEMONS. Desolate,they mourned,-all their brightness had been blotted out of their lives,but unsearchable were the providences of God,for it was then these two stricken,sorrowing parents determined to unite in disposing of all they had left of their property as to bring to their fellow men as much happiness and propserity as they could wish for themselves.They agreed to make wills to each other, and promised that the survivor would make a will donating all their joint property to erect an agricultural college at Fort Hill.Mrs.CLEMONS died Sept.22.1875,-suddenly,of heart disease when Mr. CLEMONS was absent from home.

Many people in Pendleton,South Carolina remembered the grief of this old and now desolate man at the grave when the remains of his devoted partner of life was being laid to rest. The remainder of his life Mr.CLEMONS spent desolate and alone,at Fort Hill. After a while began to take more interest in affairs. He was fond of reading and kept around him the leading magazines by which he was enabled to keep in touch with his fellowmen; otherwise, he lived the life of a hermit, for several years after Mrs. CLEMONS' death . Eventually,his mind became fixed upon the one purpose of fulfilling the promise to his wife,and erecting the college they had planned. Then he began to visit with his friends and many were the efforts he and his friends made to interest others in this great work. He was an eminetly practical man and had been very thoroughly educated in this respect.He was a scientist of very high character. Col.CLEMSON was in the overthrow with his family, and saw his way clearly as to the necessities of the future. The education of the youth of ,he South must in a measure be of a practical character;and, he,in his old age,guaged the future most successfully.He resided on a spot dear to every Southern man by its associations. We crossed a little branch and came to the old cotton gin and grist mill.There was a large walnut tree or two by the mill. We used to take rocks and crack walnuts on abandoned mill stones lying there. The road wound around. Dr.Hick's field continuing West to the old brick smokehouse. The old white oak was still standing under which we used to pith horse shoes, to the left was the old uncompleted mansion of James Edward CALHOUN. A beautiful pasture extends westward along the river where Borrough's Island extends. We used to go to this Island by stepping stones across Savannah River where there were apple trees from which we picked apples. Directly back of the cottage was the mill race across which there was a log-type bridge ." 383,476(84)(a,b) .

Pages to 77,inclusive of this book contain genealogical,biographical and historical information of CALHOUN,NOBLE and PICKENS descendants from or intermarried with the lineage from PATRICK CALHOUN and wife,Catherine MONTGOMERY,emigrants from Donegal and Londonderry counties,North of Ireland to Chesnut Level,Lancaster county,Pennsylvania who became the "Long Cane Creek Settlement" in Prince William Parish of Granville (now Abbeville) county,South Carolina in February 1756 A.D.Of this descent .Ezekiel CALHOUN,C-4-9,pp. is listed in the HAMILTON Section of this book,pp. Descendants of other CALHOUN families,who emigrated to Colonial America,or the States of the American Union at other date than this Patrick and Catherine's arrival in 1733 are gathered separately of each other such Colquhoun,CALHOUN,COLHOUN CAHOON or similar phonetic spelling.Some effort has been made to keep as nearly together as feasible these other emigrants,-principally from SCOTLAND direct,-and from SCOTLAND with a sojourn of generations in North of Ireland,further grouped as contemporaries and in same neighborhoods or locations'-both abroad and in present States of the American Union in such a way as to be most suggestive of close kinships,each to the other or of probable relationship to Patrick CALHOUN and wife,Catherine MONTGOMERY.

In the study of relationships of the latter to other CALHOUN emigrants with which this APPENDIX is concerned and the kinship of these other CALHOUN emigrants each to the others,it is here urged that constant use be made of the long list or Table of Colquhoun,Colhoun or Calhoun ancestors back to Umphrides as an early descendant of KING CONOCK of IRELAND as set forth in the Colquhoun,Colhoun,Calhoun "Table of Colquhoun,Colhoun,Calhoun ancestors" since about A.D. 1190 as appears on pages hereof.The descent of Patrick CALHOUN and wife,Catherine MONTGOMERY,is listed mainly on pages to 77 hereof.This is believed to be fairly comprehensive,-due largely to the many industrious,highly intelligent,devoted,perservering,skillful and unstinted researchers,-often over long periods of years and wide areas of expensive travel,to reclaim from oblivion a fuller history of their own people,freely released to this compiler to put into circulation in this book at his own expense.

Mary CALHOUN m. Andrew LEWIS and lived in county Donegal,IRELAND where their son,John, was born. Andrew's father ,or some more remote ancestor removed from WALES to IRELAND during the civil wars of the reign of CHARLES,the First (1633-1649). He is said to descend from French Hugunots,who were driven from to ENGLAND by the Revocation of the Edict of NANTES in 1598.

In 1720 the Irish Lord of whom his son,JOHN LEWIS,held land attempted to enforce some unjust demand upon his tenant. An affray ensued in which LEWIS * * * performed wonderful feats of strength and courage .The attacking Lord lost his life. JOHN LEWIS took refuge in PORTUGAL with merchant,LYNN, his wife's brother. Finding that the power and influence of his enemies made his continuance in Lisbon unsafe,he crossed the Atlantic Ocean. Upon being joined by his wife,he pushed into the interior of Pennsylvania and up the valley between the steep mountian ranges until having passed beyond the white settlements he located near where the town of Staunton ,Augusta county,Virginia now is giving strong proof by his movements that he dreaded Irish revenge more than Indian massacre. The remains of an old stone house on Lewis Creek one mile east of Staunton points out the place where the white man first planted himself in Western Virginia. JOHN LEWIS was brave and enterprising. He survey many tracts of valuable land when fear of the Indians deterred others from venturing into the backwoods and thus acquired sufficient territory in his adopted country to have formed a principality in the country from which he he had fled in consequence of a contest for a few acres.

The Warm Springs, Sweet Springs and many other places of great value belonged to him. In June 1754 a party of 12 Northwest Indian warriors stopped at JOHN LEWIS' home on their return from the South where they had been satisfying their revenge on the Cherokees. Upon leaving they were followed and massacred by whites without LEWIS' knowledge.During the war following this outrage JOHN LEWIS fortified his home,43(a),52(a). An attack was made upon it by Indians in absence of his sons and men-servants. Though old and infirm, he stationed himself at a port hole and kept up a constant shooting at the Indians while his wife reloaded the guns. His sons and servants returned in time to relieve him.

He was tall and muscularof fearless spirit,hardy habits,the best backwoodsman of his day. He m. in IRELAND Margaret LYNN,sister of William,in whose will signed Oct.21, 1757,recorded Feb.16,1758 in SPOTSYLVANIA county,Virginia William made bequest to" my sister,Margaret LEWIS, and her four sons,Thomas, Andrew,William and Charles LEWIS of Augusta county,Virginia." These four sons all served as officers in the Virginia militia in the Revolution.

Thomas LEWIS, as " oldest son and heir of JOHN LEWIS, GENT" signed deed Oct.16,1765 conveying 200 acres lying on Elk Creek, a branch of Cowpasture River in Augusta county, Virginia patented to JOHN LEWIS in 1743,to"Andrew HAMILTON, H-2,p. from Pennyslvania",brother of Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,p. husband of Frances CALHOUN. Andrew HAMILTON re-conveyed the same land Aug.19,1767 to Thomas LEWIS to correct an error in description of the land.

JOHN LEWIS died in Augusta county,Virginia,Feb.1,1762 and was buried at his home place,all trace of his gravestone having disappeared but its original inscription has been preserved elsewhere,reading:"Here lies the remains of JOHN LEWIS,who slew the Irish Lord,settled Augusta county, located the town of Staunton and furnished five sons to fight the battles of the American Revolution. He was the son of Andrew LEWIS and Mary CALHOUN,was born in Donegal county,IRELAND 1678 and died Feb.1,1762,aged 84 years .He was a brave man, a true patriot and a friend of Liberty throughout the world. Mortaliti Relicta vivit immortalite inductus. JOHN LEWIS lived near Fort LEWIS,Augusta county Virginia.183,192(a),200(a-d),203(124,126),325,276(51)(b).

William Colquhoun of Belfast,IRELAND, b. about 1850 at Castlefin,Donegal county,IRELAND,eldest son of a family of 8 children of Rev.William COLQUHOUN and wife, of a family believed to have come to IRELAND from the Loch Lomond region in SCOTLAND about 1670 and settled in area of Raphoe town and CONVY in county Donegal. "Loch Lomond in one of the Roman itiniraries is called:"LYNCALEDUR":that is to say,"Lake of the Woody Water" The name,Loch Lomond, it did not receive until the fourteenth century when it was so called from Ben LOMOND.Prior to that it was known as "Loch Leven" for the exceeding smoothness of its waters which attained their greatest breadth on coming opposite ROSS-DHU. It is there about eight miles wide,its exteme length being about thirty iles, the whole being rendered more picturesque by headlands and well wooded inlets.

The present mansion of ROSS-DHU was built in 1774 by Sir James COLQUHOUN, who m.LADY Helen SUTHERLAND,daughter of Lord STRATHOVER,son of heir apparent,John,the nineteenth Earl of Sutherland. The names of Sir James and wife, LADY Helen COLQUHOUN,with date when the house was erected, are engraved upon the roof of the building,which belongs to the Grecian style of architecture. It stands on a peninsula nearly surrounded by Loch LOMOND.

The deer park,grounds and plantation attached to the house contain about 600 acres of excellent land. There is also one of the islands,Inch Lonaig,which has been kept as a deer park for many centuries and is remarkable for its fine old ewes.

Not far from the northern mansion are the ruins of the ancient castle,ROSS-DHU,the former residence of the family,which can not be less, and probably is much more than four hundred years old. It probably derives,at least, a portion of its name,ROSS, by NESS, a nose,signifying a promintory. Hard by is a roofless chapel,still used as a family cemetery by the Lairds of Luss." 358

Item in construction:"cryusdam domus ad opus COLQUHANORUM domini Regis ibidem 10 solidi" has been translated under date July 30,1329 as an order from King ROBERT BRUCE of SCOTLAND for construction of a house for the COLQUHOUNS with an explanatory note of the translator or publisher that COLQUHANORUM" is an obscure word which occurs nowhere else, conjectured to be from the Gaelic root,"gillen-an-con",possibly to mean "keeper of the dogs ." 358

"UMFRIDUS de KILPATRICK in the reign of ALEXANDER, II,(1214-1249) acquired from MALDOWIN,Earl of Lennox,the lans of COLCHONE or COLHOUN within the Earldom, and he and his descendants adopted the name of the lands as their surnames. The ruins of their ancient castle in that quarter form a picturesque object at DUNGLASS on a rocky eminence overlooking the Clyde River. Their arms are still to be distinguished there, engraved many centuries ago over a doorway.

HUMPHREY or COLQUHOUN in the reign of ROBERT BRUCE had charters of COLQUHOUN and SAUCHY from that king.

SIR ROBERT COLQUHOUN in the reign of David, II, owned beside COLQUHOUN, the lands of LUSS.

The LUSS estate went to the family by marriage with its heiress in the fourteenth century.

LUSS is about half way to Loch Lomond on the western shore in SCOTLAND. ROSS-DHU HOUSE, the home of the CHIEF OF THE CLAN OF COLQUHOUN, lies about two miles south of the village of LUSS, and rears its grand columned front on a soft, verdant lawn by the lake's fair shore with a far-reaching woods and noble hills for background.

Other lands fell to them by conquest and more by purchase, until these form a princely property ." 356

2- George CALHOUN,Sr.apparently of kin to Adam CALHOUN, Sr. of Lancaster county,Pennsylvania,Lunnenburg county,Virginia and Prince Edward county,Virginia and of possible,if not probable descent from Adam CALHOUN of Corkagh,county Donegal,IRELAND,son of Sir Alexander COLQUHOUN 15th. of COLQUHOUN and 17th.of LUSS,SCOTLAND,p.80, has an inscribed tombstone standing in Steel Creek Presbyterian Church cemetery in Mecklenburg county,North Carolina reading:"George CATHOON d.June 8,1795,aged 83 years" or b. 1712. He m. Elizabeth WILSON, whose inscribed tombstone with her husband's reads:" Elizabeth CATHOON d.1781" and another tombstone with these reads:"Zaccheus W. CATHOON d.July 10,1781. George CALHOUN took deed Oct 18,1774 from Zaccheus WILSON and wife,Frances for 160 acres in Mecklenburg county,North Carolina and had taken deed there from John DAVIS and wife,Elizabeth,Jan.2,1767 for 400 acres in Mecklenburg county,North Carolina,bounded by lands of John HENRY,being an original grant to Samuel KNOX. As"George COLHUN and wife,Elizabeth of Mecklenburg county"signed deed Jan.12,1775 to their son ,Samuel COLHUN for 180 acres from the tract so granted to Samuel KNOX; as "George CALHOUN,Sr. and wife,Elizabeth" took deed from Zaccheus WILSON and wife, Frances, her parents,for land in Mecklenburg county,North Carolina where George CALHOUN,Sr. d.June 8, 1795 It seems appropriate to insert here reference to page 80, the 3rd. ch.of Robert COLQUHOUN,1-5-1 and wife, Katherine MacAUSELAN,their son,"John COLQUHOUN,who died before July 3,1712"' which taken in connection with the birth date for George,Sr.next above derived from his gravestone inscription,recording his age as 83 years at death, June 8,1795,meaning"1712" as year of his birth.. The foregoing "John COLQUHOUN,who d. before 1712" and "born in Corkagh, egal county,Ireland" suggest the probability that this George COLQUHOUN(CALHOUN) is no further removed from Adam COLQUHOUN,1-5,p.80,who had,-among others,"sons,Adam and George,b.at Corkagh,Donegal county,Ireland" than grandsons, or,at most, great grandsons of this first known "ADAM COLQUHOUN" of Scotland and Ireland. In these generations it seems more than a coincidence that there would have been both "Adam and George Colquhoun",brothers,father and son,cousins,or uncle and nephew with such COLQUHOUN (CALHOUN) family Christian names,living in association,each with the others,-in both Dumbartonshire,Scotland and Donegal county Ireland, in the same generation,as well as over the periods the Adam and George CALHOUNS have been more or less close association in Cumberland county,Pennsylvania,Staunton,Augusta county and Prince Edward(formerly AMELIA)county,Virgina,before George CALHOUN(Cathoun) moved to Mecklenburg county,North Carolina and his descendants to South Carolina,Georgia,Tennessee and Arkansas. All these, if connected back to"Sir Alexander COLQUHOUN,15th.of Colquhoun and 17th.of Luss,page 80 and Items 13 and 15 of Table of generations of Colquhoun ancestry page 7 of such Table extending from pages 5 to 8 inclusive to Umphredus de Kilpatrick in A.D. 1190,if accepted as truly descended from him in unbroken line,completes the genealogy cf Adam CALHOUN,Sr. and wife,Violat DAVIS,pp. 80-81 and of George CALHOUN,Sr. and wife,Elizabeth WILSON,pp. 81-84 and 324- all inclusive.

SUPPLEMENT is here inserted to the biographical sketch Adam CALHOUN,Sr.and wife,Violaet DAVIS,p.80,by adding that: "they were settled for a period near Staunton,Augusta county, Virginia before going to AMELIA(now PRINCE EDWARD) county,Virginia where they jointly conveyed by deed 200 acres on Buffalo River,Amelia county and that three sons of Adam CALHOUN,Jr.,namely,John Daniel, William and George Benton CALHOUN moved from Virginia or the Carolinas together to near Covington, TIPTON county,Tennessee,whose descendants still live at or near Covington,Tennessee. Adam CALHOUN has also been found to have lived very early in ALBEMARLE county,Virginia.

George CALHOUN,Sr.,2-;page 81,and wife,Elizabeth WILSON, apparently were the parents of the following children, if not more: (b. in Cumberland county,Pennsylvanaia):1-Samuel, ,1740, 2-Charles, p.329,3-Adam? 4-Zaccheus Wilson,who d. July 10,1781,p.81, 5-George,Jr.,pp.329-331. 6-David, 7-Phoebe,p.331 ,8- p.331 9- daughter. A George Calhoun and Samuel Calhoun were listed as taxpayers in LUNNENBURG county,Virginia in 1782 . One "Samuel CALHOUN" called "Big Sam" to distinguish him from the other "Samuel CALHOUN" of the same region, m. Mary HARTROVE and had a son,James Irwin CALHOUN. 476(100)

2-1- Samuel CALHOUN,son of George,Sr. and wife,Elizabeth WILSON,came with early colonial CALHOUNS to Virginia and later to Long Canes,South Carolina and after trouble with the Indians there settled in southern part of Mecklenburg(now UNION) county,North Carolina,-near the South Carolina line and within the bounds of the Waxhaw Congregation of the Presbyterian Church. He left a note that his trouble with Indians was after close of Revolutionary war.In this neighborhood he became acquainted with ANDREW JACKSON, later General and President of United States,Jackson's widowed mother living near this church and began his life-long association with Rev.Thomas B. CRAIGHEAD,whose father,Rev. Alexander CRAIGHEAD, was a neighboring Presbyterian pastor. This Samuel CLAHOUN lived in settlement of Waxhaw congregation when it was overun by British soldiers after the massacree of Buford's men by Tarleton May 29,1780. There was long preserved in his CALHOUN family a relic of the British soldiers encampment near the home of Samuel CALHOUN in the Warsaw settlement It was a large book called "Pool's" which was found in the deserted British camp there nailed to the ground with a bayonet,being only one of the remembrances of very many destructions of homes,burned libraried and the rifling of homes of loyal Americans.This volume after having been given by Samuel CALHOUN to his grandson,Rev.John Calhoun PROVINE,D.D.,2-1-6-6-p^{328} was presented by the latter to the collection of the Tennesse Historical Society and is now preserved in the Tennessee State Museum in Nashville.

Samuel CALHOUN was appointed in 1802 to serve on a commission to prove the boundaries of 1,000 acres granted to Thomas STOKES in North Carolina;in 1804 took deed from John DAVIS for 200 acres for $600,-of a military grant by North Carolina,located on Cedar Creek.

In the Fall of 1798 or 1800 Samuel CLAHOUN transferred his family residence from the Waxhaw settlement to the Cumberland country in Tennessee,which was about the time of the great revival preaching of Rev. James McCREADY in that region.Samuel CALHOUN was an enthusiastically religious man ,as was his father,George CALHOUN before him. Until the last days of his life he referred with great satisfaction of his early memories of Whitfield ,the evangelist,in Pennyslvania in his childhood days.He cast his lot with the"revival" movement in the old Presbyterian Church and years afterward when he and his family had removed to Tennessee he continued steadfast to his early affections.

Rev.Thomas B.CRAIGHEAD moved at an early date to the Cumberland country near Nashville,Tennessee. To this Tennessee settlement he was followed from year to year by many of the old Waxhaw Settlement in the Carolinas. Samuel CALHOUN had become blind before Rev. James McCREADY came to the Cumberland country in Tennessee and was lead to his meetings there. During McCready's sermon Samuel exclaimed: "I am hearing another Whitfield." 458,476(100)

MALCOLM CALHOUN of the Isle of Skye,SCOTLAND m. there by 1784 Christian McCORQUEDALE,who died in Grove Hill,CLARKE oounty,Alabama March 3,1828.Ch.(b.in Isle of Skye,SCOTLAND): 1-Katherine ("Kate") ,p.94, ,1785,p.94 2-Nancy, ,1786,p.94, 3-John,June 27,1788 p.96, 4-Malcolm,Jr. p.101, These members of the family moved from Isle of Skye,SCOTLAND in 1792 to Virginia coast,where they lived until about 1810, the following four additional children being born in Virginia: 5-Duncan, p.101, 6-Neal, p.102, 7-Mary, p.102, ,8-Christian,p. 102 About 1810 the parents and their 8 children moved together from Virginia to North Carolina,apparently setling in the vicinity of Bluff Creek Presbyterian Church in Cumberland county,North Carolina. Some of their children apparently married and reamined there, at least,for several years after the parents and younger of their children moved to Grove Hill,Clarke county,Alabama ,by about 1820, where Malcolm ,husband and father died August 28, 1928. His wife also died there, both being buried in "Court House " cemetery lot there . Malcolm CALHOUN kept records in a ledger,in which entries by him as early as 1818 were found relating to his family. .This ledger,so left by him was continued by a generation or two of his surviving descendants,whom it served as a stimulus to carry forward a sort of genealogy of his descendants. It has been so utilized by them in providing the material of

"Genealogy of Malcolm CALHOUN, Scotch Emigrant, 1792-1935"- by Jesse Thompson CALHOUN, 1935 reproduced herein on pages 93- , both inclusive, with some further contributions thereto by an elderly descendant, William Malcolm WARREN, 1-5-1-3-1, p. 101 and others, although the genealogy herewith presented of the emigrant, MALCOLM CALHOUN and family of Isle of Ske, SCOTALND has not been generally extended to date since compilation in 1935 by Jesse Thompson CALHOUN, 1-3-2-3-2, p.

1-2-6-6- Leander Cotton CALHOUN,p.94, served as a pastor of churches for thirty nine (39) years,beginning in 1873. He was passionately devoted to his relatives and by about 1916 had accumulated from sustained researxh into his Calhoun ancestry ,and its descent to then compiled this genealogical information into a Calhoun genealogical manuscript amounting to about forty(40) pages back to his emmigrant ancestors, MALCOLM CALHOUN and wife,Christian McCORQUEDALE, in 1792 from Isle of Skye,SCOTLAND to the coast of Virginia,thence to Cumberland county,North Carolina and finally to Grove Hill,Clarke county,Alabama by about 1820. This manuscript appears to have beena stimulus to others to extend it probably contributed materially to the "Genealogy of MALCOLM CALHOUN,Scotch Emigrant 1792-1935" as advanced to a final genealogical manuscript when released in 1935 by its last then compiler, Jesse Thompson CALHOUN,1-3-2-3-2,p. 98, which manuscript is here serving as the principal source for its appearince on the pages of this book. Rev.Leander Cotton CALHOUN m. Dec.26,1879 Catherine Mary HAMBERGER.They had no children,but their home care for some of the minor,orphan children of his deceased brother,Rev.Charles Wesley CALHOUN,1-2-6-1,p. ,among them,Rev.Otis V. CALHOUN,1-2-6-1-5,p. who probably was encouraged to his minsiterial career not alone by the sacrifical services of his father,Rev.Charles Wesley CALHOUN, but by the example and probable tutilage of this uncle,Rev.Leander Cotton CALHOUN. The later sustained research and probable contribution of the results of genalogical research reported to have been made by Rev.Otis V. CALHOUN as well probably reflect the source of that inspiration in Rev. Otis V. CALHOUN being in this uncle ,his benefactor.

1-3- John CALHOUN,p.93, is credited as a principal original source of genealogical information contained in the copy of the :"Genealogy of MALCOLM CALHOUN,Scotch Emigrant, 1792-1935" as issued by Jesse Thompson CALHOUN,1-3-2-3-2,p. 98 in 1935. Much of John's information was contained in an old ledger,entries in which was begun as early as 1818 by"MALCOLM CALHOUN,Scotch emigrant to present United States of America in 1792 ". This John CALHOUN was emigrant Malcolm CALHOUN'S oldest son.After the death of Malcolm,John continued to record in this old ledger vital statistics of his parents' descent, the old ledger later passing from the custody of the son,John CALHOUN,1-3, to Daniel CALHOUN,1-3-2,p. 97 when Daniel moved from Cumberland county,North Carolina to Alabama,Daniel retaining and moving with him this old ledger of his father and grandfather, CALHOUN and continuing to record in it genealogical information of emigrant ,MALCOLM CALHOUN'S descent. This grandson,Daniel CALHOUN'S devotion to the genealogy of his European ancestor,Malcolm became enough of an obsession that the naturally retentive memory of Daniel became increasingly the fountain to whom all his Calhoun ancestors descendants brought their nuggets of information for storage and preservation to be passed on ,if by no more than tradition. Daniel became famed among these kin for his remarkable memory of their people. It infected Daniel's grandson, Jesse Thompson CALHOUN,who by 1896 had drawn a Calhoun genealogical chart from the records and recollections of his grandfather,Daniel CALHOUN,1-3-2,p.97 In connection with the manuscript,in about 40 pages,as prepared by Rev. Leander Cotton CALHOUN ,1-2-6-6,p. 95 and the protegees of the several other amateur Calhoun genealogist arising in the family,the information as complete as Jesse Thompson CALHOUN could make it in 1935 was put into excellent order for over one thousand names, all of whom had lived since the birth of MALCOLM CALHOUN in Isle of Skye,SCOTLAND,apparently as early as about 1762, his oldest of 4 children being born there in 1784. A copy of:"Genealogy of MALCOLM CALHOUN, Scotch Emigrant,1792-1935" reached this compiler in late stages of making ready the pages of the book for reproduction by lithography in"fac-simile"of compiler's typing,proof-reading and corrections as the reader will see it.The release of it for use in this book came from Mr. William Malcolm WARREN,1-5-1-3-1,p.101,first through cooperating lady, Mrs. Kathy Nell Calhoun (CUTSINGER) Hill,C-1-2-5-1-11-1-1.p.18 ,Rev. Edwin Crawford CALHOUN, having stimulated a wider understanding of of the importance of this collection if included in this book.Compiler here makes grateful acknowledgement to all these mention, and others omitted by oversight as this is being written for the privilege of presenting it to readers and is happy to be of any service in its preservation in spite of fire,sword, and the destructive forces of nature and nations.

This John CALHOUN, 1-3,p.93,96,m.June 9,1812 Nancy BUCHANAN,b.Feb. 1792,d.Sept.13,1862,of whom there is a tradition among her husband's descendants that this Nancy BUCHANAN was born on the Atlantic Ocean on the voyage that brought her husband's parents,MALCOLM CALHOUN,his wife, Christian McCORQUEDALE and their four elder children ,including this son,John CALHOUN,1-3,p. 96 ,later to become this Nancy BUCHANAN'S husband from whom a really enormous and prominent American descent is listed in this book.

Nancy BUCHANAN'S brothers,Duncan ,John and Hugh and sister,Mary, and their parents came from Argyl county,SCOTLAND. Duncan BUCHANAN settled in about 1817 about one half mile north of the present town of Mt.Olive,Covington county, Mississippi.His mother,brothers and sisters lived there near Duncan for a few years,his mother probably dying near Paulding,Mississippi. There yet remains many of these Calhoun's descendants in or near Mt.Olive and probably accompanied or followed their Buchanan kin there.Ch (of John CALHOUN and wife,Nancy BUCHANAN) :1- John,Jr.,Jan.6,1814, 2-Daniel,Aug. 11,1916, 3-Nancy Jane,Feb.23,1818,p.100, 4-Christian,Dec. 19,1819, 5-Mary,Oct.7,1821,p. 100, ,6-Malcolmn,Aug.8, 1823,p. 100,7-Catherine,Aug.28,1826,d.Sept.28,1832, 8-Sarah M., March 15,1829,p. 101 ,9-Effie,March 24,1831,p. 101, 10 Angus,Feb.7,1834 ,p.101, ,11-Catherine Jane,Oct.2, p.101. Four of his sons, Edwin Luther,Daniel Graham,John Caldwell and Archibald Shepherd CALHOUN,all of advanced age ,were living in 1954 near each other in their parental community of Mt.Olive,Missis - sippi which is south of and near Jackson,Mississippi,the State Capitol.where they were then interviewed by Rev.Edwin Crawford CALHOUN in 1954 who found in them many features common to Calhouns of his ancestors'descendants. Rev.Edwin Crawford CALHOUN then also visited their nephew,Edwin CALHOUN,lawyer in Jackson,Mississippi and the latter's mother, widow of their brother,Jesse Thompson CALHOUN of Jackson,Mississippi, author of a manuscript containing names and most of the dates of more than one thousand people in a "Genealogy of MALCOLMN CALHOUN, Scotch Emigrant,1792-1935", All of whom are recorded in the pages of this book, and this compiler here makes grateful acknowledgement to all whose intelligence,industry,unselfishness and devotion have made its appearance here possible.. 341, 476(81),

1-3-2-3-2- Jesse Thompson CALHOUN recited in the foreword of this manuscript the good fortune he had in finding the contents of the old ledger of the emigrant anstors whose family records placed therein by him,by his son John Calhoun and probably by his grandson,Daniel Calhoun,1-3-2,p. 97 and interviews with this Daniel CALHOUN, Jesse Thompson's grandfather as to the genealogy of their emigrant,Malcolm CALHOUN and wife,Christian McCORQUEDALE , without whose recollections to very advanced age much that is preserved herein would have been lost to posterity.

From all of the sources appropriated by Jesse Thompson Calhoun in early manhood and added to constantly through his long active life by excellent facilities which he utilized until he too was of advanced age before completing it to include all ascertainable descent until 1935 when he released full copies of it to other descendants of his great-great-grand parents,Malcolm CALHOUN and wife.Christian McCORQUEDALE of Isle of Skye,SCOTLAND ginia coast, Cumberland county,North Carolina and Grove Hill, Clarke county,Alabama,where they died at advanced age of life,and are buried in County Court House cemetery.Jesse Thompson CALHOUN'S first "family tree" was drawn by him in 1896.It was expanded by him until by 1916 it amounted to forty pages . William Malcolm WARREN,1-5-1-3-1 p, 101, another great-great-grand-son of emigrants,Malcolm and Christian (McCORQUEDALE) CALHOUN freely loaned his copy of their genealogy for inclusion herein remarking that he could "see no reason why it should not be included"in this book. Grateful acknowledged is here made to him by this compiler.

A note received before compiling the foregoing descent of"Malcolm CALHOUN,Scotch Emigrant"-from the Isle of Skye in SCOTLAND to Virginia Coast ,U.S.A. in 1792 states that Malcolm CALHOUN,1-5-1, son of Duncan CALHOUN,1-5-both shown on page 101 of this book,was cousin of Dougal. Compiler has no other authentic information in support of such relationship,but lists next here following some genealogical information in hand of one "Dougal CALHOUN: 1-"Dougal CALHOUN gave five acres of land for Presbyterian Church and cemetery four miles North of Sibley,Louisiana and was the first preson buried in that cemetery(now discontinued. This Dougal CALHOUN m. Nancy McARTHUN, who d. there Among their children was a son:1-Daniel Green. Dougal came from Glasgow Scotland and moved to that vicinity in Louisiana in Fall of 1852 and particpated in building the Presbyterian Church there before his death there in 1853 .S E E-page 322.

CALHOUNS EARLY IN BLADEN AND EDGECOMBE COUNTIES NORTH CAROLINA.

The exact origin of the CALHOUNS of Barnwell District, South Carolina had not been satisfactorily proven as of May 25, 1956. The following appears to be correct of them:

"John COHOON, William COHOON, Micajah COHOON and Thomas DIXON were in Edgecombe county, North Carolina in the 1760s.

In the 1770s and 1780s land grants in old Bladen county, North Carolina were issued to John CAHOON, John CAHOON, Jr., William CAHOON, Micajah CAHOON and James CAHOON.

Tradition dating from 1790s say that Micajah CALHOUN and wife, Jemima DIXON were the parents of the first CALHOUNS in Barnwell District, South Carolina."

These CALHOUNS in old Bladen county, North Carolina and in Edgecombe county, North Carolina may have been sons of John CALHOUN and brother, James CALHOUN of whom some trace suggest their presence in America some earlier than the above dates and one of them, probably, John, was the father of, at least three sons, Micajah, John and William CALHOUN

1-1- Micajah CALHOUN m. apparently in North Carolina Jemima DIXON("Dickson"), daughter of Thomas who d. in Edgecombe county, North Carolina in 1790 at which date he signed his will recorded there in which he mentions: "sons, William, Thomas and Hickman DIXON", "daughters, Jemima "BOHOON", Elizabeth MONTGOMERY ". Micajah CALHOUN is recorded in the 1790 U.S. Census of Orangeburgh District, South Carolina as head of a family composed of seven males over 16 years and two under 16 years and two females and William Calhoun with family there of two males over 16 years and 2 females. The only names learned for the children of Micajah CALHOUN and wife, Jemima DIXON are 1- Dixon, 1765, 2-Micajah, Jr., 1770, 3-Samuel, Jan.15, 1784, 4-Elizabeth 476(51)(a-c)

James CALHOUN m. Mary McLEAN,daughter of David and wife Isabell in CHESTER county,Pennsylvania before Dec.10, 1768 according to bequest in her father's will there recorded Sept.18,1770.

CHESTER COUNTY,PENNSYLVANIA lies East of and adjoins Lancaster county,Pennsylvania and adjoins YORK county on the South.

1- John CALHOUN obtained a license Feb.17,1734 on Dunning's Spring,apparently in YORK county,Pennsylvanaia and too peaceable possession of it in 1735; cleared,fenced and plowed three acres of it and built a cabin on it and returned to CHESTER county,Pennsylvania,where he then dwelt. He is refeered to elsewhere as "of Chester and York counties,Pennsylvania".This 200 acres license or grant to him was described after July 9,1764 as being claimed by John DUNNING and described as then being at Dry Springs in Westpennsboro Township ,Cumberland county,Pennsylvania in allegation by John's son and heir,Thomas CALHOUN that his father,said"John CALHOUN obtained Samuel BLUNSTON'S license Feb.17,1734-5 for ye same land".

This John CALHOUN(COHOON) had a grant of 200 acres in CHESTER county, Pennsylvania"on what is now the edge of York and Cumberland counties ,Pennsylvania he being designated in the grant as " John COHOON of Manchester Township York county,Pennsylvania"; m. between 1728 and 1734 Rebecca EWING, youngest daughter of James and wife,Margaret of Lower Province Township, Chester county ,Pennsylvania,who in his will signed Dec.14,1739,recorded in Chester county. HAMILTON FAMILY

Its first assumption of that name was by members who lived or near a place called HAMILTON (Hambledun) in the region of ENGLAND later designated as Leicester and Bucks counties, ENGLAND, where many of them first lived, before migrations to Scotland, North of IRELAND from all of which regions, espeically from Scotland and North of IRELAND to Amercian Colonies before their formation into present United States.

A table working backward from about the thirty fourth generation of descendants in Europe to its earliest recorded ancestor, BERNARD, Norman Baron, who from two sources published as far apart as 1828 and 1916 is credited as a near kinsman of ROLLO, First Duke of NORMANDY, father of WILLIAM, THE CONQUEROR in the lineage of the Earl of MELLENT to the 13th.? Duke of HAMILTON in SCOTLAND.

In this table or list of 35 individuals, ancestor of HAMILTONS progressing from the oldest known, entered at the end of the Table as "Item 1 ". upward or backward to Item 22, JAMES, First Duke of HAMILTON, born in 1606, son of Sir James, Item 21, son of Lord JOHN, 3rd. Marquis, Item 20, son of Sir JAMES, 2nd. Earl of ARRAN, Regent of SCOTLAND and Duke of Castle-Herald("Chatelherault"), Poicton, in FRANCE. Item Item 19 may be extended upwards or backwards to Item 34 to include thirty two generations to include the Dukes of HAMILTON of whom some publications were available of their activities in the Dukedom of HAMILTON, and other titles and estates held thereby, for which SEE pages

Item 23 indicates Sir William, 2nd. Duke, born Dec. 14, 1616, younger brother of Sir James, Item 22 for whose sketch SEE pp. and successors. The rank of Duke of HAMILTON is still occupied in the Dukedom of SCOTLAND in Lanarkshire, Scotland, some references to its occupants as late as about 1938, but little of interest therein was found to record herein.. N O T E :-

The foregoing TABLE, -Items 1-34 is as complete and authentic as compiler can hope to make, back to about as early as A.D. 996 .

Among those it traces are some of the descent of Sir JAMES HAMILTON of the Royal Family of SCOTLAND, whose rank included: 2nd. Earl of ARRAN, REGENT of SCOTLAND, 1543-155_ and Duke of Chatelherault in Poicton in FRANCE who died in his homestead in Hamilton, Lanarkshire, SCOTLAND Jan. 22, 1575. Of the Dukes of HAMILTON listed on the accompany Table on this page most of them are his descendants. The dukedoms in the United Kingdom of England, Scotland and Ireland were next in rank below the occupants of their thrones. SEE HAMILTON PALACE pp. It is located a place called "Clydesdale" in Mechane District on land granted by King ROBERT BRUCE to WALTER FITZGILBERT HAMILTON shortly after the battle of Bannockburn in 1314.

For many of the people listed in the 34 Items of the accompanying TABLE much biographical sketch will appear elsewhere in this book an attempt being made in connection with most of these biographies to fully identify them by this table.

This TABLE does not include Lord CLAUDE HAMILTON, recorded as youngest son of Sir JAMES HAMILTON, REGENT of SCOTLAND, 1543-155_ whose descendants are accredited as of "Royal Birth ". Item 19 of the accompanying TABLE.

Something of the rank of the early European HAMILTON family,their descendants there and elsewhere,especially in the United States of America has been gathered and presented elswhere in the pages of this book.See Item 19,Table p. 114

European and American HAMILTONS of royal birth begin with the descent of Princess Mary,eldest daughter of King James of SCOTLAND,who died in December 1542.Princess Mary married in 1474 as the second wife of Sir James,II,created 1st.Lord of HAMILTON July 3,1445,Princess Mary marrying as widow of BOYD, whose family owned the Island of Arran in the Firth of Clyde in the mouth of the Clyde River off of the southwest coast of SCOTLAND.Arran had thus become a possession of Princess Mary and was created into an earldom..Children of Lord HAMILTON and Princess Mary,Item 18 Table page 114: 1-James,III, 2-Elizabeth.

James,III, was the first HAMILTON of Royal blood and became 2nd. Lord HAMILTON and was created first Earl of Arran. He married and had children: 1-James, "son and heir", Item 19 Table ,page 115,2nd.Earl of Arran who in 1543 became Regent of SCOTLAND and later Duke of Chatelherault (Castle-Herald)in Poicton FRANCE by the favor of King HENY,II, of FRANCE in 1552; married Lady Margaret DOUGLAS,eldest daughter of the Earl of Morton and had four sons and four daughters. 10

Of these four sons the male descent became extinct in royal line,except the third (or 4th?) son,Sir Claude HAMILTON of whose five sons, three settled in the North of Ireland.

In going back from the 14th.or later Duke of HAMILTON the first JAMES,born 1606,died March 6,1649,Item 22,and his brother,the second WILLIAM,born Dec.14,1616,died Sept.12, 1651,Item 23 of Table on page 115,respectively , will be found to be the sons of James,IV,Item 21 Table,page 115,son of Lord JOHN,Item 20 Table page 115,2nd. son of Sir JAMES, Item 19,Table page 115,2nd.Earl of Arran,Regent of Scotland 1543-155_, Duke of Chatelherault (Castle-Herald) in Poicton, FRANCE who died at his seat,Hamilton,Lanarkshire,Scotland January 22,1575.

These dukes are a continuing linkage from a son of the latter Sir James,Item 19 Table page 115. Other descendants to date of this Sir James' youngest son,Lord CLAUDE HAMILTON,who was created Duke of Abercorn,whose descendants are also found amoung the earls,marquises,counts and countesses of Abercorn,living there and also in county Tyrone, Ulster,North of IRELAND.

Among the many HAMILTONS who trace their ancestry to county,Tyrone,Ireland and adjoining counties of Donegal and Londonderry in the generations of these sons of Sir CLAUDE HAMILTON, or within no more than two to three generations of his descendants is found in county Tyrone an Andley Harrison HAMILTON, who married Eleanor ADAMS and had,probably amog others, sons, Archibald and Andrew and daughter,Martha all of whom emigrated from county Tyrone in 1733 to Lancaster county,Pennsylvania,later living in Augusta county,Virginia,whom this compiler claims as his European HAMILTON ancestry. The vast number of earliest pioneers settling in Augusta county,Virginia from 1738 to 1800 apparently contain many descendants of this Sir CLAUDE HAMILTON,son of the Regent of Scotland,Sir JAMES,Item 19 Table,page 115.

"Many titled persons in the three Kingdoms of Great Britain other than the Duke of Hamilton,his brother,Lord Charles George Archbald DOUGLAS and his sister ,Lady Victoria,Princess of Manaco,have Hamilton ancestry." 11(a),62(c)

Alfred Douglas HAMILTON ,Item 34 Table page 115,was 13th.Duke of HAMILTON and Premier Peer of SCOTLAND for many years. He was referred to between 1938 and 1950 as "13th. Duke of HAMILTON,11th.Duke of BRANDON and Premier Peer of SCOTLAND" 23(b)SEE Rayburn Matthew HAMILTON,Longview,Gregg county,Texas,grandson of Dr.Andrew,son of Reuben of Tennessee, p. 62(c)

Alexander HAMILTON,10th.Duke of HAMILTON,born Oct. 1767,Item 31 TABLE p.115, represented the City of Lancaster in Parliament for three years;served a few months as Ambassador to Russia;resided in Lanarkshire,SCOTLAND only weeks for three or four times prior to 1822 and from 1822-1827 spent no more than half of his time there. 1(r).

By some authorities he is credited with carrying out,- in 1825,the plans of the 5th.Duke of HAMILTON,James ,5th. Duke of HAMILTON (1712-43),born in 1702,Item 26 TABLE,p. 115, for completing HAMILTON PALACE in Lanarkshire,SCOTLAND, -"262 feet in length and 60 feet in height,resembling in general style of the Temple of Adrian of Rome,- and containing the Mauseleum,-within the 1,500 acres of ground. The interior was richly decorated and contained one of the most valuable paintings of Scotland.

A noble avenue stretches two miles between it and Castle Chatelherault consisting of stables and offices,-imitating,in outline, the castle of that name in FRANCE."

Sir James HAMILTON continued in the earldom of ARRAN until 1554,while serving as Regent(Governor) of SCOTLAND from 1543-1558,having been created Duke of Chatelherault ("Castle-Herald) in Poicton in FRANCE in 1549,during which period he reached the zenith of his power, a later reference being to his power exercised in Scotland in 1566. 1(h)

He held the Regency of Scotland until the marriage of Mary,"Queen of Scots " in 1558 ,at the age of 15 years to the dolphin,who ascended the throne of FRANCE as Francis,II, through which Mary became Queen of FRANCE as well as of Scotland. A year and a half later Mary was a childless widow and by the necsitities of politics it was required that she leave the dissolute Court of FRANCE for her Scottish home.

Upon the return of Mary,"Queen of Scots" from FRANCE at the death of her French husband,Mary's mother,Mary of Guise, a French princess, and widow of King JAMES,V, of Scotland, parents of Mary,"Queen of Scots" became French Regent of Scotland and in May 1559 ordered JOHN KNOX,a preacher of the REFORMATION, " blown to the horn as an outlaw "upon his arrival in Edinburgh and forbade his Reform preaching. 33a(c),339?

Again at home in Scotland,Mary,'Queen of Scots" m.,2nd in 1565 Henry STUART (Lord DARNLEY) and had a son,James,born June 19,1566, who as JAMES,VI, became KING of SCOTLAND,June 15,1567 by the abdication of his mother,Mary, "Queen of Scots" in his favor,who later became KING JAMES,I, of ENGLAND and began really to reign in 1583". 43(d)

Sir JAMES HAMILTON's government of SCOTLAND during the minority of Mary,"Queen of Scots" is described as " such a moderation was kept as no one was heard to complain, as Governor he was reverently obeyed and held in as great respect as any king of preceding time ***."

In disposing of the Queen in marriage he had much to have said for himself,if he had married her to his own son, who was but a few years older than the Queen, but he showed that he desired her greatness more than his own, consenting to send her to the dolphin of FRANCE,afterwards, FRANCIS,II, King of FRANCE,-in acknowledgement of which he was made Duke of Castle-Herald ("Chatelherault") by the French KING HENRY,II. After the death of FRANCIS,II,when Queen Mary returned to Scotland,the Duke of Chatelherault, had again the great advantages,if any desire of power had governed him,for the REFORMATION had prevailed in Scotland, and he and all his family,except his son,CLAUDE, (ancestor of the Earls of Abercorn) were Protestants,-so that to have put himself at the head of that was the likliest way to have advanced his own designs,but it appeared that he and his sons had embraced the religion,-not for faction, but out of consicience for he continued free and faithful to the Queen to the last,-of which she was so sensible,that besides many public testimonies of her confidence such as naming the Duke of Castle-Herald her "adopted father" and calling him still by that name and referring to his care her whole concerns when she was a prisoner in England and when that severe and unparalled sentence of death was to be executed on her she took a ring off of her finger and gave it to one of her servants and ordered her to carry it to her cousin,Lord JOHN HAMILTON,,Item 20 TABLE page 115, who then represented his father ,who was dead(his older brother being an invalid) and to tell him that it was all she had to witness her great sense of his and his family's constant fidelity to her and for their sufferings for her interests,desiring that it might still be kept as a lasting evidence of her kindness. Their duty to the Crown was not easy or cheap to them;for the contrary faction designed to root them out of Scotland,in one of their mock Parliaments their blood was attainted,their estates and honors given to others and they were forced to seek shelter in England and France until King JAMES came to govern by his own counsels, and being then also pressed to it by intercessions of Queen ELIZABETH,he restored them to their honors and estates and created Lord JOHN HAMILTON,Item 20 TABLE page 115,as Marquis of HAMILTON,grandfather of Duke JAMES,Item 22 , and brother, William, Item 23,Dukes of HAMILTON and Castle-Herald TABLE page 115.KING JAMES,VI of Scotland and as KING JAMES,I, of ENGLAND did also treat him with the same respect as the Queen, his mother had done the Duke of Castle-Herald ("Chatelherault" and called him always "father" and wrote to him often. When that KING went to DENMARK to bring home his queen he named Lord JOHN HAMILTON,Item 20 TABLE page 115, his Lord of the South of Scotland."

At Stirling in 1585 KING JAMES met Marquis JOHN HAMILTON and told him:" You were a faithful servant to the Queen,my mother,in my childhood." Marquis JOHN HAMILTON died at age 72 years,having married and left a son,James, IV,born in 1588, whom he charged to emulate the principles of his life,which he then stated to him." This James,IV, Item 21 TABLE page 115, died in London ENGLAND March 16, 1624,age 36 years,was Marquis of HAMILTON and was buried at Hamilton,Scotland and was succeded by his son and heir, James, born in 1606,Item 22 TABLE page 155 and p when 18 years old ,whom his father had brought with him to ENGLAND some years before.

Sir JAMES HAMILTON,Regent of Scotland,Item 19 TABLE page 115," was a friend to the Reformers and kept two of their preachers in his family.One of his first acts as Regent of Scotland was allowing the Scriptures to be translated and read in the vulgar tongue."

Since the Island of ARRAN is of interest to HAMILTON descendants it is here described as :" a large Island in the Firth of Clyde and Kilbannon Sound along the NORTH

CHANNEL,-' off the rugged shores of Western Scotland where the tempestous waters of the Atlantic Ocean beating against a rock-bound coast are subdued into a murmur as they enter the Firth of Clyde River of Scotland," and that:"The Island of ARRAN has remained through the succeeding centuries as the seat of numerous and active descendants of these earliest HAMILTONS." 47(a)

Sir JAMES HAMILTON,2nd.Earl of ARRAN has not been identified in a domicil on the Island of ARRAN,but probably spent some time living in Castle-Herald ("Chatelherault ") Lanarkshire,Scotland.

Sir JAMES HAMILTON,Item 18 TABLE page 115,1st.Earl of ARRAN and 2nd.Lord HAMILTON,was created Earl,Aug.18,1503, was also Duke of Albany. Upon the death of King James IV, (1493-1513)this first Earl of ARRAN made a bold but unsuccessful push for the Regency of Scotland by laying seige to Cadzow Castle but his mother Princess MARY negotiated between the Regent and her son.When attacked near Aven defeated the Earl of Lennox .1(g). Sir JAMES HAMILTON ,II,6th.Lord of Cadzow,Item 17 TABLE page 115, was created 1st. Lord by Parliament of Scotland July 3,1445, who resigned this whole estate into the hands of the King JAMES,II,of Scotland,which was then created by charter into a free lordship denominated the"Lordship of HAMILTON." From this time the proper name of the lordship,the parish and church and the surname of the family became "HAMILTON" and all the branches of the family seem to have taken that surname. Hamilton was and is the name of manors in Yorkshire,Hampshire and Leicestershire, ENGLAND. Near Glasgow,Scotland is HAMILTON PALACE,the seat of the Dukes of HAMILTON. The house built first in the town of Hamilton,Scotland fixed the family's residence for the protection it afforded.- on a piece of ground termed "the Orchard"-is appointed in the charter to be from that period the principal messauge of the Lordship",-which is eleven miles south east of Glasgow,Scotland.1(a,d,f(,9(b), 16(a),18(b),19(a),23(b),27(a-c),215.

This Sir JAMES HAMILTON,Item 17 TABLE page 115,married first,Euphemia GRAHAM,eldest daughter of Patrick,Earl of Stratherne,then widow of the 5th.Earl of DOUGLAS,-making an alliance of Hamilton and Douglas families by which marriage he had two daughters; married, 2nd.,in 1474 Priness MARY,daughter of KING JAMES of Scotland,then widow of Sir Thomas BOYD,who had been created Earl of ARRAN in April 1467,-forfeited in 1769,- son of Sir Robert Lloyd BOYD,Earl of Kilmernock,whose family owned the Island of ARRAN,- by whom he had a son,James . Princess MARY'S father,KING JAMES' surname was apparently "James STEWART (or"STUART "). Sir JAMES,Item 17,page 115,became the ancestor of the Duke of HAMILTON.9(a),10(k),39,476(43)(g).

NOTE :-

The foregoing seems to eliminate as an ancestor for people bearing the surname "HAMILTON",emigrated to North American Colonies before 1750 descendants of the two older sons of Sir James HAMILTON,2nd.Earl of ARRAN, Regent of Scotland and Duke of Chatelherault ("Castle-Herald"),Item 19 page 115,namely:James and John.

As history states that this Sir JAMES,Item 19 page 115, had four sons,one known as "Sir CLAUDE HAMILTON ",referred to my some Scottish historians as "3rd" son,and by others as "4th" son. An effort will be made herein to trace and list descendants from this son,Sir CLAUDE HAMILTON'S three sons recorded as early settlers in county Tyrone,Ulster,North of Ireland,who with HAMILTONS from the adjoining or neighborings counties of Donegal,Londonderry and Down counties,Ireland migrating through the 18th. century to American Colonies,-present United States of America.Included in these migrations were Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,p. 133-,and brother, Andrew HAMILTON,H-2,p.198,who moved in 1733 from county,Tyrone,Ireland to Lancaster county,Pennsylvania and had settled by about 1738 in original Augusta county,Virginia, whence some of their descendants had removed by about 1765 to Granville(now Abbeville)county, South Carolina. These HAMILTON descendants ,immigrants from county Tyrone,Ireland left record of the titles and estates of their European Hamilton ancestors connected back to Sir JAMES HAMILTON,2nd.Earl of ARRAN,Regent of Scotland from 1543-1558,Duke of Chatelherault (Castle-Herald),Item 19 page 115,which record by such immigrants made by them soon after settlement by them in Augusta county, Virginia about 1738,which was published in Augusta county Virginia within about the first half of the Twentieth century.

Sir David HAMILTON,I,served KING DAVID BRUCE in all his wars with England,being captured in the battle of Durham in 1348. KING DAVID BRUCE,I, of Scotland,son and successor of KING ROBERT BRUCE, confirmed in 1369 the barony of Cadzow in county Lanark,Scotland to the HAMILTON family which had been erected in their favor by his father,KING ROBERT BRUCE,under the simple reservation of  a yearly money payment as a redendo and a relaxed duty on the enfeoffment of the heirs. The Crown had before quitted all their other pretentions to Cadzow,including the Castle, which thereafter became the hereditary barony of the HAMILTONS being infeoft in the Barony of CADZOW by ROBERT BRUCE,the family had obtained from the same prince a feudal grant to the barony of Kimmel which has ever since remained with them.5,11,19(a,b),21,27(a-c),206

Sir Walter Fitzgilbert HAMILTON,Item 12,TABLE page 115, is recorded as"Walter de Hambledun" of Manor of HAMILTON, county Leicester,England. His name is also recorded in different forms ,as "Walterius,Filius Gilbertii", "Sir Walter FitzGilbert ","Schyre Walter Gilbertson","Sir Walter Fitz-Gilbert,son of Sir GILBERT","Sir Walter HAMILTON"and perhsps in other forms'-all referring to the exile from Leicester county,England to Cadzow (now HAMILTON),Lanarkshire,Scotland rcognized founder of the Scottish branch of the HAMILTON family of the World.His name is well preserved in Scotland as of dates as early as 1292,1294 and 1296,making him a contemporary of Sir WILLIAM WALLACE,who led the Scottish revolt against England in 1296 for which he was exected in 1305. 18a(a).

This compiler concurs in the dissents of commentators and historians that Walter, instead of his father,Gilbert, was the actor in England and consequent exile to Scotland in the event from which originated the authentic HAMILTON coat of arms, as used herein and most generally by descendants of HAMILTONS and elsewhere and ever since.15(a)

For support of compilers choice to concur in such dissent in favor of Walter HAMILTON reference is made to documents, each signed in Scotland and to the dates used by these early writers here sought to be reconciled,-all as to the principal events in which said Walter and his father, Gilbert de HAMILTON are reported to have participated,-both in England and in Scotland. Susbsitution of the father,Gilbert for his son, Walter, is obvious error.

Errors in translating into English from Latin,Saxon, Norman or Fench languages,-or from absence of,or failure to carefully observe dates as to the origin of the HAMILTON family by the earlier writers possibly led these writers into confusion in distinguishing events in the lives of Walter de Hambledun,Item 12 page 115, his father,Gilbert, Item 11 page 115,and even of Walter's grandfather,William HAMBLEDUN(HAMILTON),Item 10 page 115 ,such as :"Walter FitzGILBERT,meaning in Saxon language:"Walter,son of Gilbert "10(g); "Walterus ,filius Gilberti",meaning in Latin, "Walter,son of Gilbert."

A charter in the possession of the ROBERTSON family of Carmade has for witness:"Walter, filuis Gilbert et Hugo, frater ejusdem".Latin for :" Walter, son of Gilbert and Hugo, his brother "meaning also that Walter and Hugo were sons of Gilbert.19(a,b).Transposition of prefixes and suffixes to the root word may have confused names and individuals.

In support of this is:

First,The unqualified statement of William BURTON,ESQ.,historian in county Leicester,England in 1623;

Second, The similarity of arms and the concurring testimony of anceint Scottish writers;

Third, The ancient family records and the absence of any other reported origin;

Fourth, The close connexion between the members of the DeBellamont family, Items 5 - 9 inclusive,page 115, and Scotland; the high position held by the very founders of the HAMILTON family in that country,their noble alliances and the fact that Lord HAMILTON,Item 17 p.115,was considered a suitable husband for the Princess Mary at a period about 200 years from the settlement of his ancestor,Sir Gilbert HAMILTON in Scotland."19,21.

" It seems now to be admitted by all writers that the HAMILTON family traces to Walter FitzGilbert,son of Gilbert as its earliest authenticated ancestor,who lived in the reign of KING ROBERT BRUCE of Scotland(1313-1329)12a

" more than one historian expressed the opinion that Sir Walter FitzGilbert,sometimes written both as Sir Walter FitzGilbert",son of Gilbert " and as "Schyre Walter Gilbertson" was the hero of the duel and flight to Scotland instead of "Gilbert",his father. 10(f,g).From the foregoing data it appears that Sir Walter Fitzgilbert HAMILTON was ancestor to most of HAMILTON descendants of Scotland and Ulster,Ireland,nad of most of the HAMILTON descendants in North American Colonies (now States of the Union),whence they emigrated in force in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth centuries and since. He is identified in Scotland in 1292, 1294,1296,1314,1315,1324,1329 and 1333. He was an important land owner in Renfrewshire,Scotland in 1292.

As"Walter Fitzgilbert" he had witnessed:(a) in 1292 several charters granting lands in the Monastery of Paisley;(b) in 1294, a grant by JAMES,The Great of Scotland for herring fishing privilege in the Clyde River;(c)and in 1296 was recorded as "Walter Fitzgilbert on the Ragman Roll; 10.as "Walter Fitzgilbert" became founder of the dynasty of the Ducal House of HAMILTON; was appointed by KING EDWARD of England as Governor of the Castle of Bothwell and held that important fortress,-and the great deposit of stores there,-the strongest fortress then held by KING EDWARD in Scotland at the battle of Bannockburn in 1314,1(c),23(a); had several military commands in the service of KING ROBERT BRUCE of Scotland, which he executed with success and was rewarded by that King in 1315 ,-"in the 9th year of his reign",-crowned in 1306 with a grant of the barony of Macanshire in county Lanark,Scotland.

" In the Court of KING EDWARD,II, of England in 1323 Walter Fitzgilbert spoke honorably of the great merit of KING ROBERT BRUCE of Scotland,whereupon John de Spencer, favorite of and Chamberlain to KING EDWARD,thinking that the discourse reflected on his master gave Walter a blow, which he resented so highly that he challenged de Spencer to a duel the following day,from which de Spencer sharnk, whereupon Walter fought and killed him.

The friends of Walter,well knowing that KING EDWARD, II, would resent the death of his favorite,advised him to leave England and go to Scotland,which he did . In his flight,being closely pursued,Walter Fitzgilbert changed his clothes with a wood cutter and taking his place at the saw,were cutting through an oak tree when the pursuers passed. Perceiving that his companion at the saw took notice of the pursuers,hastily called to him "THROUGH",which word with the oak and saw through it he took for his motto and crest,-in memory of his happy deliverance."1(a), 9(h),10(f),14(a).

" Walter was well received by KING ROBERT BRUCE who,to make him amends for what he had forfeited in England on his account generously rewarded him in 1324 with grants of the barony lands of Cadzow (now HAMILTON),in county Lanark Scotland,about 11 miles southeast of Glasgow,also of the lands and baronies of Kiniel,Larbor,Auldethie and several others in the shire of Linlithgow,- and Kirkinder,Kirkhowen,etc. in shire of Wigton.9(b).At Cadzow there were large grants of land attached, and having been a royal residence for two centuries,even though in ruins,it is a most interesing and picturesque feature to all tourists.It stands on a summit rock feet high guarding the chaise with its ancient oaks,the remains of a Caledonia forest."23(b) 10(g,h),19(a,b)

"Walter Fitzgilbert HAMILTON had the honor of delivering the funeral oration of his great benefactor,KING ROBERT BRUCE of Scotland in 1329.

Walter continued faithful to King DAVID of Scotland, son and successor of his great benefactor, and during David's minority accompanied the Regent,DOUGLAS,to the relief of Berwick, then threatened with seige by the English. He was also present at the battle of Haildon Hill in 1533 in command of the second great army under the younger STUART." 10(e-g),15(a)

An author of early European HAMILTON ancestry pubkished as early as 1827 his findings as follows:

" It is perfectly clear that a person by the name of "Walter",who was a contemporary of KING ROBERT BRUCE of Scotland (who reigned there from 1506-1529) was the founder of the Ducal family,HAMILTON,and that his brother,John, was the progenitor of ROSSAVEN and PRESTON,of which Sir WILLIAM HAMILTON is (in 18827) the representative,and that it is highly probable that Oliver, the Carpenter, and one Hugo were brothers of Walter and John; that their father's name was Gilbert is instructed by the charter obtained from BRUCE." 19(a,b),262

" The Spanish Armada composed of some 130 ships bearing' Spain's haughty Dons and Inquisitors up " Invincible and most Happy Armada " advanced to Tobermory Bay off the Island of Null, one of Scotland's Inner Hebrides, where they were met by Elizabethian sea dogs DRAKE, FROBISHER, HOWARD and HAWKINS in 1588.

In the first day's battle the Armada's Paymaster-General's ship, Florencia, was blown up by the explosion of its gun powder magazine, so badly disabling it that it sank, supposedly with all its treasure, in Tobermory Bay off the Island of Null.

The great Armada was outsailed and outfought, broken up, harried and herded eastward past Dover and into the North Sea. Rigging smashed and ships leaking, the fleet tried desperately to get home by sailing around all of Britain. Wild storms ended what DRAKE had begun. Ships sank unrecorded. Others wrecked on hostile coasts from Shetland Islands to the West of Ireland.

This paymaster's ship wreck has been sought in some 20 attempts in the 362 years before 1950 when Admiralty divers using probes located its wreckage beneath tons of silt.

They her and ever afterward have been called "Scotch-Irish" and while in Ulster, North of Ireland for more than a century predominantly aherded to their faith in the Presbyterian Church and there was realtively litter intermarriage there between Scotch and Irish families. This occupation of Ulster by the Scotch nobility and gentry was was well under way by about A.D. 1611 being induced thereto by King James, I, of England as aforesaid. This unrest in many of the countries of Europe became known as the "Reformation". spearheads of which had been Savanarola in Italy, Martin Luther in Germany, Charles Wickliffe in England, John Huss in Bohemia, John Knox in Scotland, Huguenot leaders in France and others elsewhere.

" After the Restoration, which put CHARLES, II, on the throne of England in 1660, there was an entire turnover in the religious aspects of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

When KING James, I, of England (previously KING JAMES, VI, of Scotland, son of Mary "Queen of Scots" and her 2nd. husband, HENRY STUART (Lord DARNLEY) "began really to rule" in 1583 there was another turnover and the Irish virtually seceded and in the struggle from 1687-1689 the Secessionists were loyal to King JAMES, I, in his attempt to keep his throne, he being a STUART, though a Protestant.

The defeat of the secessionists caused many of the Scotch nobility and upper classes to become refugees from Ulster, North of Ireland and Scotland when WILLIAM of Orange and Queen Mary became soverigns of Great Britain and Ireland.

Few, if any, of these refugees returned from American Coloniss to the United Kingdom until after the death of KING WILLIAM, II, in 1702, and the queen in 1714, being the last of the Stuarts on the throne of the United Kingdom. 23(a), 130(b).

As a natural consequence of the tragic and untimely death of so great a man as ALEXANDER HAMILTON, The Federalist, there was stimulation of intensive international research for explanation of the causes giving rise to so remarkable a man in world history.

This researched and recorded his ancestry back to Sir Walter Fitzgilbert HAMILTON, Item 12 TABLE 115, and pages 120-121, -in England and Scotland before A.D. 1292 as authentically as can be claimed for any HAMILTON over so long a period and is a classic contribution to European and American HAMILTON lineages.

This Walter Fitzgilbert de HAMBLEDUN ("HAMILTON") is elsewhere recorded as ancestor of the HAMILTONS of Cambuskeith and Grange in Ayreshire, Scotland" . 10

Among the galaxy of European HAMILTON royalty, nobility and gentry of worthy achievements, noted herein and elsewhere, none surpass in intelligence, patriotism, statesmanship integrity and wisdom ALEXANDER HAMILTON, the Great Fereralist and adopted son of Colonial America, now the United States of America..

He was a son of JAMES HAMILTON of Ayreshire Scotland and Huguenot wife of French origin, and of Isle of Nevis, West Indes, wheir their illustrious son was born Jan. 11, 1757.

His international prestige at the time of his death sparked this research into his ancestry no less than did in ancient times " seven cities fought for HOMER dead through which the living HOMER begged his bread " He died July 12, 1804 and is buried in Trinity Church Yard in New York City, New York his tomb there carrying the following inscription:

"The patriot of incorruptible integrity. The Soldier of Approved valor. The Statesman of consummate wisdon. Whose talents and virtues will be remembered by a Grateful posterity long after this marble has smouldered to the dust. 42(a).

This research into HAMILTON lineages from Sir Walter Fitzgilbert HAMILTON is brought down to ALEXANDER HAMILTON, the Federalist, and is here inserted as follows:

His father, JAMES HAMILTON of Ayreshire, Scotland and Isle of Nevis, West Indes was son of Alexander of Grange, Scotland, son of Johnson of John, son of Alexander, who died in 1616, son of Alexander, son of David, who owned lands at Grange, Scotland, son of William, son of John, son of Alexander, son of John, son of James, son of David of Cambuskeith, Scotland, son of Sir David and wife, Lady Leslie, son of Sir WALTER FITZGILBERT de HAMBLEDUN (HAMILTON)." Herethe research "sparked by the death of Alexander, The Federalist" nds, but existing charts (SEE Items 1-34 TABLE page 115) of earlier HAMILTON generations in SCOTLAND add that Sir WALTER FITZGILBERT de HAMBLEDUN(HAMILTON) was son of Gilbert, son of William, son of Sir Robert de Monfort, , son of Robert BLANCHEMAINE, 3rd. Earl of Leicester, England, son of Robert Bossu de BELLEMENT, 2nd Earl, son of Robeert de BELLEMENT, 1st. Earl, son of Roger de BELLEMONT, son of Humphrey'son of Turlofe ("Trulof"), son of Trulofos, son of BERNARD, Norman baron, A.D. 996.

Most HAMILTONS of Ulster, North of Ireland and nearly all Scotch HAMILTONS find their ancestral connections through these two listings of Ancestors in Scotland to Sir Walter Fitzgilbert de HAMBLEDUN (HAMILTON) and his parents, Gilbert de HAMBLEDUN (HAMILTON) and wife, Lady Isabell RANDOLPH, daughter of Sir James of Stratherne, Scotland, and sister of Thomas RANDOLPH, Earl of Mar and Governor of Scotland 39

Colonel James A. HAMILTON, son of Alexander HAMILTON, The Federalist, upon his withdrawal from politics made his first visit to Europe in 1835, his friend, PRESIDENT ANDREW JACKSON sending him a letter intended to be a general passport, but which he found unnecessary to use, the name, "Alexander HAMILTON, The Federalist, his father being the most infalliable passport he could have had anywhere in Europe.

One of his first visits in Europe was to the ancestral home in Ayreshire, Scotland. He was the first member of his grandfather Hamilton's family to find his way back to the to the old home. The stone house, which his grandfather had left over 100 years before to seek his fortune in the West Indes he found to be an ivy-covered ruins, -the then "Laird", neamed Alexander Hamilton, then 80 years old (born 1755) living in a more modern establishment. but not having any intercourse with the head of the clan, the Duke of HAMILTON, because the Scotch cousin said he was a "Whig Radical" The "Laird" was a Scotch Tory." 10, 28(a), 30

Some meanings defined from features of Coats of Arms:

Argent- White or silver signifies peace and sincerity. Chevron- signifies protection and has often been granted in arms as a reward to some one who has achieved some notable enterprize. It is supposed to represent the roof-tree of a house and has sometimes been given to those who have built churches or fortresses, or who have accomplished some work of faithful service.

Ermines-A fur of heraldry has so long been associated with robes and crowns of Royal and Noble personages,that it is easy to understand why it should be considered as a perfect emblem of dignity in any Coat of Arms.

Sable-or black, denotes constancy and sometimes,but most rarely, grief.   19(a,b)

" Out of the Middle Ages and down through the centuries of the world of to-day comes the proud custom and the romantic tradition of the Ancestral Coat of Arms."

" Since armorial bearings are hereditary,American descendants of British and Continental families have the unquestionable right to use the arms borne by their ancestors.

The origin of heraldry may be traced back to the dawn of history . Primitive people painted or tatooed tribal badges on their bodies;the ancient Hebrews,Egyptians,Chinese and Japanese used symbols comparable with with the insignia of heraldry; the Aztecs of Mexico carried shileds and banners bearing personal or tribal devices; and the heroes of anceint Greece and Rome enscribed hereditary ensigns on their shields.

Centuries later the Norman invaders of England in 1066 bore shields emblazoned with crudely designed insignia. But all these early devices lacked the essential characteristics of armorial bearings."

True heraldry,in the sense of a systematized science of hereditary armoral bearings, dates from from the early Twelfth century. By 1169 a number of the shields borne in the Third Crusdade were emblazoned, and the great seal of Richard, the Lion-Hearted in the same year shows his seal charged with a lion rampant,

Factors contributing to the rise of heraldry included: man's natural desire to enhance his personal appearance, which found expression in the ornamentation of his military equipment and the need among warriors to cover their heads and bodies with and for identifying marks easily recognizable in the press of battle." Heraldry was the answer to these requirements of the times, and with remarkable swiftness it came into general use"

" From the beginning of the Thirteen century princes,nobles,knights and gentry adopted the custom and proudly displayed their arms in architectural and household decorations,in jewelry and embroidery as well as on their paraphrenalia of war ****"

" From the practice of embroidering the family device on the surcoat,worn over the coat of arms comes the expression,"Coat of Arms".."Lions,eagles and foxes represnting the virtues which the medieval mind attributed to these creatures, were frequently employed on coats of arms.

" In the early part of the fifteenth century a proclamation of King Henry,V;prohibited thereafter,-in England the assumption of arms except by virtue of inheritance or a grant from the Crown."* * *

" The complete coat of arms includes the shield of arms,the helmet,the crest,the wreath,the mantling and the motto. The shield on which is displayed the armorial device is the most important part of the composition. It represents the old knightly shield." "The helmet,derived like the shield from the defensive armor of the knight,is placed above the shield. It may be used though the coat of arms includes no crest. The crest,principal accessory of the shield of arms,surmounts the helmet. Like the shield and helmet,it has its origin in the accoutrement of the knight. A wreath of twisted silk,usually of two colors,was commonly worn on the knight's helmet,surrounding the base of the crest. In heraldry,the wreath appears between the helmet and the crest as a support for the crest.

The motto,which is inscribed on a scroll,placed either above or below the shield,is not an essential part of the composition;and is not necessarily hereditary,and may be changed at will. Many of the oldest coats of arms do not include mottoes. Heraldry was introduced into America by the first settlers, many of whom,younger sons of the nobility or gentry,brought with them from England,or the continent their hereditary coats of arms,which have been found in America in old paintings,in engraved silverware,in seals affixed to letters and official documents and in carvings on ancient monuments and tombstones.

In Colonial America armorial bearings were handed down from generation to generation, and the custom was by no means discarded when political ties with England were severed. Regarded as an emblem of family rather than nationality, arms continued in general use during the Revolution.There are innumerable instances of officials high in American public life who used their ancestral arms,seals and signet rings,the impresions of which may still be seen beside their signatures on State doucments and private papers.

Genealogy and heraldry are now ignored by those who know of no ancestor of whom they can be proud.Love of ancestry is an instinct deeply-rooted in man's nature.Pride of ancestry is an admirable trait,contributing to health,self-respect and stirring ambition to add new honors to the family name."   39

Lord Hamilton's Magnificent Palace Brought to New York

Interesting History of the Famous Old Castle Whose Furnishings Will Decorate Some American Millionaire's Home

NO little anxiety and considerable resentment have been expressed in Europe over the removal to America of so many notable art works of the Old World. There was some comment when Mr. Henry E. Huntington brought to New York the painting of the Beckford Children, which hung over the bed in the boudoir of the tenth Duchess of Hamilton in the historic Hamilton Palace, the ancient home of the Dukes of Hamilton, who ranked next to the Scottish kings. At the same time an armoire from the same room was purchased for the Frick collection of antiques. Secretaires and commodes exquisitely executed by the patient cabinet workers of the Middle Ages also found their way out of Hamilton Palace into the Vanderbilt art collection. And now famous old Hamilton Palace itself has come to America.

With the greatest care, panel by panel, the walls and ceilings and floors of eighteen rooms of Hamilton Castle have been taken down, carefully packed, even to the nails which held the carvings in place, and have been brought to New York by P. W. French & Co. Two of these rooms have been reconstructed and set up in French's New York studio. The value of these carvings and panels is estimated at $500,000 and represent the best craftsmanship of the wood workers of the seventeenth century.

The exact spot at which Hamilton Palace is located is known as Clydesdale. It is situated on an almost level plain, with the Avon River running through its parks. Remains of the Caledonian Forest, from which the joiners sawed their heavy oaken boards that sheathed the palace walls are still evident in oak stumps 27 feet in circumference. As late as 1769 deer and the white, wild Scottish cattle peculiar to the district could be seen feeding on its broad acres.

The stones of the first castle were laid shortly after Robert the Bruce, King of Scotland, granted to Walter Fitz Gilbert de Hambleton, after the Battle of Bannockburn, the land of the district then called Machane. Sir Walter, in England, praised the patriotic accomplishments of Bruce, when a companion gave him a blow. A challenge to a duel followed. Because he refused to fight Sir Walter killed his adversary the next day and was advised to flee for his life.

On his way northward to Scotland he was closely pursued into a wood, where he and his servant changed coats with two charcoal burners, and, with frame saw in hand, were cutting an oak tree when their pursuers passed by. Sir Walter, observing that his servant was taking notice of them, spoke hastily to him the one word, "through," to call the servant to his senses. This word became the motto of the family, and the saw cutting through the oak is the crest of the Hemilton coat of arms, and forms part of decorative pieces over the mantels that were preserved from the palace. One of the magnificent mantels is now set up in the studios of P. W. French & Co., just as it was at Hamilton Palace.

After the palace had been built and ruined twice, William, the youngest son of the Marquis of Douglas, married Anne, who held the title to the Hamilton Palace, in 1657. He was made a duke in his own right shortly after and started to build the south wing of the palace on its present magnificent scale. James Smith, the most experienced architect in Scotland, undertook this work, which was afterward completed under the widowed Duchess, probably by William Adam, who has given his name to a type of architecture and furniture which is considered one of the finest even to the present day. Many of the stones on the south front bear the monogram, "W. A.," "A" for Anne and "W" for William.

The Duchess spent much of her time at Avondale, another Scottish residence, while work at Hamilton progressed. From evidence at hand, antiquarians have come to believe that James Smith had not completed the interior of the south wing when William died in 1694, and that some time must have elapsed before the Duchess allowed him to continue the work and to undertake the decorating of the east wing, in which her own suite of ten white and gold rooms were located.

The oak wainscotings and ceilings followed the style of the famous English architect, Wren, and the two-storied mantelpieces found in the rooms were also given a vogue by this distinguished Englishman.

Until the accounts of the building of Holyrood were studied, it was thought that the ceilings of both this castle and those of Hamilton Palace were the work of Italians, as leaders of this craft had been imported from Italy by some of the best architects in the early part of the eighteenth century. Antiquarians who have examined the ceilings at Hamilton, however, have concluded that the plaster work was done by local British craftsmen, and is the best thing of its kind known up to that time.

The fifth Duke of Hamilton, grandson of Duchess Anne, commissioned William Adam to make plans for the enlargement of Hamilton Palace, which afterward were made the basis for alterations carried out by the tenth Duke in 1825, giving the famous palace its completed appearance.

Alexander, tenth Duke of Hamilton, married Susanna Beckford, one of the handsomest women of her time, and the daughter of a prevailing British Croesus, an alderman and millionaire many times over.

Duke Alexander had a very great opinion of his own importance, and frequently gave expression to the sentiment that as the descendant of the Regent Arran, he was the rightful heir to the Scottish throne. He completed the building of the palace along the lines laid down by William Adam.

Eventually he came into possession of the famous historian Gibbon's library, from the estate of his father-in-law, and had a portion of Hamilton Palace remodelled to house it. Then he bought himself a tremendous Egyptian sarcophagus for his burial tomb, which was placed within the palace, and there is some danger that the earth's crust, enfeebled by the proximate mining, may yet fail to bear the ponderous mass of this huge sepulchre.

Since his death the succeeding heirs to the title rapidly diminished the income from the estate so that most of its former artistic treasures were sold in 1822, leaving little but the interior woodwork of any great value, and this has now been brought to America, where it may eventually find its way into some millionaire's modern home.

During the time the first steps in the building of the modern palace were being undertaken, Duchess Anne's son, James Douglas, was appointed by King Charles II. as Ambassador Extraordinary to the court of Louis XIV., in France, familiarly known in history as the "Grand Monarch." By a singular coincidence he saw in the palace of the French ruler the famous Gobelins tapestries, depicting the glories of the French King, and which are now in the same studios as are the walls and some of the fur- niture of his ancestral home.

There are six of these tapestries, wrought with threads gold and in hues which cannot be matched at the present da depicting the war-like triumphs of the French King.

These tapestries hung in the castle of Lord Amherst before they were brought to this country not long ago by French & Co. and are valued at half a million dollars.

The entire set of these tapestries, called "The History of the King," was made up of forty pieces, at present the property of the Republic of France, but duplicates of some of the best pieces were made, which were collected by Lord Amherst and remained under his roof until they came to this country.

They were produced at the Gobelins works by Philippe Hehagle, who afterward became the royal weaver at the tapestry factory at Beauvais, where he brought with him the great traditions of the Gobelins, and set up high-warp looms, from which such masterpieces as the Acts of the Apostles and some of the replicas of the "History of the King" were produced.

The largest of this group is entitled "The Surrender of Dole," and is fifteen by nineteen feet. In this masterpiece of the weaving art, valued at $100,000, the grand monarch is seen mounted on a white horse, accompanied by Marshal Turenne, his famous general, and other military leaders.

At that time war making, according to Louis XIV.'s conception, was conducted on a magnificent scale. His army [illegible] forth with bright banners, flung to the sun, and with [illegible] orne on the breeze.

Accordingly, it is not at all unusual that Queen Marie There id her ladies are to be observed in this tapestry [illegible] in gilded yal coach looking at the petitioning ambassadors [illegible] from the rrison of Dole, who are offering her liege lord, the King, sur- nder, and petitioning for peace. The capture of Dole, beles being an achievement for Louis XIV., was also a red-letter y in the history of France, as from that time it came under s suzerainty of the French monarchs.

PIONEER ROADS MADE THE PACIFIC COAST ACCESSIBLE BEFORE 1850

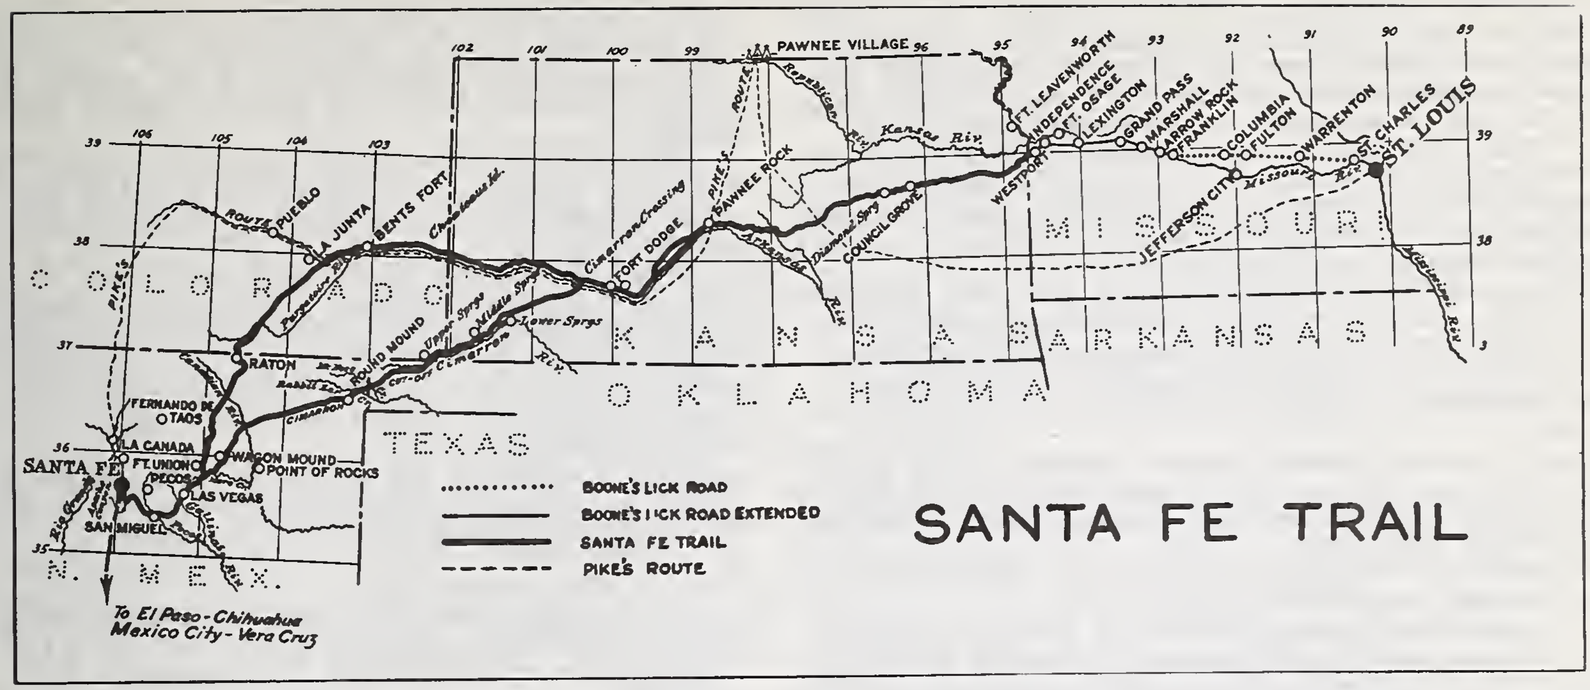
IN 1822 THE FAMOUS SANTA FE TRAIL INTO THE SOUTHWEST, NOW NEW MEXICO, WAS OPENED UP TO AFFORD AN OPPORTUNITY FOR AMERICAN TRADE WITH THE NEWLY BORN REPUBLIC OF MEXICO.

AMERICAN TRADERS TRANSPORTED THEIR WARES IN THE PRAIRIE SCHOONERS TYPICAL OF TRAVEL IN THE FAR WEST IN THE EARLY DAYS.

BY 1842 THE OREGON COUNTRY IN THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST WAS OPENED TO SETTLEMENT AND OVER THE OLD OREGON TRAIL THERE POURED A STREAM OF EMIGRANTS IN PRAIRIE SCHOONERS TO FORM A MIGRATION THE EXTENT OF WHICH IS SAID TO BE WITHOUT PARALLEL IN HISTORY. THE ROUTE INTO CALIFORNIA WAS THE RESULT OF THE CRY OF GOLD! GOLD!! IN 1849, WHICH CREATED A FRENZY THAT ATTRACTED THE ATTENTION OF THE ENTIRE WORLD AND THOUSANDS HIT THE TRAIL FOR THE NEW BONANZA ON THE PACIFIC COAST.



WHY YOU HAVE A FAMILY NAME AND WHAT IT MEANS TO YOU.

" Primitive personal names doubtless originated soon after the invention of spoken language,although the date of their first use is lost in the darkness of ages preceding recorded history.For thousands of years thereafter,first or given names were the only designations that men and women bore;and in the dawn of historic times,when the world was less crowded than it is to-day and every man knew his neighbor,one title of address was sufficient. Only gradually,with the passing of centuries and the increasing complexity of society,did a need arise for more specific designations. While the roots of our system of family names may be traced back to early civilized times,actually the hereiditary surname as we know it to-day dates from a time scarcely earlier than nine hundred years ago.

A surname is a name added to a baptismal or Chrisitian name for the purpose of making it more specific and of indicating family relationship or descent. Classifed according to origin,most surnames fall into four general categories:(1) those formed from the given name of the sire;(2) those arising from bodily or personal characteristics,;(3) those derived from locality or place of residence; and (4) those derived from occupation. It is easier to understand the story of the developement of our institution of surnames if these classifications are borne in mind.

As early as biblical times certain distinguishing appellations were occasionally employed in addition to the given name,as for instance, Joshua, the son of Nun,Simon, the son of Jonas,Judas of Gallilee and Simon, the Zealot

The overthrow of the Western Empire by barbarian invaders brought about its end and a reversion to the primitive custom of a single name.

The ancient Scandanavians and for the most part the Germans had only individual names, and there were no family names,strictly speaking,among the Celts. But as family and tribal groups grew in size,individual names became inadequate and the need for supplementary appellations began to be felt.

True surnames, in the sense of hereditary desitnations, date in England from about the year 1000..Largely they were introduced from Normandy,although there are records of Saxon surnames prior to the Norman Conquest.. By the end of the twelfth century hereditary names had become common in England. But even by 1465 they were not universal. During the reign of Edward,V, a law was passed to adopt surnames: "They shall take unto them Surnames,either of some Town.or some Colour,,as Blacke or Brown,or some Art or Science,as Smyth or Carpenter,or some Office ,as Cooke or Butler."And late as the beginning of the nineteenth century a similar decree compelled Jews in Germany and Austria to add a German surname to the single names which they had previously used. Surnames derived from the given name of the father were formed by means of an added prefix or suffix,either "son of " or a diminutive. English names terminating in son, ing, and kin are of this type,as are also the innumerable names prefixed with the Gaelic Mac, the Norman Fitz, the Welch ap and the Irish O'.  The final "s" of "Richards " is a contraction of "son".

Another class of surnames,those arising from some bodily or personal characteristic of first bearer. family names derived from and originally designating the place of residence of the bearer were popular in FRANCE at an early date and were introudced into England by the Normans, many of whom were known by the title of their estates.The surnames adopted by the nobility were mainly of this type, being used with theparticles de, de la, or del meaning "of" or "of the ". The Saxon equivalent was the word atte ("at the") ,employed in such names as John atta Brook, Edmund atte Lane, Godwin atte Brigg, and William atte Bourne. A vestige of this usage survives in the names Atwell, Atwood and Atwater .

The majority of English and Anglo-American surnames,in their history have appeared in four to a dozen or more varaint spellings. In America a greater variety of family surnames exist than anywhere else in the world.Surnames of every race and nation are represented. While the greater number are of English,Scotch,Irish or Welsh origin, brought to this country by scions of families which have borne these names for generations prior to emigration

Those Americans who possess old and honored names--who trace the history of their surnames back to sturdy immigrant ancestors, or beyond,across the seas,and into the dim mists of antiquity- - may be rightfully proud of their heritage * * * its significance to-day lies not in a literal interpretation of its original meaning but in many things that have happened to it since it first came into use; It soon established itself as part of the bearer's individuality; and it is passed to his children,his children's children,and their children,it became the symbol not of one man but of a family and all that family stood for. Handed down from generation to generation it grew inseperably associated with the achievement,the tradition and the prestige of the family . Like the coat or arms-- that vivid symbolization of the name which warrior ancestors bore in battle -- the name itself,borne through every event of a man's life and through the lives of scores of his progenitors,became the badge of family honor-- the "good name" to be proud of ,to protect,and to fight for if need be.As the worthy deeds of the marching generations have given it dignity and splendor,it became an institution, a family rallying cry,and the most treasured possession of those who bear it"

SCOTCH-IRISH SETLEMENT IN VIRGINIA.

"the great English planter class in Eastern planter class established themselves along the JAMES RIVER and in the tidewater section of Virginia and with the English Puritans in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania."

" an entirely different class of people, the sturdy Scotch Presbyterians, who came to the Old Dominion by way of Pennsylvania from "north of Ireland " and resolutely occupied the imperial domaim known as the "Valley of Virginia", original Augusta county Virginia.

During the first century of English settlement in America no progress was made by any of the Colonies in penetrating the interior of the continent. As late as 1710 Governor wrote the Council in London that some of his Western settlers had seen the mountains, and they not over 100 miles distant.

For 100 years the Massachusetts settlers huddled together on the coast while the French advanced up the St.Lawrence sailed upon and named Lake Champlain and located along the coast of the Great Lakes.

During all that period the Dutch and English never advanced inland beyond Schenectady.

Meanwhile the French had occupied Vermont, and but for an error then made the federacy of the Iroquois and the Mohawks in Northern New York they would have occupied the entire Mohawk region of New Tork in all probability.

It was not until the coming of the new race in the early part of the eighteenth century that any substantial progress in pioneer work in any of the Colonies.

Between 1705 and 1735 a new element was infused into American life. The Scotchmen who had settled in the "north of Ireland",-and had saved Ireland to the Protestants cause by their immortal defense of Londonderry in the last years of the seventeenth century" 184(a,b),195(25) ,258 and received from WILLIAM and MARY and their successors nothing but proscription as a reward.

" They were driven by persecution in large numbers to America .A few landed in New England, but new England ideas did not suit them and so they, at once, pressed forward to make settlements of their own, and were soon masters of New Hampshire where they founded the towns of londonderry, Dublin, Derry, Lockhaven, Newcastle and many others whose names indicate their origins.

A few of the Scotch-Irish who were merely Scotch Presbyterians from North Ireland settled in New York. They were quick to separate from the dwellers along the coast, and proceeding with characteristic independence to the mountains, settled the counties of Ulster and Washington and the Mohawk Valley and gave the colony Sir William JOHNSON, the greatest pioneer.

The Scotch-Irish literaly overran the Quaker Colony of Pennsylvania,, the population of which increased with their coming from 30,000 in 1705 to 250,000 in 1735.

They also took possession of New Jersey, where they founded Princeton College and established dominance that has persisted.

In Pennsylvania they founded the college at Easton and Carlisle, and possesssed themselves of Western Pennsylvania to the shores of Lake Erie about 1730.

Owing to some local controversies with the Pennsylvania authorities, a small body of the Scotch-Irish under the leadership of JOHN LEWIS determined to leave Pennsylvania. They entered Virginia by" the back door", so to speak , and after peopling the rich valley of the Shenandoah River, pressed southerly up the valley to the region about Staunton and Fincastle, settling a section of the Dominion wholly neglected by its earlier tenants up to this time; in time they pressed westward, settling Western North Carolina, northern South Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Isaac Shelby, Daniel Boone, George Rogers Clark and Andrew LEWIS in Kentucky, John Sevier in Tennessee, Lewis and Clark who first explored the Far West and Sam HOUSTON of Texas were but the leaders of that dauntless band of Scoth-Irishmen who hailed West from Augusta county, Virginia .

The first passage of the Blue Ridge, or discovery of the valley, was effected by Governor Spotswood at the head of a small troop of horse in Augusta county, Virginia in 1716. Passing through Swift Run Gap, and crossing the picturque Shenandoah River a few miles nort of the present site of Port Republic, the "Knights of the Golden Horseshoe " beheld a region of amazing beauty and fertility hitherto comprising a bloody arena for the savages who jealously contended for it, but virtually unknown to the Virginians.

The glowing accounts of this wonderful region given by Spotswood's party, at once, excited the spirit of enterprise and adventure in the people of Eastern Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Though the approach to the upper country was difficult either from the north or east,-from the want of roads and bridges and though the hills were infested with roving bands of savages, many adventurous families ,and even small communities as a whole "treked" across the Blue Ridge, or down the valley from north of the Potomac River,-in ever-increasing numbers.

A vivid picture of the country had been painted by its explorers. It was said to be a veritable garden of peace and plenty,-luxuriant with fruit, rich in minerals, and timber, a verdant pasture for herds of deer and a favored retreat for game of every kind.

The forbidding Blue Ridge may have quelled the curiosity of the English colonists to the east for a full century. For the sturdy Scotchmen of Pennsylvania these held o rerrors.

It was a princely domain and offered high reward to those who braved the terrors of the remorseless conflict with Indians which its occupancy entailed. But the men who followed LEWIS were of strong heart, and no less their wives.

Augusta county, formed from Orange in 1738, grew rapidly in population. In 1745 there was a sufficient number of inhabitants to justify the creation of separate courts.

The original settlers of Augusta county not only rescued their fields from the forest, but cu ltivated them with their own hands.

Every man bore his share of the common burden of defense and every male child became accustomed in his youth to toil, and the most terrible and cunning forms of warfare

The horse, the flint-lock, the Scottish dirk, the axe and the plow were equally familiar, as these were equally essential to this life." 195(25),196, 258

" Scotch-Irish came from Ireland to settle Massachusetts, But the Puritans refused to sell them land there They then sailed to Pennsylvania where land was given to them and the people there were eager to have them settle as their neighbors and they resided there for some length of time, until war with the Indians arose, in which their neighbors, the Quakers, would not join them for protection on the East. They then removed to Augusta county, Virginia. Their journey south led them through the gaps of the of the mountains into the valleys. We eventually find many of these Scotch-Irish continued their journey on down to South Carolina. Among them were the McBryes((McBrides)".137

Any biographies of genealogies of the Scoth-Irish (b) settlers in Colonial America (present United States of America) invites inclusion therein a description of the "Valley of Virginia " as they found it and the conditions compared and contrasted on this page as relates to earlier American settlements made other European people elsewhere in Colonial America.

The Calhoun, Hamilton, Noble ,Pickens and Thompson families listed in this book share in the burdens borne by first settlers in the "Valley of Virginia " from 1738,-many of them continuing there well through the remainder of the eighteenth century, some later.

" Previous to 1738 all that part of Virginia West of the Blue Ridge Mountains was included in Orange county, Virginia, but in the General Assembly of Virginia in 1738 it was divided into two counties, -Frederick on the North and Augusta on the South. In November 1769 the southern part of Augusta county was organized into Bottetourt county. In February 1772 Fincastle county was created out of Bottetourt and in October 1776 it was divided into three counties, Montgomery, Washington and Kentucky. In May 1780 Kentucky was divided into three counties, Jefferson, Fayette and Lincoln. In 1782 these three counties were created into Kentucky District. and given a court independent of the General Court and the Chancery Court of Virginia. The question of separate independence was now agitated and contest arose between Virginia, who wanted her daughter State admitted,at once,into the Union and the Northern States,who controlled Congress and were jealous of the growing power of the South. Because of this conflict Kentucky was not admitted as a State until 1792." 190(a)

Kentucky as part of Virginia was called "Kentucky county " until 1785 and before Kentucky was admitted to the Union June 1,1792,it had been divided by Virginia into nine original counties,namely:Fayette,Jefferson and Lincoln,-all in 1780,the other six being created: Nelson,in 1784,Bourbon, Madison and Mercer in 1785 and Mason and Woodford in 1788.

The present county seats of the nine original counties are: Lexington in Fayette,Louisville in Jefferson,Stanford in Lincoln,Bardstown in Nelson,Paris in Bourbon,Richmond in Madison,Harrodsburg in Mercer, Maysville in Mason abd Versailles in Woodford. A list of the counties since created in each of the nine original Kentucky counties,the date of creation of each additional county,grouped alphabetically by parent county follows:

HAMILTON FAMILIES IN AMERICAN COLONIES (UNITED STATES OF).

Many surnames in present UNITED STATES OF AMERICA would be easier to cover well in a genealogical book,-few less difficult.

By 1790 the Census of the original thirteen States recorded separately the number of males ,heads of families, surnamed HAMILTON as three hundred and ninety (397) seven,-many of whom were then settled in each of the original thirteen States. How that compared with numbers of such heads of familes as Johnson, Smith,Brown and Jones has not been ascertained.,but it may be assumed that Hamilton was among the closest competitors of these four more numerous surnames in the 1790 United States Census. 78

H-1- Among this 397 was Archibald HAMILTON who had married Frances CALHOUN in county Donegal or county Tyrone,Ulster, North of Ireland, and among the earlier of these 397,coming as he did from county Tyrone to Lancaster county,Pennsylvania in 1733,or 57 years before the 1790 Census ,he and wife, both being alive in Augusta county,Virginia,July 27,1787. Archibald had died in Augusta county, Virginia long enough before meeting of the Court there to probate his will at the January Term,1794 of Court there,making him a citizen of the American Colonies of Pennsylvania and Virginia slightly over 60 years. From all this it may be inferred that not many of the 397 Hamiltons,heads of families in all 13 of the original States had lived longer on the States bordering the Western shores of the Atlantic Ocean by 1790 than he . This is not written to claim for him and descendants that he was among the first of the surname HAMILTON to take up permanent abode West of the Atlantic Ocean but rather to illustrate how relatively few of American Hamiltons had an ancestor planted West of the Atlantic when Archibald and bride,Frances CALHOUN, arrived in Pennsylvania in A.D. 1733, amd to give to him and his descent the relative precedence here among the "olan HAMILTON ". With him and wife, came also on the same ship his brother,Andrew HAMILTON,and wife, Martha,the latter of Londonderry county,Ulster, North of Ireland and ,Martha HAMILton, unmarried, apparently their sister,his brother,Andrew HAMILTON,and wife,Martha are recorded as having come to Pennsylvania from county Tyrone,Ulster, North of Ireland.

Brief abstracts found in one or more early Colonial historical publications indicate that these HAMILTONS,Archibald.,brother ,Andrew and sister, Martha, who came together from county Tyrone,Ulster, North of Ireland to Lancaster county,Pennsylvania ,on the same ship were all children of AUDLEY HARRISON HAMILTON and wife,Eleanor ADAMS.18,45(b), 170(h),195(1,29).

The marriage in Ireland of Mary CALHOUN to Andrew LEWIS, and the birth there of their son,JOHN LEWIS,in county Donegal,Ulster, North of Ireland in 1678 or only six years erlier than the birth in county Donegal of CATHERINE MONTGOMERY, in 1684, wife of Patrick CALHOUN,C- pp.8-11 of county Donegal,Ulster,North of Ireland and Lancaster county,Pennsylvania, where Patrich died in 1741,parents of daughter,Mary (CALHOUN) NOBLE, C-1, pp 11- then married and 4 sons, James, C-2,pp.20-48,Ezekiel,C-3,pp.49-58, William, C-4,pp.58-64 and Patrick CALHOUN,Jr.,C-5-pp. 64-75 indicate intermarriages in counties Donegal, Londonderry,or other counties of Ulster,North of Ireland between the CALHOUN and HAMILTON families earlier than the birth of Audley Harrison HAMILTON .SEE Audley CALHOUNS (Colquhouns) in Index of Persons. There appears herein no other earlier branch of HAMILTONS in England,Scotland or Ireland adopting "Audley" as a Christian name it occurring among Colquhouns(CALHOUNS) earlier in Scotland or

Ulster, North of Ireland. The 9 children of Martha HAMILTON, H-3, pp.207-208, who married JAMES HENDERSON in Augusta county, Virginia June 23.1738 included a son named Archibald HENDERSON ,apparently a namesake of her older brother, immigrant, Archibald HAMILTON, H-1, pp. 133-, wife Frances CALHOUN . 45(b,170(h, i), 105(1,29), 254(a), 262

The continued association in Donegal, Londonderry and Tyrone counties, Ulster, North of Ireland, Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, Augusta county, Virginia and Abbeville and Pendleton Districts, South Carolina and elsewhere from as early as 1683 past the close of the American Revolution and to this date between the families and descendants of Archibald Hamilton and wife, Frances CALHOUN and Patrick CALHOUN, C-, pp. 8-11, and wife ,Catherine MONTGOMERY of Donegal and Londonderry counties, Ulster ;North of Ireland ,respectively of Chesnut Level, Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, where Patrick died, but association continued between Patrick's widow and their children and Archibald and Frances (CALHOUN) HAMILTON and their children in Augusta county, Virgini and Abbeville and Pendleton Districts, South Carolina past the close of the American Revolution, which association included also Andrew LEWIS and wife, Mary CALHOUN, their son JOHN LEWIS and his descendants in Augusta county, Virginia, extending to include Alice CALHOUN and husband ,Robert ARMSTRONG and their descendants, most of whose Calhoun intermarriages were in Donegal, Londonderry and Tyrone counties, Ulster, North of Ireland.

SEE page 78

The naming of the oldest son of Archibald HAMILTON, H-1, pp. 133-136 and wife; Frances CALHOUN as "Audley" HAMILTON suggest that Audley Harrison HAMILTON and wife, Eleanor ADAMS were the parents of Archibald HAMILTON, H-1, pp 133-136 husband of Frances CALHOUN, emigrants from county Tyrone, Ulste, North of Ireland to Lancaster county, Pennsylvania in 1733 and parents of Archibald's brother, Andrew, wife Martha and of their sister, Martha HAMILTON, wife of JAMES HENDERSON. and herein after Archibald will be designated as H-1, Andrew as -2 and Martha (HAMILTON) HENDERSON as "H-3*".170(i)*p. 207. The positive naming of the father and grandfather of Audley Harrison Hamilton, H- ,pp. 133 has been defeated by failure to find preserved for copying herein a record written out by his son, Archibald Hamilton, H-1, pp. 133-36, at his home in Augusta county Virginia before his death there late in 1793, or in January 1794 and taken by his youngest son, Archibald HAMILTON, Jr., H-1-8, pp.198, upon his removal to Woodford county, Kentucky in his father's lifetime. That record gave the titles and estates of his Hamilton ancestry back to and including Sir James HAMILTON, 2nd. Earl of ARRAN, Regent of Scotland,, and guardian of Mary, infant "Queen of Scots" and Duke of Chatelherault ("Castle-Herald") in Poicton in FRANCE. Within the past 60 years it has been published in Augusta county, Virginia that this emigrant, Archibald HAMILTON, H-2, pp.198-, was a lineal descendant of said Sir James Hamilton, Regent as aforesaid, apparently sponsored by local historians there who were familar with the tradition of this lost record written by this Archibald Hamilton late in his long lifetime. See Item 19, Table, page 115 and biographical sketch of said Sir JAMES HAMILTON, Regent, as aforesaid on page 118 hereof. He also included in the cord he wrote out to give at the request of his youngest son, Archibald HAMILTON, Jr., H-1-8, pp.198 the titles and estate of the wife and mother, Frances CALHOUN. It might be surmised that this request for a writing of titles and estates of young Archibald's ancestors back to Europe may have been prompted by this younger Archibald HAMILTON about this time having married a sister of King LOUIS XVI of France, with her jewels, disguised as a maid during the French Revolution of 1788 . He probably thought he needed or might need all the prestige with her that his Royal ancestry would give him to match her royal connections or she may have inspired the request by him. They had 2 children in Woodford county, Kentucky and she is credited with having the county seat for the then vast domain of WOODFORD county ,one of the nine original counties constituting the Commonwealth of Kentucky "Versailless"from some place or castle in her native France. Seven counties have been created wholly or in part from original Woodford county's domain, Woodford yet retains Versailles as its county seat.

This Sir JAMES HAMILTON, 2nd. Earl of ARRAN, Regent of Scotland from 1543-1558, and Duke of Chatelherault in FRANCE is recorded in his biography on page 118 hereof as having married Lady Margaret DOUGLAS, eldest daughter of the 3rd. Earl of Morton and by her had four sons and four daughters. All these sons except Sir(Lord) CLAUDE HAMILTON, his youngest sons died without male issue surviving them, and as 3 of the sons of Lord Claude settled early in Tyrone county, Ulster, North of Ireland and emigrants from his descent there 100 years after his time as having gone in numbers to the American Colonies,-present United States, the paper prepared by emigrant, Archibald Hamilton, H-1, pp. 133-136- must have bridged the two or three generations between Sir Claude Hamilton and emigrant Archibald's father, Audley Harrison HAMILTON, H., p.133 only that much better authenticated than the many emigrant HAMILTONS from Scotland and Ireland to the American Colonies, now United States of America than the many emigrant Hamiltons from these Europe and countries and England as listed in the extensive "HAMILTON APPENDIX" to this book, pages 215 to 32_

The titles in the male line of sons of Sir James Hamilton became extinct through his three older sons by 1651 when it passed to the female line in Lady Anne, as Duchess of HAMILTON, 1651-1694, born 1636, died, 1716, Item 24 p.115, daughter of Sir James, 1st. Duke of HAMILTON (1643-1649) Item 22, p.115 and page 117 and by the marriage of Duchess Anne to WILLIAM DOUGLAS, son of the 1st. Marquis of DOUGLAS, was created Duke of HAMILTON for life through whom the Dukedom of HAMILTON continued in Duchess Anne (HAMILTON) DOUGLAS' descent until 1769, precluding descendants of Lord CLAUDE HAMILTON, pp.116, 119, 121 ,Duke of Abercorn, Baron of Paisley, lord of Scottish Parliament, "male heir of the House of HAMILTON".

Lady Ann (HAMILTON) DOUGLAS was of the fourth generation in descent from Sir JAMES HAMILTON, Regent, etc., Item 19 page 115, and apparently of the generation and approximate age of the father of Audley Harrison HAMILTON, H, p.133

SEE the biographical sketches of the persons of named in the next foregoing paragraph above for more details of the lives of each.

Counting this Audely Harrison HAMILTON as being of the fifth generation descended from Sir JAMES HAMILTON, Regent, etc., Item 19 p.115 , would designate this Audley Harrison HAMILTON as great-great-grandson and Archibald HAMILTON, Sr., H.1, pp .133-6, as great-great-great grandson of Sir JAMES HAMILTON, Regent, etc. of Scotland, Item 19 115 hereof, said Archibald being credited with having written late in life, probably in the 1780s, in Augusta county, Virginia,-of the names ,titles and estate of his own and of his wife, Frances CALHOUN'S ancestors in Ireland and Scotland, which writing connected him as a lineal descendant of Sir JAMES HAMILTON, Regent, etc., Item 19 page 115 . An assertion of such descent from Sir JAMES to said Archibald HAMILTON, H-1.p .133, emigrant of 1733 was published sixty or more years ago in Augusta county, Virginia where he spent the greater part of his life,-or from about 1738 to 1793/4 or about 55 years, his wife, Frances (CALHOUN) HAMILTON coming to Augusta county, Virginia with him and spending, at least, nearly 50 years residing there.

The local historian of Augusta county, Virginia, who so published said Archibald's descent from Sir JAMES HAMILTON, Regent, etc. Item 19 page 115, evidently had revived a tradition there preserving such lineage to said Archibald who had then been dead about 110 years, a tradition not unlikely to have been preserved for that length of time in a region which has ever since his time remained in Augusta county, Virginia.

A copy of said Archibald's personal record as written for is youngest son and namesake, Archibald HAMILTON, Jr. on the occasion of the sons removal to Woodford county, Kentucky , a location so distant as to render ,at least, some probability of not seeing each other again alive, considering the distance and hazards of such length journey at that time has not been found and compiler can do no more for posterity than to express his belief that such a record was written by his own ancestor, Archibald HAMILTON, H-1, pp. 133-, and express is disappointment and failure in finding it and challenges his posterity to produce, publish such copy or authenticated substance of it as a supplement to this book, or otherwise release it for publication to posterity. According to the will of Archibald

HAMILTON,H-1,p.133-,wife, Frances CALHOUN this ,their youngest son,Archibald HAMILTON,Jr.of Augusta county,Virginia and Woodford county,Kentucky,like all his brothers,except one,had received their shares in the estate of their father,Archibald,Sr. before the date of his will there in 1787,recorded there in 1794 ,two of the older sons had removed from Augusta county,Virginia to Abbeville and Pendleton District,South Carolina respectively. Archibald HAMILTON Sr. and wife,Frances CALHOUN and their family seem to have lived nearly all of their long stay in Augusta county,Virginia at their homestead on Christian Creek in Augusta county, 70 years later, during the War Between the States,a Hamilton family lived in apparently the same location as Archibald, Sr's homestead,- "on Christian Creek". Part of the tradition of Archibald,Sr. writing out for his son,Archibald,Jr."the names, titles and estates of his ancestors back to and including his ancestor, Sir JAMES HAMILTON,Regent,etc. adds that Archibald,Jr. as an inducement to his father to release the only copy of the writing to him to take with him to his new home in the wilderness of Woodford county,Kentucty was that Archibald,Jr. would protect and preserve it and always make it available to any other descendant of Sir JAMES HAMILTON,Regent,etc. for copying and certification by Archibald,Jr.,its custodian.

Search for this Archibald HAMILTON,Jr. in Woodford county,Kentucky and elsewhere,begun soon after his father's death in Augusta county,Virginia in 1793/4 continued to date provide no clue of the career for more than a few years after his arrival in Woodford county,Kentucky,before statehood in 1792,except the desertion of Archibald and his two children by the wife and mother, and her disappearnce to regions unknown, she being the sister of King Louis ,XVI,of FRANCE, who fled FRANCE,with her jewels,disguised as a maid during the French Revolution of the 1780s,

Archibald HAMILTON, Sr. and wife,Frances CALHOUN had a 2nd.oldest son, Major Andrew HAMILTON of Abbeville District, South Carolina who knew of the writing by their father,as above described, but neglected to take copy of it before his removal to Abbeville District ,South Carolina in 1765,and who 62 years later, when 87 years old rode horseback from his home in Abbeville,South Carolina to scences of his childhood on Christian Creek in Augusta county,Virginia,his first return ,apparently inspired largely by a desire to recover a copy of names,titles and estates of ancestors of his father Archibald HAMILTON,Sr. and the same of his mother,Frances CALHOUN'S ancestors, their names, ,estates and titles in Scotland and Ireland,in which search he obviously failed to obtain a copy. 258, 476(6)

Confirmation of the tradition of this writing having been made by Archibald,Sr.is preserved by a living descendant of said Maj.Andrew HAMILTON,H-1-3, . namely Mrs.Elizabeth Jane (BLACKWELL) BUSHEY.45. South 6th.Street,Banning, California,H-1-3-11-2-6-1,pp.193,to whom the tradition had been handed down from her grandmother,Jane Catherine (HAMILTON) MURDOCK, who as grand daughter accompanied her grandfather,Major Andrew HAMILTON,with her aunt, Catherine ("Kitty") (HAMILTON) ALSTON,youngest daughter of Maj.Andrew HAMILTON, all three on horseback in 1827 on his long round trip from Abbeville,South Carolina to Staunton,Augusta county,Virginia for him to visit the scenes of his childhood days,(born there in 1740) . Mrs. Bushey's mother,Sarah Jane (MURDOCK) BLACKWELL,H-1-3-11-2-6,p.* had been as much absorbed *193 in transmitting this tradition of the writing by her ancestor, Archibald HAMILTON,Sr.,H-2,pp. 198, as has been her mother and also her daughter. These three ladies are entitle to great respect from all the legions of descendants of mutual immigrant ancestors, Arhcibald Hamilton and wife, Frances CALHOUN for thus so vividly and convincingly transmitting this seemingly authentic information of the royalty of Europe all of us in America or elsewhere are entitled to look back to with pride in the royal ancestry in Sir JAMES HAMILTON,Regent,etc.,,Item 19,page 115,.No one's royal ancestry wore the honors of his position with greater lustre than our own Sir JAMES HAMILTON,2nd. Earl of ARRAN, Regent of Scotland ,and guardian of Mary,"Queen of Scots" during her minority,until married to Francis,II,King of FRANCE. Sir JAMES HAMILTON was also created Duke of Chatelherault ("Castle-Herald") in Poicton in FRANCE and died at HAMILTON, county Lanark, Scotland January 22,1755. SEE pp.118-9,258 476(6)

H-1- Archibald HAMILTON,Sr.,wife Frances CALHOUN,was probably among the first families to settle in original Augusta county,Virginia and ,like others,settled on the public domain before asking for a grant or purchasing from some of the claimants of vast domains living elsewhere 109 (a) without legal title to his homestead. He served in the militia there in 1742 as a member of Capt.Cathey's Company, 195(8,9),203(118);took deeds March 5,1747,196(a),and Aug. 9,1747,197(c) from William Beverley,the patentee for "302 acres where William Smith's line crosses Christian Creek, corner to James CRAWFORD in Beverley Manor,Augusta county, Virginia for the nominal consideration of five shillings" 200(a-d),203(124-126);served as Constable in Augusta county;sold the above 302 acres tract in 1748;witnessed deeds there signed by William BEVERLEY Aug.17,1747 for 303 acres on the North branch of Christian Creek in Beverley's Manor;206(3), on Aug.13th. and 19th,1747,signed by William BEVERLEY for 401 acres in Beverley's Manor on the South side of Cathey's River,said tract crossing Lewis Creek; 206(2) ; as "Archibald HAMILTON was joined by wife,Frances, in signing deed April 17,1748 to Thomas STOREY conveying "one Givens'land in Augusta county,Virginia,patented to said Archibald HAMILTON May 5,1747" 206(6); took release od dower Feb.6,1749 from Elizabeth BEVERLEY, wife of William BEVERLEY; 206(5), 258; signed May 16,1754 as surety for Samuel McMAHON ,206(127a) ;had land processioned in Capt.Israel CHRISTIAN'S Co. by John HENDESRON and William BASKIN,203(134a);appraised estate of Elizabeth ROBERTSON, Aug.30,1759, 158;was referred to Feb. 1761 as "patentee for 110 acres on head of a draft running into 'one Givens',then traded between others,206(48); was surety for John KERR to administer the estate of James KERR,deceased March 20,1770,206(158a); deeds signed to Archibald HAMILTON by William BEVERLY,recorded in Augusta county,Virginia were not delivered to him in his lifetime. His son,John HAMILTON,H-1-7,pp.197- on June 20,1795 received from the offical recorder of deeds for Augusta county,Virginia two deeds for land therein as conveyed to his father,Archibald Hamilton,H-1, pp.133-6,by William BEVERLEY in said Archibald's lifetime. As this son,John Hamilton had received his parents' homestead lands on Christian Creek in Beverley's Manor in Augusta county,Virginia pursuant to the will of his father, Archibald HAMILTON,probated and recorded in Augusta county,Virginia at January Court 1794,it may be that the son ,John,having come into possession of the homestead of his parents was merely gathering into his own custody the documents to vouchsafe title to lands he had so recently inherited.206(96). One of these deeds was signed by BEVERLY to Archibald May 18,1773.

Archibald HAMILTON by deed signed Nov.17,1773 conveyed land in Augusta county,Virginia to "son ;Audley HAMILTON" 206(99);Archibald HAMILTON appears on the tax rolls for Augusta county,Virginia in 1782; 203(110a).Archibald HAMILTON is referred to Aug.25,1784 as "patentee of lands "including 40 acres then traded between others,in Augusta county,Virginia,206(111); was recorded in 1763 as "inspector of flour in Augusta county,Virginia ; in 1788 was there exepmted from military duty "because of his great age."

Reference to all his lands locate every tract in Beverley's Manor,Augusta county,Virginia,-much it on waters of Christian Creek seem to compiler to justify inserting here a definition of the word,"Manor":" a tract of land granted by the King of Great Britain in Colonial days." After the Revolution the States superseded the King as Lord,and the proprietor State from time to time commuted or released land to settlers.

Beverley Manor in Augusta county,Virginia is shown on maps as extending to within a few miles southwest of Staunton,Virginia. The Christian Creek section of Beverly Manor in Augusta county,Virginia containing Archibald HAMILTON and wife,Frances CALHOUN'S homestead may be described from existing maps as "West of Blue Ridge Mountains in southern part of present Augusta county,Virginia from 10 to 12 miles south and south west of Staunton,Virginia, Post Office maintained in the area being Wilda,Greenville, LaGrange and Stuart's Gap,Virginia,-all being on waters of Christian Creek. 109(a),123,132(a,b),210(b).

Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,pp.133-136, signed will July

20,1787,recorded at January Court,Augusta county,Virginia in 1794 in which he bequeathed to:"Frances,my beloved wife. one-third of my plantation,I now possess" and itemized personal property,including :"her riding horse and furniture and household goods",  "remainder of personalty to my daughter,Lettice", "I give to my son,John the plantation, I now possess (except my wife's one-third thereof) lying on Christian Creek in Augusta county,Virginia and all my farming utensils""I give to my son,Audley HAMILTON , five shillings";to my son, Andrew HAMILTON, five shillings"; " to my son,William HAMILTON five pounds in current Virginia money "; " to my son,Archibald HAMILTON, five shillings "; appointed :"son,William Hamilton and son-in-law, John CUNNINGHAM", who made executors' bond in amount of one thousand pounds. His estate was inventoried and appraised in Augusta county,Virginia April 9,1794. At the date of Archibald's will,July 20,1787 his wife,Frances (CALHOUN) HAMILTON was living,whether or not she survived her husband,Archibald,does not appear from the probate records. Archibald HAMILTON, wife,Frances,daughter Lettice and sons, William and John HAMILTON are buried in Presbyterian Church cemetery at Twinkling Springs in Augusta county Virginia, their graves being originally marked with engraved oaken slabs which had deteriorated by 1827 when the son and brother,Maj Andrew HAMILTON of Abbeville,South Carolina so badly as not to be legible" 258,476(6)

The nominal bequests made by the foregoing will by Archibald HAMILTON to four of his,namely:Audley,Andrew,William and Archibald Hamilton,Jr.and the limited bequest to his daughter,Lettice (HAMILTON) CUNNINGHAM indicates no discrimnation and that he had advanced to these ,at least,as much as he was bequeathing to his son,John HAMILTON,in his will . On report indicated that testator,Archibald HAMILTON Sr,had acquired lands in Woodford county,Kentucky and that his son,Archibald,Jr.,moved there to take possession,-in the 1780s.

The fairly definite dates of births of sons,Audley Hamilton,-early enough to be of age for military duty in Virginia in 1758); Major Andrew HAMILTON,May 2,1740,William HAMILTON,May 2,1748;two children ,-not named in father,Archibald's will,above,"Jennie HAMILTON, child of Archibald", Sept.5,1743" and "Alexander HAMILTON, child of Archibald, June ,1746" from records of christening in Old Stone Presbyterian Church,Augusta county,Virginia have been considered in connection with order used in naming Archibald and Frances' six surviving children in his will.Ch.(of Archibald HAMILTON and wife, Frances CALHOUN,born in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania: 1-Lettice, (b.in Augusta county,Virgina):2-Audley, 1738?, 3-Andrew, May 2,1740,p.138 169,4-Jennie ,Sept.5,1743 169 ; 5-Alexander,June ,1746, 169; 6-William,Aug.19,1748,p.194., 7-John, p.197,8-Archibald,Jr., p.198 .Children 4,5 and 6 above may be months or a year older,- dates listed being christening dates of each in Old Stone Presbyterian Church in Augusta county,Virginia where their parents worshipped.10(e),22(a),40(23),42 (a,b),62(a),117(a),123,132(a,b),109(a),144(a),136(c),150,158 170(e),172,118,124,126,134a ,137a,110a,111,158a ,165b,195 (25),196(a,c),197(a-c),203(110a),177(a),206(2,3,5.6,48,96, 99,110a,111,158a 165b) ,210(b), 258,476(6), 169

Some of compiler's reasons for not adopting as the order of births of children of Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,pp.133-6, and wife,Frances CALHOUN as the order in which Archibald named his six surviving children in his will,signed by him when very old , are : He named ,first,"my daughter, Lettice"; second,"my son,William"; third,"my son ,John ", fourth, :"my son,Audley", fifth,"my son, Andrew" and lastly, "my son,Archibald".

The first three children named in his will had remained near the parental homestead, whereas the other three sons had removed to distant States of South Carolina and Kentucky neither returning apparently in the lifetime of their parents.Of these remote sons,Andrew had been in South Carolina as early as 1765,Audley,in South Carolina nearly if not quite so early and Archibald,Jr. away in Kentucky ,apparently a much shorter period.

JOHN HAMILTON,H-1-6-3-4, p.195,born in Augusta county, Virginia Aug.7,1814, son of John Craig HAMILTON,H-1-6-3,p. 194 ,son of William HAMILTON,H-1-6,p.202-203,son of Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,pp.133 and wife,Frances CALHOUN,"natives of North Ireland" wrote and published his own biographhy including his two marriages and the children from each marriage when 70 years old, a merchant living in Montgomery City,Missouri,- in 1884 showing that he was a great-grandson of said Archibald HAMILTON and wife,Frances CALHOUN and that they had died and were buried in Augusta county,Virginia.117(a),123,192(a),197(a).,476(14).

The foregoing about completes the listing of available information of emigrants, Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,pp. and wife,Frances CALHOUN as preserved of them in Augusta county,Virginia becoming available to this compiler as this is being written. They apparently had a prior residence in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania prior to the creation of Augusta county,Virginia in 1738, or probably from two to five years residence in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania. Compiler made an effort to gather record data of them in Lancaster county but found upon inquiry that Lancaster county was created in 1730 and that the tax rolls from 1730 to 1751 for that county are missing.This inquiry by compiler was made principally to find if there was any record confirmation of a single report that Archibald and Frances had left Lancaster county,Pennsylvania in 1735 for Orange county,Virginia,there being no Augusta county, Virginia until 3 years later when part of Orange county, Virginia became Augusta county,Virginia. 51(a)

Literature and records made in Colonial American,- present United States of America,- of Archibald HAMILTON, H-1,pp. 133-, and wife, Frances CALHOUN,Andrew HAMILTON and wife,Martha , and sister, Martha HAMILTON,who married JAMES HENDERSON in Augusta county, Virginia ,H-3,pp.207-1738 as "daughter of Audley Harrison HAMILTON,H,pp. 133,and wife,Eleanor ADAMS" whose three children,named next above , emigrated together,from county Tyrone, Ulster, North of Ireland,-in 1733 to Lancaster county,Pennsylvania and"settled in present Augusta county,Virginia in about 1735" connect these Hamilton brothers back to the seat in county Tyrone,Ireland to descendants of one of the three sons of Lord Claude HAMILTON, of the House of Lords in Parliament of Scotland, Duke of Abercorn, Baron of Paisley and "male heir of the House of Hamilton",pp.116,119,121 and 134,who had settled early from Lanarskshire,Scotland. The descen-from these three Hamilton sons in county Tyrone,Ulster, North of Ireland contributed scores of emigrants to American Colonies, or the original 13 States before the Revolution.

This Sir Claude HAMILTON was youngest of four sons of Sir JAMES HAMILTON,Regent of Scotland,etc.,Item 19,pages 115,118,119,134,-guardian of Mary,"Queen of Scots" after Dec.15,1542 until her marriage to Francis,II,King of FRANCE in 1558 SEE JOHN LEWIS,son of Andrew and wife, Mary CALHOUN ,p.

The same historians in "Annals of Augusta County,Virginia (1726-1871)",published,first,in 1886, and again in 1902,stating in both editions that " Archibald HAMILTON was a direct descendant of Sir JAMES HAMILTON", 2nd. Earl of ARRAN,Regent of Scotland (143-1558),guardian of Mary, "Queen of Scots" during her minority,or disability to reign and later Duke of Chatelherault ("Castle-Herald") in Poicton in France. 10(e),22(a),42(a,b),181,196,197,254(a) .

These old published statements are corroborated in traditions in several different branches of descendants of Archibald HAMILTON and wife, Frances CALHOUN, of his brother, Andrew HAMILTON,H-2,pp.198-,and wife,Martha, all emigrants from county Tyrone or Londonderry county ,Ulster, North of Ireland to Lancaster county,Pennsylvania in 1733 and settled again by about 1738 in Augusta county,Virginia, and among descendants of later emigrants to American Colonies from Ulster,Ireland and Scotland of the surname HAMILton, whose direct descent from Sir James HAMILTON has not been definitely established.

Two grand children of Andrew HAMILTON and wife,Martha, as early as 1860 in present United States of American, when very old themselves contributed genealogical and biographic data proving the origin of this Andrew HAMILTON,H-2 pp.198- ,in county Tyrone,Ulster,North of Ireland,when he emigrated with his brother,Archibald HAMILTON,and wife, Frances CALHOUN, from there to Lancaster county,Pennsylvana. He was William WRIGHT,H-2-6-5,pp.202-3,being 80 years old when he completed and release his Wright-Hamilton manuscript in 1863,first published in 1935.72(31),87(h)

Descendants of Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,pp.133,and wife, Frances CALHOUN understand that they, his brother,Andrew Hamilton,H-2,pp.198-207,and wife,Martha,and probably their sister,Martha HAMILTON, H-3,pp.207-208 ,who married James HENDERSON in Augusta county,Virginia 1738 came to North Atlantic Ocean seaport, Philadelphia or New York City from county Tyrone,Ulster,North of Ireland in 1733 and on the same boat then also came Patrick CALHOUN, C.pp.8 to 77 and wife, Catherine MONTGOMERY.born in county Londonderry, Ulster.North of Ireland in 1684 with their five children, emigrating from county Donegal,Ulster,North of Ireland and settled at Chesnut Level in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania where Patrick CALHOUN, husband and father died in 1741.The five childredn were : Mary CALHOUN, ho had married in Donegal county,Ireland John NOBLE. The other four children being unmarried sons named: James, Ezekiel,William and Patrick CALHOUN,Jr.

The association of their Calhoun and Hamilton families in Ulster,North of Ireland counties, and possibly earlier in Scotland,and in the American Colonies, Lancaster county,Pennsylvania,Augusta county,Virginia, Abbeville and Pendleton Districts,South Carolina through the centuries have maintained a tradition of relationship by Frances (CALHOUN) HAMILTON'S descendants to date to the descendants of the daughter,Mary Calhoun and four sons named,her brothers,children of emigrants,Patrick CALHOUN and wife,Catherine MONTGOMERY.The tradition has been strong through the centuries that the Families of Frances CALHOUN's parents in the North of Ireland was closely connected by marriage to said Patrick CALHOUN,husband of Catherine Montgomery. 195(25)

Other CALHOUN families early in Colonial America from Ulster, North of Ireland, and possibly from Scotland also earlier include Alice CALHOUN,as"sister of Frances CALHOUN, "who married Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,pp.133-98.Alice CALHOUN married Robert ARMSTRONG and has numerous descendants.

"Captain John CUNNINGHAM of Augusta county,Virginia militia",is so recorded on roll of tithables in his county taken Aug.20,1777;had resigned as Captain Nov.21,1782;as "Captain" is recorded in 1781 on William McPHEETERS list of tithables in Augusta county,Virginia.174. Court order of Augusta county,Virginia Aug.20,1777,appointing or listing Captains contains the name of "John CUNNINGHAM "

Two Revolutionary soldiers serving from Augusta county, Virginia in making their proofs of such military service to secure Revolutionary War pensions in Augusta county, Virginia,which proofs were recorded on that county's Order Book,such proofs being made there Sept.25,1832,who separatley described,-in different words such service by them as volunteers under Col. MATTHEWS and Captain John CUNNINGHAM of the Virginia militia,called into service against the British then rendezvoued at Teas';marched to Fredericksburg where they stayed three or four weeks,then marched to Portsmouth,Virginia,crossed the James River at Cabin Point,thence to Camp Carson below Norfolk;was in a scrimmage in which CAPTAIN CUNNINGHAM was wounded,of these two soldiers,John THOMPSON and John DIDDLE, Thompson had been transferred at Portsmouth from Captain CUNNINGHAM'S command to Charles CAMERON'S Company.John DIDDLE recited his age in 1832 as 87 years,or born in 1745.202(g),

These soldiers had been drafted in Augusta county,Virginia Jan.1,1781 203(111,114)

Lettice HAMILTON as "Lettice CUNNINGHAM " joined James EWING June 12,1786 in signing as witnesses a power of attorney signed by Dr.John JACKSON of Washington county, Maryland empowering Captain John CUNNINGHAM and David CUNNINGHAM to settle for him all claims and demands in Augusta county,Virginia where the power of attorney was recorded.

As "my son-in-law, John CUNNINGHAM" he is designated as one of the executors, the other being ,William HAMILTON,brother of Lettice, wife of said John CUNNINGHAM,-in the will of their father,Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,pp. as signed July 20,1787 and probated at January Court 1794 in Augusta county,Virginia. In this will testator,Archibald HAMILTON made bequest to "my daughter,Lettice" "remainder of personalty"(willed to wife and mother,Frances,for life) 203(44)

The published Court House records of Augusta county, Virginia end with 1800. Tradition among descendants of Lettice (HAMILTON) CUNNINHAM'S HAMILTON brothers is that she and her brothers,William and John HAMILTON,spent their lives in the vicinity of the parental homestead on Christin Creek in Beverley Manor,Augusta county,Virginia,all three and both her parents dying there and all buried in cemetery at Twinkling Springs in Augusta county,Virginia. 261

H-1-2- Audley HAMILTON *is probably oldest son of parents, p.136*Archibald HAMILTON, and wife, Frances CALHOUN,so appearing in two more publications of his service in the Augusta county,Virginia militia in 1758 in the French and

Indian Wars.109(a),179 210(a). He witnessed deed in Augusta county,Virginia Aug.16,1759,-203(6,124,126,128),206(45) is recoded there Aug.20,1759 as qualifying as Lieutenant, 206(88);witnessed deed there Nov.20,1770;received deed from parents, Archibald and Frances HAMILTON Nov.17,1773 described as :"son,Audley HAMILTON " conveying land to him in Augusta county,Virginia,-206(99);served in 1783 as private in Capt.Thomas RANKIN'S Company of Augusta county,Virginia"in Virginia Line"-174(c);referred to in public records of Augusta county,Virginia as "next friend of Frances HAMILTON, infant" in 1788,apparently a minor,orphan child or grandchild;is recorded in the 1790 U.S.Census of Pendleton District,South Carolina,-of Old "96" District,as head of a family there consisting then of: five males and four females, indicating parents and seven children.18,175,203(13);is reported as owning thousands of acres of land in South Carolina 258,476(6) Audley HAMILTON married in Augusta county, Virginia May 18,1764 Eleanor SHANKLIN of some of the following SHANKLIN families then living there:

Thomas SHANKLIN and wife,Eleanor,signed deed there,Feb. 18,1760 conveying to their "son,John SHANKLIN" 220 acres on a branch of Muddy Creek, a branch of North River of Shenandoah,part of 400 acres,"where Thomas now lives ",-in Augusta county,Virginia. Thomas SHANKLIN as ,"Sr." signed seed to Thomas SHANKLIN,Jr. as "son" conveying 100 acres,"80 acres of which is part of a 400 acres patent to James WOOD, Jan.12,1746,-on branch of Muddy Creek,cornering with John SHANKLIN'S land,the other tract conveyed containing 80 acres patented to Thomas SHANKLIN,Sr., in June 1755,-on branches of Muddy Creek and John FULTON'S line,-206(61).

Robert SHANKLIN and wife,Rebecca,conveyed land March 18,1777 and Nov. 1777,parts of tract patented to Robert July 20,1768 in Augusta county,Virginia. Robert, Edward and Richard SHANKLIN on Aug.19,1771 joined in witnessing a deed there. 206(90).

Audley HAMILTON moved ,-apparently between 1783 and 1790,- from Augusta county Virginia,first to Abbeville District,South Carolina,but his appearance in "Old" Pendleton District,-now Anderson county),South Carolina when the 1790 U.S. Census was recorded there suggests that he did not stay long in Abbeville District,S.C. or that the record of him Augusta county,Virginia did not necessarily imply that he was resident in Augusta county,Virginia,or that an error has been made in copying ,or bringing forth into this book "Old" Pendleton District,South Carolina instead of "Old" "96"(ABBEVILLE) District,South Carolina, where Audley's next younger brother, Maj.ANDREW HAMILTON,had then been living twenty five years . As Audley HAMILTON and wife,Eleanor SHANKLIN had been married 26 years when the 1790 U.S. Census of their family was recorded in South Carolina some of their older children had married,and had separate homes and are not included in the probable seven children ,then apparently so enumerated. Among their younger children some references have been found as to names for such children, which are next below listed for want of birth dates for most of them:

3-Frances, 4-Archibald, , 5-Audley,Jr.,Feb.9,1780, 6-Andrew 45(b),170(h,i), 195(1)

Audley HAMILTON is probably a namesake of his grandfather,Audley Harrison HAMILTON and wife,Eleanor ADAMS of county Tyrone,Ulster,North of Ireland,H- pp. who was apparently of the third or fourth generation of descent from Sir JAMES HAMILTON,Regent of Scotland (1543-1558),Item 19, p.115 and pages 118-119, through the Regent's youngest son, Lord Claude HAMILTON, pages 118,119,134 and 136.

Above quoted gravestone inscription is gleaned from a letter by John Temple GRAVES,Jr.C-5-4-5-1-2-1 p.66, whose wife is reputed to be a descendant of this Audley HAMILTON,Jr.385,399. Among the children of Audley HAMILTON,Jr. and wife,Jane Cunningham WILSON,were: 1-Frances SMITH, ,1825 .

H-1-2-6- Andrew HAMILTON,lived and died in "Old" Pendleton District,South Carolina;m. Margaret,who d. there Nov.4,1822,age 40 years, or born,1782 as appears in an obituary of him published there Nov.27,1822,referring to her as "consort of Maj. Andrew HAMILTON." Apparently this same "Maj.Andrew HAMILTON" signed in Pickens county, South Carolina Dec.23,1832 proof of good character of David HAMILTON ,Revolutionary soldier,then applying for Revolutionary pension. In this proof "Maj.Andrew HAMILTON recited his then present residence as in Pickens county, South Carolina,-originally within "Old" Pendleton District, South C rolin . 40(14), 147

The following paragraph may refer to the same,"Maj.Andrew HAMILTON" as the foregoing paragraph:

"Clerk of Court and Ex-Officio Commissioner of location of Pickens District ,South Carolina issued authority March 4,1844 to "any lawful surveyor" to lay out and admeasure unto Major Andrew HAMILTON a tract of land not exceeding 10,000 acres* * * and to return to this office within two months a true plat of the same" ,-endorsed:"Received of the within warrant fourteen hundred acres of land April 6,1844" (Signed) .Joseph Bowen,Deputy Surveyor.

As "Audley HAMILTON married Eleanor SHANKLIN May 18, 1764 " the next above "Andrew HAMILTON",if their oldest child,would not have been old enough to have served in the Revolutionary War ,even as a private,less probably a Major in that War. The size of the grant of land authorized to be surveyed for him in 1844 indicates military service as officer in War of 1812,"Wayne"s War of 1791" or Seminole War,Florida,or the engagement with the Mexicans at Goliad, Tex.March 27,1836 .If near the age of his wife,he would have been too young to have served as a private in "Wayne's (Indian) War of 1791.This survey for him was ordered before the final War with Mexico in the late 1840s. 407(a).

The foregoing references to "Major Andrew HAMILTON" do not refer to"MAJOR ANDREW HAMILTON",H-1-3,pp. of Augusta county,Virginia and Abbeville District,South Carolina,brother of Audley HAMILTON,H-1-2, this page who appears to be the father of this second"Major Andrew HAMILTON".

H-1-2-4- Archibald HAMILTON m.in Abbeville District, South Carolina Dec.17,1807 Jane DAVIS,Rev.Moses WADDELL,D.D. officiating. Estate of Archibald was administered in Pendleton District,South Carolina,Feb.7,1812. In that administration Audley HAMILTON made proof of a claim in his favor against the estate. There is no further proof as this is being written as to whether or not this Archibald HAMILTON was son of Audley HAMILTON, H-1-2,pp. and wife,Eleanor SHANKLIN.

H-1-3- ANDREW HAMILTON was christened May 2,1740 by Rev.John CRAIG,D.D.in the Old Stone Church at Twinkling Springs in Augusta county,Virginia,as appears from its record kept by Rev. Craig,,who served as its pastor for much of his long lifetime there.The christening was on his birthday,when he was one year old.169,197(c).

Compiler has found nothing recorded of his childhood until his marriage in Augusta county,Virginia in 1764 to Jane McGARRA,and the birth of their first child,Hugh there July 28,1765 and there departure in the latter part of 1765 for their permanent home in Granville (now Abbeville) county,South Carolina to join the pioneer colony of CALHOUN kin of his mother,Frances (CALHOUN) HAMILTON on Long Cane Creek there,these CALHOUNS emigrating from Donegal county, Ulster,North of Ireland, Andrew's parents emigrating from the adjoining ,county,Tyrone,Ulster.North of Ireland,all emigrating together in 1733 to Lancaster county, Pennsylvania. These Calhouns and HAMILTONS had moved from Lancaster county, Pennsylvania to Augusta county, Virginia before members these CALHOUNS and HAMILTONS moved again to Long Cane Settlement, Granville (now Abbeville) county, South Carolina.

Long Cane Creek Settlement there was made in February 1756 by Catherine (MONTGOMERY) CALHOUN, widow of Patrick Calhoun and children, Mary (CALHOUN) NOBLE, wife of John, James, Ezekiel, William and Partick CALHOUN, Jr. three older sons having married, brought with them wives and children. Granville county, South Carolina appears to have been the accepted name of their settlement,-among the first, there, but changed in 1768 to "Ninety-Six District"; to "Abbeville District" in 1785 as which it remained until 1868 when it was changed again to "Abbeville county, South Carolina, and so remains.

ANDREW HAMILTON followed these kin of his mother there nearl 10 years later. 147(98)

ANDREW HAMILTON'S first home in South Carolina by about 1765-1756 was named by him , "Poplar Grove", being "on the waters of Long Cane Creek" in the Calhoun Settlement in then Granville(now Abbeville) county. Some references to its more exact location place as on Norris Creek within the present corporate limits of the town of Abbeville, South Carolina. His second home in Abbeville is noted as being on "Magazine Hill",-off the road from Abbeville to Greenville, South Carolina, thinking the site he had selected for his "red house" was the highest point in the vicinity, but when he ad cleared the full elevation of the 'long canes', growing thirty feet high he found that his home site was fifty yards from the summit,-393; his third house in South Carolina was located the present corner of Main and Washington Streets in the town of Abbeville, South Carolina. These first three homes were burned by Cherokee Indians. His fourth home was built on the site of the third home. This site included a spring for water supply back of the present City Hall of Abbeville, South Carolina, the site for which and the site of the present Abbeville County Court House both being donated by Major ANDREW HAMILTON, who was the second settler on the site of Abbeville, South Carolina, the first being R.H. WARDLAW who encouraged Major Andrew HAMILTON to become his neighbor. His home site in Abbeville, South Carolina is occupied by retail merchants, Belk & Simpson and the weekly newspaper there, The Press and Banner. His home there was a large and comfortable dwelling and stood as a landmark until 1871/2, when destroyed by a general fire in town of Abbeville South Carolina. 40(23), 109(a), 130, 141, 143, 169, 195(25), 196(b, c), 197(c), 203(124, 126), 258, 476(6).

The present town of Abbeville, South Carolina was selected as a town site for the county seat of Abbeville District(now county), because ot its fresh water supply there, over more otherwise attractive village sites along Upper Cane Creek, all of which were without suitable Spring water supply. 258, 476(6).

Major ANDREW HAMILTON enlisted May 11, 1776 for military service for the American Colonies(United States of America) in the Revolution in the 6th. Regiment of South Carolina militia, commanding twenty-two men under Major WILLIAMSON at first battle of Ninety-Six, South Carolina. 30, 137(a, b)

Major WILLIAMSON'S report of this battle identified Andrew HAMILTON as commanding 22 men participating. 143, 293; fought in the battle of Eutaw, South Carolina, serving near General Thomas PINCKNEY at the moment that meritorious officer was wounded. 141(c), 147(15).

When Jane (McGARRA) HAMILTON, wife of Captain Andrew HAMILTON, H-1-3, pp. 138-, saw a band of robbers approaching their home, she urged her husband to escape and running to the barn lot, she opened the gate and drove out the cattle and her husband's blooded horses. The British officer in command of the party was furious and told her that he would surely hang her husband, if he ever captured him, to which her spirited reply was :" you will hang a better man than yourself." Tradition among her descendant, Sockwell Leadore HAMILTON, H-1-3-2-4-8-1-, pp 156-, born Smith county, Texas ,   1866, died Los Angelese, California, 1950, without knowing of her remark to the British officer above in Morgan county, Alabama before 1910 imparted to compiler his cousin that this our great-grandmother in South Carolina bore the maiden name, "McGarry" a person of spirit and great courage and resolution, characteristics she has transmitted to many of her descendants ever since which has been recognized in many of them by compiler in his long lifetime.

After her husband made good his escape from this band he was unable to stand the suspense of not being available for the protection of his family and community and returned to his family, but was overpowered by greater numbers and imprisoned in a block house on his own estate. This "block house" was known as Fort Pickens, built by General ANDREW PICKENS after his home had been raided and burned by a force of British from Ninety-Six District under the command of the infamous Major DUNLAP. This Ft. Pickens "block house " is the present site of the office of the RURAL ELECTRIFICATION ASSOCIATION in the town of Abbeville, South Carolina. The "block house " stood over the little brook where the trestle of the railroad crosses the brook within the present city area of of the town of Abbeville, South Carolina.

By the help of his heroic wife and a faithful slave he escaped from the "block house" while the Tory band had gone further to rob other houses. 137(a, b), 138(a, b), 143, 293.

"At the surrender of Carns fort by the British, Capt. Andrew HAMILTON was the officer selected by the commander of the American forces to negotiate the capitulation. 141(c) 55(d), 83(a-e), 197(c) 147(15)

During the whole war he and General Andrew PICKENS were on terms of intimacy and friendship and often acter together in driving the Indians and Tories from their predatory incursions on the frontier settlements. General Pickens had married   1765 in Granville(now Abbeville) county, South Carolina Rebecca CALHOUN, C-3-2, pp. p. 50 daughter of Ezekiel CALHOUN, C-3, pp. 49- , near kinsman of Frances CALHOUN, mother of Capt. ANDREW HAMILTON and they had served togehter as first elders of the Long Cane Creek Presbyterian Church in Granville (now Abbeville) county, South Carolina and cooperated as officers in the South Carlina militia for the American Colonies in the Revolution and otherwise always warm friends. 55(d.1), 83(a-e), 197(c)143

Andrew HAMILTON was appointed in 1773 with Patrick CALHOUN, Jr., C-5, pp. 65-75 as "Inquirers " and "Collector of Taxes in Ninety-Six (Abbeville) District, South Carolina. When the Legislature of South Carolina ordered "Ninety-Six" district divided into counties,-not over forty miles square, the commissioners to survey these counties were : ANDREW PICKENS, Thomas BRANDON, Robert ANDERSON, Levi CASE', Philemon WATERS, Arthur SIMPSON and Simon BERWICK. 138 . The counties thus created fron "Ninety-Six District" became Abbeville, Edgefield and Newberry counties.

" A return of milita and volunteers on duty in the fortified camp at Ninety-Six, South Carolina, Sunday, November 19. 1775 under command of Andrew HAMILTON, with George REED, Andrew PICKENS, Aaron SMITH, Benjamin TUTT, Thomas LANGDON, Adam Crane JONES, Matthew BERNARD and Charles WILLIAMS, officers, total 201. 137(a)

"A British officer, Major HILLHOUSE, suffering from a broken leg and other wounds fell into the hands of Maj. Andrew HAMILTON, who set his leg and nursed him back to health under his own roof. Hamilton's neighbors came to call so often that he took Hillhouse to his attic, his family raising their voices to drown Maj. HILLHOUSE'S groans, some one having to be at his bed day and night. He removed patient to a place prepared for him in his barn and assigned his young son, John HAMILTON, H-1-3-4, pp143-4 armed with a gun, to protect and nurse him. Major HILLSHOUSE was so grateful that he begged Major Andrew Hamilton to permit this son, John HAMILTON, to accopany him home to England after the Revolution and they left Abbeville, South Carolina togehter by night on horseback for Charleston, S. C. whence they sailed for Major HILLHOUSE'S home in ENGLAND 143a, 293

For the sequel to this John HAMILTON'S trip to and stay in ENGLAND in the family of Major HILLHOUSE SEE JOHN HAMILTON, H-1-3-4, pp. 143

As "Mr. Andrew HAMILTON" received from State of South Carolina "Indent, issued April 22, 1785 for 68 pounds 15 shillings and 8 pence half penny sterling for militia duty from 1779 to 1783 ; as "Major A and for one beef for military use in 1781, as per account audited: Principal sixty-eight pounds,15 shillings and 8½ pence:Annual Interest: four pounds,sixteen shillings and three pence. 145(b).

Major Andrew HAMILTON served as Justice of the Peace in Abbeville,South Carolina ,so witnesses many deeds and other documents there for many years after 1785;appointed one of the three commissioners, and served with Dr De La HOWE to lay out residential town lots in Abbeville,South Carolina,the street lines ,so marked by them being since encroached upon by abutting lot owners 293

He served as a member of the Convention that adopted the Constitution of the United States and for many years as member of the South Carolina Legislature.141(c),147(15)

As "Andrew HAMILTON" he is recorded as head of a family of:males, 6 ; females:4.

NOTE: His oldest surviving son,Archibald HAMILTON,H-1-3-2, pp.143-178,and oldest daughter, Sarah,born about 1768 had both married before 1790 and were living separately from their parents' family 18

Major Andrew HAMILTON was appointed with Patrick CALHOUN,Jr.,C-5,pp.65-and James LINCOLN by the South Carolina Legislature to serve as a bench of County Court Judges for Abbeville District,South Carolina.83(e),144, 293.

Major Andrew HAMILTON was elected by the South Carolina Legislature in 1794 as Inspector of Powder and general keeper of arsenal for the District of Ninety-Six. In this official capacity he had built a substantial brick powder magazine on the remote outskirts of Abbeville,South Carolina,which location was given the name,"Magazine Hill."293

Andrew HAMILTON became Clerk of Court of Abbeville District,South Carolina in 1802,-151(a). He served as Ordinary (Probate Judge) of Abbeville District,South Carolina from 1802-1807, and probably at later periods there. He was a member of the South Carolina Legislature,both when it met in Charleston and Columbia and served in many sessions:
114(c),143,147(15),152 p. 144,195(j),293.

Major Andrew HAMILTON'S marriage license is recorded in the Court House at Staunton,Augusta county,Virginia before the law or practice required the bride's name to be entered on the record of license issued there. It seems to have been issued in 1764 when he married there Jane McGARRA (McGarry, McGeary or Magill),her maiden name being spelled in all these forms in Pennsylvania,Augusta county,Virginia and Abbeville District, South Carolina. In an old Bible record her name has been found written as "Jane Magara, born in Pennsylvania Dec.20,1740,daughter of John of Irish extraction" The inscription on the gravestone next to the gravestone of her her husband,Major Andrew HAMILTON in Long Cane Presbyterian Church cemetery reads:"Sacred to the memory of Mrs. Jane HAMILTON,the wife of Major Andrew HAMILTON,who departed this life April 20,1826,-in the 86th year of her age. She died,as it is believed she lived, a Christian and left a numerous concourse of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. 150,169,258,476(6,15).

Searches made in Augusta county,Virginia Court House records prior to 1800 in all the foregoing forms of spelling Jane (Magara) HAMILTON'S maiden name produce the following items: "Edward McGarry,Nov.19,1755,purchaser at sales Sept.15 and Nov.8,1758; witnessed will Jan.20,1759, also spelled "McGeary"; made sale to John and Robert"McGarry " on south for of Potomac River,Aug.29,1761; witnessed deed for lots in town of Staunton,Augusta county,Virginia, Oct.27,1763.

John and Sarah McGarry signed power of attorney June 5,1762 to James GREAR,farmer, to recover patent to "the land John now lives on " and convey it to Archibald HOPKINS, and as John "Megarry " and Sarah as "formerly of Augusta county,Virginia,-now of North Carolina " ;made deed to James GREAR Sept.17,1763 conveying 170 acres on Muddy Creek in Augusta county,Virginia" "  on line of PINCHER'S old place."

Wm. McGary JORDAN,H-1-3-2-4-1-6-5,p. 149 ,a great-great-great grandson of Jane (MAGARA, McGarra,McGarry, McGeary,McGarry) HAMILTON was born in Canton,Texas,April 3,1896, -in the 5th.generation of descent,could have been named by his grandfather,William Matthew JORDAN,H-1-3-2-4-1-6,pp.148,149 born in Haralson county,Georgia July 8,1858 or by his uncle John Samuel JORDAN,H-1-3-2-4-1-2,pp.148-49,also born in Haralson county,Georgia,Oct.27,1848 both both moving with their parents in 1867 from Haralson county,Georgia to VanZant county,Texas, where the mother, Jane (HAMILTON)JORDAN H-1-3-2-4-1,p-147-, ,oldest daughter of John Lewis HAMILTON, H-1-3-2-4,pp.146-78 ,born in Abbeville District,South Carolina March 10,1800,old enough to see and know of his granmother ,Jane (MAGARA,McGarry,McGary,McGeary) HAMILTON, wife of Major Andrew HAMILTON ,H-1-3,pp138-143 their oldest surviving son, Archibald HAMILTON,II, H-1-3-2, pp 143- ,born Abbeville District,South Carolina in 1766, died in Gwinnett county,Georgia past 84 years,-after 1850

This Jane (HAMILTON) JORDAN,H-1-3-2-4-1,pp.147- 149 born in Gwinnett county,Georgia,Nov.30,1825, died VanZant county,Texas Sept.26,1874 was apparently a namesake of her great grandmother,Jane(McGarey) HAMILTON,wife of Major Andrew HAMILTOM,H-1-3,pp.138- ,above and "McGeary JORDAN probably had his Christian name suggested by his grand father William Matthew JORDAN, or the latter's older brother,John Samuel JORDAN,whom compiler remembers seeing about 72 years ago, when an 8 year old child. This John Samuel JORDAN being a return visit to his father and mother's kin in Haralson county,Ga. the first and only one to then or since to return from Texas,after 17 years absence.This John Samuel Jordan has been visited at intervals by his Hamilton uncles going from Georgia and Alabama to Texas to visit him and Hamilton family.Pride and interest among these Texas descendants has not abated to this date,as is evidenced by the numbers of these contributing their familiec to date for inclusion in this book. They were intelligent people,though handicapped some by the misfortunes of war and harships of orpahn children in a Texas frontier location as early as 1867.

Research for this book includes a letter dated Abbeville, South Carolina March 20,1916 spelling Jane's maiden name as "McGara".The origin of the variations of that surname as herein above copied has not been learned.
141(c),142,143,147(15),265

A historical publication issued in 1886 in Augusta county,Virginia gives Major Andrew HAMILTON'S wife's maiden name as "McGill" rather than "McGarra ".Their 9th. child was given the Christian names ,"Jane Magill"(McGill) HAMILTON,-196(e). On back of page 1 of Womens' Section in the daily TIMES-HERALD ,Washington,D.C.,"St Patrick's Day" March 17,1953 was printed in colors, a map of IRELAND, outlining the boundaries of the 32 counties in the province on the island of Ireland. On this map some 2,000 surnames are shown,each in the location occupied by families of each surname,-as members of the "First Families of Old Ireland",with symbols indicating the ranks held among them and adding a legend thereon,definitions:"The Gaelic prefix:"Mac",now written:"Mc",meaning:"son of ", Gaelic:"O","descendant of ",the Norman:"Fitz","son of".

A close scrutiny of these myriads of surnames revealed no surnames :"Magill", "MacGill","McGill" or "Magarra". The nearest to either of these forms of surnames,written or spoken,-was a single entry of an "Old Ireland, First Family"seat,spelled "MacGarry " located in the center of the neck of county Mayo,Province of Connaught,IRELAND,which extends thence westward to the Atlantic Ocean,one of the larger counties,and located in northern portion of Middle West Ireland,of the present Irish Free State,exclusive of that part of old Ulster which adheres to the British Empire and maintains its Parliament independent of the Parliament of the present Irish Free State. On this map of Ireland,outside of Ulster, North of Ireland,the presence of surnames of"First Families" carrying the prefix:"Mac" or "Mc" are not numerous in counties or regions heavily populated with "First Family" surnames carrying the prefix:"O" either in the present Irish Free State or old Ulster,North of Ireland counties.

In 1827,Major Andrew Hamilton,H-1-3,pp.139-43 ,then 87 years old travelled by horseback accompanied by his youngest daughter,Catherine (HAMILTON) ALSTON,H-1-3-10,pp. 185-188 and his grand daughter, Jane Catherine HAMILTON , H-1-3-11-2,pp.189 ,also on horseback, from their homes in Abbeville,South Carolina to Staunton,Augusta county Virginia his first return trip in the 62 intervening years since he left the scenes of his childhood there to take his bride and first born son to their future home in the "near wilderness"of Granville(now Abbeville county, South Carolina. The burdensome round trip was made to gratify a yearning of Major Andrew HAMILTON in the year following the death of his wife in her 86th.year in South Carolina and included a visit to the graves of his parents, sister and 2 brothers buried in cemetery of Old Stone Presbyterian Church at Twinkling Springs,Augusta county, Virginia. He found their graves,but their oaken markers had lost all inscriptions they ever carried,through decay.They also visited his birth place in the parental homestead on on Christian Creek in Augusta county,Virginia.

A controlling motive in Major Andrew HAMILTON imposing this arduous trip upon himself,his daughter and grand daughter,was thought by the grand daughter to be his hope of finding and getting copy of a writing by his father, Archibald HAMILTON,H-1, pp. of the names, titles and estates in Scotland and Ulster,North of Ireland of his ancestors and of ancestors in Scotland and Ireland of his wife,Frances CALHOUN , he being moved apparently by remorse of not having sought for or obtained earlier,as at his age,25 years when he parted from his parents in his removal to South Carolina,he doubtless had heard his father talk often of it without attaching the importance of preserving it for his posterity that he had then so recently realized. This long round trip on horseback had to progress by easiest possible stages owing to Major Andrew HAMILTON'S increasing feebleness from so advanced an age.For it his daughter and grand daughter equipped the party to camp by the roadside at night in stretches of the trip too sparsely settled to find lodging in homes,-to protect themselves in emergencies, such as bad weather encountered en route. In this writing it was widely understood that emigrant ,Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,pp.133-36,knew the names of his Hamilton ancestors in each generation earlier than his own back to and including,Sir JAMES HAMILTON, ,Item 19 pages 115,118 and 119 ,and the titles and estates of each of his intervening ancestor back to and including said Sir JAMES HAMILTON, Regent of Scotland,1543-1558,guardian for Mary,"Queen of Scots",during her minority or until her marriage to Francis,II,King of France in 1558 .143(a-e), 258, 476(6)

For a description of the route followed by this trip on horseback from South Carolina to Virginia by Major Andrew Hamilton, daughter and grand daughter SEE Diary of William CALHOUN,who made practically the same trip by horse back from Dec.20,1762 to March 29,1763 reproduced on page hereof. 213,391

About 1915 there appeared in a Virginia biographical book a recital that "Major Andrew HAMILTON(H-1-3,pp. of Abbeville,South Carolina was a direct descendant from Sir JAMES HAMILTON(Item 19 ,page 115, 118 and 119) ,Earl of Arran and Regent of Scotland during the disability to reign of the infant,"Mary,Queen of Scots " 191(a),197(c),258,476(6)

Many other early European and Colonial North American HAMILTON and CALHOUN family traditions are preserved in this book through Major Andrew HAMILTON'S daughter, Catherine (HAMILTON) ALSTON,H-1-3-10,pp.185- and through his grand daughter, Jane Catherine HAMILTON(wife of John Franklin MURDOCK,,Jane Catherine being reared and educated in the home of her aunt,Catherine (HAMILTON) ALSTON in Abbeville District,South Carolina, the latter's grand daughter,Elizabeth Jane (BLACKWELL) BUSHEY, H-1-3-11-2-6-1,p.192- living at advanced age having carried intensively through a long lifetime to preserved the traditions her grandmother,Jane Catherine (Hamilton) Murdock started gathering,preserving and handing down from as early as her trip in young womanhood with her grandfather ,Major Andrew HAMILTON,H-1-3,pp.138-43,by horseback from Abbeville,S.C. ,to Staunton,Virginia and return in 1827. 258 ,476(6).SEE Photograph and biographical sketch of Mrs. Elizabeth Jane (BLACKWELL) BUSHEY,H-1-3-11-2-6-1,pp. 192-193 and photograp and biographical sketch of Elizabeth Jane (BLACKWELL) BUSHEY'S mother ,Sarah Jane (MURDOCK) BLACKWELL,H-1-3-11-2-6,pp.189-192 for the preparation for the enormous contributions that each have made to the enrichment of this book.

Major Andrew HAMILTON conveyed all his property by deed or will after 1828,including 2,950 acres in Abbeville and McCormick counties,South Carolina to his daughter,Catherine(HAMILTON) ALSTON, and her only child who was between six and seven years old,when"Major Andrew HAMILTON died ,Jan.27,1835 in his 95th.year" according to his inscribed gravestone standing in Long Cane Presbyterian Church cemetery in Abbeville county,South Carolina amidst gravestones of his wife, Jane ,son, "Captain Alexander C., Hamilton,H-1-3 -8,p. 183 .b.Sept.28,1782,died Feb.27,1835 and wife, Delphia Adelia (MIDDLETON) HAMILTON,born,b.1787, died Nov.7,1826"aged 39 years"; and their son,Richard A. HAMILTON,H-1-3-8- 6 ,p.184 who died Feb.14,1837"in the 22nd year of age." Major Andrew HAMILTON's son,Andrew M. HAMILTON, b, 17__,married Feb.17,1808,died March 19,1888 ,H-1-3-11,p.188,the wife of Major Andrew HAMILTON'S son,William HAMILTON, namely, Nancy HAMILTON ,born July 1792, died Feb.2,1804 "21 years and 7 months". Catherine (HAMILTON ALSTON,born Nov.25,1786,died Nov.18,1877 and her husband,"Major James ALSTON,born Nov.16,1774,died Dec.15, 1850. The dates on the grave stone of Major Andrew HAMILTON'S wife,-next to his own grave stone reads:"Mrs.Jane HAMILTON died April 20th. ,1826,-in the 86th.year of her age." Their great-great-grandaughter, Elizabeth Jane (BLACKWELL) BUSHEY, H-1-3-11-2-6-1,p. 193,also an unthusistic and untiring Hamilton family genealogist,living in 195 at 45 South Sixth Street,Banning,Californaia has secured a cemetery lot in this group with her great-great grandparents ,Major Andrew HAMILTON and wife,Jane (McGARRY) HAMILTON,H-1-3,pp.138-43,and had a tombstone for her grave there inscribed:"Elizabeth Jane BUSHEY,born January 25,1876 in Talorville,Alabma,daughter of Benjamin Greer BLACKWELL and Sarah Jane MURDOCK, grand daughter of William BLACKWELL and Eliza GREER,- and of John Franklin MURDOCK and Jane Catherine HAMILTON,-Great-grand-daughter of Andrew M. HAMILTON and Nancy HOGG,- of Samuel and Ann BLACKWELL,- and of James MURDOCK and Martha CRAWFORD,-Great-great-grand daughter of Major Andrew HAMILTON and Jane McGARA." As Mrs. Bushey is living space is reserved to engrave her death date, as by her will provisions are made for assuring her interment in the lot she has so made ready for her interment there and the completion of inscription on her tombstone. Continuing Mrs. Bushey's gravestone inscription adds that she is the "Great-great-great-grand daughter of Archibald HAMILTON and Frances CALHOUN.476(53)

Catherine (HAMILTON) ALSTON obviously disclaimed the property conferred on her by her father by his will or deed as Major Andrew HAMILTON'S considerable estate was administered at Abbeville in Old Ninety Six(later Abbeville) District(now Abbeville county,South Carolina from the time of his death in early 1835 ,for several years before all proofs of heirship from him claimed in the adminstration proceedings had been adjudicated. Considerable of his decendants ,as then scattered or remain in the South Carolina region of Major Andrew HAMILTON'S home in Abbeville,South Carolina have been fully appropriated herein in connection with what is recorded herein as to all of his descendants. 152 p.136,258, 47 (6)

"Major HAMILTON is described as a strict Presbyteri- in his religion ,and a man of inflexible will, dauntless courage and superb physical developement.His memory is revered by many kindred and friends. among his descendants are the Simonds and Revels of Charleston,Parkers and Waites of Columbia, CALHOUNS of South Carolina and Georgia,ALSTONS and CABELLS of Richmond,Virginia,the MURDOCKS of Talorville,Tuscaloosa county,Alabama and many more remote kin ".193 (c).

Except for a listing of the names of the eleven children of Major ANDREW HAMILTON,H-1-3,p.138-43,and wife,Jane McGARRA (McGARRY", "MAGILL", "McGILL") and such dates of their birth as became available ,the foregoing is all that has come to compiler's attention from sources other than Major Andrew HAMILTON'S own pen. Apparently none of the foregoing biography of him was written.spoken or intentionally inspired or influenced by him with a view of it being seen in print. The following,apparently written by him mostly when of very advanced age will better reflect the character and capacity of him as a man than his admirers or kin have done or can do and is here copied from ancient rare documents he produced,not intentionally as autobiography:

ANDREW HAMILTON,SR.in Abbeville District,South Caolina Oct.24,1832 deposed as "Major Andrew HAMILTON,a resident there, entered service of his country early in 1775 as Captain of a volunteer Company of Whigs raised for defense against aggressions of Loyalists and Tories,Major WILLIAMSON commanding Whig militia of Ninety-Six District, South Carolina collected a body of them including deponent's company to go in quest of plundering Tories,but found it necessary to retreat into stockade fort where they were confined without water for three days,when they obtained a scant supply by digging.

The Royalists of Tories obtained possession of the jail of Ninety-Sixth District,South Carolina from which they fired into the fort. After some days the Tories sent a flag and proposed a truce,the object of which was to enable both parties to confer,the Royalists with the Royal Governor, and the Whigs with the Council of Safety,then lately organized by the friends of liberty in South Carolina.

Deponent marched his company in the Fall of 1776 to the Cherokee Nation by order from General WILLIAMSON who commanded the expedition in person,having about two thousand men who were met and opposed by a superior force of Indians.

Williamson entered a narrow valley surrounded by mountains. The larger portion of the Indians occupied the mountain heights from which they poured in constant and well directed fire. Orders were given to detachments of Williamson's to gain the heights above the Indians,who being hardly pressed by advances in the valley as there on the mountain sides betook themselves to flight. Williamson's army then laid waste to all the Cherokee settlements in that section and disbanded in October," 40(23.24,41)

Deponent was in a subsequent Indian expedition. In 1779 several hundred Tories marched along the Western frontaier of South Carolina taking several prisoners.General PICKENS collected three hundred man and followed these tories to Kettle Creek in Georgia.He disposed of his force in three divisions and gave the command of the right wing to deponent ,who acted as Major in this bettle at Kettle Creek.The Tories were completely defeated and routed with a loss of about firty killed,including their commander,Col. Boyd.The Whig loss was comparatively small.

Deponent commanded a Company at the seige of Ninety Six in South Carolina in 1781 and remained there under General GREEN in active performance of military duty until General GREEN raised the seiged and marched his troops across the SALUDA River toward North Carolina.

Deponent commanded as Major a batallion of militia under General PICKENS in the battle of Eutaw,South Carolina in 1781.

Deponent was in several other expeditions and skirmishes as Captain of a Company of Whig Volunteers  partaking of the character of partisan warfare at home and within surrounding settlements and borders of South Carolina against Tories and Indians, it would be impossible to recapitulate the diversified scenes experienced in defense of his country;  being almost constantly employed in such service during the whole Revolutionary War as the commanding officer of a Company in opposing Tories,Indians, British, and of all enemies the Tories as the most obnoxious and detestable to the liberty of his country." 40(23,24),143(a)

Major ANDREW HAMILTON,H-1-3,pp.138-143 was pensioned at the rate of $404.66 per year beginning March 4, 1831. His oath in support of his claim for officers pension for services in the Revolutionary War was written and signed by him ,-in a legible handwriting in his 93rd.year of life,April 9 1833,-stating that his Revolutionary service was,at least, three years as Captain,-at least,one year as Major ;never received a written commission * * * regiments of Continentals and milita fought hard at Eutaw, South Carolina; * * * knew Colonels Hammond and Washington and General Pickens at Eutaw; * * *he is intimately known to John C. CALHOUN,Vice-President of the United States of America,many distinguished characters of South Carolina and to the greater part of the population of Abbeville District, South Carolina. "-Oath dated April 9 ,1833. 40(24).

ANSWER TO INTERROGATORIES BY MAJOR ANDREW HAMILTON: " I was born in Augusta county,Virginia; was baptized by Rev. John CRAIG,July 19,1741 in Augusta county,Virginia, which is the only record he has of his age,which he took from the book of Rev.John CRAIG in Virginia;* * he was living in Ninety-Sixth District of South Carolina when he was called into the service of his country;that he has lived since the Revoutionary War in the same State and District,-. now called Abbeville District, South Carolina where he now lives; * * entered and served throughout the Revolution;" was never drafted nor served as a substitute."40(23,24),143

NOTE: (a-e

"James ALSTON and Rev.Franklin BRANCH of Abbeville District, South Carolina made oath at the time Major ANDREW HAMILTON was answering these interrogatories from the United States War Department that: "* * * we believe him to be Ninety Two years of age."* * * Samuel HAMMOND of Columbia, Richland District,South Carolina wrote signed oath October 13,1833 stating:

"I became acquainted with Major Andrew HAMILTON in 1779,then called,"Captain" HAMILTON and in actual service in Colonel PICKENS Regiment of militia and that most of that year he was in service, I was afterwards associated with him in General PICKENS'Brigade and know particularly that he was in the Battle of Eutaw acting as Major in 1781 and continued in the army some time afterwards; * * *Major Andrew HAMILTON was highly esteemed as an active,zealous officer and respectable citizen."

TABULATION OF REVOLUTIONARY SERVICE,Dated Dec.13, 1833.

" * * * two tours in 1775,-one for one month and seven days as Captain at Cambridge or "Ninety-Six,in the Ninety Sixth District of South Carolina and one for one month and fifteen days as Captain in Cherokee Nation in South Carolina,-with 1,500 or more men,-all under Colonel WILLIAMSON in 1779; as Captain in Ninety-Sixth District of South Carolina at Carr's Fort,as Major in battle at Kettle Creek in Georgia with three hundred to four hundred soldiers,-all under Col.PICKENS; in 1781 Captain at the seige of Cambridge and on South Carolina frontier; as Major in the Battle of Eutaw,-all in South Carolina and another month during which Major Andrew HAMILTON and General PICKENS were imprisoned by British in the jail at Ninety-Six,South Carolina,being captured in 1780 by British soldiers; was in the militia service in 1777 and 1778,-claims a total of one year ,eight months and seven days in rank of Captain.

Application for pension submitted by him reads,in part: " I neither claim nor ask anything for my services as Acting Major. I include these services under the rank of Captain".

August 7,1833 as "Andrew HAMILTON,Sr." signed " an amended statement in his application for Revolutionary War officer's pension,-in Abbeville District,South Carolina, stating that:"* * * such was the character of the Revolutionary War in Upper South Carolina,-and particularly in the Ninety-Sixth District where he * * * lived,acted and performed military services in defense of the Colonies where the freinds of liberty performed continuous tours of duty from the commencement of the Revolutionary War until its close and were constrained to do so from having to contend with a triple enemey,Indians, who were provoked by British influence to slaughter without mercy the Whig inhabitants and their families,who,in many instances suffered as much from Tories,who scarcely ever failed to plunder,burn and destroy the substance and property of patriots,-taking their lives,if captured,leaving their families,widows and orphans stripped of every thing necessary for their comfort and support.

To oppose these enemies successfully the small band of patriots in this section of country were compelled to perform continuous tours of duty,both by night and day,-night being the most auspicious time for movement * * * wherever duty called.

This constant appearance of force served in some measure to intimidate the Indians and Tories. The patriotic forces were principally volunteers raised under competent authority.

Colonel PICKENS had command of the military force of Ninety Sixth District and always aided in giving authority to any body of patriots associated together for defense and security of the country * * *. "

Major Andrew HAMILTON* * * was a near neighbor and friend of Col. PICKENS, * * * living within fifteen miles of the line dividing the Indian lands from the lands of the white settlers there. * * * Col. PICKENS and he were almost constantly together ,acting for and in defense of their country; * * * that he derived authority from PICKENS to act as Captain within his command,-and subsequently to act as Major under him* * * ."

Tre following statement repeats somewhat:"* * * -in 1775 * * * served five weeks as Captain under Major WILLIAMSON * * * against a force of Royalists in the village od Cambridge,or "Ninety Six" * * in 1776; * * * served six weeks as Captain under Major WILLIAMSON in 1777 and 1778; acted as Captain under the authority of Col.Pickens to perform military service in protecting and defending the frontier of Ninety Sixth District,South Carolina; * * * ,-in 1779 acted as Captain,- and as Major for part of the year,-under authority of and in the immediate command of Col.PICKENS; * * * acted as Captain in the attack on Carr's Fort in Georgia,where he bore a flag of truce to the enemy in the fort which was abandoned by PICKENS,-to meet a Col. BOYD. PICKENS had pursued BOYD from South Carolina to Kettle Creek ,Georgia and in the battle there Andrew HAMILTON acted as Major and commanded the right wing,which killed Col.BOYD,being near and an eye witness to BOYD'S fall and death,whose expiring words were that he has "has the consclation that he died a true friend of His Majesty,KING GEORGE,III* * * ." BOYD gave soemthing to Col.PICKENS to forward to his wife and then expired * * ." Major Andrew HAMILTON,SR. stated that he * * *"believed that he was in the military service the whole year of 1779 under Gen.PICKENS, but * * "made claim for only nine months actual service."; " * * in 1780 acted as Captain under General PICKENS in protecting the frontier against Tory depredations"; * * * in 1781 acted as Captain under General PICKENS at the seige of Ninety Six, South Carolina and under Gen. Pickens as Major of the militia in the Battle of Eutaw, South Carolina and during 1781 rendered,at least, six months actural service; and * * * and from the Battle of Eutaw,South Carolina to the end of the war acted as Major of militia under Gen. PICKENS;"* * *accompanied Gen.PICKENS and others on a trip to confer with Col.FEW from Georgia,who then had a few troops,-all true Whigs in Ninety Six District,South Carolina,-in 1780,- en route a female,who proved to be a sympathizer with the Tories,directed them so as to reach a camp of British and Tory soldiers by whom he and Pickens were made prisoners and sent to the village of Cambridge ,or "Ninety-Six" where they remained as prisoners for a month. The detaining prison officer,ALLEN,caused them to be treated with attention and kindness,PICKENS negotiating their release * * *." " I beleive it was attributable to popularity and influence of Gen. PICKENS ,who always acted under competent military authority in defense of his country * * *." Maj.Andrew HAMILTON was not employed in any civil pursuit during the Revolutionary War."

"Patriots of this section of the country during the Revolution could not with safety appear on their farms to do a day's work,which was principally performed by the wommen and children, and when the crops were made by them,were often plundered and destroyed by the Tories. Civil pursuits could not be attended to by the men.They had to bear arms night and day. The militia of other States where there were comparatively few Tories,could attend to their civil pursuits without danger and served their rotary tours of duty. This was not the case here.40(23,24),137(a,b),178(b),183(a), 191(a),195(51),196(a-c),476(100)(a

A memorandum by Major Andrew HAMILTON ,original,or copy of which is reported to be in possess on of his great-great-great-grandson,John LACEY,H-1-3-11-2-6-2-1,p.193 of the First National Bank of Dallas,Texas,written and signed by him June 2,1833,"being one month over 93 years old,"-which fixes his birth date as May 2,1740 ,reads:"This memorandum I have taken the 2nd.day of June 1833 * * * ' being one month over 93 years of age.After the death of my wife(which occurred April 20,1826 in her 86th year of life) so long as the first day of May 1828 a very adverse providence took place on me,-by a fall from my horse all the bones of my right side were dislocated and deprived me even of going out of my house without assistance.

My age and infirmities prove the short time I have to be with you and now I beg the last favor which is more than probable I shall ever ask, and that is that my executor and my children will bury my body along the side of deceased wife is the sincere prayer of Andrew HAMILTON.Amen!Amen!

Some suggestion are that this memorandum was delivered by him to his daughter,Jane McGill(HAMILTON) DAVIS,H-1-3-9,p.184 Another report is that he delivered this memorandum to a neighbor, R.H. WARDLAW, to deliver to"my granddaughter",meaning Catherine Jane(HAMILTON) MURDOCK,to whom,in fact, said WARDLAW actually delivered it, the present custodian LACEY, being a direct descent of such"grand daughter. 143(c,e),258,261,476(b).

The following memorandum list found in recent years in the handwriting of Major Andrew HAMILTON,-of his children reads :"The first child Major Andrew HAMILTON and Jane had was born July 28,1765,named Hugh, the next was born,Archibald,the next,Sarah,the next John,the next,Fanny, the next William, the next Hugh,(the first Hugh had died earlier,-in childhood),the next Andrew."

N O T E:-

The omission from this list of his following children: youngest daughter,Mrs. James (Catherine HAMILTON) Alston,next to youngest daughter,Jane Magill("McGill") HAMILTON, wife of Dr.E.S. DAVIS,M.D. and next to youngest son, Alexander Cromer HAMILTON show loss of testamentary capacity at his then very advanced age,- in not remembering to record names of all children born to him and wife,Jane in his memorandum along with the other eight children which he named in that memorandum, and may explain why his large estate in Abbeville District ,South Carolina was settled there by an administrator rather then by an executor,pursuant to a will.

H-1-3-2-2- Matthew Thompson HAMILTON enlisted in War of 1812, first, on Aug.25, 1813 as resident of Jackson county, Georgia against the Creek Indians; fought in the battles of Anlope, Cabb__ ? ("Colebu___?"); was discharged at Fort HAWKINS Captain Wilson McKINNEY commanding the Company; again volunteered at Fort HAWKINS Nov.20, 1814 for six months in same war under Captain David GILLESPIE of the 4th. Regiment commanded by Col Booth McINTOSH of the Brigade and served as Third Lt. of Infantry, marched from Ft. HAWKINS by way of Mitchell on Chattahoochee River, Fort Decatur on the Tallapoosa River and Fort CLEBURNE on the Albama River to Mobile, Alabma. His first military service was as Fourth Corporal; volunteered in Gwinnett county, Georgia for service in the Creek Indian War, marching from Lawrenceville, Gwinnett county, Georgia May 24, 1836 in a Company commanded by Captain Hamilton GARMANY, who was killed in battle of SHEPHERD'S PLANTATION in Georgia, - of a Regiment of Mounted Volunteers commanded by General J.A. SANFORD, the battle being fought about forty miles south of Columbus, Georgia.

This Matthew Thompson HAMILTON raised a Company of Volunteers at Lawrenceville, Gwinnett county, Georiga for six months service July 4, 1836 for service in the Florida campaign against the Seminole Indians. When the volunteers for this campaign was organized into Regiments he was elected Lt.-Col. of the Second Regiment of Georgia Mounted Volunteers commanded by Col. John R. FOSTER in First Brigade commanded by General C.H. NELSON, Hamilton serving as Lt. Col. from October 5, 1837 to May 12, 1838 when he received an honorable discharge from Major S. CHURCHILL in Forsyth county, Georgia; received from Governer George R. GILMER of Georgia May 5, 1838 commission as Captain of a Company of volunteers raised from the Forty Fifth Regiment by orders of the President of the United States for three months for removing the Cherokee Indians and defending the people from Indian hostilities. He entered upon his last military service May 14, 1838 commanding sixty nine privates and was honorably discharged June 24, 1838 at New Echota, Georgia by Major Matt M. PAYNE. His Company belonged to the First Regiment of Georgia Volunteer Infantry commanded by Col. H. H. STOKES. As "Matthew Thompson HAMILTON, Ensign" served at 1 O'clock P.M. This John Lewis HAMILTON was about 10 years old when his parents moved from present Abbeville or Anderson county, South Carolina to original Jackson(now GWINNETT) county, Georgia where he grew to manhood and married.He is recorded as "John L. HAMILTON" with wife and children in the U.S.Censuses from 1830 to 1870 inclusive,-in Gwinnett county,Georgia in 1830, as "30 years of age with 2 female children from"5-10 years"old,page 120; also in 1830 in Carroll county,Georgia,page 14 of U.S.Cansus,he as 25-30 years old; in 813th.Militia District of Carroll(now Haralson) county,Georgia,page 21 as "30-40 years",head of family having other males:3,5-10 years,2, 1-5;females:2,10-15,1,30 and 1,30-40; in 1850,page 835 in 813th.District of Carroll(now Haralson) county,Georgia as "John L. HAMILTON,a retired farmer,born in South Carolina in 1800, with daughter,Margaret Ann, born in Georgia in 1844, keeping house for him.".1-Jane,p.147,2-Nancy,182_p.150.

John Lewis HAMILTON moved his family from Gwinnett county,Georgia to Carroll county,Georgia in the middle of the year 1830 less than the surveying and opening to white settlers by the State of Georgia and granting to them the Cherokee Indian lands,then recently acquired by .the State by treaty. These lands opened for granting to white settlers in 1827 extended some 200 miles south from the Georgia-Tennesse line along the eastern boundary of Alabama and extending easterly from the Alabama line into Georgia varying in width from 35 to 5o miles to lands previously so opened and granted by Georgia. In all this area there was Indian occupancy in scattered tribes.

The opening of such a domain invited thither speculator, searchers for gold,the fugutives,lawless and plunderers,the most threatening of which were horse and cattle thieves,organized as "Pony Clubs".

John Lewis HAMILTON, his kinsmen and neighbors had to meet this lawless challenge by organizing vigilantes locally among themselves,who soon took the name of "Slicks".

John Lewis HAMILTON soon became a fearless ,daring leader of the "Slicks"in establishing law and order in his region of that great wilderness . He was a left-handed pugilist with few superiors.War to the hilt was soon on there between the "Slicks" and the "Pony Clubs" with some pitched battles between them,one in the county seat of (Old) CARROLLTON ("Sand Hill"),Carroll county,Georgia. After several years the "Slicks" rid the county of "Pony Clubs" an established law and order. 184(m)He volunteered in 1838 as a guard in Captain WAGOUN'S Company in removing the Cherokee Indians from Georgia to Ross' Landing on Tennessee River,-now Chattanooga,Tennessee,- to boats there to transport them en route to Indian Territory,-now Oklahoma. John Lewis HAMILTON m.in Gwinnett (formerly Jackson) county,Georgia 1824 Margaret Ann REID,b. Jackson county,Georgia Feb.29,1809 ,d. in Haralson county,Georgia April 11,1862, and is buried there in their home cemetery inclosed by iron fence with graves of herself,her sons, George Reid,Archibald and Robert HAMILTON all marked by inscribed marble grave stones, supplied by her son,George Reid HAMILTON late in his lifetime. Charles Lewin McPherson, compiler's father,husband of her youngest daughter, Lucinda Oregon (HAMILTON) McPHERSON,H-1-3-2-4-10,pp.159-78 as subsequent owner of the grave sites included in the Hamilton homestead plantation by his will reserved and dedicated an acre of land,in which her grave is the center as a cemetery, with a perpetual easement for a road connecting the graves lot with the nearest public highway assuring perpetual access to the graves for care and upkeep of the cemetery by descendants,which will was probated and recorded in office of Ordinary of Haralson county at Buchanan,Georgia ,compiler being the draftsman of the will by request of his father for such legal permanence of the grave sites and unrestriced access thereto.

Margaret Ann REID was daughter of George REID,II,born in Rowan county,North Carolina about 1773,d. in Carroll,-now Haralson,-county,Georgia,Dec.10,1853,soldier in Wayne's War in 1792 and War of 1812, who served in Jackson county Georgia as magistrate and State Senator from Jackson county and Representative of Jackson county in the Legislatures in 1798,1802,1804 and 1817,as Justice of the Inferior Court of Gwinnett county,Georgia from Feb.2,1819 to 1821,Senator in Georgia Legislature from 1819-1821 .He,in his lifetime,-and his widow,-after his death,-received U.S. Bounty Land for his military service in Wayne's War of 1792. This George REID,II,(or "Jr.) m. in Greene county, Georgia in 1796 Jane GASTON, daughter of Matthew and wife, Ann SIMONTON. This George REID,"Jr" (or "II") was son of George REID, b.Ulster,North of Ireland before 1746,who came through the port of Philadelphia,Pennsylvania with his parents,Alexander REID and wife,Margaret McKAY ,in 1746 and settled, first ,in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania,whence they moved after a few years with all their children to Rowan county,North Carolina where the parents died.This Alexander REID was of descent of the Scotch Presbyterian family ho moved from Scotland to Ulster,North of Ireland in A.D. 1611,being induced so to do by King James,I, of England, son of Mary,"Queen of Scots" and her 2nd.husband, Henry STUART ("Lord Darnley") the King desiring to establish a buffer State between the South of Ireland,all of which and more has been included in the Irish Free State since soon after the close of the First World War.King James,I, of England was moved to establish such a buffer State by the Rebellion of Irish recently then fomented among the Irish by King Phillip,II,of Spain who had foreseen in the Catholics of Ireland allies to redeem the defeat of the Spanish Armada (SEE p.122-23),and,by strategy, to regain the English throne for the Catholic Church. Upon the failure of this rebellion, so fomented, King James,I, of England forfeited to the British Crown the vast domain in the nine counties of North Ireland constituting Ulster including very large areas held by monastries .

In these lands by 1611 King James,I, began settling the gentry and nobility of Scotland principally so that soon it was well populated by industrious,thrifty who made of this previously little used region a veritable garden of plenty . This movement then made was the beginning of the Scotch family of Reids outisde of Scotland ,

Jane (GASTON) REID d.in Carroll,-now Haralson,-county, Georgia. She and husband are reported to have been buried on their homestead there,-now within the southerly corporate limites in the town .of Bremen,Georgia on west side of

Taft Memorial National Highway on a fine elevated home site facing east on beautifully forested REID'S MOUNTAIN, and near its base which has been occupied since about as early as 1930 by the beautiful residence of Ridley LOVVORN, industrialist of Bremen, Georgia

Ann SIMONTON was daughter of Robert ,who was of lawful age and resident of Anson county, North Carolina by Aug. 9, 1746, since when the part of Anson county in which he then lived has been in Rowan county, North Carolina.

This Robert SIMONTON m. Margaret, who died quite old in Greene county, Georgia, son of Theophilus SIMONTON, whose will dated Aug. 15, 1754 described him as "yeoman of Manor township, Corestoga, county of Lancaster, Province of Pennsylvania" which will was probated in Rowan county, North Carolina, where he apparently died. His will mentioned Theophilus' wife as "Mary". Theophilus' birth date has been estimated as occurring in the North of Ireland by about 1775 A.D.

The military service for the American Colonies by George REID, Sr. of Rowan (now Iredell) county, North Carolina has been established in The National Society of The Daughters of the Revolution by Mrs. J. Carter (Jennie Elaine WOOD) MAGILL of Chevy Chase, Maryland with release of her proof of such service to other descendants of this patriot GEORGE REID, and their proof of lineal descent from him in applications for their membership in any of the patriotic societies granting membership to such descendants. Mrs. Magill received Nationa Number 414828 which should be cited by this GEORGE REID'S descendants and any such applicant is here invited by compiler to cite also his genealogical publication of Sept. 8, 1939 entitled:" * * * REID, GASTON, SIMONTON, HARVEY AND TOMLINSON". compiled by Lewin Dwinell McPHERSON copies of which are on the shelves of the library of The National Society of The Daughters of the American Revolution in Continental Memorial Hall, Washington, D.C. , Library of Congress, Annex, Genelaogical Section, Washington, D. C. and in nearly 700 other libraries of American cities and historical and genealogical societies, . clubs or associations.

H-1-3-2-4-1- Jane HAMILTON was probably named by her father for his grandmother, Jane McGARY ("MEGARA, McGARRA, McGILL, MAGILL ") SEE page 140. One of her grandsons was given the Christian name, William McGary JORDAN, H-1-3-2-4-1-6-5, page 149 Jane HAMILTON m. at the home of her parents, two miles northeast of Bremen, Carroll (now Haralson) county, Georgia Nov. 23, 1845 William JORDAN, then living in Carroll (now Haralson) county, Georgia near the present site of Buchanan, county seat of Haralson county, Georgia since 1858, apparently son of John Samuel JORDAN who was buried in Macedonia Primitive Baptist Church cemetery about two miles southeast of Buchanan, Georgia, whose grave was marked by an inscribed marble grave stone placed by his bachelor son, John JORDAN, brother of William, above, husband of Jane HAMILTON, said son, John, remaining bachelor and dying there old and visited about 1885 by his nephew, John Samuel JORDAN, II, H-1-3-2-4-1-2, p. 148 from his home at Garden Valley, VanZant county, Texas, oldest son of William JORDAN and wife, Jane HAMILTON, who moved with 8 children from Buchanan, Haralson county, Georgia Jan. 8, 1867 to near Garden Valley, Texas. William JORDAN had served as Confederate soldier through the war, the exposure in which ruined his health, he dying in Texas within a few years of his arrival there. His wife, Jane (HAMILTON) JORDAN, died in Texas Sept. 26, 1874, leaving surviving her six of their eight children. John Samuel JORDAN was of the Quaker family of JORDANS of whom it is recorded:"* * * the primacy of the JORDANS as a pioneer American family includes: Sisley JORDAN who came to Jamestown Settlement in Virginia in the ship, "Swan" in Aug. 1610. Samuel JORDAN was wrecked off the Bermuda Islands in 1609 and arrived in Jamestown in 1610, -had probably visited Journey ("Jamestown") before leaving for the Bermudas. The Quaker families of BATES and Fleming, connected by blood with these JORDANS, all three going early to Abbeville District, South Carolina from Jamestown, Virginia Settlement in 1607.

This JORDAN family's record was one "of staunch integrity* * and proven social standing". "To protect their people from persecution in Virginia, and" * *that the Quaker faith might continue to survive, the leading men of their Central Societies * * * personally arranged for the migration of their people into less settled areas of other States, where, -in the wilderness, -out of easy reach of harsh laws they might hope for respite. These migrations were well under way and many Quakers found comfortable homes for themselves in the northern counties of South Carolina before the CALHOUNS and their neighbors made their appearance in Granville county (later Ninety-Sixth and Abbeville Districts) now Abbeville county, South Carolina in February 1756

"The citizenship that the Quakers planted is strong in our midst even now. Abbeville county society was agrarian and therefore Stable. Families have lived as neighbors for generations upon generations. Grandparents into the "great" generations can be called to mind like homesteads on every hill. Church and church affilliations have remained about the same

In the beginning, even in the early days of American settlement, "Dissenters" as a religious division were not subdivided into "Denominations". There were different schools of doctrine, each with its followers, but the people were not yet Baptist, Presbyterian, Methodist and so forth. Presbyterian church historians tell us that for many years our forefathers in Pennsylvania and Virginia did not refer to themsleves as Presbyterians. It just happened that persons of that school of doctrine sent over a number of copies of Westminister Confession of Faith, which became distributed among "dissenting" ministers and lay leaders.

These men thought earnestly and talked with their "meeting house" groups about the doctrines, with the result that many came to realize that here were expressed, more clearly than they had anywhere else seen them, the principles that they themselves had always held to be true. They, therefore, adopted the creed as their own and thenceforth referred to themselves as Presbyterians.

Because of this lack of hard and fast sectarian lines the Presbyterians and Quakers arriving in Pennsylvania mingled freely and found much in common. Their creeds differ in fundamentals, but this fact seems not to have prevented Friends of early days from throwing in their lot with their Baptist and Presbyterian brethren, and especially under conditions of migration, from joining churches of these denominations when meeting places of their own were not convenient.

The historian of Upper Octorara Congregation of Philadelphis, calls attention to the high level of intellectual and spiritual developement of the people of that region and and attributes these attainmentsto Scotch-Irish Presbyterianism. He reports having been reminded by Bayard TAYLOR that "the Quakers shared largely with the Presbyterians in this work."

"So they surely did"* * *concedes the historian, "and as stones in the same brook help to smooth and round each other, cutting off the rough edges and corners, as they move toward the river, these Quakers and Presbyterians have mutually ,in the years of their association to smooth and and round out each other."

However this happy state of co-existence did not always prevail. Many times during periods of local and national stress persons of a more realistic and practical turn of mind felt scant patience toward the less wordly sect. Under this pressure and due to their associations with the Presbyterians and Baptist no doubt. Quakers were were gradually becoming a bit more practical.. 217(d, e).

Amarillo, Texas, , 1932 who had lived at Alvord and Amarillo, Texas and operated a chain of retail and wholesale drug stores in Texas Ch. (b. Texas): 1- Ernest Arthur, March 24, 1892, p. 151, 2-George Otho, p. 151, 3-Olive, p. 151, 4-Billie Murray, (p. 151), 1912. Compiler here acknowledges gratitude for stimulating research into our early America HAMILTON ancestry in about about 1930, when she direct inquires back to the Georgia locations of her the childhood, young womanhood and marriage of her grandmother, Nancy HAMILTON, H-1-3-2-4-2, .pp. 149 and 150, to her grandfather, John HALL at bride's home two miles northeast of Bremen, in present Haralson (then Carroll) county Georgia Dec. 19, 1847. Lee Agnes had lived in the vicinity of these grandparents both at Frederickstown, Missouri and in Texas, both her own parents and these grandparents moving their families from the same Missouri communities to new locations ,-not far apart in Texas in 1883 and Lee Agnes had been in very intimate and respectful association with her grandmother, Nancy (HAMILTON) HALL throughout much of the grand mother's very long, busy and interesting lifetime. Compiler was privileged to conduct a considerable Hamilton-Reid family genealogical correspondence, after learning of the movement Lee Agnes was proposing among our mutal kin in the descent from John Lewis HAMILTON, H-1-3-2-4 and wife, Margaret Ann REID to gather compile and reproduce their genealogies in copies in libraries in selected historical, patriotic societies and State and Federal archives to acquaint such descent with their heritages, and to stimulate resepct among them for their pride in personal background of each and assure longer preservation of the virtues of these our ancestors .This extended correspondence between Lee Agnes and compiler resulted in the first edition of a Hamilton-Reid genealogical compilation in Sept. 1933, by compiler in 250 copies sent to all known addresses of living members of her and compiler's Hamilton-Reid kin and many copies were deposited in the larger and more extensively used libraries and historical associations in the United States, the culmination of an idea suggested in her plan to do five or more years before this fruition. Only a few weeks before it was printed and put in circulation, while complier was living in Chicago, Ill. Lee Agnes visited the Century of Progress Exposition held in Chicago, Illinois in 1933 and 1934 and made an appointment to see compiler at which meeting there was a mutual realization by each of as to how much satisfaction we each had received from this cooperation to materialize the plan she originally trought out and followed through in such earnest, unselfish and devoted cooperation .These first 250 copies in not about 6,000 words was the inspiration to compiler from which he has since Sept. 8, 1939 published nearly 2,000 large pages of genealogy in 3 large bound, fully indexed and documented Volumes of nearly 100,000 people and as his 81st-birthday approaches is approaching the completion of this genealogical book of CALHOUNS, HAMILTON , NOBLES, PICKENS, THOMPSON and their Related Families, and here expresses compiler's deep regret that did not find in Lee Agnes remaining life time the "keystone" material of our immigrant Hamilton ancestry , namely, Archibald HAMILTON, H-1, pp. 133-136, and wife, Frances CALHOUN of county Tyrone, Ulster, North of Ireland, Lancaster county, Pennsylvania and Augusta county, Virginia, compiler "stumbling" on to it in Christmas week of 1952, since when compiler has waged a resolute campaign to get it in circulation in a similar large genealogical book, and hesitated through the years 1953, 1954, 1955 and 1956 to announce even an approximate date for it going into general circulation in an edition limited to 500 bound books. As this is written the hope of the book, so completed to be handed to the printer with an arrangement to expect the delivery to complier of the edition printed and bound a month later there being no type to be set or proof-reading and corrections to be done to delay it going into circulation. , 1957 is the date that compiler is working toward handing the finished book over to lithographic printers of six previous books,- all fields entered as compiler.

About three years after meeting Lee Agnes in Chicago, compiler then living in Washington, D.C. had the good fortune through old contacts with the Interstate Commerce Commission to learn of the approaching joint session participated in with Texas Railroad Commission, one of whom appearing being Erenst Arthur THOMPSON, oldest son of Lee Agnes (HALL) THOMPSON. On that occasion an enjoyable meeting was had with this son, who had been a member of that Commission and for the remaining 20 years to date maintained his position on it. All of Lee Agnes children were "of Amarillo, Texas" where their business interests were considerable. Doubtless by this time some have changed to other addresses.

H-1-3-2-4-2-1-1-1- Ernest Arthur THOMPSON served as Lt.-Col. in the First World War, as Mayor of Amarillo, Texas and as a Railroad Commission of Texas,-all prior to 1936about which time he made a strong race for election as Governor of Texas against several popular and influential candidates. Upon his mission to Washington, D.C. in Summer of 1936, described in the biographical sketch of his mother, Lee Agnes (MURRAY) THOMPSON, H-1-3-2-4-2-1-1, p.

hereof compiler called at hotel there,-without an appointment,-and called from the lobby telephone to the room in which he and wife were registered ,he being out the room telephone being answered by his wife, when compiler explained his intrusion thus without appointment that he was in the lobby and sought to introduce himself, or explain that the caller was a first cousin of her husband's grandmother, Delilah Emeline (HALL) MURRAY, H-1-3-2-4-2-1, pp.149 and 150, nephew of great-grandmother, Nancy (HAMILTON) HALL, H-1-3-2-4-2, pp.147 and 150, or son of Nancy's youngest sister, Lucinda Oregon (HAMILTON) McPHERSON, H-1-3-2-4-10, pp. 147 and expected her to be dubious of the relationship, but her husband had prepared her for beliving it a possible relationship from a person less than 100 years old. Ernest Arthur THOMPSON, H-1-3-2-4-2-1-1-1 was convinced by his mother's correspondence and interview with compiler and his own interview in Washington, as was his mother so convinced that our relationship was real and exactly in the degree above indicated. 20, 476(43)

H-1-3-2-4-3- George Reid HAMILTON, p.147, was stricken with an illness when 9 years old which deformed his upper spine. He taught in the schools of Carroll and Haralson counties, Georgia; was elected first Ordinary (Probate Judge) of Haralson county, Georgia upon its organization in the former area of Carroll county, Georgia when Haralson was created from Carroll in 1856; was appointed Postmaster of Buchanan, Georgia, county seat of Haralson county in 1860 or 1861. He engaged there in a general merchandising partnership, which he afterwards discontinued there and engaged in general merchandising in Edwardsville, Cleburne county, Alabma , Haralson county, Georgia adjoining on its west boundary the Alabama-Georgia States dividing line when neither county had a railroad. In about 1882 the Georgia Pacific Railroad Company had in operation to Atlanta, Georgia and Birmingham, Alabama as wholesale market of supply for general retail stores, when George Reid HAMILTON dissolved his mercantile partnership in Edwardsville, Alabama with his brother, Major William HAMILTON, H-1-3-2-4-6, pp.147 and   returned to within two miles of his paternal homestead in original Carroll(then and now Haralson) county, Georgia, where he owned several hundred acres of timbered land in a region in which previously good merchantable timber was destroyed to permit agriculture, the principal industry of the region and opened a country general store in his own wilderness at a crossing of trails or roads of that time ½ mile east of the village which had sprung up with booming growth upon the railroad's depot , Bremen, Georgia and entered into competition with the merchants establishing such businesses around the depot and hotel. George Reid HAMILTON's store was built on the south edge of the railroad's right of way at the road or roads intersection with it. This first railroad in these counties was an east and west transportation line. Within about 4 years of its completion promoters of a north and south railroad to connect Chattanooga, Tennessee and Rome, Georgia, ports of call for river steamers with Columbus, Georgia, head of navigation on the Chattahoochee River. The promoters of this additional railroad counted on financial gains from land developement companies who used their railroad project as a leverage to get donations to them of large acreage of timbered land on or near the location to be made for the additional railroad, and at some disadvantage in operation of trains located the railroad along the lands secured by donations. George Reid HAMILTON finally yielded to their overtures and donated to the land company which was controlling the location of the railroad large acreage,-most of the business and residential sites at the crossing of these two railroads,-which railroads have within the past 25 years been parallelled through the junction or crossing of the railroad systems at right angles there by important highway routes.

George Reid Hamilton in donating land, reserved selections of sites which would share in present and future enhancement of town land values due to a joint railroad station at the crossing of the two railroad lines. It was not many years after the north and south railroad crossed the east and west railroad on Hamilton's acreage within a few hundred feet east of his general country store until the business places, located a few years before the crossing one-half mile west of the crossing at Bremen, Georgia were moving up nearer the crossing, and a few years later the east and west railroad closed its depot at its first Bremen station and opened its depot alongside the north and south railroad's station. Gradually the town grew and George Reid Hamilton in his lifetime, and his estate received benefits from the way he handled his relation with the promoters of the north and south railway. A town of some 2,000 people living there draws labor by automobile over the paved highways running, north, south, east and west from this joint railroad crossing of about 1186-87 inducing manufacturers to produce there for distribution to almost any distance as its sales field and for the last 30 years land values envisioned 65 years ago have materialized ;for the railroad crossing site, which is the center of a bee-hive activity for business. Nearly 70 years of George Reid HAMILTON's busy life was spent in that immediate vicinity, and by his own request he was buried beside his mother in the parental homestead two miles northeast of the railways crossing of the "80's". The town at this railroad crossing was first named "Kramer" but soon changed to the name of the first depot,-one-half miles west "Bremen" on the first railroad. Near this railway's crossing site was an original or pioneer muster grounds and voting place called "Wolf Pen" The Southern Railway System has operated the east and west railway through Bremen, Georgia since about 1894 and the Central of Georgia Railway Copnay has operated the north and south railway through Bremen since about 1900. George Reid HAMILTON was referred to as "Judge HAMILTON" from having served as Judge of the first Court of Ordinary of Haralson county, Georgia and until his retirement from business about 1897 was regarded as the town"first citizen "In 1892 he contributed to the founding a chartered school there, which was incorporated in name Hamilton College, where the classics, foreign languages and higher mathematics were taught and Bachelor of Arts degrees were confeered, as late as 1897, during the six years when Francis Marion Duncan, a graduate of Bowdon college was head of the faculty.[4] After his period there the town of Bremen converted its public intructions there through grade and high schools. In his will he left an endowment to college named in his honor.

George Reid Hamilton inclosed the graves in parental homestead private burying ground and marked the graves of his mother and brothers buried there with inscribed marble gravestones. See upper part of second column page 146 hereof. He d.unmarried, Nov.28,1904 and is buried beside his mother, his request. He was a constant attendant at Sunday school and had membership in Methodist church, supporting all churches and donated church lots to Baptist and Presbyterian churches in Bremen.He was scrupulous in his daily life and stood for the right in society never swerving from his high ideals or right and duty.56(b,c),57,59(d),67(b),184(a-f)

He was one of the trio of brothers who were deservedly popular before they left home as Confederate soldiers in 1861 for entertaining in their home community for their fine voices in song .The folowing letter written by Matthew Thompson HAMILTON "Near Richmond,Nov.1,1864" to his mother's brother,Hon.Robert Alexander REID of Haralson county,Georgia,b.April 3,1811 of his military career in Confederate infantry in which he had then served over four years:"Dear Uncle:- A few moments to consume in writing you I will endeavor to make as interesting as possible. This is my first letter to you as I have written uncle Matthew several letters and he does not appear to acknowledge the reception of them.. It may be possible he never received them. and I would like very much to hear from that section of the country and more than that I would like to hear from my old uncle very much every once in a while more especially in such a time as this.

I have been blessed * * * in all my scenes and dangers since I volunteered. I am this evening in good health and fine spirits and have had good health ever since I left home. I have been in no open field engagements since I returned,but have been in danger pretty much all the time.

While we were at Petersburg we were under heavy fire all the time. Sharpshooting was from morning until dark every day and a portion of the line kept up the firing all the night long. So when the Yankees moved on the north side of the James River they were successful enough to get possession of our works and batteries near Chaffen's farm. We were ordered on the north side for the purpose of charging the Yankees out of Battery Harris and the works they had possession of a few days before. We made a feeble effort to take the works but it was repulsed as the Yankees had their forces all at that place. We went far enough to get into the heaviest of the enemy's fire. Our Regiment was to support the North Carolina Brigade and they ran over our men and went back,so we had to fall back. We then fell back and went to work and in a very short time we had a pretty good work. So in a very short time the Yankees were making demonstrations near the Dasbetown Road. We marched to the Dasbetown Road on the 6th.of October and on the 7th., next day attacked them and drove them about a mile from our works which they had taken a day or two before,but we had struck a place where they had most of their forces and was well prepared for us. So we withdrew that night and in a day or two we went to work and have a strong work,- one that I would like very much to see the Yankess butt their heads against. On the 26th. and 27th. they made an effort on our left to flank our works but they were not successful. Also they made the same effort at Petersburg at the same but they failed in effort with considerable loss.Our loss is light.. Everything is quiet. Still at this time no movement has been discovered it is more than likely that they will remain steady for a few days. Everything has been pretty close about Richmond. The militia has been lying in the works for some time and even detail men in Richmond. We are within seven miles of Richmond,-on the Newmarket Road. I feel perfectly safe for I do not think the Yankees will ever get Richmond. But the Yankees can outnumber us a right smart. A great many of their men are deserting and coming over to us. I give my feeling compliments to the family and relations and hope they will remember me. I extend my compliments especially to you and aunt,etc. I have the honor to remain yours

(Signed) M T.Hamilton"

H-1-3-2-4-10-2- Nenien Coatsworth McPHERSON,Sr.1790 Cheshire Bridge Road(Buford Highway) ,N.W.,Atlanta,5,Georgia attended grade schools in Haralson county,Georgia, High Schools at Edwardsville,Alabama and Douglasville,Georgia and Hamilton College;reared on paternal homestead plantation 3 miles north of Bremen,Haralson county,Georgia until of age, when he entered retail grocery business in Bremen,Georgia,where a fire destroyed building and stock;reentered merchandising as a general store;traveled to north Atlantic seaboard markets to buy merchandize:moved to Marietta,Georgia in 1909;to Atlanta,Georgia where he has remained since,operating there first in automobile business, next in autmobile tire retailing,retail shoe store,having a branch retail automobile tire store in Birmingham,Alabama from about 1913 to 1920. He travelled extensively to automobile tire manufacturers in the Great Lakes and North Atlantic seaboard States inspecting and selecting tire and tube stock for distribution to the users in GEORGIA and adjoining States, a mail order business. Soon after the Armstice of the First World War in 1918 the automobile tire manufacturing industry found difficulty in financing expansion,replacements and modernized equipment, due to a general distress in many banks in all sections of the United States of America,-from war inflation and "frozen assets" and in the "buyers' strike " of 1920, suppliers of fabrics for automobile tire manufacture at Southern and other cotton mills were over-extended in their credits to tire manufacturers,whose manufactured stock could not be readily reduced to meet bills due to the cotton mills,-both the tire factories and the cotton mills facing reduction in forces, found Nenien Coatsworth McPHERSON with vision enough to risk heavy commitments in cash and obligations to take the output of more than one then prominent automobile tire manufacturer.

To do this,he paid for and filled three Atlanta warehouses with automobile tires,clearing manufacturers' warehouses and moved them to the trade through his distributing places in Birmingham,Alabama,- Atlanta,Georgia,converting the tires into cash fast enough to handle the considerable production of these tire manufacturers for many months,untile these manufacturers could otherwise balance supply and demand. This done, he discontinued his tire distribution business and diversified his investments,-largely to securities on improved real estate in Atlanta,Geoegia and Miami, Florida and Douglasville,Georgia. Soon after this he made gift to Georgia Womens' Christian Temperance Union of his 14 rooms brick manison,1436 Highland Avenue,N.E.,Atlanta, Georgia,which has ever since been occupied by it as its Georgia Branch headquarters and executive offices. His other philanthropies make a total of about $90,000.00 ,mainly to churches and homes for retired pastors. Atlanta,Georgia Sept.12,1942 Cecil Howell TRAVIS,b.Riverdale,Clayton county,Georgia,son of James Benjamin and wife,Lou Ada COLLINSWORTH,son of Benjamin Marlin and wife,Frances Julia McLEROY. Lou Ada COLLINSWORTH as daughter of James Allen and wife, Julia Ann HINTON . Ch.(of Cecil Howell and Helen Margaret) : 1-Cecil Anthony,July 4,1943, 2-David Michael,July 18,1945, 3-Richard Rembert,March 6,1955. Family lived in Atlanta until the close of the 2nd World War. He had considerable investment in peach orchards at Riverdale,Clayton county, Georgia near Atlanta where his family had established an extensive fruit trees nursery where he was recruited into professional base ball playing at age 17 years. For lack of experience in sports writing compiler here adopts and includes his career as stated by his professional associates and presents a field photograph of him at top of first column of next page:

"Joe Engel, the famous talent scout * * * knows a ball player when he sees one, even when a ball player is only 17 years old, fresh off of his Georgia farm, as Cecil Travis was in 1930. When a man is honored as Travis is being honored to-night by fans, civic organizations, sports writers and broadcasters, team mates and players of other teams, umpires, Commissioner CHANDLER and CLARK GRIFFITHS, President of the Washington Ball Club. it is customary to harken back to the beginning of his career.

Travis' brilliant career, during which he has compiled a lifetime batting average Of .318, began when Engel found him in an early-day baseball school run by Norman (Kid) ELBERFIELD in Little Rock, Arkansas. In the long and lanky undergraduate from Riverdale, Georgia Engel saw the spark of greatness, just as he saw it in Joe CRONIN, Bucky HARRIS and many others who have been Washington favorites.

In those days young hopefuls plucked from baseball schools did not command fat prices, but, even so, Engel's purchase of Travis for $100 stands as one of the most unbelievable bargain of all time.

Prior to 1933 only a few people like Griffith and Engel, plus the citizens of Chattanooga, Tennessee, knew that some day, when the brilliant Ossie Bluege finally wore out, Washington was to gain a worthy successor. They sensed it in 1931, when a semi-pro Travis broke into the line-up of the Lookouts for the end-of-the- season trial and batted 424 in 10 games. The knew it the next year, 1932, when the 18-year-old Georgian played 152 games in the Southern Association and hit.362.

Washington fans first saw Cecil Travis in 1933. He was not due to succeed Bluege until 1934, at the earliest, but early in the season Ossie damaged a leg so badly that he would assuredly require three weeks to recover. It was a blow to the Senators. Griffith had just named his 26-year old shortstop, Cronin, as manager and he saw his team begin to catch fire. He knew that Washington, which had been knocking at the door for seven years, stood a chance to win a pennant, but the Nats scarcely could do it with Bluege on the shelf for three weeks.

In that dark hour Engel reluctantly sent Travis to replace Bluege. The young man was not quite ready. He was only 19 and there were rough spots in his fielding, but Cronin was desperate and in a mood to take a chance. On may 16, 1933, Travis played his first major league game and when it was over Griffith and Cronin knew that they could not only rest Bluege indefinitely but also that a new star had been born, for Travis won the first big league game he saw. He beat the Indians in a crucial, extra-inning contest, spraying five hits to all parts of the park, scoring three runs and playing perfectly in the field. When he left for Chattanooga following Bluege's recovery he had batted .302 for 18 games and prevented the Senators from losing ground in the race they were to win.

Bluege, now manager of the Washington Club, had been a remarkable infielder since 1923 but he saw the handwriting on the wall. Not even Ossie's matchless play at third base was going to keep Travis from winning the job in 1934 and instead of fighting Cecil he joined him. All during Spring training Bluege worked with Travis . There was nothing Ossie could do to help the rookie's hitting. Everybody could see that Travis was destined to be one of the great natural hitters, but Ossie could not polish his fielding.

Cecil batted .319 in his first season and it was not until 1939 that he hit less than.317. In that year he slumped to .292 but in 1940 he batted.322 and in 1941 he led the American League with 218 hits, good for an average of.359. He is a slashing type of hitter who stands up unflinchingly and who hit the best lefthanders-Groves, Gomez and the rest- as easily as he hit the righthanders.

He hits to all fields and has become the best change-of pace batter in the league.

Travis' ability to hit is by no means his only qualification as a great player. From an awkward rookie he transformed into a sure-handed, strong-armed player who can, and has played the outfield and even second base in addition to shortstop and third base. He played any position asked, and right up to the hilt.

In early days, due to his awkwardness, he was probably the most injured infielder in baseball. He took fearful beatings at his shortstop position on double plays but uncomplaining got up for more. He was beaned and hospitalized by one of the thoughest southpaws in the American League, but the day he returned to the line-up he drove Lee to cover with three hits.

Travis was a regular on only one winning team, -the U.S. Army. At the peak of his career, having just hit.359 and become an outstanding short stop, he entered the Army as a private and spent 1942, 1943, 1944 and most of 1945 in uniform. Cecil was one of those unsung heroes who saw combat from a wintry foxhole in Europe and came out of the war with a pair of frozen toes that all but prevented him resuming his profession, even as a utility player.

Cecil is standing in the twilight of a career which few ball players can match. The record books speak eloquently of his ability as an athlete. The thousands who honor him here to-night, and the many more thousands who wish him well from afar, speak even more eloquently of Cecil Travis as a gentelman.

Since he broke into the Washington line-up 13 years ago with 5 for 5, Cecil Travis has continued to bat 1,000 in the hearts of all Washington fans. An ideal performer on and off of the diamond, he is in addition to that, a one in a thousand rarity, a ball player's ball player.

Only after he left the ball field for the battle field did many recognize his true worth, for though his place was taken, it was never filled.

In the years to come may the memories of the bitter cold of Europe be dispelled by the recollection of the warmth of the affection and esteem we "at Florida and 7th." hold for him.

On behalf of the Reciprocity Club and other civic organizations and as Chariman of the Committee I wish to thank the many friends and well-wishers of Cecil Travis for their interest and generosity on this memorable occasion of a belated but well deserved recognition of a brilliant ball player, a true sportsman, a gallant veteran, and above all a fine gentleman." (Signed) J.S. Bartow, Chairman, CECIL TRAVIS DAY COMMITTEE, CECIL TRAVIS TESTIMONIAL GAME, Washington .-vs.-Philadelphia, Friday, August 15, 1947.

Cecil Travis entered U.S Army Jan.9, 1942, discharged Sept.5, 1945, -with rank of Sergeant, went overseas Dec. 1944-to Aug. 1945 with 76th. Infantry Division in the Third Army.

Cecil Travis received in his military service the Good Conduct Ribbon, Bronze Star Medal, European-African-Middle Eastern Theatre Ribbon with three Bronze Stars.

The physical afflictions which he suffered in Europe in Second World War affected the circulation of blood in his legs and feet and the resulting reflexes thereof, from which ,he was forced to end his former career after trying unsuccessfully for two years after his discharge to make a come-back in major league baseball. After his participating in games ended his interest in the leagues was kept alive by being retained to scout for talent to recruit for maintaining the skills he had contrinuted to the game.

After a year or two of this travel he retired to his lands at or near his childhood scenes Riverdale ,Clayton county,Georgia near Atlanta,which he has improved with a modern home and developed into grass lands and feed crops to support its principal industry,the raising of pedigreed throughbred beef cattle for the breeders market.184(j)

The appraisal investigation was made and completed within 3 weeks by the aid of one stenographer,-over a million dollars value involved and was not challenged in either decision.He served as appraiser for the Chicago terminal areas in City of Chicago,in Cook and adjoining counties in 1920 and 1921;as land appraiser for Detroit and Toledo Shore Line Railroad and its affilate,Toldedo,St.Louis and Western(Toledo to St. Louis) in 1922 and 1923 and as land appraiser for the Pere Marquette Railway Company,-with headquarters in Detroit, Michigan in 1922 and 1923; then returned as land appraiser for the Interstate Commerce Commission for the latter part of 1923 and greater part of 1924, stationed in Chicago office,principally planning and supervising the work of a group of appraisers working on unfinished appraisals of unfinished lines of the 27 main lines entering and serving that Great Lakes port;next served 46 months as Valuation Attorney for Wabash Railway System,including the joint property of the Des Moines Unioun Railway Company,Des Moines,Iowa and

Within this 46 months as an officer of the Wabash Railway's executive staff in general offices in St.Louis and New York City and Washington,D.C. and over the milage of the system studied the issues being presented to other carriers as to the value of all classes of property owned or used by common carriers, as well as lands and compiled all the literature of then 14 years valuation practices of the Commission and all the railroads into 18 typed volumes of manuscript,-all minutely indexed by volumes and cumulatively into a central index to the 18 volumes,- and provided duplications of the set to other railroad lawyers,- by the aid of which he tried the issues left for litigation as to the Wabash System's values,presenting evidence for more than two months continiuously before an examiner for the Commission, then wrote and printed 9 volumes, 6 of evidence and 3 law briefs,- and made oral legal argument in support of all that had been done before three Commissioners sitting as a Board of final review.16,000 pages of evidence accumulated on the hearing, including 700 exhibits of evidence,about 4,900 printed pages going into book form and distributed also to the State Railroad or public utility Commissions in the States in which the Wabash System then operated.

The original unprinted manuscript of the 18 volumes of digest of railroad valuation research ,1914-1928 and the central or cumulative index volume covering the 18 volumes were deposited upon removal from Washington in 1953 with The Association of American Railroads,Munsey Building, Washington,D.C.

Upon completion of the duties as Valuation Attorney for the Wabash Railway Company,Sept.1,1928 entered upon preparation of evidence in support of the values of the lands owned or used by The Rapid Transit(Elevated) Railwas of Chicago,Illinois and suburbs to be presented in trial of an injunction in the Federal Court in Chicago obtained against putting into effect an increase of fares by the elevated railways there. Planning and directing the work of gathering ,verfying, analyzing and compiling the evidence of value of the many millions of dollars worth of urban lands for presenting as an exhibit to the Chancellor taking the testimony consumed ten months and when presented its volume,order,arrangement and summary as presented by the witness for the elevated railways after cross-examination no rebuttal was offered and the valuation developed stood and the injunction was dissolvand the increased fares allowed to go into effect.

Within two or three weeks after released from that work in Chicago he went to Birmingham,Alabama,as field headquarters for 28 months as Assistant Chied Land Appraiser for Southern Railway System ,to plan and supervise assembling of proof of railroad land values to be presented to the Interstate Commerce Commission in anticipated calls upon the Southern Railway System by the Interstate Commerce Commission to pay into"excess earning" funds designated in the Transporation Act of 1920,herein above referred to, and generally known as the "O'Fallon Case". From Birmingham,Alabama he handled the valuation of the Systems lands in middle and West Tennessee,including the City of Memphis,all Alabama, including the cities of Birmingham, Montgomery and Mobile;eastern Mississippi and southeatern Louisiana, including the City of New Orleans and North Georgia, including the City of Atlanta.

This work finished he travelled to Washington,Philadelphia,New York City and Boston looking for openings for employment , the depression of the late 1920s being on and in South Station ,Boston,Mass. in a Pullman car while switching Pullmans to locations where passengers might await daylight in their births two Pullmans collided critically injuring him,so that his life was despaired of for weeks,and he was hospitalized three times in effort to promote delayed knitting of fracture in his left leg both ankles being badly crushed.It was nearly 7 years before union was made in the left ankle fracture, one of several serious fractures received in the collision.During the about 200 days the accident confined him to bed,and three operations,each with prolonged stay in hospitals at age past 55 years,in the depth of the worst depression through which he had lived, there was much time for meditation and some reading of literature practical for meeting and relieving his future economic condition and that of his family.It was the first interruption of his very active life in a normal course.During his stay in Birmingham he had again been in contact with the agricultural surroundings of his childhood while growing to maturity working on a farm near Bremen,Geoergia.Out of this renewed interest he had begun to accumulate a library agricultural possibilities and a means of subsistence direct from the soil of his native hills. This he continued for the first two years of his disability utilizing the available literature developed in United States Department of Agriculture,the departments of agriculture of many of the 48 States and agricultural colleges and had assembled and bound these, mostly bulletins of limited pages into books ,filling about and 8 foot shelf and had made cumulative or central index to all of it. It was a delight to be again on the land in his childhood region with this information and although still on crutches with a removeable brace on his unhealed ankle he began to plant and care for a variety of production from the soil not staple to the region and generally and widely produced for markets and within a year and a half hope for fair subsistence therefrom arose.At this juncture opportunity offered for him to return to duty as a land appraiser for the United States Resettlement Administration,in which he found he could still function with reasonable efficienty

Being of temporary nature it worked out after about 8 and half months, when he could still trust his agricultural venture for subsistence and after a few months his United States Civil Service eligibility for reinstatement until 60 years old offered a slight hope of getting an office employment and by good fortune he was reinstated therein as Assisatnt to the Solicitor of the United States Bureau of Public Roads in Washington,D.C. where he remained for a little more than ten years before reaching retirement age of seventy years,departing from Washington,D.C. again to the "scenes of his childhood" ,Bremen,Georgia.

Among calls for copies of the 4,900 printed pages of research in valuation of railroads hereinbefore described,was one from research service in the Soviet Union and it was supplied in Fall of 1928. Prior to 1940 he had conducted research in connection with his employments and compiled same into manuscripts treating of railway and public utility valuation and rate regulation,real estate and taxation which was published in, among others,Engineering and Contracting, The Financial Chronicle, Wall Street Journal, Journal of Accountancy,Fortnightly,National Real Estate Journal and the Year Books of the Real Estate Boards of New York City and Jersey City,New Jersey.

From early manhood the inquring state of mind gave him a special interest in the kind of ancestry he had inherited, During the period of travels in his various assignments in many states he accumulated memorandum of such of these as opportunity afforded.During his confinement from his injuries he corresponded extensively with his parents kin and compiled and issued two mimegraph assembled into several mimeographed pages each and circulated same to all obtainable addresses of these previously unascertained kin. Upon becoming settled in Washington in Summer of 1935 he soon became aware of the rare facilities there,in Library of Congress,official copyrighting agency of the United States ,in Old Commissioner of Pensions Office, War Department records, National Archives and Libraries of The National Society of THE DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, of the SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION and various other facilities not otherwise or elsewhere so accessible for research into the lives of immigrants to the American Colonies of the many ancestors from one to eight generations removed from a present-day researcher. This was a challenge no person old enough to be "ancestor-conscious" of more work than it would be possible for a single researcher to well explore in remaining lietime,especially if publication and distribution of it were included. Such work on five considerable genealogical books of surnames ancestral to compiler and wife will be published and in circulation with the publishing of this book, for one of the five,"Descendants of Henry Head" 1695-1948 being published and circulated by Mrs.A.H. (Idress HEAD) ALVORD of 805 Virginia Avenue,Columbia,Missouri to whom compiler presented 70 pages of closely typed Head genealogical research who generously relieved us of much of the detail and all of the expense of printing, binding and circulating that considerable volume.The three other remaining genealogical books,"THE HOLCOMBES,"1947 "REID,GASTON,SIMONTON, HARVEY AND TOMLINSON,1939 and "KINCHELOE,McPHERSON and Related Families"-1951 together with this book index about 100,000 people names in the four books of genealogy. Considerable research of surname,WEIR,immigrants from SCOTLAND to Upper South Carolina before 1792 may become a project for publishing and circulating after Sept.19,1957 ,if compiler reaches that 81st. birthday.

If so the Scotch family surname,BLACK may be included. The accumulation of research on these two surnames will gladly be put at the disposal of a younger relation among descendants of the Scotch BLACK and WEIR familiesevidencing a zeal and competency to handle the projects well.

Since retirement from United States Civil Service employment,Sept.30,1946 he has engaged in research into State statutes,municipal ordinances,sanitary codes,scientific books and a variety of reports and rulings of boards of health,plumbing inspectors,laboratory technicians,bacteriological investigations,reports and finding, in some 225 pages organized by divisions of the works and indexed in three booklets:" Some Provisions of the Statutes of the States Relating to Public Health and Sanitation,Including Plumbing,"Regulation of House Trailers and Their Locations, Plumbing in House Trailers ,or Buildings Anywhere for Any Use",which latter book has been featured Department of Commerce,Washington publication of Available Literature since 1950 to date though out of print as superseded by the release of that Department's"Uniform or National Plumbing Code of 1950,the result of 27 years research and deliberations for its approval and general adoption,now well accomplished. Compiler's third booklet in sanitation field is entitled:"PREVENTION OF WATER-BORNE DISEASES",- in two sections:I.- Sewage,Its Treatment and Disposal , and II.- Water, Its Pollution and Purification." As preparation for such sanitary reseach he he attended national and regional conventions of public health offices and professional sanitarians and conferred privately with many members of each, far and near. He made research in variety of corporation fields in their problems in law,taxation and business administration affecting their interstate business.

He contacted the Office of the Director of Census about to engage in taking the 1950 decennial Census of the United States and inquired if it was in the plans that a separate be made and published in the 1950 Census of the number of families living year round in house trailers as their only residences and was informed that no provisions were being made for it and that the time was getting short in which to prepare and have approved and printed such forms for such a feature of that Census. Six weeks later on a personal call at the Census office he was shown an extensive form to obtain and record many features incitent to residence by families in house trailers and when field work was complete and first tabulation was release to the public there appeared about 290,000 such families so domiciled,which was radically lower than the many claims being made within the industry of the trailers which had been manufactured and sold in recent enough years to still be serving as such residences.

For consideration of the standing committees of the 82nd.Congress (1951) whose duties it was to make favorable or unfavorable recommendations and appropriations as to defense measures and relating to levying,modifying or repealing taxes, -without compensation for work or expenses, made, had printed and presented to the committees in open, formal hearings as amicus curae for the occupants of house trailers and not in the interest of the manufacturer or dealer in such trailers, who had passed on to the occupants all excise taxed levied for the previous ten years at seven per cent of manufacturer's cost for such trailers by the United States Bureau of Internal Revenue by classifying such house trailer as an "accessory of an automobile" that being the rate named in the Revenue Act of 1941 on "automobile accessories".The appearance on the Defense Housing act,Bill S.345 hereinbefore referred to not being parts of the Revenue Revision Act of 1951 during the deliberations on which he presented his research to:(a) House Ways and Means Committee ,Part 3 H.R. 4473, and (b.) Senate Revenue Revision of 1951, Part 3. All his submissions in the 82nd. Congress,1951, were printed by the Committees before whom he appeared and may be read in the Congressional Record. He ,neither in person,or through others sought or had interviews with any one of the 435 Congressman nor any of the 96 Senators relative to the research he had submitted in open hearings and read search to the committees,but promptly after each appearance mailed to each of these 531 United States legislators all he had said to their committees,feeling assured each one had ample competent staff to bring the salient points in each print to the attention of such legislators before it had to be voted on in the House separately as full independent bodies without imposing himself on any one of them for a personal interview

Having heard representatives of the Trailer Manufacurers Association and Trailer Dealers Association presented to the same committees before he was reached for hearing by these committees he became aware of the whole history of the passage of the Revenue Act of 1941 being ignored by all of the preceding witnesses,- having read the more than 4000 pages of the Congressional Record to become infofmed of everything that happened in committees, and debates in the House and Senate on final passage, as well as analyzing mimutely all subsidizing by Congress over the same period for so-called"low cost housing" and in his printed presentations read to committees and sent to all members of both houses contrasted the rank discrimination of making the vast donations to groups of people living in many times as expensive house as a house trailer,while it allowed the U.S .Bureau of Intenal Revenue to arbitrarily tax the ultimate dweller in the cheapest of all house for the privilege of living in it and concluded by challenging each of the 531 lawmakers by their vote on the repeal of this tax so that constituents must know thet they never intended it to be caught in an excise tax on automobile accessories.

It appears that this challenge would have caused the repeal of the abuse that had been submitted to for 10 years without the real party at interest ever before being represented,the manufactures failure to protect their customers, the trailer dwellers. 302(a,b,c)

Nancy Elizabeth (TOMLINSON) WEIR, page 168, was daughter of John Wade,- " a man of giant stature, great strength, energy, thrift and far-seeing judgment", elected and served as first Sheriff of Haralson county, Georgia, organized in 1856 from Carroll county, also served as a Confederate soldier. He became one of the most successful and propsperous farmers in Haralson county and prior to corporations being established in the county was long its heaviest taxpayer. He was b. in Henry county, Georgia May 16,1821, d. at his home, now within corporate limits of town of Bremen, Haralson county, Georgia March 9,1901 and is buried in the family cemetery of his Beech Creek plantation near Macedonia Primitive Baptist Church about two miles southeast of its county seat, Buchanan, Georgia as is his first and second wives, their graves being marked with inscribed gravestones.

He married, first, in Carroll county, Georgia Dec.10, 1855 Nancy Elizabeth HEAD, teacher in public schools, b. Carroll county, Georgia May 9,1832, d. Haralson county, Georgia Aug.3,1860 , daughter of Dr. Daniel Baldwin, physician and surgeon, previously a farmer and merchant, b. in Georgia, probably Oglehorpe county Jan.2,1803, d. Etowah county,-near Gadsden, Alabama in 1877,. and first wife, Harriet PEARSON, whom he married in 182_ in Jasper county, Georgia and lived and reared their family in Henry, and later in Carroll county, near Whitesburg, Georgia where he served as Clerk of County Line Primitive Baptist Church, recording himself and wife, Harriet as being members there , where his father, Elder , James HEAD long served a pastor, near which he lived in a 2 story large colonial home, owing and operating a fine Chattahoochee River valley farm and water powered grist mill, being b. in Virginia 17__ and d. there April 23,1848, married in Oglethorpe county, Georgia Feb.14, 1795 Margaret ("Peggy") ROBERTS, b. Virginia 17_ , d. on farm homestead above in Carroll county, Georgia 185__ and are buried together about one-half mile west of Wolfe Creek on north side of road in 3rd. Land District of Carroll county, Georgia in unmarked graves identifiable by an an inscribed grave stone of their great-grand-son, Thomas Jefferson BARRON, Confederate soldier, who died in 1863 on a furlough and buried by side of Elder , James Head and wife, Margaret("Peggy") ROBERTS, whose home in Third Land (County Line) District, Carroll county, Georgia , known as " The Head Place" is described in "THE CENTENNIAL EDITION OF THE CARROLL COUNTY TIMES' Carrollton, Georgia, Oct.13,1927 by Hon. Edgar WATKINS, lawyer, Atlanta, Ga. and Washington, D.C.:

"This place consisted of a large dwelling, a farm and a mill on Wolfe Creek about one mile from the homestead. The farm was located about four miles north of Whitesburg, Georgia on what is known as the Whitesburg and Villa Rica road. There was a mill, a three story building, constructed for merchant milling with the large wooden water wheel at the back for driving the machinery. Close to this was the creek noisily rustling over the rocky bed, clamorously leaping over the cataracts on its rush to join the Chattahoochee River . There was the rocky ford just below the mill and fifty yards below was a fishing hole and projecting into this was a large rock. The dam was just above the mill and formed a beautiful lake which was fine for fishing and a boy's delight for bathing. A shaded raod wound up the creek to the bridge across the head of the pond. Just across the creek was a wooded bluff covered native forest of pine and oak, jagged with outcropping of rocks, sentinels of passing ages. Often groups of boys and men from neighboring families collected here, "coming to mill", "going fishing " and "going in washing."* * *

"In front of the house, the two story dwelling known as the "Head Place " with double decked porch supported by Corinthian columns stood a beautiful and symetrical oak. A large grove of forest trees shaded the sloping lawn in front and at foot of which the trees were tied with muscadine vines."

Auguset 21,1851 Daniel Baldwin HEAD was serving as Junior Warden in County Line Masonic Lodge No 129 and in 1853 as Master Mason of the Lodge.

The earlier Head ancestry in Colonial America of Elder, James HEAD above has not been definitely reconciled as this is written but a fair inference is that he is of the branch in which many are traced back from a definite residence of him in Chester county, South Carolina, all of whom appear to have come there before the Revolution from Granville county, North Carolina, where they had stopped for a decade or more in their removal from the part of Spotsylvania county, Virginia which had become Culpepper county, Virginia by A.D.1762, two of whose sons, George and Richard HEAD, apparently brothers had married sisters, daughters of Peter NEWPORT in Fauquier county, Virginia where NEWPORT and HEAD families had lived as early as 1751. Peter NEWPORT, the father-in-law of George HEAD of Fauquier county, Virginia joined his wife, Elizabeth BUTLER, daughter of James in 1737 as residents of Hanover Parish, King George county in the "Northern Neck of Virginia" in a deed.

Her piano performances in the auditorium of the Y.M.C.A. in Washington, D.C. were broadcasted, competed in Wesleyan University, Macon, Georgia contest for a scholarship March 3, 1845 for excellence in performance on piano and won, but did not accept it , paying her way in dormitory and for her tuition for the year she studied there; studied in 1946-1947 in Chicago Musical College; at University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan , 1947-1950, when she graduated with degree of Bachelor of Music in June, 1950. She was member of the Pi Beta Eta sorority and lived in its Chapter House, 722 South Forest Avenue, Ann Arbor. For local press in Highland Park, Illinois as musical critic reporter covered Ravinia Opera for the Summer of 1946 in the North Shore Metropoltan Chicago arsa which afforded her personal contacts and acquaintence with world celebrated musicians, who were then and there further publicised from her pen. After graduatin she worked in the Summer and Fall of 1950 she worked in the advertising office in the Tribune Building, Michigah Avenue for the Chicago Daily Tribune .

In her childhood Jeanette Turner MacMURCHY established proof of the military services for the American Colonies by her ancestor, Nathaniel TOMLINSON, of Lancaster county, Camden District, South Carolina and Putnam county, Georgia, serving in the South Carolina militia in the Revolution and was admitted thereon to membership in The Black Hawk Society of Illinois of THE CHILDREN OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION Oct.14,1938, being given National Number 44,755 and generously released her proof for adoption and use by other descendants of Nathaniel TOMLINSON for obtaining similar membership in any of the patriotic socieities, conditioning admittance to membership on proof of service of an ancestor so serving in the Revolution. She had participated in swimming and school sports contests and horseback riding in Illinois and at Gatlinburg, Tennessee, a summer resort in the mountains.

Canton, Cherokee county, Georgia 1883, daughter of Lawson H., b. 1830, d. 1905 and wife, Rhoda DOBBS, b. Habersham county, Georgia, d. Woodstock, Georgia 1919, daughter of and wife, SMITH of Habersham county, Georgia, natives of Hendersonville, North Carolina, whose father was a Revolutionary soldier and fought in the battle of King's Mountain, North Carolina and elsewhere participated in the resistance of the Southern Colonies to the ruthless British General Tarleton during the latter period of the Revolution.

Joseph MOSTELLER, Sr. was son of Jeremiah D., b. Catawba county near Hickory, North Carolina in 1826, d. Alpharetta, Georgia 1893 and is buried at Ebenezer Church cemetery in Milton county, Georgia and wife, Mary RALPH, native of Connecticut, -of English descent.

Jeremiah D. MOSTELLER'S paternal ancestry in two generations earlier were in Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, later living in Virginia whence Jeremiah D's father moved to Catawba county, North Carolina. Some of these earlier Mostellers lived in Hendersonville, North Carolina.

Jeremiah D. MOSTELLER was son of MOSTELLER and wife, BROWN, daughter of brother or cousin of the father of Hon. JOSEPH M. BROWN, who became a wealthy and influential pioneer of Northeast Georgia, whose earliest Georgia home was near Suches, Union county, Georgia, who later lived in Cherokee and Cobb counties, Georgia and in the State Governor's mansion in Milledgeville, Baldwin county, Georgia, when Georgia's State Capitol was there, while he served as Civil War Governor from 1861-65. His son, Joseph E. BROWN lived in his parent's mansion in Marietta, Cobb county, Georgia when he served Georgia, first on the State Railroad Commission and later in two separated terms as Governor of Georgia, 1909-1910 and 1911-1913.

The foregoing three "Joseph Brown MOSTELLER" originate as namesakes of the first Governor Joseph M. BROWN of Georgia, who was their collateral kinsman as hereinbefore referred to.

Joseph Brown MOSTELLER, Jr. m., as hereinbefore stated, Virginia Bennett VANATTER, at Athens, Clarke county, Georgia Dec.26,1925. She was b. Blacksburg, Montgomery county, Virginia March 7,1906, daughter of Phares Obadiah, b. Erin Twp., Province of Ontario, Canada, April 14,1866, graduated Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, agricultural experimenter and teacher in University of Tennessee, Virginia Polytechnic Institute and University of Georgia at Athens, and wife, Harriet Elizabeth SHORTHILL, b. Ballinfad, Ontario, Canada Dec. 31,1875, d. Athens, Georgia, May 25,1927.

Phares Obadiah VANATTER was son of Mathias of Dutch descent, b. near Georgetown, Ontario, Canada 1829, early settler in Pennsylvania and wife, Jemima ROY, whose parents brought her as a child from ENGLAND to Erin Twp., Ontario, Canada where they took up land and settled, dying there in 1906 and 1916 respectively.

Harriet Elizabeth SHORTHILL was daughter of William Henry, b. May 17,1842, d. Ballinfad, Ontario, Canada June 10, 1914 and is buried in Ballinfad and wife, Jane BENNETT, b. in 1848, d. Ballinfad in 1924, married Jan.9,1866, daughter of John and wife, Elizabeth JOHNSON.

William Henry SHORTHILL was son of John, b. Nov.24,1800 d. Nov.22,1871, and wife, Johanna COWIN(Cowan?), b Jan.8, 1801, d. Nov.27,1877' daughter of John, b. Clonorah, Tipperary county, Ireland, and wife, Mary SWITZER, b.1772, d.1854, m. Montreal, Quebec, Canada June 26,1831, who moved soon thereafter to Bytown, Ottawa, Canada and moved again soon thereafter to Esquescing, Ontario, Canada. By tradition this COWIN(COWAN?) was seated at Cowan's Heath in the Lowlands of Scotland where descendants yet remain. By, or soon after the death of OLIVER CROMWELL in 1658 some of these COWINS were settled in Ulster("North of Ireland"). Of these John COWIN and brother, Edward, moved about 1800 to the "South of Ireland". The foregoing John COWIN, who married in Montreal in 1831 is understood by compiler to have been the son of John and wife, Mary SWITZER of "North" and "South of Ireland".

The Shorthills and Vanatters early in America engaged in agriculture in Canada.

Jeremiah D MOSTELLER is remembered to have engaged as tailor, shoemaker, farmer, merchant, saw mill and cotton gin operator.

The earliest known generations of these MOSTELLERS (MOSTILLERS) were seated at Dormstadt, Province of Hesse, Nurenberg, GERMANY.

Religious persecution and coercion of Catholics and Lutherans into their churches, political oppresion, and other causes, during and following the Reformation, -in the Sixteenth Century, influenced the MOSTELLERS (Marstellers) to emigrate from the "Vaterland". They were among the German Reform Church members who fled to Rhennish Prussia in the Reign of Louis, XIV, who lived in 1638-1715. They had escaped the French War desolation at WORMS and elsewhere in 1689. The members of the flight into HOLLAND increased from 1702 to 1727. On the advice of their DUTCH hosts in 1707 they embarked for the port of New York, moving thence overland to the Dutch settlement in German Valley, Morris county, New Jersey and lived also in Bergin, Essex and Somerset counties, New Jersey until they bought land in Chester (now Lancaster) county, Pennsylvania and moved to it.

Kathryn LAWRENCE(KIRSH)McPHERSON

H-1-3-2-4-10-3-3- Hal Weir McPHERSON,page 170,attended grade schools in Carrollton,Georgia and Knoxville,Tennessee and 4 years in dormitory at McCallie School,Sherman Heights,Missionary Ridge,Hamilton county, Chattanooga,Tennessee, a boys' college preparatory school, attended University of Wisconsin,Madison,Wisconsin for first semester beginning in September 1920,but transferred for the second semester of that scholastic year to Northwestern University, his parents having moved from Knoxville to Evanston,Illinois and completed his studies there for B.S. and Master's degrees living at home of his parents,His degrees were in Mechanical Engineering,the B.S. in 1924,the Master's in 1926,pursued some further college studies later at Harvard and University of Cincinnati; was active next 12 years in refrigeration engineering and air-conditioning, pioneering several advances in these arts,serving a chain of national food stores from its general offices and supply warehouses in Cincinnati,Ohio as chief refrigerating engineer for more than three years and next for several years as chief refrigerating engineer in the National Stock Yards for one of the old national meat packers,designed for many other employers as their consulting engineer in refrigeration and air-conditioning equipment;next engaged as national salesmanager for a manufacturer of valves,in the first few years of his new field successfully developed and improved is lines in automatic valves,operating mechanically which brought him considerable presitge among engineers and technicians in that field;served valve manufacturer during the early years of Second World War as consultant in valving the air-conditioning of submarines and the fuel system of large aircraft and was independently active in the early developement of the rocket bomb and jet motor;has designed more than 30 novel and useful items on which prior to 1948 the U.S. Patent Office had issued six patents,and others since.

For many years he was a member,and sometimes officer of the following engineering and technical organizations: American Society of Refrigeration Engineers,National Association of Practical Refrigeration Engineers Association and The American Society of Sanitary Engineering, serving on committes at national conventions and participating in deliberation of that body in convention assembled.

He is the author of numerous published technical papers on refrigeration,air-conditioning,insulation,heat transfer,convections, flow of fluids,psychrometry,spring design,safety design, sanitation,public health,sewage treatment and disposal, prevention of water pollution.

He secured patent in 1947 in United States and Canada for a grinding toilet which was immediately adopted by builders of house trailers on which he built up in a brief time a profitable business as its manufacturer and distributor operating from Chicago, later adding to designs of grinding toilets and incorporating these in package sewage disposal plant for individual homes or other limited numbers of users of a single

Its advantages over septic tank in sewerless or suburban developement areas, is receiving a rsponse in one and two story houses, where the alternative is a septic tank , and is proving itself adapted to give the best possible service. Water or electric motors drive the processing grinder ,aerator and diluter of the raw sewage at a great econemy in the water required . To procure professional sanitarian research in connection with his sewage conditioning equipment he organized and endowed a foundation for sanitary research and put his products in Hydraulics Laboratory of Bureau of Standards of United States Department of Commerce,Washington,D.C. and in the laboratory of the School of Engineering,PURDUE UNIVERSITY,Lafayette,Indiana for long periods providing these funds for as much research in plumbing and sanitation as they cared to add over a period or two or three years.This was necessary as the manufacturing and distributing was overtaxing him,although not satified to offer his products to the market indefinitely without competent and impartial judgment on their superiority being claimed for them over conventional toilets or water closets shoing little change or improvement for the previous half century, which required a flushing tank of useless cost and total waste of floor space. Another reason for his endowment of foundation was that other than manufacturing and sales work,the vested interest he was competing against were the old school sanitarians was taking much of his time conferring with and convincing health officers that his equipment operated more in conformity to the laws of health and safety that the antiquated devices they had adapted themselves to.

He moved his plant and business from 7450 North Milwaukee Avenue,Chicago(Niles),Illinos to 4603 West Osborne Avenue,Drew Park,Tampa,3,Florida for better access to export markets ,which he had added in foreign countries,moving to West Indes, Belgium,Switzerland,South Africa,Australia,Singapore,Hongkong and the Philippine islands, equipment that is not partial to nationalities and speaks all languages as it quietly prevents the pollution of water and treats and purifies sewage of all races,in their native soils. He had to become an expert in the science and art of prevention of diseases through sanitation ,-and quickly,when his business surged ahead so suddenly upon his perfection of his equipment to the point of easy maintenance and quick and easy repair . A proving ground in his manufacturing plant and laboratory therein and the two other endowed research projects being run using sanitary equipment of his design as hereinbefore referred to was all the tests he had encouraged to be made over the United States. The chief plumbing inspector of Miami,Florida was watching an elaboarate sewage disposal field set up there to demonstrate the merits and defects of sewage treatment outside of municipal sewage treatment plants and with an open mind he recognized that it was the best solution "beyond the sewers" and superior to septic tanks.

Sanitary research has shown that as early as 1890 tests had proved that sewage treatment could be successfully done in more or less congested settlements beyond sewers,-in Mid-West prairie soils with or without seepage pits..Hal Weir McPherson married in Cincinnati,Ohio March 25,1936 Margaret Loretta BAUER,b.there Dec.4,1904,d.Spears' Sanitorium,Denver,Colorado,May 28,1950 and is buried in St

H-1-3-2-4-10- Charles Lewin McPHERSON,pages 159 and 160 was son of Elijah Daniel McPHERSON,b. Hawkins county,Tennessee July 13,1789,d. Carroll county,Georgia Dec. 19,1875 and wife, Sarah SMALL,b. Ireland May 22, 1809,d. Carroll county,Georgia April 3,1897, m. in Rhea county,Tennessee,Oct.24,1826,buried in Concord Primitive Baptist Church cemetery about three miles north of Carrollton,in Carroll county,Georgia, their graves being so marked with inscribed marble grave stones. They moved from Rhea or Roane county,Tennessee in 1830 with two small children in an ox cart to Buck Creek,(near present Bonner's Ford) in Carroll county where he was among the very first white settlers there among the Indians where he cleared the forest for a plantation, built a dam and detour canal to supply added water power for the grist mill and saw mill he started there, among the earliest" up-right" saw mills in that section .he and settlers of his region banded together as the "Slicks" to protect their property from "Pony Clubs", organized bands of desperate horse and cattle thieves,who soon began to prey upon the settlers. War between these was soon on to the hilt,encounters occurring in Carrollton (now Sand Hill) ,first county seat of original Carroll county.

These resolute pioneers after several years rid themselves of this annoyance and having established law and order set about building up the country.

Elijah Daniel McPherson was small of stature,5 feet 9 inches tall , of fair complexion with blue eyes,reddish (or "sandy") hair,voice of medium volume and higher pitch.

He was a skillful performer of violin and other stringed instruments. His parents living near the French Broad and Holston Rivers in Hawkins and Jefferson(now Cocke county,Tennessee, not far above the junction of these rivers to form the Tennessee River a few miles above Knoxville,Tennessee the spirit of adventure entered him by or soon after his 16 birthday,when he is reported to have joined or followed craft on the Tennesse River along its course through the Ohio and Missippi Rivers until he found himself in New Orleans,Lousiana , then one of the principal ports of call of world navigation by sail ships, and attached himself to the owner and crew of such sailing ship for European ports and was at sea or in foreign ports for 4 years before returning to his parents family near Newport, now Cocke county,Tennessee and some years later moved with his parents' family to a farm in Roane county,Tennessee,also on the Tennessee River .His world travel as a sailor taught him some Portugese and other European languages and developed mechanical skills for his use in after life. He had and recovered from yellow fever while in New Orleans, Louisiana and while living in New Orleans made trip overland on foot and alone between New Orleans and Chicago and return, racing from one fort to another one day, resting a day between each "run". 59(e).

Elijah Daniel McPHERSON was son of Daniel McPHERSON, b. Charles county,Maryland Oct.22,1755, d. Meigs county,Tennessee Oct.17,1844,married Dec.30,1771 by elopement from Leeds Parish,Fauquier county,Virginia to Maryland Susannah KINCHELOE, b.Prince William county,Virginia Sept. 22,1755, d. Roane county,Tennessee July 12,1850,daughter of John ,Jr. of Stafford,Prince William and Fauquier counties,Virginia ,Washington and Hawkins county,Tennessee, b. Stafford county,Virginia 1728? ,d.Washington or Hawkins county,Tennessee ,Feb.15,1809 and wife, Mary WICKLIFFE, b.Westmoreland county,Virginia 1725-27,d.at the home of her daughter,Elizabeth("Betsey") (KINCHELOE) COLDWELL Oct.1794 m. in Prince William county,Virginia.

Daniel McPHERSON was son of Richard , of Charles county,Maryland ,Fauquier and Bottetourt county,Virginia, Washington,Grainger and Jefferson counties,Tennessee and wife, Eleanor BARTON,daughter of Thomas ,b.Jan.7,1689 of Charles county,Maryland and Bottetourt county,Virginia.

Richard McPHERSON was son of Daniel McPHERSON,and and wife,emigrant from "Kingdon of Dalradia",-partly now in Argyl county,Scotland to Charles county,Maryland with Daniel's brother, Alexander McPHERSON and family in 1717, who followed their brother,William McPHERSON to Charles county,Maryland ,where he was deported by England on a prison ship of 55 captured in last battle of the "Jacobite Rebellion" of Scotland against English rule in Scotland in 1715, being tried and condemened as rebels, who prayed and were granted deportation to the American Colonies ,William being put off the ship in Charles county,Maryland. Among the 20 exceuted as leaders in that rebellion was: Sandy McPHERSON.

Thomas BARTON was son of William and wife,Elizabeth , direct descendant of William,born about 1605,who made oath Providence Court of Maryland Dec.30,1657 stating his age then as 52 years,who was serving as Commissioner in St.Mary's County,Maryland in 1648.. Early Barton families have been found also in Calvert county,Maryland. 184(j)

John KINCHELOE,Jr. was the son of John,Sr., ".son and heir" of Cornelius KINCHELOE,apparently emigrant to North Farhnam Parish,Old Rappahannock (since Richmond) county, Virginia, where as such ,John was joined by wife,Elizabeth CANTERBURY in conveying the parental home place on Kincheloe Branch of Totusky Creek,North Farnham Parish,Richmond county,Virginia Jan.24,1725 about which time John and wife,Elizabeth and children moved to Stafford(now Prince William) county,Virginia where John died between date of his will there March 16,1746 and the date of appraisal of his estate March 25,1746,having married by about 1718 in Richmond county,Virginia Elizabeth CANTERBURY,b.there,d. Prince William county,Virginia between 1776 and 1778,daughter of John and wife ,Ruth WILLIAMS,daughter of Roger WILLIAMS and wife,Joan FRITH . John KINCHELOE in Prince William county, Virginia served as warden of Truro Parish 1732-1736 and as vestryman from 1736 until his death in 1746/He is elsewhere described in the records of Prince William county,Virginia as "Gentleman"

This and the standing of the families into which John and Elizabeth's children married and had for their neighbors and associates tend to confirm the tradition that the Kincheloe , Canterbury ,Williams and Frith familes were all of the English and Scotch gentry. 184(j)

John KINCHELOE,Sr. was son of Cornelius KINCHELOE,who witnessed will of John RICE proved for record in Old Rappahannock (now Richmond) county,Virginia Dec.6,1693;signed as surety on a bond there in 1694 , as "planter of North Farnum Parish,Richmond county,Virginia" took deed from Shadrach WILLIAMS for"100 acres on the west side of Totuskey Creekalong the line of said'Chenchello ' adjoing land of William SMITH* *  along Kincheloe Spring Branch ",June 26,1695,indicating that Kincheloe had settled some years earlier. Another reference reads: " The Kincheloes are of pure English unmixed with any other nationality,their tradition is for education in the home with the family school room and tutor, Their ancestors in England must have been,at least,landed gentry,-for only upper classes in England in their day received any education." From these proofs ,at least, seven children appear to have been born to them. Sarah was not a member of her parents household at the recording of the U.S. Census of 1790 for Abbeville District, South Carolina. .Record has been found of Sarah joining her husband, Dr.John HARRIS in a deed to James and Martha HARRIS. The following proof of a contempoary John HARRIS Oct.1, 1832 in Anderson District South Carolina having served in the South Carolina militia for the American Colonies in the Revolution by character witnesses that they had known him long as Ordinary of Anderson District, elder of the Presbyterian Church in good standing carrying the mark of a wound received in military service in the Revolution. John Harris' own statement signed there March 13, 1833 states that he "was born on the Eastern Shore of Maryland in December 1762, and that his father moved with him as a small boy to North Carolina and later to Abbeville District , South Carolina and later to Little River there where he resided throughout the Revolution, his first service in the Revolution being in a fort near Captain NOBLE'S where the neighborhood assembled for protection against the Indians" He therein described in great detail his several tours of service under Captain NOBLE, into Georgia,- in South Carolina in 1778 and 1789 and the battles in which he engaged. 40(16)

He interviewed a captain of a boat in Charleston harbor. At first the fare was $40 from Charleston to Paris,FRANCE ,-in a sailing vessel. His family could not raise that much cash for it,whereuon the fare to him was reduced to $30 and finally to $25.They failed to supply the reduced amount and he negoitated its payment in produce which they could and did provide. His family and friends provided $12.50 of that amount. The Captain told him to come along and pay on his next trip the remaining amount in food, which was provided. While in Paris he worked for the expenses of his four years medical course there where he studied under the most noted surgeons in Europe and while abroad personally witnessed two notable events in history,-the return of Napoleon Bonaparte after landing from Elba in Holland and the cermonies of the crowning of Queen Victoria in England while on his way home.

Upon his return he located to practice medicine and surgery in Newnan,Coweta county,Georgia accepting payment in farm products and live stock. His practice and ability soon won him rank with thr most eminent physicians in Georgia.

Before the War of Secession he became one of the largest land owners in Georgia He served one term in the Georgia Legislature as Representative of Coweta county,Georgia and was a delegate to the Secession Convention in Georgia in 1861. He had a magnificent home in Troup county, near LaGrange,Georgia. He was a contemporary and intimate friend of many illustrious Georgians, among them,Alexander STEPHENS, the Cobbs and Benjamin Harvey Hill. * continued from 7th.line above * The forms of maiden name of mother of Jane McGill HAMILTON,H-1-3-9, above has been found recorded in all of the following forms:"McGara,McGarra Magill, McGill" as wife of Major Andrew HAMILTON.Her mother's maiden name is obviously the source of this daughter's middle,or second Christian name. Compiler,at first, was dependent on the existence of such a daughter to a record first found published April 27,1927 by James Alston CABELL,H-1-3-10-1-1 ,p.186 then past 70 years old stating information he received direct from his grandmother, Catherine (HAMILTON) ALSTON,H-1-3-10,p.185,during the 10 or more last very advanced years of her long and active life, which his grandmother had spent in the home of her daughter, Jane Charity (ALSTON) CABELL that this grandmother,Catherine (HAMILTON) ALSTON had a"sister,Jane HAMILTON, who m. Dr.E.S. DAVIS, to whom she was much attached." So brilliant a mind from so distinguished a career as this grandson's can not be easily discredited and is here accepted by compiler. From this and other information this Jane McGill (HAMILTON) DAVIS was probably nearer the age of her sister, Catherine (HAMILTON) ALSTON than other of their parents' children and she is here liste as next older than her sister,Catherine (HAMILTON) ALSTON and next younger than their brother, Captain Alexander Cramer HAMILTON, H-1-3-8,p. 183 , he being born in Abbeville,South Carolina Sept.28,1782,three younger children than Captain Alexander Cramer HAMILTON being born to their parents between 1782 and 1790, year of birth of their 11th. and youngest child, Andrew M. HAMILTON. This Jane McGill HAMILTON m. in Abbeville ,South Carolina Dr. E.S. DAVIS, who signed there Feb,9,1835 as one of several kin as sureties on the bond of John HAMILTON,H-1-3-4,p. 179, older brother of Jane (HAMILTON) DAVIS as administrator of the estate of their deceased father,Major Andrew HAMILTON,H-1-3.262(a-c).

As "E.S. and Jane DAVIS" they signed receipt to her brother,John HAMILTON as administrator of their father's estate for Jane McGill's share in their father's estate Nov.18,1835. Information preserved through neighbors in town of Abbeville,South Carolina as having built their home there on lower Main street, which was standing in 1913 owned then by Mrs. Addie Tyler HILL and which previous to about 1850 had been owned and occupied by William HILL, Judge of Court of Ordinary of Abbeville District,South Carolina. He became an eloquent Mothodist evangelist.

H-1-3-10- Katherine ("Kitty") HAMILTON,p.143, has much important biography of her life recorded in extensive biography of her father, Major Andrew HAMILTON,H-1-3,pp. she being the 10th child and youngest daughter and during the long lives of her parents never lived farther away from them than next door neighbors in town of Abbeville, South Carolina, except during two removals by Catherine and husband,Major James ALSTON , to Georgia, neither of which removals lasted for more than,at most, a few years before their returns to Abbeville,some indications that Catherine's parents, Major Andrew HAMILTON and wife,Jane (McGARRA) HAMILTON made both removals from Abbeville,South Carolina to Georgia and returning finally to Abbeville together,-never really be separated in life. She m. 182_ Major James ALSTON,b. New Bern,North Carolina Nov.12,1771, d.Abbeville,South Carolina Dec.5,1850 and is buried in Long Cane Presbyterian Church cemetery and his grave is marked by an inscribed marble monument. He was son and oldest of 10 children of his parents,Lt.-Col.William ALSTON and wife, Charity ALSTON, cousins,his mother ,Charity dying in 1823. This William ALSTON was a member of the Provincial Congress in 1775 and an officer in the Revolution,.born in N.C.Dec. 25,1736,died Elbert county,Georgia in 1810 whose other nine children were: William H. (who married Elizabeth RUCKER), Philip Reuben(who m. WOOLFOLK),Solomon, George ,Mary (who m. Captain James CLARKE), Elizabeth (who m. THOMPSON), Christine Ann (who m. TAIT) and Sarah ALSTON (who married Thomas CHAMBERS).

Major James ALSTON received extensive land grants in North Carolina and South Carolina. He has been described as " a tall man.". He participated in the administration of the estate of his father-in-law,Major Andrew HAMILTON in Abbeville District,South Carolina beginning immediatetly upon the latter's death in early 1835 and continuing until a few years before Major ALSTON'S death in 1850.Major ALSTON had acquired additional lands in Georgia and became a wealthy farmer,built an elaborate dwelling in Abbeville, South Carolina adjoining the home site of his father-in-law Major Andrew HAMILTON both of which home sites are now in the active business section of the town.The Alston home was successively used for commercial purposes,including hotel,ice cream parlor,etc, even rolled back and relocated in rear of present furniture store and weekly newspaper.Its walls long preserved beautiful but aged paintings. The sites of these two early residences were on elevations near five feet above surrounding land, and brick walls surrounded the houses which had four of five steps to climb and stood back from the road or street frontage.

Major Alston rose to the rank of his title,Major, serving in Indian wars. His wife, Carherine ("Kitty") HAMILTON had received considerable land in the town of Abbeville and Abbeville Disrict,South Carolina from her father, Major Andrew HAMILTON in his lifetime and had a considera- estate in her own right before her husband's death,from which she donated four acres as a site for the railroad depot and switching yards in town of Abbeville,South Carolina,still in such use by the successors of the railway which received her help to get a railroad to serve her community. She is well described from excerpts from her obituary for her outstanding individuality and in such quotations as :" Aunt 'Kitty' grew flax,carded,spun and wove linen,also wool; made clothing by hand for her parents,husdaughter and daughters of two of her brothers, one an orphan, whom she reared and educated. She looked after her very aged parents until their respective deaths ." ,-at ages 86 and 95 years respectively .Ch.(of Major James ALSTON and wife, Catherine (" Kitty") HAMILTON b. Abbeville,South Carolina): 1- Jane Charity , 1827-8.

Major James ALSTON signed will Dec.13,1850 recorded in Abbeville District,South Carolina Sept.7,1851 naming as executors:"wife,Catherine ALSTON and John McILWAIN" and made bequests to "nephew ,Philip ALSTON, son of my brother, William ALSTON of Columbus "; and to my grand daughter Jane Charity CABELL. " His only child,Jane Charity,ALSTON did not then have a child and apparently never named a child, Jane Charity CABELL. From this it may be inferred that his will was an attempt to retain some of his property in the enjoyment of his remote descendants as far as he might legally do so within the American and English limitations on period of such entails. It may have been no more than a gesture by him to perpetuate his mother's maiden name, Charity ALSTON(ALSTON).

The brief announcement of the death of Mrs. James (Catherine 'Kitty' HAMILTON) ALSTON in Richmond,Virginia Nov.20,1877 read: "Died on Sunday night 18th.Inst at the home of her son-in-law,Colonel Henry Coalter CABELL Mrs. Catherine ALSTON, widow of the late Major James ALSTON of Abbeville,South Carolina and daughter of Major Andrew HAMILTON of South Carolina, an officer in the Revolutionary War. " Her fuller obituary was published in newspapers in South Carolina reading ."IN MEMORIUM.  Her remains in obedience to her request were brought to the town of Abbeville,South Carolina and on Nov.23rd.,1877 were interred in the cemetery at Upper Long Cane Church.

Mrs. ALSTON was born in the vicinity of the town before it was established and resided there many years. After the marriage of her only child and the death of her husband she removed to the City of Richmond,Virginia and resided with her daughter,Mrs.CABELL. It was a beautiful tribute to this venerable Lady by those,who in former days were her friends and neighbors, that her remains were received and honored by impressive funeral services, and there interred with fitting reverence and respect by the whole community.

Mrs. ALSTON was descended from two of the oldest and most honored families of Abbeville.Her father was Andrew HAMILTON and her mother was Jane McGARA, names identified with that of South Carolina in all the useful epochs of her history. Her father was of Scotch-Irish descent and possessed all their fierce patriotism,their traditional courage, their stern love of liberty and their grand religious convictions. These high qualities toned,softened,shaded and tinted were deeply imbedded in the character of Mrs. ALSTON.

She was high-born, high-bred,accomplished and refined, with a majestic presence and polished manner, a fine type of the old school of Carolina ladies.

The marriage of her daughter into one of the most distinguished families of Virginia drew around her the polished and brilliant society of Richmond,but Abbeville was still the home of her affections and she never disposed of the old homestead in which her congenieal life was passed and her husband died. She reserved the spot by her husband's grave for her own resting place and there she reposes.

Her father,Major Andrew HAMILTON and her husband, Major James ALSTON,won their titles in the sercice of their country and the former filled high civil offices.The cemetery at Upper Long Cane is populated with the leading families of Abbeville, the WARDLAWS,BOWLES,LESLEYS and a countless host of others,- but it numbers in the vast assemblage of the distinguished dead none who better deserves remembrance than the HAMILTONS and ALSTONS. The group in that peaceful abode in which which Mrs. ALSTON lies consists of her father,who died at age 95 years,her mother who died at 86,her husband ,who died at 79 and herself,who died at age 91 years ."

Inscription on her tombstone standing beside her husband's reads ,-on front:" Catherine ALSTON,daughter of Maj. A. HAMILTON,Abbeville,South Carolina,born Nov.25,1786,died Nov.17,1877" and ,- on back: "Catherine ALSTON was high-bred,accomplished and refined, a majestic presence,polished manners, a fine type of the old school of Carolina ladies." On front face of monument inscribed to her husband reads:"Major James ALSTON,born Nov.12,1771,d.Dec.5, 1850"; On right face :"James ALSTON,patriot,citizen,the man of truth and honor; the faithful friend. The tender and devoted husband and father. On left face,An officer in the First Seminole War. He served his country with zeal,courage and efficiency." 26(a),33(2,12),54(a,b),149, 150,152 p.490,193(a),252(a-c),258,262(a-c),265(b), 272(b),476(6)

H-1-3-10-1- Jane Charity ALSTON was a very beautiful woman having fair complexion,blue eyes, and long curly hair,which she wore in long curls. Men turned to look at the lovely lady when she passed on the streets.

"Her expression was of such majestic sweetness that any one who met her for the briefest time was her friend forever. It was not her personal beauty alone that charmed and won all hearts. She was a fine musician and possessed a voice of tenderness and beauty During the War ,1861-65 she served as a ministering angel of mercy to the wounded, suffering soldiers in Richmond Hospital. The boxes sent by her mother from her Abbeville plantation in addition to every dainty she could get from her onw plantation near Richmond, Virginia were divided with the sick soldiers. In her own right she was a lady of large wealth. She m.Abbeville, South Carolina May 1,1850 Henry Coalter CABELL of Richmond, Virginia, b. in Virginia Feb.14,1820, educated University of Virginia (1837-1839), graduating and Law Department, (1841-2), graduating; entered Confederate States Army April 25,1861 as Captain of Fayette Artillery; promoted to Lt.-Col.1st.Va.Regt.Artillery Sept.1861; to Col. of Regt. in Spring of 1862 and was soon thereafter made Chief of Artillery under General J.B.MAGRUDER, commanding the Army of the Peninsula appointed Chief of Artillery, McLAW'S Division, Army of Northern Virginia in July 1862 in which position he served until the end of the war in rank of General. The famous Howitzers of Richmond were in his command. He was in the fight at Dam No. 1 and other engagements in the peninsula; in battles of Seven Pines, Sharpsburg, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, the Wilderness, Spotsylvania Court House, Hanover Junction, Cold Harbor, the defense of Petersburg and elsewhere. His last engagement was on April 18,1865 in the afternoon preceding the surrender at Appamattox Court House where his artillery repulsed without infantry support a charge made by a very large force of the enemy. At the battle of Gettysburg his artillery supported the famous charge of Pickett."

Before inserting other data from his long and interesting career, well preserved in official and other sources the following from his pen deserves first place. It reads : " I was born in Richmond, Virginia Dec.21,1860, son of Colonel Henry Coalter CABELL, Confederate States Army and wife, Jane ALSTON of Abbeville, South Carolina. She was the daughter of Maj.James ALSTON of Abbeville and wife, Catherine HAMILTON, who was the daughter of Maj. Andrew HAMILTON, who was born in Augusta county, Virginia in 1740 and went to South Carolina who was the son of Archibald HAMILTON and wife, Frances CALHOUN. I knew years ago that one of the brothers (of Major Andrew HAMILTON) went to Kentucky and his descendants were prominent and wealthy.

Major Andrew was in the Revolution and The Daughters of the American Revolution Chapter in Abbeville, S.C. is named for him. I was educated in private schools in Richmond, Virginia and at the University of Michigan, graduating in medicine there in 1886; was commissioned 1st.Lt. and Asst. h-1-3-11- Andrew M. HAMILTON, page 143, is identified as the youngest of the 11 children of his parents, Major Andrew HAMILTON,H-1-3, and wife, Jane McGARA in a memorandum of the names and order of birth of their children, 143 (d,e). He is probably the "Andrew HAMILTON" recorded on page 63 of the 1810 Census of Abbeville District, South Carolina listing :males, 1-under 45 years; females: 2, under 10 years and 1 under 45 years. As Andrew M. HAMILTON he drew land lot 838 in the Georgia Land Lottery of 1838 located in the Third Section; received as gift from his father, Major Andrew HAMILTON,H-1-3, 2,000 acres of land lying 4 miles east of Abbeville, South Carolina on the south side of the road leading from Abbeville to Greenwood, South Carolina.

Andrew M. HAMILTON, his father, Major Andrew Hamilton and sister, Catherine(HAMILTON) ALSTON,H-1-3-10 ,page moved together with their families from Abbeville District South Carolina to Georgia twice, returning in each instance to Abbeville District South Carolina within a few years. As Andrew M. had married in Jackson county, Georgia and as Andrew M. HAMILTON'S oldest surviving brother, Archibald HAMILTON,H-1-3-2,p.143 had moved from Abbeville or Pendleton District, South Carolina to Jackson(now Gwinnett) county, Georgia to a final settlement there by about 1812 it seems probable that these other families moving and removing between these South Carolina and Georgia points were in contact with their close kinsman, Archibald HAMILTON,H-1-3-2,p.143 in Georgia. He is probably the Andrew HAMILTON recorded in a history of Gwinnett county, Georgia apparently taken from the tax lists recorded in Gwinnett county, Georgia, the family being composed of 6 males ,14 females and 4 slaves, no date given for such a recording.

Andrew M. Hamilton went to Georgia about the age of 17 years when he married in Jackson county July 19,1807 Nancy HOGG, daughter of Samuel, as recorded there in marriage Book A. page 16, both living to very advanced age and are buried in Upper Long Cane Presbyterian Church cemetery in Abbeville District, South Carolina. As andrew HAMilton participated with his sister, Frances (HAMILTON) CALHOUN, H-1-3-5,p.180 ,brother John HAMILTON,H-1-3-4,p.143 and Dr. E.S. DAVIS,M.D., husband of his sister, Jane McGill (HAMILTON) DAVIS in the settlement of the estate of their father, Major Andrew HAMILTON,H-1-3, p.139,- deceased, in Abbeville District, South Carolina begun in 1835 and concluded in 1848, Andrew M. HAMILTON ,H-1-3-11, receipting his brother, John HAMILTON, administrator for his share in father's estate, Feb.11,1836. Ch.:(of Andrew M . H-1-3-11-1- Andrew M. HAMILTON,Jr.,p.188,one of the first (p.188) born of Andrew M, HAMILTON,H-1-3-11 and wife Nancy HOGG'S twin children is not otherwise accounted for in the research for this book more plausibly than by the inscrib-monument standing in Upper Long Cane Presbyterian Church cemetery reading :"Andrew M. HAMILTON,born,Feb.17,1808,died March 19,1888,which brings into question the accuracy of the date next above of death of his father,Andrew M. HAMILTON,Sr.,H-1-3-11, who is recorded as having been born in Abbeville,South Carolina,Feb.17,1790 when his mother,Jane McGARA was about 50 years old and excludes the possibility that the "Andrew M. HAMILTON", whose monument stands in this church cemetery was her son,as she would have been 68 years old on date of birth inscribed on the monument and possibly questions the identity of the "Andrew HAMILTON who signed his will Oct. 19,1886 resident in Toccoa,Georgia of the next preceding paragraph being the son rather than the grandson of Major Andrew HAMILTON ,H-1-3, and wife Jane McGARA,especially when considering the death date on the monment,March 19,1888 is 98 years 8 months and 2 days after Andrew M. HAMILTON,Sr.,H-1-3-11 was born instead of 80 years 8 months and 2 days after the recorded birth date of Andrew M. HAMILTON,Jr.,H-1-3-11-1, above ,the latter being a much more probable death age for the son rather than for the father and suggests that the grand children provided for in the property in Toccoa,Georgia were the grandchildren of Andrew M. HAMILTON,Jr.,H-1-3-11-1- rather than as of Andrew M. HAMILTON,Sr. Information is not available to name and identify a daughter of Andrew M. Hamilton,Sr. and wife,Nancy HOGG,as the wife of R.E.Hill,Esq. and mother of his minor orphan Hill children named as grandchildren of Andrew Hamilton,pages 188 and 189 in his will in 1886

H-1-3-11-2- Jane Catherine HAMILTON,page 188,went to live with her aunt, Catherine (HAMILTON) ALSTON and husband,Major James ALSTON,H-1-3-10,p. 185, in childhood,her parents being importuned,as the Alstons were childless for many years after marriage and relatively wealthy.They lived in the town of Abbeville, South Carolina having better than rural school facilities. They were attracted so to do by Jane Catherine's excellent mental abilities, a manesake, of her aunt and grandmother.Jane Catherine grew to womanhood in their substantial home.SEE biographical sketches of Mrs. Alston and father, Major Andrew HAMILTON. On Major Andrew HAMILTON'S horseback trip from Abbeville,South Carolina to Staunton ,Virginia region, Jane Catherine HAMILTON and her aunt,Catherine (HAMILTON) ALSTON accompanied him on horseback, when he was 87 years old, in the Spring of 1827 and return,-all by horseback.

This aunt planned ambitiously for her protege looking to her marriage to the son of a prominent and wealthy family of Richmond,Virginia,but her neice,Jane Catherine HAMILTON developed interest otherwise and eloped by night in 1828 and married John Franklin MURDOCK of Abbeville District,South Carolina, b. Goldsboro,North Carolina,Oct.4, 1808, d.Dec.11,1868 and is buried in Talorville,Tuscaloosa county,Alabama,son of James and wife,Martha CRAWFORD,who moved from Goldsboro,North Carolina to near Due West in Abbeville,South Carolina,where they owned and operated a large plantation.John Franklin MURDOCK was a handsome man. His wife, Jane Catherine HAMILTON was a remarkable person having a brilliant mind,well educated,who served a long useful life as teacher in frontier schools.They lived near Abbeville, South Carolina until 1835, when they moved to Cass county,Georgia for a few years before settling near the village of Talorville,Alabama,both resting there in Mt.Pleasant Church cemetery.She died at Milano Junction,Texas Dec.9,1881 her remains being returned for burial by side of her husband.

Her obituary ,then published reads: "More than 40 years ago they moved to Tuscaloosa county,Alabama.She joined Methodist Church in 1841,having professed religion some years previously. She was intelligent, refined;gentle and affable in her manners;chaste and prudent in her conversation;devoted to interest of churches,humble,devout and spiritual. With her religion was a Divine principle,enthroned in the heart,regulating her desires and affections and bringing the entire mind into subjection to the Divine will.

Fidelity was a chief characteristic in her life. H-1-3-11-2-1- James Andrew MURDOCK enlisted May 12,1862 in Company K 41st.41st. Mississippi Infantry; was captured and sent to Union prison on shore of Lake Michigan where he was held for two years,suffering great discomforts. He suffered from frost bite in prison as long as he lived.When imprisonment ended by the declaration of peace he marched out with other prisoners ragged, they found women lining the streets offering food and clothing. They walked and ate from fields until they reached Kentucky where citizens provided food and clothing and some were given a horse,-for use alternately by two men.He reached home,parents and wife at Talorville,Tuscaloosa county, Alabama. She often sat entranced by the rehersals of her mother, Mrs. John Franklin (Catherine Jane HAMILTON,H-1-3-11-2,pp.189) MURDOCK had learned from her grandfather, Major Andrew HAMILTON,H-1-3 , through close association in his home from her earliest childhood recollection until she was married and removed from South Carolina, as her grandfather's home was nearest neighbor to the home of Major James ALSTON and wife,Catherine ("Kitty"(HAMILTON,H-1-3-10,pp.185- ,her aunt, in whose home she grew up from very early childhood to womanhood and marriage. Sarah Jane preserved in her memory most of the details recited by her mother ,Jane Catherine (HAMILTON) MURDOCK,H-1-3-11-2 of the interstate horse back round trip from Abbeville,S.C. to Staunton in Augusta county,Virginia in 1827, when she and her aunt,Catherine ("Kitty") (HAMILTON) ALSTON went with the father and grandfather, Major Andrew HAMILTON when 87 years old to the scenes of his childhood there after-62 years absence therefromand to visit any of his Hamilton kin remaining there.

Sarah Jane (MURDOCK) BLACKWELL'S daughter,Elizabeth Jane (BLACKWELL) BUSHEY,H-1-3-11-2-6-1,pp.192-,born Jan. 25,1876,living 45 South Sixth Street,Banning,Californaia likewise mentally adequate and intensely devoted throughout her long and active life in accumulating and circulating to her kin,especially the descendants of her grandparents' HAMILTON,CALHOUN AND MURDOCK ancestry,traveling widely for research and interviews for 30 years or more last past . Her entrancement from her mother's rehersals of the European traditions of these ancestral when made by her own mother to her, was not less intense than her mother's when receiving these traditions ,first- hand from her grandmother, especially such features of these tradition as were revived by the horseback trip of the three together between Abbeville,South Carolina and Staunton,Virginia in 1827

Sarah Jane (MURDOCK) BLACKWELL taught public schools at Talorville,Tuscaloosa county,Alabama until about 1878-1879' having obtained from the Alabama Department of Education the State's teachers license good for life,or exemption from future examinations as to her qualifications for teaching.She then move with her husband and two infant daughters together to San Antonio,Texas where she continued to teach in public schools for thirty years more when her health so failed that the next 16 years of her life was more or less an invalid.Upon her death there Dec.11,1925 her daughters returned her remains to .Talorville,Alabama for burial beside her parents in Mt.Pleasant Church cemetery She m. Windsor,Canada,Aug.17,1857,d. Los Angeles, California,Feb.3, 1933 locomotive engineer of the Texas and Northern Railroad for 43 years and 6 months,prior to retirement in 1922. He is buried in Wisteria Lawn,Rose Hill Memorial Park.near Whittier, California, son of Francis Xavier BUSHEY, French Canadian. They had no children. Upon his retirement in 1922,-on account of his failing health they moved from Texas to California where she nursed him until his death in 1933, he being nearly speechless for his last six years.

As a widow, she sought solace from 1933 until 1940 in libraries and through research in public records, county, state and national, Los Angelese public library and by a continuous nation-wide correspondence and travel to distant States gathering and verifying genealogical information as to the ancestry and descent from her HAMILTON, CALHOUN, MURDOCK and BLACKWELL ancestry ,-back to Europe for most of them.

Being encouraged by her success in accumulating it she compiled it in generations-connected sequence for many generations in the about three centuries her research had covered. A copy of her manuscript was generously made available to this compiler in 1953, soon after undertaking to publish this book. Excerpt from it reads,-in part:

Los Angeles, California, April 4, 1940. My mother, Sarah Jane MURDOCK (who married Rev. Benjamin Greer BLACKWELL) told me the following legend, over and over: 'My mother, Jane Catherine HAMILTON,-daughter of Andrew M. HAMILTON and wife, Nancy HOGG ,m. John Franklin MURDOCK in 1828, in Abbeville, South Carolina, son of James A. MURDOCK and wife, Martha CRAWFORD. She had heard her father, Andrew M. HAMILTON and his father, Major Andrew HAMILTON, who was a son of Archibald HAMILTON and wife, Frances CALHOUN recount the following:

"Before Andrew HAMILTON left Virginia his father, Archibald HAMILTON wrote out his and his wife, Frances CALHOUN'S ancestral lines of descent with their titles and estates in Europe so that their children would have this and know his titles. Their children could have copied this, had they thought to do so. His son, Andrew, read it. His father asked him to copy it before moving to South Carolina. He neglected to do so. Catherine Jane (HAMILTON) MURDOCK knew this much and passed it on to her daughter, Sarah Jane (MURDOCK) BLACKWELL and she recounted same to me when I was young ". " Sometime before Archibald HAMILTON, Sr. died in Virginia his youngest son, Archibald HAMILTON, Jr. H-1-8, p. took this valuable family record saying that he would take care of it saying that any time brothers, or sister, Lettice, could see or copy it . Archibald HAMILTON, Jr. and cousins, sons of his uncle ,Andrew HAMILTON, Sr., H-2, p. moved from Augusta county, Virginia to Woodford county, Kentucky. (signed) Elizabeth Jane BUSHEY."

She generously made available to compiler for use in this book her Hamilton-Calhoun genealogical manuscript dated April 4, 1940 containing the excerpts next hereinbefore quoted and has industriously employed herself through 1953, 1954, 1955 and 1956 to add to her own previous HAMILTON-CALHOUN genealogical manuscript which included arduous trips from Pacific to Atlantic Coasts to collect and verify further contributions from her for this book, all in her late" seventies". No one has shown more zeal and unselfishisness in getting this book in circulation for the oldest kin yet living and all other posterity. Appreciation of all her efforts is here commended to readers. 258,476(6)

Elizabeth Jane (BLACKWELL) BUSHEY had bought a burial lot in Upper Long Cane Presbyterian Church cemetery in Abbeville county, South Carolina and has had an marble monument engraved with her full American HAMILTON ancestry and by will has provided for return of her remains from her home in Banning, California to Abbeville, South Carolina for burial there. Her lot is near as she could get to the graves of her great-great-grand parents, Major Andrew HAMILTON and wife, Jane McGARA interred and monumented there..

She was a member of The United Daughters of the Confederacy in Dallas, Texas until her removal to California.

H-1-3-11-1,one of the twins,first born to parents,Andrew M. HAMILTON and wife,Nancy HOGG,the naming by them of a 13th. child being the same as given to the son of twins who were their first born,suggests that their first Andrew had died before the date of birth of their son Andrew M.,III, March 29,1832.

H-1-3-11-14- Mamie T. HAMILTON,pp,188-189,m."in Presbyterian Church in Williamston ,Anderson County, South Carolina Tuesday evening ,Aug. 1874" as the second wife of . Robert E. HILL of Abbeville,South Carolina.

From the will of Andrew M. HAMILTON,H-1-3,pp.188,189 it appears there were four children born of this marriage: 1-Annie. 2-Robert E.,Jr., 3-Olive, 4-Margaret, ("Maggie", "Maggs",

The identity of these children and their father,Robert E. Hill.,Esq.,lawyer of Abbeville,South Carolina, has been made for compiler by a very intelligent elderly kinsmen and neighbor of the family in Abbeville where he was in childhood association with the children which seems convincing that these were the individuals mentioned as the "grandchildren" and"son -in-law,Robert E. HILL,Esq.,of Abbeville,South Carolina". signed by Andrew M. HAMILTON of Toccoa,Georgia,Oct.9,1886,in his last will and testament.

H-1-3-11-14-4- Margaret ("Maggie, "Maggs") HILL m. LAYTON and lived in Gainesville,Florida, where he died about 1944

Mattie T. (HAMILTON) HILL died when her 4th.child was 3 or 4 years old and their father,Robert E. Hill,Esq., married, 3rd. about 1890 Martha ("Mattie" WARD of Petersburg,Virginia and had no children. From the date of Mamie T. (HAMILTON) HILL'S marriage and the approximate date of her husband's next subsequent marriage it seems obvious the 4 children of Mamie T. (HAMILTON) HILL were b. from about 1875 to 1885,-at least,she was dead at date of her father's will, signed Oct.9,1886. Compiler's informant indicated that that the descent of these 4 children was limited to a few members,born or living. 217(f),476(31)

" The HAMILTONS were a fine family,-very intensely Presbyterian and Mr. HAMILTON was a well-known business man in his day." "He continued farming until 1866, when he engaged in grocery business in Mexico, Audrain county, Missouri and came from there to Montgomery City , Missouri and there established a furniture store in which he had engaged for 15 years by 1884 when he there supplied for publication his family's connection back to Augusta county, Virginia an its migration thence to Calloway county, Missouri,-an uncle, Andrew HAMILTON coming by 1829, his father, in 1837

He left information of his uncle, Hugh HAMILTON, H-1-6- settling in Saline county, Missouri. Late in life he suffered business reverses due to over-generous assumptions of obligations of friends and neighbors. He sold a substantial home in Montgomery City, Missouri in "middle 1890s" to Dr. G.E. MUNS, M.D. He was held in such high esteem that creditors who foreclosed and sold his home kept the fact from his knowledge and permitted him to occupy until his death there so that he might dream away his last days in peace. 120(g), 123, 214(a)

Augusta county, Virginia on marriage license dated there April 16, 1800 John HAMILTON , as "daughter of William, deceased, and wife, Patience CRAIG," who as "Patience HAMILTON" signed her consent to the marriage, Jane's brother, John Craig HAMILTON signing her marriage bond. Rev. John McCUE officiated at marriage. This John HAMILTON, husband of Jane, was probably her cousin, John HAMILTON, Jr., H-1-7-2, p.197, son of John HAMILTON, Sr., brother of Jane's father, William HAMILTON, Sr., deceased, H-1-6, p.194 , wife, Patience CRAIG, sons of Archibald HAMILTON, H-1, pp.133- and wife, Frances CALHOUN, emigrants from county Tyrone, Ulster, North of Ireland in 1733, to Lancaster county, Pennsylvania and settled in Augusta county, Virginia before 1740 195(25), 203(95)

H-1-6-9- Andrew HAMILTON, p.194, is identified in the will of his father, William HAMILTON, H-1-6, p.194, signed Jan. 22, 1795 recorded in Augusta county, Virginia by bequest to: "my young son, Andrew", of "my home plantation." He mov- to Calloway county, Missouri in 1829 stopping at Auvasse Creek where he settled 80 acres in Sec. 23 T 49 R 8 and increased his land holdings there to 1,000 acres. He m., first, in Augusta county, Virginia Nancy CRAIG, who d. in Missouri in 1834, daughter of James, Jr. and wife, Jean STUART, who in her will signed Nov. 29, 1816, recorded in Augusta county Virginia in 1817 among bequests made to others, -"to my daughter, Nancy HAMILTON", who was sister of "young Andrew HAMILTON'S brother, John Craig HAMILTON, H-1-6-3, pp. 194- This James CRAIG, Jr. was son of Rev. James CRAIG, Sr., who was b. in "North of Ireland in 1714-15 and who came about 1721 to Chester or Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, brother of Rev. John CRAIG, pastor of Old Stone Presbyterian Church at Twinkling Springs in Augusta county, Virginia, son of Rev. William CRAIG who came to Augusta county, Virginia in 1744.

The STUART family is of Scotch origin. During the reign of James, I, of Scotland, 1583-1625 they removed to Ireland and in 1738 one A. STUART moved to Augusta county, Virginia. This James, I, was the first of the House of STUARTS who ruled England and Scotland until 1629

This James, I, King of England and Scotland , was son of Mary "QUEEN OF SCOTS", for whom Sir James HAMILTON, p. was guardian and Regent of Scotland during her minority, or from 1543 to 1558, from whom the HAMILTONS being listed on this page directly descend. SEE Item 19 page 115 Table of HAMILTON genealogy. Mary, "Queen of Scots" had m., second, Henry STUART ("Lord Darnley") and this King James I of ENGLAND (James VI of SCOTLAND) was their only child.

Andrew HAMILTON, m., second, in Calloway county, Missouri Sept. 17, 1835 Elizabeth CALLISON, who d. in 1863, daughter of Reuben and wife, Elizabeth MITCHELL of Calloway county, Missouri. Ch. It is possible that one or more of these children may have been of his second marriage. Andrew HAMILTON d. in Calloway county, Missouri in 1847. 119(a), 120(g,k), 123, 165(a), 185(d), 195(25), 206(189)

H-1-6-9-1- James L. HAMILTON m. Calloway county, Missouri Oct. 31, 1839 and d. at age of 25 years in about 1843 120(g), 265

H-1-6-9-2- William Craig HAMILTON lived in Audrain county, Missouri . No information became available of his marriage or children, if any. Reference is here made to: J.R. HAMILTON of Mexico, Audrain county, Missouri who m. and named a son: "Russell Morgan HAMILTON "

Their are several uses of the surname, CRAIG, as a Christian name for HAMILTON families early found in Augusta county Virginia and elsewhere. The wife of Rev. John CRAIG and mother of his daughter, Patience, wife of William HAMILTON of Augusta county, Virginia had as her maiden name, RUSSELL, daughter of George RUSSELL.

H-1-6-9-2- - J R. HAMILTON is here tentatively placed as a son of William Craig HAMILTON, H-1-6-9-2, only by reason of both living in or near Mexico, Missouri at periods consistent with their respective ages, William Craig having two sisters, Mrs. Obadiah (Rebecca Jane HAMILTON, H-1-6-7-6,* DISHMAN and Mrs. Hugh L. (Mary F. HAMILTON, H-1-6-7-8, p.197*) WILLIAMS, respectively living in Audrain county, Missouri contemporarily with William Craig HAMILTON, H-1-6-9-2, above. Of all the genealogical research for HAMILTONS ever in the United States of America coming to compilers attention for this book no other branch of Hamiltons has been identified as living in Mexico and Audrain county, Mo as early as the above were found there, unless and until it is proved that J.R. HAMILTON above was not of this group.

This J.R. HAMILTON moved from Mexico, Missouri to San Angelo county, Texas where he became a successful and well known ranchman before moving again to Del Rio, Val Verde county, Texas where he established large ranching interests and with his sons, Russell Morgan and Hal A. HAMILTON in 1904 expanded their ranching operations to McKinney county, Texas. 163(a)

H-1-6-9-2- - - Russell Morgan HAMILTON was educated in public schools of Mexico, Missouri and High School of San Angelo, Texas then began working for his father buying, grazing, feeding and selling Milton sheep .

In 1904 he, his brother, Hal A. and father began the ranching in McKinney county, Texas.. In 1921 Russell Morgan HAMILTON bought individually land in McKinney county, Texas which he expanded to 19,000 acres on which he grazed 5,500 sheep, 1,500 goats and 200 cattle.

In 1925 he bought 22,000 acres in Terrell county, Texas on which he grazed 5,000 ewes, 350 of which being pure bred Rambouilliet sheep from which he reared his own bucks. Large annual sales were made of the wool crop, lambs and old stock. He m. in San Angelo, Texas Nov. 10, 1904 Charlotte SHERWOOD, daughter of A.B., pioneer of San Angelo, Texas and one of the organizers of the First National Bank there. Ch. 1-Day, 2-Gail, Family lived Lolasso and Johnson Streets, Del Rio, Texas. 163(a)

H-1-6-9-3- Hugh HAMILTON lived on father's farm in Calloway county, Missouri until 1839, next worked in Fulton county, Kentucky until his father's death in 1847 when he received his father's farm of 280 acres by bequest to him in his father's will ;moved to that far a year then surrendered possession of it to his step-mother, Elizabeth (CALLISON) HAMILTON;returned to farm in 1863 where he remained past 1884,devoting land to general farming, but principally in stock raising,being successful also in bee-keeping producing 1,000 to 10,000 pounds of honey annually. He served as Captain of a Company of State militia in 1845 and 1846. He had learned carpentry by age 16 years,m. in Calloway county,Missouri Feb.10,1848 Nancy William READ of his parents' neighborhood, a native of Christian county, Kentucky, daughter of William.

Hugh HAMILTON, wife,Nancy and children are recorded on page 420 of the U.S. Census of 1870 for Calloway county county,Missouri, he as "farmer, b. in Virginia, wife,Nancy W.,as b.in Kentucky ,1827-28.Ch.(b. in Missouri) 1-Mary Elizabeth , 1848, d. unm., 2-George,Jan.9,1853, 3-James A., 106(g),119(a,h).

H-1-7- John HAMILTON,p. 136,is named in the will of his father, Archibald HAMILTON,Sr.,H-1,p.133-,signed July 20,1787 recorded at January Session of 1795 in Augusta county,Virginia which bequeated "one third of my plantation, I now possess,-"among other property, " to my beloved wife, Frances " and bequeathed to 6 named of their children,among them: "to my son,John HAMILTON the plantation,I now possess, except my wife's one-third thereof,-lying on Christian Creek in Augusta county,Virginia and all my farm utensils."

John HAMILTON took delivery of two deeds from office of recorder of deeds there Jan.20,1795,-in the administration of the estate of his father,Archibald HAMILTON,Sr.H-1, by his executors,his son,William HAMILTON,H-1-6, pp.13 and 195,and son-in-law, John CUNNINGHAM, husband of his daughter, Lettice HAMILTON, H-1-,p.137 . Both these deeds had been made to said Archibald HAMILTON,Sr. by William BEVERLEY,the date of one being May 18,1783,the memorandum of John's receipt for these two deeds recorded there does not provide the date of the other.Only two deeds to him from William BEVERLY being found of record there it may be assumed that the other was the first deed dated Feb.6,1747 in which Elizabeth BEVERLY, wife of William , joined to release her rights of dower in 302 acres on Christian Creek in Augusta county, Virginia in Beverley's Manor thereof.

From this act by John HAMILTON,H-1-7,p.197,to promptlu/obtain possession of the ownership of his father's property so willed to him as above it may be assumed that these deeds conveyed his father's plantation described in will as " the plantation,I now possess on Christian Creek in Augusta county,Virginia."

John HAMILTON served in the Virginia militia in the Revolution in Captain CUNNINGHAM'S Company of Augusta county, Virginia;signed deed April 5,1779 to James GILLESPIE for land on both sides of Elk Run in Beverley Manor,Augusta county, Virginia;witnessed will Feb.17,1788 for which he appeared in Augusta county Court April 28,1800 to prove it for record; named as one of two executors in the will of his brother, William HAMILTON,H-1-6,194,Jan.22,1795 recorded in Augusta county,Virginia in April Court 1795,being designated as :"my brother,John HAMILTON ";served as appraiser of the estate of John ALEXANDER in Augusta county,Virginia,Feb.25, 1796; is probably the older of two "John HAMILTONS"recorded on page 352 of the U.S. Census of that county for 1810 as head of family composed of : 1 male over 45 years and one female over 45 years,owning 14 slaves. This John HAMILTON , H-1-7, above,m.in Augusta county,Virginia before Nov.15,1785 Johanna ("Joanna") CRAIG, daughter of Rev.John and wife, RUSSELL,daughter of George RUSSELL,Rev.John CRAIG being pastor of Old Stone Presbyterian Church,Twinkling Springs,Augusta county,Virginia. Johanna ("Joanna")(CRAIG) HAMILTON was sister of Patience CRAIG, wife of John's brother, William HAMILTON,H-1-6 . John HAMILTON joined Annalina ATWATERS,Jared WHALING and John King(HOLSTON) in receipting for shares in the estate of Rev.John CRAIGE, deceased Nov.15,1785. Note. These were not all the heirs of Rev. John CRAIG. As this is being written compiler is not sure of listing all the children ,or heirs of John and Johanna("Joanna") (CRAIG) HAMILTON.

By ellimination from having marriages of three sons and four daughters,who survived William HAMILTON and wife, Patience CRAIG, their parents,and from the listing of a considerable descent of these three sons, all of whom moved early to Missouri there seems no probability of duplication listing those remaining in Augusta county,Virginia in the vicinity of Christian Creek as children of John Hamilton,H-1-7, and wife,Johanna("Joanna") CRAIG . With more confidence the remaining Virginia and Eastern States Hamilton retaining the ancestral names,"Craig" and "RUSSELL" as Christian names for Hamilton can be assigned as descendants of John HAMILTON and wife,Johanna("Joanna") CRAIG. The following tentative list of their children is probably very incomplete: 1-James, ,2-John,Jr.

The parents, John HAMILTON and wife, Johann("Joanna") CRAIG apparently spent long lives on the Christian Creek plantation in Augusta county,willed to him by his father, Archibald HAMILTON,who d. on it in 1794 and are buried in Old Stone Church cemetery,Twinkling Springs ,Augusta county,Virginia . 109(a),180,195(25),203(81,95,124,126).

H-1-7-1- James HAMILTON m. Augusta county,Virginia April 9,1794 Belinda HAMILTON,H-1-6-1,p.194 ,which SEE They are recorded on page 352 of the U.S. Census of 1810 for Augusta county,Virginia,he ,as head of family composed of: males,1,under 10 years,1,under 16 and 1,under 45;females: 1,under 16, and 1 under 45 years,owning two slaves. 195(25)

H-1-7-2- John HAMILTON,Jr.m.in Augusta county,Virginia April 17,1800 on marriage license issued there April 16,1800 ,Rev.J. McCUE officiating to Jane HAMILTON, H-1-6-4,p.194 One John HAMILTON is recorded on page 351 of the U.S. Census of 1810 for Augusta county,Virginia , as head of family consisting of :1 male under 10 years,1,under 16 and one under 26,no females .

The John HAMILTON old enough to marry in 1800 would probably have been about 85 years old by June 6,1864 when the following transpired apparently on the very"plantation on Christian Creek,Augusta county,Virginia" inherited by John HAMILTON,Sr.in the will of his father,Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,p.133-136,who d. there in 1794:

"June 26,1864.Staunton,Virginia: Diary. During the Federal occupation several young men belonging to the Cavalry in General Lee's Army,who had come home for horses, called at John HAMILTON'S on Christian Creek . While they were at dinner a dozen Federals came upon them and in resisting a Federal was killed and was taken by his comrades into Hamilton's house and laid upon the bed,who ordered Hamilton to bury him,who refused despite insults and intimidation. They left the body and Hamilton had no alternative but to bury it." . This latter John HAMILTON is evidently a son of John HAMILTON,H-1-7 and wife,Jane HAMILTON, H-1-6-4,p.194-. or possibly their grandson, or nephew. 195(25),203(95),196(b)

Miss Kate HAMILTON,H-1-6-4-1-1-2,p. 195 visiting Staunton,Augusta county,Virginia from California about 1938-39 in search for genealogical data of our emigrant HAMILTONS there from Tyrone county, Ireland and their descendants to date contacted a lady in Staunton who claimed to be a descendant from John HAMILTON,H-1-7 and wife, Johanna ("Joanna") CRAIG.

H-1-7- - - Jesse HAMILTON is recorded on page 412 of the 1850 U.S. Census of Floyd county,Kentucky as head of family ,"farmer,b. Tenn. 1800-01, wife,Perina,b. Virginia,1811-12.Ch.(b.Kentucky) 1-Thomas,1829-30, 2-Lurana,(f), 1832-3, 3-Russell (m),1834-5, 4-Craig (m),1836-7

H-1-7- - 4- Craig HAMILTON received a grant of land from Kentucky March 29,1861 for 50 acres lying on Mud Creek in Floyd county ,Kentucky. 74(p).

NOTE:- The item next above seems traceable as descendants of John HAMILTON,H-1-7,p.197 and wife,Johanna ("Joanna") CRAIG, rather than to other contemporaneous HAMILTONS.

H-1-8- Archibald HAMILTON,Jr.,p.136 ,of Augusta county,Virginia and Woodford county,Kentucky is placed here as the youngest of eight children of parents, Archibald HAMILTON,Sr. and wife, Francss CALHOUN, emigrants from Tyrone count,Ulster,"North of Ireland " to Lancaster county,Psnnsylvania in 1733 and settled on Christian Creek,Augusta county Virginia before 1740 six of which eight children apparently survived their parents among the survivors being Archibald,Jr.,H-1-8, In his father's will dated 1787 and recorded in Jan. 1794 in Augusta,he received only token bequests as did 3 others of his 4 brothers, these 4 sons apparently having received advances of their shares as settlement with them by father in his lifetime. All of 4 sons receiving only token bequests in father's will,except son,William ,had removed from Augusta county,Virginia some years before date of father's will, sons, Audley and Andrew having gone to live in South Carolina and Archibald,Jr. to live in Woodford county,Kentucky. leaving only sons,William and John, and daughter,Lettuce living in the vicinity of their parents. There is one tradition that the share of Archibald HAMILTON,Jr. was paid in lands of Archibald,Sr. acquired in Woodford county,Kentucky.

One informant has asserted that Archibald HAMILTON, Jr. was in Augusta county,Virginia within two years previous to his father's death there. If true,it may have been only a return visit from Woodford county,Kentucky,as there are public records of transactions in the name of this Archibald HAMILTON in the public records of Augusta county,Virginia prior to 1800. This would seem to indicate that he removed to Woodford county soon after attaining lawful age to transact business on his own account. There are records of his other brothers in Augusta county,Virginia.

Upon his original or first departure,if more than one, moving to Woodford county,Kentucky he is reputed to have taken with him a written record by his father of his parents'HAMILTON and CALHOUN ancestry ,including their titles and estates in Tyrone counny,Ireland and Lanarkshire Scotland back to Sir JAMES HAMILTON, Regent of SCOTLAND and guardian for the infant ,Mary, "Queen of Scots" during her disability due to her minority ,assuring his father that he would take good care of it and make it available upon request by other descendants for copying.

Many years later pilgrimages to Woodford county,Kentucky from Augusta county,Virginia and Abbeville District, by his Hamilton and Calhoun kin were organized and locally financed to procure this lost ancestral data.All these and other efforts to date have failed.

Archibald HAMILTON,Jr. received early land grants in Kentucky:(a) in Original Lincoln(now Fayette) county,350 acres May 19,1780 on a branch of Kentucky River;(b)Oct.23, 1780 two grants of 500 acres each,one on Benson Creek,-now in Franklin county,Frankfort, the State Capitol ,being its county seat, the other 500 acres lying on the East Fork of Benson Creek,which creek extends into both Fayette and Woodford counties; (c) took grant Aug.4,1790 for 500 acres on Kentucky River in Mercer county,Kentucky,Aug.4,1790 for 500 acres on East Fork of Benson Creek in Mercer (now Franklin) county ; m. a sister of Louis,XVI, King of France,who had fled FRANCE to Kentucky,disguised as a maid with her jewels upon the outbreak of the FRENCH REVOLUTION in 178_ . Her royal influence in Kentucky is preserved in the name of the county seat of Woodford county,Kentucky," Versailles" where Archibald HAMILTON,Jr.,H-1-8,p.136,lived prior to marriage. Bourbon county,Kentucky probably received its French name through her influence,she being of the royal family of FRANCE. HAMILTON family tradition is: they had 2 sons,but later trace of them ,and their descent,if any, has not been found. One report is that she brought with her a fortune in jewels; another: that she removed from original Augusta county,Virginia with a family of KINCAIDS and Marquis de CHALMERS. SEE Andrew HAMILTON,Jr.,H-2-7,pp.204-207 and wife,Isabella KINCAID of Augusta and Greenbrier counties, Virginia and Woodford county,Kentucky,cousin of Archibald HAMILTON,Jr. 74(24,26,27,109(a),203(124,126)219(c),222, 258,476(6)

H-2- Andrew HAMILTON,p.134,was living on the Calfpasture River in Augusta (now Greenbrier) county,Virginia in 1745 as a neighbor of JOHN LEWIS, son of Andrew LEWIS and wife, Mary CALHOUN,formerly of North of Ireland another neighbor being Thomas KINCAID, when they joined in a petition for survey of a road from Andrew HAMILTON'S Calfpasture through Jennings Gap. Andrew Hamilton signed petition May 23,1750 for survey for a road" from Ezekiel CALHOUN'S to Woods River,thence to top of ridge between Woods River and the South Fork of Roanoke continuing past William HAMILTON,Robert NORRIS and others "; as "Andrew HAMILTON of Calfpasture River" had entries in the fee book of Augusta county,Virginia in months of May, August and November,1751; witnessed deed in Augusta county, Virginia May 20,1752 signed by John and Agnes McCreery conveying to John JUSTICE 224 acres on Newfoundland Creek"; public promotion in 1753 "for a mill on Andrew HAMILTON'S place in Calfpasture District," who had recently settled there. As Andrew HAMILTON he signed a petition in 1753 reading:

"TO THE WORSHIPFUL COURT OF

"We, the inhabitants of this county have long felt the smart of the great indulgence the ordinary-keepers of this county have met with in allowing them to sell such large quantities of rum and wine at an extravagant rate,by which our money is drained from the county, from which we have no return but a fresh supply to pick our pockets.

We, your petitioners, humbly pray your worship to put a stop to the said liquors, which would encourage us to pursue our laborious designs which is to raise sufficient quantities of grain which would sufficiently supply us with liquors and the money circulate in this county to the advantage to us,the same.

We hope that Your Worship will discover to us that you have a real regard for the good of the county, and lay us under an obligation to pray for your propserity."

Thus appears one of the first evidence government economic control,in Augusta..

As "Andrew HAMILTON" he served Aug.18,1756 as appraiser of estate of Thomas Fulton,deceased in Augusta county, Virginia ; served there in 1756 in connection with the administrator of the BIRD estate and Jan.12,1757 receipted for payment to him from the estate of John BIRD,deceased.

Before continuing with biographical sketches of descendants the following seems relevant:

" JOHN LEWIS may properly be called "The Father of Augusta county,Virginia." He came in 1732 as the first white settler . The early story of Augusta county may be divided roughly into three periods of seven years each. JOHN LEWIS fled from Ireland and seven years later Augusta county was formed in 1738. In another seven years its county government was set up in 1745. At the expiration of another seven Governor Robert DINWIDDIE came to Virginia in 1752 and from that time forward the story of the settlement in Augusta county became much more closely connected with that of the Colony of Virginia.

The Scotch-Irish immigration to America followed the seige of Londonderry,the escape of King James to FRANCE and the acceptance of the British throne by William and Mary.

For 50 years there was an exodus of Presbyterians from Ireland to American Colonies,being lured to the new country where they might escape paying tithes to the Church of England. The Presbyterians were the first to come into Augusta county and the Colonial government of Virginia anxious to seat a white population west of the Blue Ridge was lenient in enforcing the Established Church on the Presbyterians and other dissenters in the valley .

The Scotch-Irish migration to the Valley of Virginia was of transcending importance. Most of these stern covenanters were from Ulster"North of Ireland",-just across from Scotland. An eminent historian has said of those who came to Virginia :" The Scotch-Irish were so afraid of God that this fear left in their hearts no room for fear of mortal man." 175(a,b).

JOHN LEWIS of Ireland and Augusta county was the son of Andrew LEWIS,Esq. and wife,Mary CALHOUN of Protestant-French descent from the Huguenot,who had been driven from FRANCE by religious persecution about 1585.

JOHN LEWIS m. Margaret LYNN,daughter of Laird LYNN of Loch Lynn,Scotland . Margaret LYNN descended from a very distinguished old Protestant family of Scotch Highlanders.

John LEWIS was b. Donegal county,IRELAND in 1678 and was educated in SCOTLAND where he had met Margaret LYNN, who became his wife and went with him to his native Donegal county,IRELAND. His tomb at Bellefont,Staunton,Virginia is inscribed:" Here lies the remains of JOH LEWIS, who slew the Irish Lord;settled in Augusta county;located the town of Staunton and furnished five sons to fight the battles of the American Revolution." He d. in Va. Feb.1,1762 He was a brave man, a true patriot and a firm friend of liberty throughout the world. "Mortalitate relicta vivit immortalitate inductus." 163,171(a), 192(a)

"The men who united with LEWIS were they, who themselves or whose sons fought at King's Mountain among whom were MADISONS, PATTONS,PRESTONS,PERKINSES,BRECKENRIDGES, HAMILTONS, KINKEADS and GUYS."

Among those with JOHN LEWIS,or soon after his settlement in Augusta came two brothers from Pennsylvania ,Archibald and Andrew HAMILTON. They were said to be originally from the "North of IRELAND" and descended from James HAMILTON,Earl of Arran ,Regent of Scotland during the infancy (minority) of Mary,"Queen of Scots." 196(b,c),206(a-d)

This Archibald and Andrew HAMILTON were said to be originally from near Bliss Hill,county Tyrone in North of Ireland.

William WRIGHT, grandson of Andrew HAMILTON,H-2 ,pp. 134,198-199, and wife, Martha KINKEAD? KINCAID?),when 80 years old in Bourbon county,Kentucky in 1863 compiled a history and genealogy in manuscript entitled:"Wright-Hamilton Families.",first published in 1935,including his HAMILTON grandparents,their origin,migrations and descendants to 1863,stating that they came to Augusta county,Virginia after a few years sojourn in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania, from county Tyrone,Ulster,North of IRELAND and that his grandmorther,Martha _____ ? was b in county Londonderry, Ireland. 33(26),72(31),

Another descendant of Andrew HAMILTON,H-2,134,198-199 and wife,Martha, emigrants,namely,Jennings Cropper WISE,H-2-7-1-1? p. 206 ,268 in an extensive sholarly research published by him in Vol 233 pp.329,333, 340,351-2 in the Virginia Magazine of History is in agreement with William WRIGHT'S:"WRIGHT-MAILTON FAMILY" manuscript above and these two descendants together provide a list of 8 children of their emigrant ancestors, ANDREW HAMILTON,H-2,pp.134,198 and 198,whose names appear in opposite column of this page,199, descendant WISE reciting also that they m. in Londonderry or Tyrone county,Ulster, North of Ireland and Wright's manuscript alone provides their home being in county Tyrone,Ireland when they started to American Colonies in 1733 195(25)

For the lineage for Jennings Cropper WISE,Hamilton biographer,SEE the marriage in FAYETTE county,Kentucky of Jane P CROPPER to James HAMILTON, June 1s,1822, p. 268 Thomas CROPPER signing as surety on their marriage bond.

H-2-2- Jane HAMILTON m. in Augusta county,Virginia John HODGE,eldest son of Samuel,deceased, late of Calfpasture River there,John being brother of James,-all according to a deed of July 21,1775 by John HODGE to James HODGE, conveying their father, Samuel HODGE'S plantation on Calfpasture river there witnessed by Andrew HAMILTON,H-2, p.198 H-2-7,p.204. 72(31),206(119). John HODGE and wife,Jane HAMILTON reared their family in Rockbridge county,Virginia

Jane is named by her father only in his bequests to: "all my daughters " in his will signed Sept.15,1788 and recorded in Augusta county,Virginia,Sept.21,1790.206(176a).

H-2-3- Mary HAMILTON m.in Augusta county,Virginia James HODGE,younger brother of John, husband of her sister of Jane HAMILTON,H-2-2 above , sons of Samuel HODGE,whose 2 sons,John and James, successively owned their father's plantation there before either son settled in Rockbridge county,Virginia,Andrew HAMILTON, their father-in-law,H-2, or son, their brother-in-law,Andrew HAMILTON,Jr.H-2-7,p.204 witnessing the deed from John and James conveying June 21,1777 their father,Samuel HODGE'S homestead plantation on Calfpasture River in Augusta county,Virginia.

Mary Hamilton's identification in her father's will is only in his bequest to" all my daughters". 206(176a)

One "Mary HODGE" had bequest as "daughter" in will signed Feb.25,1804 by John DUNLAP,recorded in Rockbridge county,Virginia and Mary's son,Samuel HODGE,had bequest in same will,which will also made bequest to"daughter",Eliza - beth GAY and to her son, Robert GAY in 3,000 acres, including town of Chillicothe on the Ohio River .

H-2-4- William HAMILTON, p. 199, "son of Andrew," H-2-, pp.134, 198 and 199, was appointed Nov.21,1767 to serve as officer by Augusta county ,Virginia Court on both Calfpasture Rivers and the waters thereof, 203(119); witnessed deed there Aug.16,1768 signed by John CAMPBELL and wife, Mary Ann to John CARLISLE for 202 acres on Calfpasture River, in part of tract JACOB CLEMONS formerly lived, also 5 acres adjoining said land,-"the way the Big Creek runs, if divided ",- in Augusta county, Virginia. 206(183)

William Hamilton, H-2-4,*199, was planting in 1769 to establish a "cornright" in aid of his claim for a land warrant for land" high on a hillside about one and one-half miles from Frankford, Greenbrier county, Virginia when Col. John STUART arrived from Augusta county, Virginia and bought from William HAMILTON his "cornright" and started building a log cabin by which he became founder and father of Greenbrier county, Virginia . 209 (c) This William HAMILTON, H-2-4, Robert RENNICKS, Robert McLANACHAN and Col. John STUART made the earliest and most important settlement in Greenbrier county, Virginia in 1759 ,-at Frankford, 10 miles northwest of Lewisburg, West Virginia.

The decisive defeat of the Indians in battle of Point Pleasant Oct.10,1774 caused settlers to feel more secure in making more permanent improvements. 209(a).

William HAMILTON, H-2-4 "of Muddy Creek, Greenbrier county, Virginia was recommended by the County Commissioners of that county to the Governor of Virginia for appointment to serve there as Justice of the Peace Feb.12,1778 ".195(65).

William served there March 28,1778 to administer the estate of John STUART (ST WART?) 206(168): served 1780-1781 as Captain of Greenbrier militia; 174(c,d); is recorded in the first Virginia (STATE) Census of 1782-1785 as living in Greenbrier county, Virginia. 18.

In 1808 Major William HAMILTON'S home on Muddy Creek, Greenbrier county, Virginia became one of the few places arranged for Divine Worship in which Rev. John McELHANEY then began,-and continued in Greenbrier county, Virginia until 1870*;-in connection with teaching private school in his own home for 28 families, in 62 years. until death age 87 years. 209(b)

Major William HAMILTON settled in Blue Sulphur Springs region in present West Virginia after selling his "cornright" in Greenbrier county, Virginia to Col. John STUART and his young pioneer friends from Augusta county, Virginia. His farm near Blue Sulphur Springs, then in Greenbrier county, Virginia was later known as "Johnson Farm" on which was bred and raised the great war horse, "Traveller" ridden by General Robert E. LEE 187(e), 209(e). He built his log cabin there in which he lived until his death in 1825, age 81 years.

In connection with application by a widow of a Revolutionary soldier James McCLUNG made oath May 31,1847 reciting his own birth date as July 12,1777 that he had been acquainted with Captain William HAMILTON since the 1780s until death ; that he was a commander of his fort on Muddy Creek in Greenbrier county, Virginia; that part of his Company acted as spies against Indians for several years; " From what I learned from my father and others Major William HAMILTON was looked to as a leader and commander at that time in the fort at Muddy Creek I well remember that my father and all his family were in the fort with him for some length of time for 6 or 8 years. I believe he was commander all that time.

My father was wounded by the Indians. He and a small group of men came to my father's house shortly after our family had left for the fort,-taking a by-path. Captain HAMILTON proceeded to Munday's next down the creek and found him shot, tomahawked and scalped and brought him into the fort.

I was with Captain HAMILTON in his last illness and when he died in Dec. 1825,-* There is no man in whom I have greater confidence than Captain HAMILTON. Isabel (CLEMONS) HAMILTON died in the home of her son, Jacob HAMILTON. William and Isabel HAMILTON had two or more children by 1777, Polly(Mary) and John ". 40(1); George EDGAR added to James McCLUNG'S proof, next foregoing May 18,1853 in Greenbrier county, Virginia stating his age then as 86 years, resident there; that he first visited Captain William HAMILTON and wife, Isabel CLEMONS, in Greenbrier county, Virginia in 1789 and returned in 1791; that they raised a family of children; that their daughter ,Mary ("Polly") HAMILTON was m. to Robert RENICK by Rev. John ALDERSON on a marriage license issued in Greenbrier county, Virginia Dec.23,1790. I do not know whether or not she was their oldest daughter." 40(10)

Andrew HAMILTON, H-2-4-7 made oath in Greenbrier county, Virginia June 29,1847 as "executor of the will of William HAMILTON, wife ,Isabella "-both then deceased, that his father, William HAMILTON, Captain in the spies on Indians in the Revolutionary War that Captain William HAMILTON, d. Dec.9,1825; that his widow, Isabel, d. March 15,1846 that their children all are: Sarah, Andrew and Jacob,-all living in Greenbrier county, Virginia, Mary, wife of Robert RENICK, deceased, John, also dead. The last two died in the State of Ohio, both leaving heirs, the number and names unknown; Martha and Elizabeth ,both married SKILES and are dead, leaving heirs,-number and names unknown. These two died in the State of Kentucky,-also a son, William HAMILTON, who died in Greenbrier county, Virginia, leaving three children." 40(10)

"Major William HAMILTON of Muddy Creek" served as Captain of a company of spies on Indians'-served afterwards as "Major" stationed sometimes on Muddy Creek, Greenbrier county, Virginia. His principal field of labor was protecting the Western frontier of Virginia from ravages by Indians. Andrew HAMILTON, H-2-4-7, next above closed his proof by stating that it was a claim for his mother, Isabel (CLEMONS) HAMILTON'S accrued and unpaid Revolutionary widow's pension, she being born May 9,1771, on father's plantation on Calfpasture River in Augusta county, Virginia, d. March 15,1846, in the large brick mansion house of her son, Jacob Clemons HAMILTON, H-2-4-9, pp. 201, on his father's home plantation near Blue Sulphur Springs now in West Virginia. Her death date was 74 years 9 months and 16 days after her marriage date, or apparently over 90 years old, death occurring in Greenbrier county, Va. (now West Virginia. She had m. William HAMILTON in Greenbrier county, Virginia May 29,1771 as Isabelle CLEMONS. 40(10)

William Hamilton, H-2-4, pp. 199-200, signed will 1825 recorded in Greenbrier county, Virginia by which he gave his lands to his three sons, William, Andrew and Jacob Clemons HAMILTON.

Andrew HAMILTON and Jacob Clemons HAMILTON signed power of attorney in Greenbrier county, Virginia April 25, 1853 as "sons and heirs-at-law of William and Isabel HAMILTON and as then residents of Greenbrier county, Virginia.

H-2-4-2- John HAMILTON m. in Greenbrier county, Virginia (now West Wirginia) and moved to Ohio "where he d. before June 29,1847, leaving heirs whose numbers and names were unknown to his brothers and sisters then living,- in Greenbrier county, Virginia, parents survivors. 40(10)

H-2-4-3- Martha HAMILTON m. SKILES and moved from Greenbrier county, Virginia to Kentucky where husband and wife had "d. before June 29,1847 leaving heirs, whose numbers and names were then unknown to Martha's surviving brothers all of whom still then lived in Greenbrier county, Virginia. 40(10)

H-2-4-4- Elizabeth HAMILTON m. in Greenbrier county, Virginia SKILES, who lived and d. in Kentucky before June 29, 1847 "leaving heirs, the numbers and names of whom were unknown" then to Elizabeth's surviving brothers, remaining in Greenbrier county, Virginia. 40(10).
p. 200

H-2-4-5- William HAMILTON, Jr. received by will of his father, William HAMILTON, H-2-4, p. 200, share with his brothers, Andrew and Jacob Clemons HAMILTON, in all the lands of their father, in 1825. and had three sons surviving their parents June 29, 1847, both parents then being deceased, the 3 childrens' names not appearing in proof of their interest in an unpaid pension due William's widowed mother at the time of her death March 5, 1846 It is probable that the fund was sought by appliant for the accrued pension as a reimbursement for her funeral expenses

The names of these three children of William HAMILTON, Jr. deceased, who had d. in Greenbrier county, Virginia may have included another "William HAMILTON, III" here tentatively next shown as a son of William, Jr.

H-2-4-5-1?- William HAMILTON was serving as Sheriff of Greenbrier county, Virginia in 1849-50 when Monroe county, Virginia (now West Virginia) was created from area formerly in Greenbrier county, Virginia. 40(10), 199(18)

Congressman John M. HAMILTON, 62nd. Congress (1911-1913) is claimed as a descendant of William HAMILTON and wife, Isabel CLEMONS by other descendants without providing compiler with the full linkage between them. He is here listed tentatively in their line:

H-2-4-5-1?-1? - "John M. HAMILTON, a Representative from West Virginia was b. in Weston, Lewis county, Virginia (now West Virginia) March 16, 1855; attended the public schools; recorder of the town of Weston in 1876; studied law; was admitted to the bar in 1877 and commenced practice in Grantsville, Calhoun county, West Virginia; committee Clerk in the State Senate in 1881 and 1882; assistant clerk of the Senate, 1883-1887; resumed the practice of law in 1887; member of the State House of Delegates 1887 and 1888; clerk of the house of delegates 1888-1890; also engaged in banking and served as President of the Calhoun County Bank, 1901-1916; lected as a Democrat to the Sixty-Second Congress (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1913); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1912 and in 1914; resumed the practice of law; served as president of the Calhoun County High School Board d. in Grantsville, West Virginia Dec. 27, 1916; interment in Odd Fellows Cemetery, Old Behtlehem, West Virginia." 303.

H-2-4-6- Ruth HAMILTON, p. 200, m. Andrew Hamilton WRIGHT H-2-6-3-, p. 202, her first cousin, b. Alleghany county, Virginia, July 9, 1780, d. May 9, 1857 in Bourboun county, Kentucky, both being buried in Wright family cemetery two miles southwesterly of Paris, Bourbon county, Kentucky, marked by inscribed grave stones, son of Captain James WRIGHT and wife, Martha HAMILTON, H-2-6, p. 202. Ruth d. there childless, Aug. 12, 1807. 72(31).

H-2-4-7- Andrew HAMILTON, p. 200, had bequest in the will of his father, Maj. William HAMILTON, of Muddy Creek, Greenbrier county, Virginia, H-2-4, p. 200 recorded there in Dec. 1825, jointly with his brothers, William, Jr. and Jacob Clemons HAMILTON, designated in his wills as " my three sons * * * parts of my lands in Greenbrier county, Virginia" Andrew HAMILTON was also named as "son" and "executor" in father's will. As such executor he made proof in Greenbrier county, Virginia" June 29, 1847 as to accrued and unpaid portion of his mother, Isabel (CLEMONS) HAMILTON, deceased pension as widow of Revolutionary soldier' which SEE as above and on page 200 as to Andrew's sisters, all deceased and and of his deceased brother, William HAMILTON, Jr. above, referring to marriages of the sisters and their removals to Clark county, Ohio and to Kentucky, and made proof of the date of his mother, Isabel (CLEMONS) HAMILTON. He recited the names of all his parents children, including a deceased brother, John, as moving to and dying in State of Ohio. This Andrew HAMILTON was living in Greenbrier county Virginia April 7, 1853 when he joined there with his brother, Jacob Clemons HAMILTON in signing a power of attorney in connection with the collection of the accrued and unpaid pension of his mother's Revolutionary widow's pension, reciting themselves in the power of attorney as "sons and heirs-at-law of William and Isabel HAMILTON, deceased. This Andrew HAMILTON is the possible builder in 1840 of the large brick dwelling on the parental estate which he had inherited with his brothers, William and Jacob Clemons HAMILTON in the will of their father, although Jacob Clemons HAMILTON was occupying it at the time their mother died in Jacob Clemons family in it March 5, 1846, or both may have participated in its erection or Jacob Clemons may have built it alone.

This Andrew HAMILTON received bequest in the will of his grandfather, Andrew HAMILTON, H-2, pp 198-207, signed in 1788 of "250 acres in Kentucky to my grandsons, Andrew." 40(10), 206(176a).

H-2-4-8- Sarah HAMILTON, page 200, is listed in proofs by him of his mother's accrued and unpaid widow's Revolutionary pension, at time of her death, Mar. 5, 1846 as as affiant's sister, and mother's daughter dated May 29, 1847 stating her as " sister, Sarah HAMILTON living in Greenbrier county, Virginia." 40(10)

H-2-4-9- Jacob Clemons HAMILTON, p. 200, recorded as "youngest son, b. 1796" of Captain William HAMILTON, H-2-4 and wife Isabel CLEMONS and enumerated in father's will as one of "three sons" to inherit his lands, being "William, Andrew and Jacob C. HAMILTON".

This Jacob Clemons HAMILTON, is obviously the namesake of his mother's father, JACOB CLEMONS, of the Calpasture River in Augusta county, Virginia. The homestead of William HAMILTON and wife, Isabel CLEMONS and children at Frankford, Greenbrier county, Virginia had become the home of the famly of their youngest child, Jacob Clemons MAILTON, before the death of his mother there March 15, 1846 although for a long time after his father's death in 1825 Jacob Clemons had held the land jointly with his brothers, William and Andrew. A large brick residence had replaced the ancestral home it by 1840.

It has long been published that Jacob Clemons HAMILTON sold his parental homestead to Andrew D. JOHNSON in 1855 which by 1861 had passed into the possession of his son, Capt. J. W. JOHNSON and was then known as the "JOHNSON FARM".

On it General Robert E. LEE, when camped in Sewell Mountain, Greenbrier county, Virginia in 1861 saw and admired a horse colt on this farm, which at three years old had already won two blue ribbons at the Greenbrier County Fair. Lee declined the horse as a gift and paid $200 for him and referred to him as "my colt, Greenbrier." Lee rode him under the name, "Traveller" in nearly four years of warfare, -in all his campaigns from Virginia to South Carolina and Georgia and back, in all battles in which Lee is listed. Lee's description of his faithful horse is a classic of animal literature. "Traveller" marched in his master's funeral procession in 1870. Many pictures and paintings of "Traveller" have preserved memories of him."

Feb.29,1776 in Augusta county,Virginia James WRIGHT,b.Bottetourt county,Virginia 1754;settled on Potts Creek,which enters Jackson River from the South at Covington,Alleghany county,Virgina, their home being in Bottetourt county,Virginia .James WRIGHT served as a Captain in the Virginia militia for the Colonies in the Revolution and as an officer in Colonial warfare. He died at his home near Paris,in Bourbon county,Kentucky June 2,1825. For his military services in Virginia he was granted land on Houston Creek two miles southwest from Paris ,in Bourbon county,Kentucky, which he had visited from Virginia several times before moving his family there,being there in 1785 when Bourbon county was created from Fayette county,Kentucky, while still a part of Virginia.He built the first log cabin on his land grant in Kentucky in 1786 , which land had been surveyed for him in 1776 by Col.John FLOYD of Fincastle, Deputy Sheriff of Bottetourt county,Virginia. James completed in 1792 the brick portion of what is now "Rocclican", the beautiful homestead of Judge William Breckenridge ARDERY and wife, Julia Hodge SPENCER of Paris,Kentucky 72(31),,442,446

James WRIGHT was son of Peter ,Jr.,b.Oyster Bay,Long Island,New York early in the 1700s and wife,Jane HUGHART, son of Adam WIGHT,Jr.,son of Adam,Sr.,son of Peter,son of Nicholas,III,son of Nicholas,Jr.,son of Nicholas.

Peter WRIGHT of Jackson River,Augusta county,Virginia , who died in 1793.was the earliest settler on the Great Calfpasture River in Augusta county,Virginia, coming there from Oyster Bay,Long Island,New York in the Spring of 1746 where he became one of the more wealthy men of the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia by 1782. Among his land holdings was a survey and grant of 282 acres covering the bottoms on which the principal part of the present town of Covington in Alleghany county,Virginia was laid out in 1819. This Peter WRIGHT was a soldier in Captain CHRISTIAN'S Company of Regulars commanded by Col. BYRD in 1760. By 1776 he had hunted over and explored the Shenandoah Valley as far as present Tazewell county,Virginia. The South Fork and the North Fork of the Shenandoah Rivers join near Front Royal,Virginia .

Adam WRIGHT,Jr in his will designated himself as "yeoman" (farmer) of East End of the Great Plains in the bounds of Oyster Bay,Long Island ,New York.He d. in 1749.He m. and reared a family there,among them,Peter WRIGHT of Virginia.

Adam WRIGHT,sr. was b. Sandwich,Plymouth Colony (Massachusetts) March 20,1650,d. in Cedar Swamp,Oyster Bay 1696-98, m. Oyster Bay Mary (GEORGE) DENNIS,who died there July 22,1698 . Among their children was Adam,Jr.

Peter WRIGHT,I, was a colonist from Kilverstone Hall, Norfolk county,England,descendant of Sir Thomas WRIGHT there and came to Massachusetts,, m.

Alice WRIGHT, his distant cousin,of the Wright branch descended from Sir John WRIGHT,Lord of Kelvedon Hall,Sussex county,England,b.in England in 1488,d. 1551,Alice being b. England in 1614 and came to America in 1635 to join relatives ,who had preceded her of age 21 years upon her arrival.

Jane HUGHART,wife of Peter WRIGHT was daughter of James of the Cowpasture River,Augusta county,Virginia and wife,Agnes JORDAN. The HUGHARTS descend from the Oyster Bay Colony on Long Island,New York. Among the children of Peter WRIGHT, Jr. and wife,Jane HUGHART were : James WRIGHT, who m.Feb.29, 1776 in Augusta county,Virginia Martha HAMILTON,H-2-6,pp.

Jane (HUGHART) WRIGHT survived her husband Peter and lived on father's farm on present site of town of Covington,Bottetourt (now Alleghany) county,Virginia about 1754. Peter Wright signed will Nov.12,1793,recorded in Bottetourt county,Virginiaat December Court,1793.

James WRIGHT,husband of Martha HAMILTON,H-2-6,pp.199 and 202,took assignment Jan.7,1794 from her brother,William HAMILTON,H-2-4,pp. 200-204,and brother-in-law,William RENICK, husband of her sister,Sarah HAMILTON,H-2-5,pp201-203 as executors of the will of their father,Andrew HAMILTON,H-2,pp.198-, for part of the share of his wife,Martha HAMILTON in the estate of her father,Andrew HAMILTON represented by a debt due Andrew's estate by Simpson MATTHEWS and Thomas HUGHART,which afterwards became the subject of a suit in District Court of Augusta county,Virginia .

James WRIGHT and wife, Martha HAMILTON and family lived on Potts Creek of Jackson River until May 6,1794 when they and their 8 surviving children of then having been born to them,ages 17 years to a five months babe in arms started on their month-long overland removal from Potts Creek in Virginia ,arriving at Paris ,Bourbon county,Kentucky,June 7,1794.

Their journey probably followed Boone's Wilderness Road which was described as of 1775 as "nothing more than a hard-packed trail,formed in decades past by migratory herds of buffalo and wandering bands of Indians", which was the most frequented route of travel by the pioneers advancing from Virginia into Kentucky. In rainy weather the going was really tough. Highways No.11 in Virginia,and 25 and 150 in Kentucky run in proximity to this famous old trail. Some of the beter known stops on the Wilderness Road were:(in Virginia):Staunton,North Branch of James,Bottetourt Court House,Alleghany Mountain,New River,Fort Chinwell,Head of Holston,Washington Court House,Black Horse, Powell Mountain in Virginia,Cumberland Mountain,Tennessee-Kentucky,Logan's Station,Harrod's Station,Bardstown,Falls of the Ohio (Louisville) .

H-2-6-5- William WRIGHT m. Dec.5,1814 Eliza Ann Davis JACKSON,b. Maryland June 29,1791,d.Aug.8,1854, daughter of Dr. John JACKSON,M.D.,native of Ireland,educated in Edinburgh,Scotland,later emigrating to Pennsylvania where he m. Ann DAVIS and removed thence to Bourbon county,Kentucky.

Col.William WRIGHT was a man of more than ordinary ability. He acquired a good education and taught school for several years. He enlisted for service in in War of 1812 as commander of a Regiment from Kentucky;served Bourbon county in Kentucky Legislature of 1854;never sought office; was a member of and served as elder in Presbyterian Church sustaining character as an upright Christian gentleman.In 1814 he moved to a farm near Paris,Kentucky where he lived 66 years until his death there,June 11,1880,age 96 years 6 months and 6 days.87(h). At this farm home in 1863,-in his 80th year he completed and left a manuscript entitled: "Wright-Hamilton Families " , a genealogy from our European Hamilton ancestry,beginning with his emigrant ancestor,Andrew HAMILTON,H-2,pp.198 and wife,Martha _______,she being b. in Londonderry county,Ulster,"North of Ireland" whose maiden name his manuscript does not give but had married in "North of Ireland" before coming to Lancaster county,Pennsylvania in 1773 with his brother,Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,pp.133-136 and wife,Frances CALHOUN.

William WRIGHT'S manuscript states that his ancestors, Andrew HAMILTON and wife Martha,came to Pennsylvania from "Terrone",Ireland, meaning county Tyrone,Ulster,"North of Ireland" in 1773 and removed thence to Augusta county,Virginia about 1738. His manuscript lists somewhat completely genealogica data of his parents,his mother,Martha, being their sixth child , from their departure from county Tyrone,Ireland in 1733 until 1863, the date of his manuscript.

Research by compiler and many able and enthusiastic genealogical researchers for Hamilton family ancestry anywhere to date in United States,Ireland,Scotland and England have found no information except this manuscript to so definitely locate emigrants,Andrew Hamilton,H-2 and brother, Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,pp.133- , before coming to American Colonies in 1733.

To this William WRIGHT who compiled this manuscript so late in life and to Mrs. William Breckenridge(Julia Hodge SPENCER) ARDERY,Paris,Bourbon county,Kentucky who found and published this gem of rare Hamilton genealogy back so early and at a source so far away, covering 130 years of descendants in United States of America compiler feels gratitude beyond his power of expression. The valuable manscript had remained in practical oblivion for 72 years until rescue by Mrs.Ardery. The origin of many other Hamiltons emigrating early to American Colonies were in the counties of Tyrone, Antrim, Donegal and Londonderry,Ulster,North of Ireland ,all adjoining contiguous or in the region of each other.Most of the Hamiltons found in Ulster,North of Ireland after about 1600 A.D. were there lately fron counties,Lanark,Ayreshire or Island of Arran in southwest Scotland, previously seated in Bucks and Leicester counties,England,whose ancesters were seated much earlier in Normandy and France. H-2-7- Andrew HAMILTON,Jr.,p.199,was among the"HAMILTONS,KINKEADS(KINCAIDS) and GAYS(GUYS) of Augusta county Virginia and HALES of Fauquier county,Virginia who crossed the mountains and settled in Woodford county, Kentucky." where they joined "the Pisgah Settlement" near Pisgah Church there in 1821,which was eight miles west of Lexington,now in Fayette county,Kentucky and five miles from Versailles,present county seat of Woodford county,Kentucky on waters of Shannon River, a few miles from the line dividing Fayette and Woodford counties,Kentucky.This Andrew HAMILTON was ancestor of"the late John S. WISE"

Andrew HAMILTON,Jr.served as Ensign under Captain William KINKEAD,his father-in-law. He was b.in Va. and died in Woodford county,Kentucky in 1820.He was recruited into Augusta county,Virginia militia,Aug.18,1878 and took the oath as Ensign as "Andrew HAMILTON,Jr." Sept, Sept.5,1778. He had qualified there earlier in 1778 as surveyor.

Pisgah Church,located as above in Kentucky,was organized in 1782. Rev.Thomas HAMILTON conducted correspondence there from 1807-1813.

Two thousand people gathered July 13,1935 in a "Pisgah Church and School History Pageant" composed largely of descendants of pioneers in the early community forming around Pisgah Church and included Mrs. Perry HAMILTON, Hughes HAMILTON and Miss Jane HAMILTON .

The pageant started by re-enacting the scene of the organization of the church in 1790 and were seen as in attendance at its services in 1790.

After the Revolution was under way the Indians were urged by secret agents of the British to harrass the American Colonists , who sought volunteers to resist Indian attacks in Augusta and Bottetourt counties,Virginia and in the region of Fort Pitt to march on the Shawnee Indian towns and compel them to neutrality. The people were not in sympathy with the plan and the men were not willing to enlist. The militia officers decided to enlist to encourage enlistment. The chief officers in Greenbrier county,Virginia agreed to cast lots as to who should command the Company and it fell to Andrew HAMILTON as Captain and William RENICK Lieutenant of 40 men,-all available recruits. After many misfortunes,disappointments,hazards, endureance and provident arrival of reinforcements at Fort Donnelly being beseiged by Indians, they withdrew ending rendezvous in Greenbrier county,Virginia in May 1778."

Andrew HAMILTON,Jr. signed as surety for marriage in Augusta county,Virginia Dec.20,1785 for John CLAYTON's marriage to Margaret RICE,widow; sold his estate of 185 acres on the Calfpasture River in Augusta county,Virginia Dec.30, 1790, which land had been devised to him in his father's will,conveying it by deed to Thomas HUGHART when Andrew,Jr. moved to Woodford county,Kentucky where he'settled on land also inherited from his father.Andrew,Jr.m.in Virginia Isabella KINKEAD,b.Augusta county,Virginia April 19,1762,daughter of Captain William.In April 1791 his wife,Isabella, was privily examined in Woodford county, Kentucky before George BLACKBURN and John FINNEY relative to her waiver of her dower rights in lands sold by her husband,Andrew HAMILTON,Jr. in Augusta county,Virginia lands Dec.30,1790.

Captain William KINKEAD b.Jan.10,1736 and d. May 13, 1821. His home in Augusta county,Virginia was at Tinkling Springs on the Cowpasture River near the present site of Staunton,Virginia. He too sold his farm in Augusta county, Virginia about 1788 and removed with the family of his son-in-law,Andrew HAMILTON,Jr. and his wife,daughter of Captain William KINKEAD, as above to Woodford county,Kentucky.

"It is said by his descendants that Captain William KINKEAD descended from the anceint Scottish family ,KINCAID, which has had its seat from the ancient Scottish family,Kincaid ,in Sterlinghsire since the time of Edward,the First."* * * " That his forebears were Scotch and that they came to Virginia from Scotland by the way of Ireland,there is no doubt. " " The name appears in the records as Kinkeade,,Kinkead,Kincaid, Kinkade,Kincade,Kingeade ."

"* Captain William KINKEAD'S father was Thomas KINKEADE,who came to Augusta county,Virginia in 1747 from Lancaster county,Pennsylvania. He bought 250 acres on Calfpasture River there from John PRESTON,Robert LOCKRIDGE and Robert GIVENS on Nov.19,1747. He died intestate in 1750, leaving a widow, whose Christian name was Margaret and a number of children of whom Captain William was the eldest.Other children perhaps included:Thomas,David,Winnifred,John and Elizabeth. Captain William KINKEAD as a minor orphan had guardian appointed in Augusta county,Virginia March 17,1753. Robert BRATTON and William HAMILTON were surety on his guardian's bond. A Rev. John KINKEADE appears frequently in the public records of Augusta county,Virginia about the dates next above.

John KINKEAD who identified himself in October 1754 as "late Clerk of the county of Chester,Pennyslvania" in a conveyance he received of lands in Augusta county,Virginia; as "Clerk" July 17,1745 from James PATTON and John LEWIS.

John KINKEAD and wife,Elizabeth, conveyed 106 acres of the same land to Andrew KINKEAD for 40 pounds on Aug.21, 1770. Thomas KINKEAD, the elder and William KINKEAD were neighbors and friends of JOHN LEWIS and his son,Andrew LEWIS both of whom were styled,"Gentlemen" in the public records .

That title had a distinct meaning in Colonial days. They were constantly associated with Archibald and Andrew HAMILTON, two of the leading men in Augusta county,Virginia, not only in business,but in social and church affairs, and William KINKEAD and Andrew HAMILTON were trustees together of the same kirk."

"  Only men of the highest standing in the community were entrusted by their people with the management of church affairs."

"  In the year 1764 William KINKEAD,-later Captain KINKEAD ,lived near the source of the Big Cowpasture River, Augusta county,Virginia, his family consisting of himself, and his wife, Eleanor GUY (GAY)' and two children,a boy and a girl."

" * * * The story is, that because of the insecurity of the times,the neighbors had brought their valuable possessions to KINKEAD'S house,-it being a larger and safer place than their own dwellings. This fact became known and lead the Indians to attack.

On April 14,1764 Kinkead being out on his farm, his house being beset by a party of savages. His wife finding that escape was impossible,- with extraordinary heroism assisted the Indians in their hurried preparation to leave so that they might get off before her husband's return and danger to his life be avoided. When he came back his wife and children had been carried off. Nothing was heard of the captives until after Bouquet's treaty of Nov.1764 when Mrs. Kinkead and other prisoners were delivered up in pursuance of the stipulation.. She carried in her arms an infant daughter, ,b.July 25,1764,during her captivity. Her account of the two other children was that the boy kept up with the party on their return to Ohio ,-for several days, but he was put in the immediate charge of a young Indian,who seemed to take pleasure in tormenting the child, by pushing him back and forcing him to re-climb banks and steep places. By this system of treatment the little captive became exhausted and unable to proceed as at first. He was then tomahawked and killed in his mother's presence,one of the Indians having the humanity to cover her eyes that she might not witness the spectacle. The daughter was separated from her mother about the time her infant was born . Her name was Isabella. She was not recovered by her parents for some time after her mother's release.

When brought to the rendezvous she was dressed in skins and clung to the skirts of a squaw.So changed was she in appearance that her mother failed, at first, to recognize her,but finally identified her by a scar on her foot where she had been bled. She grew up and married Andrew HAMILTON, Jr.,H-2-7,pp.204,and had many descendants. Mrs. Kinkead stated that the Indians treated her with great kindness.

In March 1773 Captain William KINKEAD was mentioned in association with Andrew HAMILTON and others as trustees of a congregation of dissenters on the Calfpasture River in Augusta county,Virginia. From this entry we should judge that he was more liberal than most of his countrymen there.

Before removing to Kentucky William KINKEAD commanded a company of militia in the Revolution. In March 1777 he was sent out from Staunton,Augusta county,Virginia with his company to garrison a frontier block-house on the Monongalia River, and on Sept.15,1787 he qualified as a captain.

In 1781 he commanded a company in Col. Sampson MATTHEWS regiment and served with it about Fredericksburg and Portsmouth,Virginia. The regiment,therefore,was in Eastern Virginia when the Battle of King's Mountain was fought."

Captain William KINKEAD m. Nov.30,1756 Eleanor GUY (sometimes spelled "GAY"),who was b.Aug.17,1740 and d.Oct. 15,1825. Her maternal grandfather was in the seige of Londonderry,Ireland, 1688-1690, and battle of the Boyne."

Andrew HAMILTON,Jr.H-2-7,pp.204-07,may be the person who was joint party to a suit for land in Circuit Court of Fayette county,Kentucky in the taking of evidence there Aug.2,1804 in which he personally cross-examined witnesses as to a "lick" of animals before witness first visited in 1780 the tract of land called "Blue Lick" or "White Oak Lick" on a branch of "Clay Lick",- a clay lick about 3 or 4 miles west of "Clay Lick"on Silver Creek. This Andrew HAMILTON,Jr. may be the identical person who on June 17,1780 made entries and received two grants of 500 acres each in original Jefferson county,Kentucky,-one lying on Silver Creek,the other in "Brooke's Settlement."

Andrew HAMILTON is recorded on page 58 in the U.S. Census of Versailles,Woodford county,Kentucky in 1820 as head of a family of 8 whites and having 14 slaves .

THOMPSON FAMILY OF SCOTLAND, IRELAND, PENNSYLVANIA, AUGUSTA COUNTY, VIRGINIA AND ABBEVILLE DISTRICT, SOUTH CAROLINA.

T- MATTHEW THOMPSON, Sr. "of Scotch descent" emigrated from IRELAND to Pennsylvania where he remained several years; moved thence to near Old Stone Presbyterian Church, Tinkling Springs in Augusta county, Virginia not far from present city of Staunton, Virginia, settling there by or before Aug.30, 1743 when he took deed to 400 acres on Mill Creek of Shenandoah River cornering with Robert HOOK and William WILLIAMS, 5 years after Augusta county was created, a governmanet for the county not being operative until 1745 ; was assessed for 14 tithables March 18, 1746 in an order for "opening a road in Augusta county, Virginia" from top of the ridge to John THERALD and James BEARD'S homes"; Virginia land patented was issued March 5, 1947 jointly to Matthew THOMPSON, Sr. and Matthew THOMPSON, Jr. for land on Stoney Lick Branch in Augusta county, Virginia; Matthew THOMPSON signed May 17, 1749 as surety on bond of Robert SCOTT and Robert HOOK as executors of the will of Samuel SCOTT and Matthew served July 4, 1749 appraiser of the estate of said Samuel SCOTT; description of land in Beverley's Manor in Augusta county, Virginia containing 202 acres signed May 17, 1749 reads,-in part:"  beginning at corner of Matthew THOMPSON's land,-in line of Robert ARMSTRONG'S land'-corner of Robert CHRISTIAN'S land " ; as "Matthew THOMPSON" signed will March 12, 1753 recorded in Augusta county, Virginia May 16, 1753 naming :"wife, Martha", "sons, William and John".; "legatee, John DAVISON", "daughter, Margaret's 5 children"; "grandson, Matthew", "executor, son, Matthew", who gave as sureties on his bond as executor: Patrick FRAZER and James BEARD. Witnesses to the will were: Patrick FRAZER, Mary THOMPSON and George VANCE.. arrangement of children of Matthew THOMPSON, Sr. and wife, Martha is more or less arbitrary in absence of dates of birth. No guardianships for minor children of Matthew, Sr. are available. From" daughter Margaret " having 5 children as beneficiaries of their grandfather's will it may be assumed that she was dead, and probably their oldest child. The naming first among children, "sons, William and John" that they were also among older children, one probably the "grandson, Mathhew" named in grandfather's will and from evidence that he was not the son of :"son, Matthew THOMPSON", Jr. indicates William or John THOMPSON as older children, and William will be arranged herein as second surviving child of Matthew, Sr. and John as third surviving child. "John DAVISON, legatee" in the will of Matthew, Sr. is not designated as "grandson". For convenience,- it is here assumed that his mother had married DAVISON and both had died and a fourth child, deceased, is assumed leaving :"son Matthew THOMPSON, executor, so designated in Matthew's will, as the youngest surviving child of a family of six or more children who grew to maturity. Appraisment of estate devised in Matthew's will was filed in Augusta county, Virginia.

The following Thompson section of this genealogical book is devoted to the life of Matthew THOMPSON herein recorded as "Junior" and noted as sixth of his parents' children. Had the THOMPSON Family been studied by compiler as a principal chapter in this book while he had access to the published early records of Augusta county, Virginia,- it seems probable that a considerable descent could have been gleaned and presented herein as descendants of the sister and brothers of Matthew THOMPSON, Jr. and regret is here expressed that the opportunity was not realized and pressed further before closing this THOMPSON FAMILY chapter. 158, 203(3, 4, 120a, 130a, 137); 206(56b, 89, 121, , 24, 127, 257, 476(73)

T-6- Matthew THOMPSON, Jr. is probably the individual (a) referred to in public records of Augusta county, Virginia before his removal therefrom to Abbeville District, South Carolina by 1773, if such record is of date after the death of his father there between March 12 and May 16, 1753. The items recorded in Augusta county, Virginia relating to Matthew THOMPSON prior to 1754 include a land patent issued for land there March 5, 1747 to "Matthew Thompson, Sr. and Matthew THOMPSON, Jr." jointly being for land on Stoney Lick Run; as "Matthew THOMSPON, Jr." took deed May 17, 1749 from Robert SCOTT for land on "Stony Lick Creek, patented to said Robert SCOTT May 5, 1747; 203(126b); witnessed deed Aug.20, 1753 conveying "400 acres on north side of the southermost branch of North River of Shenandoah,-in Augusta county, Virginia; 206(41); served in Augusta county, Virginia militia in 1755; 185 ; a deed was signed by John ANDERSON and wife, Jane conveying to Matthew THOMPSON 400 acres on Mill Creek of Shenandoah River in Augusta county, Virginia said land being patented to Andrew McCONNELL Aug.30, 1743, Matthew THOMPSON'S connection with it being in Nov.1769, wher he took posession of the deed as then recorded, that tract of land being further recorded as "cornering with lands of Robert HOOK and William WILLIAMS and deeded to John ANDERSON by patentee, McCONNELL, which Matthew THOMPSON, Jr. and wife, Rachel (ALLEN) THOMPSON conveyed May 25th., 1771 to Robert HILL. 203(137), 206(89, 122)

Matthew THOMPSON, Jr. witnessed in Augusta county, Virginia: will signed by Robert CRAVENS Oct.7, 1761 ; served there as appraiser of an estate July 7, 1762; took deed Nov.17, 1761 from Thomas SHIELDS and wife, Alice, for 200 acres in Beverley Manor, Augusta county, Virginia "cornering with Thomas BLACKWOOD, Robert and John HUNTER, Andrew ALEXANDER and William DEAN, the deed being delivered to Matthew THOMPSON in November, 1776. A petition Nov.16, 1763 " to open a road on branch of Black Creek, called "Valley",-opposite John MILLER'S on Jackson River,-road usually led from a ford of the South River above Jospeh HANNAH'S over COLE'S Ford on the Middle River and from there to homes of Matthew THOMPSON, Robert SCOTT, Patrick FRASER, James BRUSTER (Brewaster?), Robert HOOK, John DENNISTON, William HOOK, J. MADISON, John Stephenson, Archibald HUSTON, John CRAIG, John DAVISON, Sr., John DAVISON, Jr., Patrick WILSON and Robert SHANKLIN. 203(33) . Matthew THOMPSON served as reviewer of above described road June 27 1763. 203(10). He witneess deed July 17, 1765 conveying land in Augusta county, Virginia described as "on Jackso River and Indian Camp Branch in that county. In a deed there to Matthew, Jr's brother, John THOMPSON, T-3, this page Aug.19, 1766 he acquired "255 acres on Christian Creek in Augusta county, Virginia" cornering with lands of Matthew THOMPSON, SAWYER, Robert WILSON and William BROWN." 203(124a), 206(72a).

In description of land in a deed March 16, 1768 by Robert SCOTT he conveyed to James SCOTT " 196 acres on Collins Branch extending to an oak near William BEARD'S land in Augusta county, Virginia, patented July 7, 1742 by Robert SCOTT" and referred to as "owned March 16, 1768 by Matthew THOMPSON". 206(81). Matthew Thompson joined his brothers, William THOMPSON, T-2, this page, and John THOMPson March 21, 1769 in witnessing a deed from John ALEXANDER to James ALEXANDER conveying land on head branches of Naked Creek in Augusta county, Virginia. 206(83a).

Matthew THOMPSON signed Jan.23, 1772 as surety on bond of Margaret SHIELDS and Thomas SHIELDS in Augusta county, Virginia as executors of the will of John SHIELDS, deceased of that county. 206(161).

Matthew THOMPSON, Jr. was a member of the Old Stone Presbyterian Church at Tinkling Springs, Augusta county, Virginia in the region of Staunton, Virginia .

As "Matthew THOMPSON, late of Augusta county, Virginia now of Granville (since Abbeville) county, South Carolina" signed deed Sept.6, 1773 conveying to Felix GILBERT "land on Stony Lick Creek Lick Creek in Augusta county, Virginia patented to Matthew THOMPSON, Sr. and Matthew THOMPSON, Jr. March 5, 1747. 203(137), 206(98). As "M. THOMPSON and Robert THOMPSON of Granville county, South Carolina signed deed there conveying land in Augusta county, Virginia patented to Matthew THOMPSON, Sr. and Matthew THOMPSON, Jr. March 5, 1747. 206(7); As "Matthew THOMPSON and wife, Rachel THOMPSON, of Granville county, South Carolina" signed deed there Sept.10, 1773 conveying to Michael LEESE land in Augusta county, Virginia patented to Robert SCOTT March 5, 1747 and deeded by Robert SCOTT to Matthew THOMPSON, also land in Augusta county, Virginia patented to Matthew THOMPSON March 16, 1771. 203(140).

Matthew THOMPSON,Jr. emigrated with his family from Augusta county,Virginia between Jan.23,1772 and Sept.6, 1773 when he was settled on land in Abbeville Disthict, South Carolina on a tract of land on the waters of Little River where he lived until and during the Revolution,which tract later became known as the "Crawford Plantation ".

In order to secure his family from the ravages of the Tories and Indians he removed them to a fort near Loundsville,Abbeville District,South Carolina for safety. In doing so he exposed himself to the inclemencies of the weather which brought on him a disease that ultimately terminated his life.He was buried at a place called "Bulltown"near what became known as Penniel Church. He had transferred his membership from Old Stone Presbyterian Church in Augusta county,Virginia to Rocky River on the waters of Beaver Creek which was 18 to 20 miles from his "Crawford Plantation" homestead.

Rachel (ALLEN) THOMPSON,his second wife,was a Presbyterian regularly attending Rocky River Church every Sabbath in old Pentleton(later Anderson) District,South Carolina, which designates that she was not only a pious woman but also active and of robust constition possessing energy worthy of attention by her descendants. At her death she was buried by the side of her husband at Bulltown,South Carolina. Their graves there can not be identified now. 284

South Carolina's Stub Entries for Revolutionary Claims reads: " Issued to Mr. Matthew THOMPSON 14th.Dec 1785 for 28 pounds 4 shillings and 3 pence Sterling for a horse ,saddle bridle and gun,also military duty.Acct.Audited,Principal 28 lb.4 s. 3d.Interest 1 lb.19 s.5d. 145(c), Matthew THOMPSON,Jr ,T-6,p.209 died in the 1780s " The above authentically establishes that he served during the Revolution in the militia and that as of Dec.14,1785 he was still alive and had the above claim paid to him," .About 1786 Rachel (ALLEN) THOMPSON ,as widow of Matthew THOMPSON, Jr. ,T-6,p.209 took out a land warrant in Pendleton District, South Carolina located on the west side of Rocky River on the waters of Beaver Creek where it flows into Rocky River,- then all in woods,- a great grazing region for stock of all kinds and its productive powers have since been very great". Her homestead was near the river side. She d. before the marriage of her youngest son,James THOMPSON,T-6-8 March 26, 1789." 158,257,284,476(53) She is buried beside her husband.

T-6-4- Matthew THOMPSON'S career so far as learned at the time this is being written is contained in the following lengthy quotations:" After the surrender of Charleston,South Carolina in the Revolution the people being still in old Pickens Block House for fear of the Indians fell short of corn when the following men were sent with wagons to Coroneaco Creek  to get a supply: Hugh PORTER, father of Alexander,Pastor of Cedar Springs Church,Jared LIDDELL,E. CRAWFORD,Andrew WHITE, MATTHEW THOMPSON ,James BEARD and SMITH,-the last three being lads,one of the brothers of ANDREW PICKENS and others * * . They had crossed McCORD'S Creek early in the forenoon and were ascending a hill when attacked by a party of Tories under John CRAWFORD,who shot E.CRAWFORD, Hugh PORTER and PICKENS on the spot,taking the others prisoners to Saluda then beyond to Cherokee Indian line and delivered them to the Indians,who put most of them to death in cold blood,including Andrew WHITE,age 17 years,reports coming back that they were burned to death. The three lads,BEARD,SMITH and THOMPSON were spared or escaped after being put in a ring to be shot."55(c).

This son, Matthew THOMPSON,IV.,T-6-4, was of an adventurous nature. He was taken prisoner by the Indians during the Revolutionary War, and such was their cruelty to their prisoners that many of them were put to death by torture with pine fagots stuck into their bodies and set on fire. Having witnessed the scenes so often in camp, and believing that the time had come for his death,from the preparation his captors were making,Matthew feigned illness and on that account was allowed to pass in and out of camp under guard. He secured a bridle, hid it in his bosom, then selected the best horse in camp. The first opportunity that presented itself, he mounted his chosen steed and dashed away, amidst a shower of shot and lead, being pursued by the savages for four days and nights together. Such was the nature of the country that a horse could be tracked by the grass in the woods, and he had to conceal himself in the day time and travel by night. As an aid to him in his travels, he would feel the bark of the trees to indicate to him the direction, North or South, and by star light he traved for nine nights. At times he traveled in water courses, to evade his pursuers, and after nine days and nights, living on the curls of grape vines, buds and barks of trees, he succeeded in safely reaching his friends. It is not recalled whether he married or not and save the thrilling adventures next hereinbefore outlined little is known of him."

As to the other"grandson, Matthew THOMPSON" of Matthew THOMPSON,Sr ,T ,p.209, named in his will signed March 12,. 1753; other Thompson family genealogical material becoming available to compiler indicates he was cousin of the Matthew THOMPSON,IV, next hereinbefore herein recited, as Matthew THOMPSON,IV. of Augusta county, Virginia and Abbeville District, South Carolina could not have been born at the date above of the will of his grandfather, Matthew THOMPSON,Sr.,T-p.209. These other references indicate that Matthew THOMPSON,IV, was son of Matthew THOMPSON,Jr.,T-6,pp.209, by his first marriage to Mary FRASER, and was their 4th. child, the 2nd marriage of Matthew,Jr. was Sept.20,1762 to Rachel ALLEN in Augusta county, Virginia and "History of THOMPSON FAMILY" of 1867 gives a complete list of the children born to Rachel including no "Matthew THOMPSON" but that history lists a "Matthew THOMPSON" as 4th. child of Matthew THOMPSON,Jr. and his first wife, Martha FRASER.

T-6-5- Rachel THOMPSON,p.210,m., first, in Abbeville District, South Carolina George LIDDELL, who signed will Dec.28, 1789 recorded in Abbeville District, South Carolina naming as executors, Moses LIDDELL and Captain John NORWOOD, Moses LIDDELL having come from Maryland to Abbeville District about 1767 accompanied by his nephew, William LIDDELL, b. Annapolis, Maryland March 10,1762, son of John LIDDELL and wife Rachel. This William LIDDELL is probably a brother of George LIDDELL, first above named in this paragraph. William grew to manhood in Abbeville District and m. there Ruth KEITH whose parents had come from Pennsylvania and settled 12 miles west of Abbeville, South Carolina where William and Ruth's son was b. 1-Daniel ,Feb.16,1786. This Daniel LIDDELL m. in Abbeville District in 1806 Isabella LIDDELL, sister of Moses and finally settled in 1824 on Beaver Creek in Gwinnett county, Georgia, where Archibald HAMILTON,III, of Abbeville and Pendleton Districts, South Carolina,H-1-3-2,pp. had removed and settled about 1812 with his wife, Nancy THOMPSON,T-6-7,p. 210 ,with their large family ,Nancy being second younger sister of Rachel(THOMPSON)LIDDELL of this paragraph .64(o). George LIDDELL'S will made bequests to: "wife, Rachel"; "children, 1-James Thomas, p.212, 2-George Washington, 3- unborn child by his will he conveyed: "plantation by Seneca River, South Carolina." Andrew LIDDELL was a witness to this will. 152 pp.301,302,413, 284.

James LIDDELL and wife, Esther, were apparently the parents of this George LIDDELL, as by will of James LIDDELL of July 6,1791, recorded in Abbeville District James made bequests, among others, to: "wife, Esther LIDDELL" and to George LIDDELL'S son, James Liddell." 152 p. 413.

Rachel (THOMPSON) LIDDELL m., second, after George LIDDELL'S death to John MILLER, who in his will signed July 25, 1811, recorded in Abbeville District Dec.28,1811 named as his executors: "wife, Rachel" and "son, Andrew MILLER " and made bequests from his estate of "200 acres on waters of Twenty-Three Mile Creek in Pendleton District, South Carolina," naming: "children: 4-Andrew, p.212, 5-Matthew Thompson, 6-George, 7-John, 8-Esther, 9-Mary, 10-Isabella, ,11-James, 12-Allen Thompson, p.212, 13-William, ,14- Lucinda, ." and to : "stepson, Washington LIDDELL", -meaning: "George Washington LIDDELL,T-6-5-2, 152 pp.301,302.

Margaret Hartgrove (THOMPSON is entitled to much credit from THOMPSON and BASKIN descendants listed herein for gathering, verifying and supplying to Rev.William Franklin PEARSON, T-6-8-7-2, p.213 for his use in compiling in 1867 in manuscript his "History of the THOMPSON FAMILY."being also aided greatly in completing that manuscript by similar services from Margaret Hartgrove THOMPSON'S sister, Rachel Anderson THOMPSON, T-6-8-6, p.213 , wife of Andrew Norris McFALL. These two daughters of James THOMPSON, T-6-8, p.210, and wife, Elizabeth McGILL and Rev.William Franklin PEARSON also included in sources to which credit was due for enabling him to compile his "History of THOMPSON FAMILY" the wonderfully complete records and traditions of his Thompson ancestry back to Pennsylvania and that these "Thompsons claimed themselves as Scotch-Irish." Many of the earliest records in Augusta countv, Virginia identify his father, Matthew THOMPSON, Jr. T-6, p.209 and grandfather, Matthew THOMPSON, Sr. T-p.209, the latter being there as early as 1743, the former in 1747 and other records show that Matthew , Sr. emigrated to Pensylvania some years earlier from N.Ireland

Captain William BASKIN,Jr. was son of William and wife,Mary STUART, who came together as emigrants from Ulster,"North of Ireland" and were settled in the "Scotch-Irish Settlement " in Augusta county,Virginia soon after it was opened for settlement in 1738. Four of the sons, and widow and children of a fifth son of William BASKIN,Sr. and wife,Mary STUART followed closely on the migrations of the CALHOUNS and Major Andrew HAMILTON,H-1-3,p.138-143,from Augusta county,Virginia to Granville county(since Abbeville District,-and county), South Carolina to Long Cane Creek there, where "Calhoun Settlement" began in 1756,Hamilton by 1765-the Calhouns being the first white settlers in that region of Upper South Carolina. One of these Baskin brothers returned to Augusta county,Virginia after living a few years in this region in South Carolina, the other three BASKIN brothers and the widow and children of the 5th.or deceased BASKIN brother remaining and rearing large families of descendants in Upper South Carolina, whence these descendants have "fanned out" widely over the nearer, and more remote States of the Union being especially numerous in early North Georgia settlement, especially in Jackson (since Gwinnett) county,Georgia and as pioneers at Hickory Level in Carroll county,Georgia soon after opening of Carroll county,Georgia for white settlers in 1827. This Carroll county BASKIN family has ever since maintained a high standard of citizenship and have merited the great respect they have always been accorded there. One member of it ,Thompson BASKIN was postmaster at Bremen,Haralson(formerly Carroll) county,Georgia as early as 1893, and was serving as R.F.D. carrier from Bremen,Post Office as late as about 1915. T-6-8-8- Isabella Caroline THOMPSON,p.212, m. Jan.20,1833 Samuel REID of Pickens District,South Carolina,b. 1802 ,d. 1871 son of Captain Joseph REID and wife,Isabella BASKIN,b. 1760,m. Feb.28,1782,son of George REID,who moved from Lancaster county,Pennsylvania Rowan county,North Carolina and in 1762 to Abbeville District, South Carolina, when his son ,Samuel REID, b.in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania Jan.29,1749 was 13 years old.

This Samuel REID served as a Revolutionary soldier in the South Carolina militia.After 1800 and before 1806 this Samuel REID ,Revolutionary soldier ,moved to Pendleton District,South Carolina and from there he moved to Gwinnett county,Georgia in 1806 living there in Fincher's District was a successful drawer as resident there and as a Revolutionary soldiery in the Georgia Land Lottery of 1827.He remained there until the death of his wife in 1840 when he removed to his children in St.Clair county,Alabama .where he d. Feb.3,1843 aged 94 years and 9 days.He had with him at his death the family Bible record of his father,George REID showing his birth as aforesaid. His father,George REID had emigrated with his brother,Alexander REID and wife,Margaret McKAY and their children, and some other brothers of George and Alexander to Lancaster county,Pennsylvania through the port of Philadelphia,Pennsylvania in 1745 from Ulster, Ireland where his Reid ancestry had been seated since 1611, coming then from Scotland,- of the gentry and nobility there selected by King James,I, of England, son of Mary,"Queen of Scots, he offering these inducements to populate the ill-used domain in the nine county of North Ireland which became Ulster and so remain a separate government in Ireland until the First World War ,since when three of the nine counties have returned to and become incorporated in "The Irish Free State"King James,I, of England was moved to the necessity of forfeiting to the English Crown the land in these nine counties then held by the Catholic Church.King Phillip,II, of Spain had incited Ireland to revolt against the United Kingdom of England and Scootland.Phillip had foreseen in the Catholics of Ireland allies to redeem the defest of the Armada late in the previous century and by strategy to restore the throne of England to the Catholic Church.

When English and Scotch arms had brought the revolt to failure as the Armada was so successfully met by the Elizabethian "sea-dogs,Sir Francis DRAKE,Martin FROBISHER and HAWKINS. King James,I, was well advised to seize these 9 counties and create within them a "buffer State" against Spain and other potential enemies of the British Isles. These industrious Scotch Presbyterian gentry and nobility soon made these 9 countes "to blossom as the roase" by their energy,industry and ingenuity and have built these 9 counties,-only 6 remaining since First World War into an independent Parliament in the United Kingdom where it has functioned as a free people since first occupied by the Scotch immigrants to whom King James,I, granted lavishily of this goodly land. 56(e(,57,184(g,h,i)

As a close to the genealogies of the THOMPSON family, begun on page 209, and the ancestor, Archibald HAMILTON , III,H-1-3-2,pp.143-178 and 210 , and for all of the descend- of the earliest proven Hamilton ancestor of this Archibald,III, of Abbeville District,South Carolina and original Jackson (since GWINNETT) county,Georgia as recorded herein from page 116 to this page 215, both inclusive, the following is here quoted from a publication in Georgia:

"Gilbert CHRISTIAN was b. in SCOTLAND in 1680;moved to Province of Ulster,North Ireland about 1702; m. in 1703 Margaret RICHARDSON. In 1726 he and John CAMPBELL moved their families to Lancaster county,Pennsylvania. In 1732 Gilbert CHRISTIAN and John CAMPBELL with the Moffetts,,McDOWELLS,McCLUNGS, TRIMBLES,LOCKHARTS,HAMILTONS and RUSSELLS moved to the Valley of Virginia and formed a colony near Staunton in Augusta county,Virginia." 55(a)

Compiler's Note: This may account for the name given the stream on which the land of Archibald HAMILTON and wife, Francis CALHOUN,of the previous same locations in Ulster, North Ireland and Lancaster county,Pennsylvania,also lived,, before settling before 1740 on Christian Creek,in Augusta county,Virginia ,not far from Staunton,Virginia all in the "Valley of Virginia."

OTHER HAMILTON EMIGRANTS TO AMERICAN COLONIES ,OR STATES,-AND THEIR DESCENDANTS.

Of the 397 Hamiltons who are recorded as resident of,-and heads of families,in the original thirteen States of the American Union in the first United States Census of 1790 18; emigrants,Archibald HAMILTON,H-1,pp.134-198,both inclusive, and brother, Andrew HAMILTON,H-2,,pp.198-207,both inclusive recorded in 1790 as residents of and heads of Families in Augusta county,Virginia,have their careers,families and descendants recorded at the respective pages next above for each emigrant, as fully as ascertained.

The European Hamilton ancestry of this Archibald and Andrew HAMILTON respectively is gathered as far as ascertained 115 to 134,both inclusive of this book.

From the research made for publishing this book most of these :" Other Hamilton Emigrants to American Colonies, or States and Their Descendants" as listed in this book, pages 215- 321 are believed to descend from the same earlier European Hamilton ancestors as said Archibald and Andrew,whose ancestors are listed as aforesaid on pages 115-134 ,both inclusive of this book, and to have lived successively from earliest recorded history in France,Normandy,England, Scotland and Ireland,most of whom emigrated to the American Colonies or States from Scotland and Ireland, relatively fewer from England

Archibald HAMILTON and brother,Andrew HAMILTON, above were probably not the very earliest emigrant Hamilton settled in the American Colonies, but were among the relatively very few in the American Colonies when they arrived from Tyrone county,Ireland in Lancaster county,Pennsylvania in 1733.

Emigrant HAMILTON ancestors are listed herein,grouped generally, first, by their land of birth,when known,or next by places of residence ,or longest known place of residence,or the country from which they departed for the American Colonies,or States. The listings leads with as much as was ascertained of the ancestor's career,marriage and spouse's direct ascending ancestry as fully as available followed by all that anceator's descent,in genarations order to date,if obtained. When this ancestor's descent is finished,another and different ancestor,preferably for the same nation,province or subdivision therof,is treated in the same way until all apparently neighboring emigrants ancestors have been listed, as nearly in consecutive paging as may be remembered or so understood by this compiler.

Within the American Colonies ,or States,it is compiler's hope to get listed in consecutive paging, generally by States, and within the States,-by counties ,in alphabetical order of the counties in each of the States,-as nearly as practical hoping thereby to suggest and have help from readers that being in the same places at the same time more than one Hamilton, can give posterity added proof as to whether or not these different Hamilton family neighbors knew and left traditions or records as to the degree of relationship each to the other, or of no known relationship among those listed herein.

From the bulk of material of Hamilton biography and genealogy gathered, -much of it from only public records, books or publications,much of it yet remains unassimilated into any genealogical connections with any other branch,-large or small,contemporaneous or not,and in widely separated or contiguous areas.

Considering the possible dilemma the foregoing comment in this column headed "Other Hamilton Emigrants to American Colonies,or States and Their Descendants" may leave the reader,compiler invites the reader to make constant reference to the complete indices, first,"Index of Places(Geographical) and, second,"Index of Persons".

It may also be of help to study pages 2 and 3 at front of book to learn the use of "pedigree symbols," which open the paragraph beginning the sketch,or marriage and children, of each person listed in the book .

The reader may find help in understanding the text of the book to take any of the single numbers, or number to which is suffixed a lower case letter, the latter in parentheses, the numerals appearing in numerical order in the Bibliography, next following the close of the text and next preceding the first,Index,"Index of Places.".

NOTE:This Indent may not be for the next foregoing Thomas HAMILTON of Anderson District South Carolina as a "Thomas Twining HAMILTON, son of John of Abbeville District South Carolina",contemporary to the first mentioned Revolutionary solder,Thomas HAMILTON as sometimes recorded as only "Thomas HAMILTON".

Thomas HAMILTON,1-5,p.221,lived in present Anderson county,South Carolina near Carmel Church and village of Pendleton,South Carolina;served as elder of Presbyterian Church as note in his brother,John Hamilton's sketch im opposite column of this page. His wife,Ann (KENNEDY) HAMILTON became a heroine in the Revolutionary War.During the war a band of Tories came to her house and found her spinning flax. One of the Tories attempted to set fire to the flax,whereupon a struggle began.She seized him and he placed a chunk of fire against her wrist to force her to let him go,but she then caught him by the coat colar and seat of his pants and pitched him into the yard. He then started to shoot her,but the others were so much amused that they interferred to prevent him. She carried the scar on her wrist to her grave. This good woman lies buried in the family grave yard on the land later owned by T.S.GLENN.

Ann Kennedy HAMILTON was b. 1761,d.Pendleton,South Carolina March 24,1836.Her obituary published at Pendleton,South Carolina April 1,1836 contained a eulogy to her for her services to the Colonies in the Revolution. The foregoing HAMILTONS listed beginning with the second paragraph started near top of second column of page 227 in name of John HAMILTON,1- as its head, an immigrant from Scotland to Port Tobacco,Charles county,Maryland in 1674 seem to be well authenticated and documented as his descendants,but include descent of only one of his two listed sons,namely ,Alexander. At least two or three other considerable groups stemming from the Charles county settlers of John's migration are available for listing,in generations order of its descent but lacking the son or grandson of John of 1764,which obviously is their earlier ancestor,or they may possibly,even probably descend from a brother of John , possibly an Alexander HAMILTON,older than John's son,Alexander,1-1,p.227, they may be of descent of John,Jr.,son of John,immigrant of 1674.

Without designating the particular immigrant,even the son of the particular HAMILTON emigrant which may be the exact immigrant heading the following groups found in assotiation in time and place with John of 1674 ,or John's descendants since in Washington(now Marion) county,Kentucky, transplanted thence in Monroe and Shelby counties,Missouri and beyond and another group very early in WILKES county Georgia.

There is enough documenting of the listings of all these groups following the Charles county,Maryland migration to of through Washington county,Kentucky and Wilkes county,Georgia. The listings in these groups are referred to as identifying in many ways their close Hamilton kinship to each all others in the group of John HAMILTON,who came from SCOTLAND to Port Tobacco,Charles county,Virginia in 1674.

1-1-7-1-5- Joseph J. HAMILTON attended Bingham Military School,Asheville,North Carolina graduated Mercer University,Macon,Georgia,Columbia School of Miles,University of New York ,became a chemist of recognized ability and has charge of a furnace company; m. Lela GERRY of Macon, Georgia.

1-1-8- John C. HAMILTON,p.232 ,shared in the estates of his parents,George and Agnes (COOPER) HAMILTON, deceased in Wilkes county,Georgia from 1819-1827.

1-1-9- George W. HAMILTON,p.232,witnessed will of Lucy SIMPSON signed June 15,1825 probated in Wilkes county,Georgia,Oct.24,1826 and was appointed there guardian of James and Esther SIMPSON,minor orphans of James and wife, Lucy,both deceased; as"minor orphan" of George HAMILTON, deceased had one draw in the Georgia Land Lottery of 1819 71(27); was one of administrators June 1,1827 to sell 400 acres of dowry lands of his deceased mother,Agneas (COOPER) HAMILTON,widow of George as the estate of George, deceased ,his father on Fishing Creek in Wilkes county, Georgia 71(18,35),105(21)

An addition 1 item as to George HAMILTON,1-1-,p.232, states that he "witnessed the will there Oct.24,1797 as signed by John HURLEY,recorded in Wilkes county,Georgia March 14,1802. 71(18),105(24).

1-2-p.232.William HAMILTON,starting the paragraph, second from top of first column, and in the Leonard HAMILTON paragraph,started ,third next below,or in sixth paragraph from top of this first column,all on page 232,apparently a brother of George HAMILTON,1-1,p.232, both natives of Charles county,Maryland appears to be the same "William HAMILTON", who took deed June 10,1788 for 861 acres in Franklin county,Georgia on Oconee River,part of 1700 acres granted in 1787 to Bedford BROWN, 71(29),105 also took deed in 1790 for 85 acres on Fishing Creek (24) in Wilkes county,Georgia from Thomas McDOW,grantee and wife Martha,71(32) served on Wilkes county,Georgia Jury, Aug.23,1790. 71(11)

The Hamiltons next listed herein have not been thus far connected with Wilkes county,Georgia pioneer,George HAMILTON,1-1,p.232 and wife, Agnes COOPER,and no other pioneer Hamilton than William of paragraph next above has been found as a pioneer in WIKLES county,Georgia so early,or so soon after white settlements began in the vast original bounds of Wilkes county,Georgia. In view of the statements in the oath of William HAMILTON of Wilkes county,Georgia and Charles county,Maryland in the "Leonard HAMILTON" paragraph in the first column of page 232 it is a fair inference that George and William of Wilkes county,Georgia and perhaps the Leonard HAMILTON in Charles county,Maryland were brothers, at least close relatives and each of the same generation as the other.

IRELAND.

" The Saxon-Scotch emigrated in such numbers to the fine county of North Ireland during the 16th and 17th.centuries as to form a distinct race from the native Celts.

Their women were prettiest in person and purest in character of European ladies and their men were equally distinguished for enterprise, intellectual capacity and love of liberty." 52.

" The history of those who carried the name,HAMILTON, from Scotland to IRELAND in the tumultuous days from 1585 to 1650 shows how numerous and important it was,-proving also its high social position,. In 1585 the emigration of Scots from the Lowland to Ulster,IRELAND commenced,and for 40 years came like a flood.

When the miserable wars of the North of Ireland were terminated about the time of the accession of James,1 ,of England (son of Mary ,Queen of Scots) about 1583 this conquered land was a desolate waste Surveyors,lawyers,speculators, adventurers and commissioners came from ENGLAND,authorized to occupy a tract of country almost as uncivilized as was American early Indian territory.

It was determined to reclaim this territory by allotting out the land to servitors,-nearly all Scots. From 1606-1612 the government offered "allotments" upon certain conditions to these servitors, who generally were Scotch nobility and gentry. As a rule these parcels contained 1,000 acres of good land and an uncertain area,-frequently 10 times as much ,"back" land being made up of "fewes or woods" hills and bogs.

Nearly 10,000 Scots came to Ulster in these seven years,-under this form of ownership, among the more numerous and respectable of this immigration bore the name HAMILTON,  who acquired a very large share of these forefited lands.

The head of one branch was JAMES HAMILTON,Lord of Abercorn another, John HAMILTON also of Abercorn,SCOTLAND, and another HAMILTON, Lord of Enderick in SCOTLAND." 22

"John HAMILTON was the most thrifty of all the lords and sirs of the name.He erected "HAMILTON BAWN" in county Armagh,Ulster,Ireland and resided there, left 40,000 acres of "good" and as much more of ,"back", or "fewes and woods" land. He carried no title ,being addresses as :"Esquire". He was one of the big men of Ulster.It is possible that he came there from Crickness in SCOTLAND,-and had a brother,Sir Claude HAMILTON. Three sons of 7 total of John HAMILTON of "HAMILTON BAWN",John,James and Robert HAMILTON, have come down to our times. His daughters married into noble families. His residence was near the Black River. Most of the Hamiltons who came to America between 1680 and 1750 are of his descent." "Hamilton Bawn" was a fortress. 130(e).Robert HAMILTON ,son of John of "Hamilton Bawn" was father of John HAMILTON ,b. 1704 who married Isabella POTTER in 1735 and came to America on the ship,Donegal,landing at New Castle,Delaware in 1741.For this John and Isabella (Potter) HAMILTON'S biography and descent SEE p.217.20,130(e)

2- "Robert HAMILTON,late of Augusta" so identified took deed in 1753 for part of 720 acres patented to McCOWN in 1743 on Tees ("Teas") Creek,corner to Robert Erwin,the deed as recorded being delivered Oct.17,1786 by the recorder of Augusta county,Virginia to John HAMILTON,206(38;joined William HAMILTON as "William HAMILTON and Robert HAMILTON,yeomen,late of Pennsylvania" in signing a bond in Augusta county,Virginia in signing a bond there,Aug.29,1754, meaning they were farmers,203(24). Some further identification of this Robert HAMILTON in Augusta county,Virginia follows. As "Robert HAMILTON of Pennyslvania" appears on fee book there for 1757 203(1o2); served as private in militia of Augusta in French and Indian War in 1758,170,210(a);is noted on the fee book there in 1760 as one for whom land processioning had been done,203(111): witnesse deed there June 3,1762 signed by George BINGHAM,"late of Augusta" to Robert ERWIN,"yeoman" for 251 acres on Muddy Creek of Shenandoah there,206 (57); witnessed will of Joseph McCORD,Nov.25,1762,proved in Augusta Court Nov.15,1763,206(153); as "Robert HAMILTON of Carr's Creek" is on fee book there in 1767,203(104);witness will of William STEWART Jan.12,1768,who had land "in town" and on Middle River,206(156); witnessed deed March 10,1768 signed by Borden's executors to Robert McELWRATH for 230 acres of part of 92,000 acres ,beginning there on cedar and sugar trees on Walker's Creek,in Augusta county,Virginia, 206(80);served as road surveyor there March 21,1769.203(15). witnessed will there May 24,1769 signed by John CUNNINGHAM of Carr's Creek,conveying to "dutiful father,Hugh CUNNINGHAM" 206(158). Robert and Margaret HAMILTON signed deed Nov.6,1771 to David CALDWELL conveying land on Back Creek in Augusta county,Virginia,witnessed by George,John and William CALDWELL. 206(95). The foregoing are the principal events in early records of Augusta county Virginia of Robert HAMILTON as a pioneer citizen there,except the tragic massacree of him and half his family there by the Shawneetown,Northern Ohio Indians led by their chief,"Cornstalk" who attacked Robert's home or Carr's Creek in Augusta county,Virginia Oct.10,1769,a family of 10 people,killing five and taking five prisoners,the prisoners being James and Margaret CUNNINGHAM,Archibald,Marion,Robert,Jr. and Mary HAMILTON. Mary HAMILTON was ransomed and brought back.72(32),185(c).

2-3- This Robert HAMILTON,Jr.,who came to Kentucky in 1789 is identified by his son,Alexander HAMILTON,2-3-1 in Franklin county,Kentucky as being the individual captured by these Indians at the home of Alexander's grand father, Robert HAMILTON,Sr. on Carr's Creek in Augusta county,Virginia . This proof has been preserved in a manuscript written by a Dr. SHANE,M.D. of an interview given him by Alexander HAMILTON, in Kentucky as to his father,Robert HAMILTON,Jr.of Virginia and Kentucky and grandfather,Robert HAMILTON,Sr. of Pennyslvania and Virginia,which manuscript was first published about 1936 in a historical magazine along with much of the lives of descendants of Robert HAMILTON,Sr.-in more recent years,72(34) and with other records fixes the date of the settlements of Robert HAMILTON,Jr.in Kentucky as about 1789. Records of transactions in Franklin, Bourbon and Fayette counties,Kentucky,some of which are earlier are obviously of this Robert HAMILTON,Jr.,2-3 and of his son, Alexander HAMILTON,2-3-1, and other children of Robert HAMILTON,Jr. Fayette and Bourbon counties and the adjoining and contiguous part now in Franklin county,taken from Woodford county ,Fayette being organized in 1780, Bourbon in 1785 and Woodford in 1788 in which three counties there are many Hamiltons and several land transcattions and other evidence of settlers and citizens amoung HAMILTON pioneers in each. Special reference is here made to the recorded activities of these many pioneer HAMILTONS and to the number of record about each in Fayette county,Kentucky,pp. , in Bourbon county,Kentucky,pp in Woodford county, Kentucky,pp. and to the index of places in each of these counties and in present Franklin county,Kentucky, .It is obvious that Robert HAMILTON,Jr. and any surviving brothers of him were not the ancestors of all of the considerable number of pioneer HAMILTONS recorded as pioneers in each or all of these 3 or 4 Kentucky counties above referred to and identified by the menuscript dictated by Alexander HAMILTON,2-3-1, p.242 to Dr. SHANE,.M.D, as above ,but seems obvious that both Robert Hamilton,Jr.,his son Alexander,or other sons or daughters of Robert HAMILTON,Jr.of Virginia and Kentucky are represented by several or many of the Hamiltons recorded in these mentioned counties on the pages above cited for each of such counties, or may be other wise connected there and elsewhere in the pages of this book, back to their pioneer ancestors on Carr's Creek,Augusta county,Virginia ,the scene of the horrible Indian massacree ,72(34)

Robert HAMILTON,Jr. received Virginia Land Warrant ""4200 dated Aug.28,1783 for 400 acres in Kentucky for "services as Sergeant in the Virginia Line"during war" in American Revolution,74(a)."The grand father of Alexander HAMILTON,' who emigrated from IRELAND to Pennsylvania and later moved to Virginia was ROBERT HAMILTON,Sr. His son, Robert HAMILTON,Jr. of .Kentucky who was captured by Indians on Carr's Creek,Augusta county,Virginia. He came to Kentucky in 1789. He was father of Alexander HAMILTON of Franklin county,Kentucky ." 72(34,45).

"Robert HAMILTON'S Station was a'stockaded' dwelling on the Frankfort and Shelbyville Road . My father lived near here in a cabin about 90 yards from the road.James WHITE lived a half mile back and Robert GUILLIAM a mile back

The White and Guilliam residences were in the southern part of Franklin county near the road from Frankfort to Shelbyville on South Benson Creek. My father's house was 'pinned' and there were port holes to fire out through.

The Indians had attacked Innis Station. News had gotten to Frankfort and runners had gone out to White and Guilliam's and and they came to my father's as the strongest house,-running, each having their guns and a child on his back. Two men went over to Frankfort. The Indians came by and stole three horses from my father that night and passed on by here." NOTE: Alexander HAMILTON'S reference to the Indian Attack on Innis Station which occurred on Main Elkhorn Creek was coincident with the massacree at Cook's Station nearby. 72(34).

Robert HAMILTON was commissioned Lieutenant in the 14th. Kentucky militia in Bourbon county, Kentucky, Aug. 22, 1796 72(45); served on Jury in Fayette county, Kentucky Court, Sept. 1803, trying a land case., 72(12): Robert HAMILTON lived about one-fourth mile 'upstream' from "Deer Lick" on McBride's Run in Bourbon county, Kentucky, Sept. 8, 1806 when depositions were taken before Thomas Rule, Justice of the Peace there in a land suit in Circuit Court removed from Bourbon count to Fayette county, Kentucky. The petition in the case recites and entry May 31, 1780 of 200 acres on Stoner Fork and sold same to Robert HAMILTON. Depositions in this case shows that Thomas KENNEDY and Michael STONER raised a crop there in 1776. In 1779 hunters and improvers were freqeuently there, two Bryants claimingto have settled a place since called Bryant's Station. In 1776 David WILLIAMS and his company were at the Station., when Robert and David, or Thomas HAMILTON were there. David WILLIAMS sold his improvemtn in the neighborhood of Stoner to Robert HAMILTON. Stoner was called "Licking" in 1776. Kennedy testified that he saw Robert and David HAMILTON on the improvement at Stoner's before 1780.

David WILLIAMS testified Nov. 18, 1805 at taking of testimony on South Fork of Licking saying that: " in Fall of 1775 that he, Robert Shanklin, Nathaniel RANDALL and Peter HIGGINS raised a cabin. In Spring of 1776 while at Michael Stoner's he fell in with a man named HAMILTON to whom he sold the 'good will' of his improvement, -including deademed trees for a clearing for 5 pounds. Hamilton was a newcomer in the country In 1775 he made nearby an improvement for Nathaniel RANDALL and Peter HIGGINS. There was a remarka le island at Stoner's Fork, -near 20 poles long opposite the improvement I sold HAMILTON."

Thomas and Robert HAMILTON were parties defendant in a land suit tried in Fayette county, Kentucky Circuit Court at Aug. Term, 1814, the land in controversy became incorporated in the town of Paris, Bourbon county, Kentucky, being the suit removed for trial from Bourbon to Fayette county as aforesaid, the suit having been brought to the May Term, 1805 for land sold by Andrew SWEARINGEN from a 2,000 acres entry surveyed for him Dec. 27, 1782 and sold by him to Robert and Thomas HAMILTON, 72(28,29). Robert Hamilton was commissioned Aug. 9, 1792 as Ensign by the Governor of Kentucky. 72(8,9).

James HAMILTON and Jared COWAN, two of a party of ten of Harrod's Company were killed in an attack by Indians July 8, 1774. Daniel BOONE and Michael STONER were then also exploring and surveying west of Kentucky River in the region of Mercer county and Harrodsburg, Kentucky. 233(f).

As this is written there is not available elsewhere in the mass of Hamilton genealogical data gathered over the United States of America in the four years of intensive search to connect more HAMILTON families together, or longer descents from Hamiltons contemporaneous with Robert HAMILTON, emigrant to Pennsylvania and resident on Carr's Creek in Augusta county, Viginia, who died in the Indian massacree there. The listing next inserted seem of a generation that would fit as descent of Alexander HAMILTON, 2-3-1, p. 241, or a brother or cousin. The source from which the following Robert HAMILTON's descent found published and copied contained nothing more than as copied next following, no dates or location for any accompanying the account of them here copied, except for third child, a son, James HAMILTON, was of age to serve, and so served as soldier in the War of 1812:

In an effort to gather the emigrant HAMILTONS who are traced herein to their more or less permanent American settlements in original Augusta county, Virginia within about the first 20 years after that county was created and opened to white settlers the families of Archibald HAMILTON, H-1, pp 133-136 and wife, Francis CALHOUN, his brother, Andrew HAMILTON, H-2, pp 198-207 and their sister, Martha HAMILTON, H-3, pp. 208 and 207 settled in that county about 1738 the year it was formed from Orange county, Virginia. These are the first Hamiltons found settled in the vast domain of original Augusta county, Virginia covering much of the whole "Valley of Virginia." Among the next earliest there, Alexander HAMILTON, 1- p. 240 and wife, Margaret WALKUP' their daughter, Margaret Walkup HAMILTON, 1-1, and her second husband, William HAMILTON, and their only child, Arthur HAMILTON, 1-1-1, pp. 241 and 242. To be more accurate, this Alexander's descent should be credited as about the third earliest emigrants found in Augusta county at its creation, and the second probably, William HAMILTON and wife, Else ("Alice?) who may arrived in Augusta a few years in advance of another "William" Hamilton and Robert HAMILTON, apparently brothers, who signed together there as "William HAMILTON and Robert HAMILTON, yeoman late of Pennsylvania " in 1754, whose activities and descent is recorded on pages 240-242 the latter two brothers being here accepted as the fourth Hamilton family group, not closely related, - arriving early in Augusta county, Virginia. 1*- There is some indication that William* HAMILTON and wife, Else ("Alice") emigrated from ENGLAND, first to Pennsylvania and that John HAMILTON who came to Pennsylvania in 1746, James and Andrew in 1749 are among their sons, - so found as earlier or pioneer settlers in original Augusta county, Virginia, all of this latter group coming to Augusta direct from Newcastle county, Pennsylvania. Moses HAMILTON, who also came very early from Newcastle county, Pennsylvania on the Delaware river to Augusta county, Virginia may also be a son of William HAMILTON and wife, Else "Alice:"

The following items may be of this* William HAMILTON of Augusta county, Virginia found recorded there: witness-deed Feb. 27, 1749 from John MAXWELL to Andrew JOHNSTON, merchant for 218½ acres in Beverley Manor, cornering with Madison and Maxwell, 206(12); took deed Dec. 1, 1749 from William Beverley and wife, Elizabeth for land in Beverey's Manor; took deed Feb. 27, 1749 from William Beverley for 578 acres in Cowpasture River area there, which deed as recorded passed into the hands of Humphrey MADISON, Aug. 30, 1753 206(16); had land Nov. 29, 1750 described as "cornering with 275 acres granted April 10, 1745 to James CARLISLE on the the Laurel Hill in Beverley's Manor, 206(23); signed May 25, 1750 as surety on the bond of John and Eleanor FLETCHER to administer the estate of John HINDMAN, deceased. 206(122); witnessed deed Aug. 17, 1753 from LEWIS and McCLENCHICAN to William MURRAY, carpenter and joiner for a house and lot #12 in Staunton, Augusta county, Virginia; 206(37); 'receipted adinistrator of the state of Archibald BORELAND, deceased, for a debt due him by decedent's estate, Nov. 21, 1754, 206(28)

1- James HAMILTON made proof May 18,1833, as"a resident of Pulaski county,Kentucky for many years " for Revolutionary pension,stating his age as 75 years stating that he entered service as a citizen of Greenbrier county,Virginia volunteering as a militiaman on June 27, 1776 for a term of 12 months in Captain Matthew Arbuckle's Company ,Samuel Woodsworth,Lieutenant and from there was at the Sevent ? in Greenbrier county and from there marched to the mouth of Ranshany ? River at the fort erected at that place on the Ohio River,as a guard until his enlistment expired,June 27,1777. Captain William McKEE of the Virginia militia to which I belonged signed my discharge.

I was born in Pennsylvania Dec,24,1758,parents moving from Pennsylvania to Augusta county,Virginia when I was very young, then to Greenbrier county,Virginia, where I volunteered. When I was discharged I returned to my father's in Greenbrier county,Virginia; moved to and lived in Lincoln county,Kentucky many years,then moved to final place in Pulaski county,Kentucky . Certificate of pension for twenty dollars per year was issued Sept.5,1833. 40(13).SEE James HAMILTON,1-2,p.243 and William HAMILTON,1- -2,page 244

1-1- Thomas HAMILTON entered the service of the Colonial in March 1778 as a resident of Culpepper county,Virginia; marched from Culpepper Court House,Virginia to Norfolk,Virginia; as a resident of Henry county,Virginia entered the service again in 1780;marched to the Shallow Ford on the Yadkin River in North Carolina,40(51).The above facts are taken from his application for Revolutionary pension signed in Lowndes county,Alabama March 31,1840,which gave his age as 80 years, b. April 9,1760.His birth date first above state as April 9,1758 is taken from a magazine,28(49).It seems probable from both sources getting the day and month of his birth,April,9, as the same but differing 2 years,one 1758'the other 1760 .His own statement does not locate his place of birth as Belfast,county Antrim,IRLEAND as does the magazine article,but it seems improbable that two Thomas HAMILTON in exactly two years difference as to date of birth were contemporaries in as sparsely settled county as Culpepper county then was. Thomas HAMILTON was recorded in the 1840 U.S. Census of Lowndes county,Alabama as a Revolutionary pensioner 81 years old,29,other references to his service stating it as four years;m. The foregoing descendants of James HAMILTON,p.251-252 who is cited in beginning of his sketoh as a Revolutionary soldier in Guilford county,North Carolina who appears ,from the statement of the widow of Hanoe ("Hans") HAMILTON,her maiden name having been ,Mary McMAIRY, who was married into this family as early as about 1784 not to have been brother of her deceased husband,Hans HAMILTON,whose parents,Thomas HAMILTON and wife, Jane McCRACKEN,emigrants from Scotland to "Virginia near its Southern border" and resettled in Guilford county,North Carolina before the Revoutionary battle of Guilford Court House there had no other son than Hans("Hance") HAMILTON. Her other statements of her intimate acquaintence with a large connection"of her husband's parents in association with each other in Southern Virginia,Guilford county,North Carolina and Sumner county,Tennessee would tend to place this James HAMILTON, and descent pages 251-252,as of a cousin of Hans("Fance") HAMILTON and a nephew of his father,Thomas HAMILTON.

The next following John HAMILTON,is probably the father of James ,next foregoing:

John HAMILTON of Guilford county,North Carolina and 5 others were appointed Commissioners for designing, building and improving 100 acres in Guilford county,North Carolina adjacent to and whereon Guilford Court House, North Carolina has been located and names "Martinville".The unsold lots thereon are vested jointly in these six commissioner in fee-simple in trust for estate of proprietors, Alexander MARTIN and Thomas HENDERSON 128(38)

John HAMILTON was one of three Commissioners appointed by the North Carolina General Assembly to run the line between Guilford and Rockingham counties,North Carolina; served on committees or Privileges and Elections and of Claims as a member of the North Carolina General Assembly, Fall Session (Nov.19 to Dec.29,1785); as Representative of Guilford county,North Carolina in North Carolina General Assembly Nov.3 and 4,1788,Nov.2,14 and 24,1785,meaning probably that he so participated in all the Sessions of the Assembly from 1784-1790 inclusive,eerving as early as Oct.23, 1784 and as late as Nov.29 and Dec.8,1790. By 1790 he and John HAMILTON,Representative of Chowan county,North Carolina gave much confusion as being recorded as "John HAMILTON" voting both for and against the passage of the same laws

Whether the following "John HAMILTON"is the same man whose activies have been last listed , his son, a John HAMILTON,Jr." or some other John HAMILTON of"the large connections " belonging with the migration of Thomas HAMILTON and wife from Ireland to"Virginia near its Southern border,who moved next to Guilford county,North Carolina and from there to Sumner county,Tennessee can not be clearly asserted at the time this is being written.128(19,26,28-34).

"John HAMILTON lived at Station,Camp Creek, in Sumner county,Tennessee about five miles from Gallatin,Tennessee before Mar ,1787, when the first Court for Sumner county was then held ,he being among the earliest settlers there,his home having been designated as a place for holding Court in 1786,when Sumner county was created from Davidson county,North Carolina (since Davidson county,Tennessee),Sumner county lying east of the West Fork of Stoner River,along Main Stone River,-along ,-now North of ,-Cumberland River " 128(4),160(o).

These pioneer Sumner county,Tenneses Hamiltons traced ancestry as of the same European linage as Capt.Thomas HAMILTON and son,Hans("Hance") HAMILTON of Ireland,'Virginia near its Southern border, Guilford county,North Carolina and Sumner county,Tennessee in "the large connection"of them with whom she had been "intimately acquainted"in all the named American locations from as early as her marriage to Hans("Hance") HAMILTON in about 1784 until the date of her written statement in 1834.SEE that statement ,copied in the first paragraph beginhing in first column of page 251.

James HAMILTON,2-2,pp.251-253 may be the same man noted as "marrying in Guilford county,North Carolina and moving to Sumner county,Tennessee soon after the Revolutionary War."
There is a record of birth of a James HAMILTON,476(5)(d).
of this group as occurring in Virginia"near its southern border "May 1,1757,old enough to have served in Virginia or Guilford county,North Carolina as a soldier in the Revolution,

1-1- Captain John HAMILTON m. in Bourbon county,Kentucky March 12,1796 Rachel COOK,b.in Virginia in 1770,d. 1813,daughter of John and wife,Margaret("Peggy") BLAIR,both natives of Virginia. This John HAMILTON served as Captain in the War of 1812 commanding a company of volunteer riflemen under General HOPKINS,first, marching to Fort Harrison commanded by Major Zachary TAYLOR.John HAMILTON carried dispatches near the close of the Revolution; came to Kentucky in 1785,when 19 years old,-with a few companions in a large canoe,coming down the Ohio River to the mouth of Limestone Creek near Maysville,Mason county,Kentucky.From there they went to Rudd's Station by the way of the Buffalo Trace on South Fork of Licking River in Bourbon county, Kentucky. He remained in Kentucky until the Whiskey Insurrection broke out in Western Pennsylvania when he returned there by the Wilderness Route and arriving found an army encampment on his brother's farm,-to put down the insurrection. His brother refused to pay the tax on his still and hid to prevent being arrested and made up his mind to let his still be confiscated. John went after dark; took the still out of the furnace and carried it three miles to the Monongalia River in the eastern part of Washington county, Pennsylvania where he concealed it; returned and secured the cap and worm which he took to the same place until he was ready to start. A few days later ,-with a companion he located their distilling apparatus in a large canoe and rowed it down the Ohio River to Limestone Creek and again hid it and went to Rudd's Station for an augur and axe and made a rough sled;hitched a horse to it and returned to Limestone Creek;hauled the distillery to the Station and started operating it as soon as they could raise some corn and rye. Captain John HAMILTON voted for GEORGE WASHINGTON for PRESIDENT at his first election and thereafter at every Presidential election to and including ABRAHAM LINCOLN in 1861.He d. in 1863 in his 97th.year of life;lived as a farmer on present Rural Route No. Cynthiana,Harrison county,Kentucky 72(18)

1- Patrick HAMILTON had m. and had a family in county Tyrone,Ulster,IRELAND before A.D. 1666 when his son,Andrew HAMILTON was b. there. He paid tuition in 1682 to Trinity College for this son ,Andrew,1-1 to register there as 16 years of age. If Andrew was Patrick's oldest child ,Patrick's birth date was probably prior to 1645 which was within 3 or 4 decades of the time the exodus from Scotland to the 9 counties of North Ireland which beccame known as "Ulster",Ireland. This exodus was at its peak between 1606 and 1612 but continued heavy for more than a century thereafter. In this earliest mass exodus from Scotland to Ulster, Ireland in which ,or earlier the sons of Sir.John HAMILTON, ITEM 20 Table page 115 settled in county Tyrone, as did 3 sons of Sir CLAUDE HAMILOTN,,Sir.John and Sir Claude being brothers, and sons of SIR JAMES HAMILOTN, Regent of Scotland and guardian for infant,Mary,"Queen of Scots, 1543-1558 Second Earl of Arran and Duke of Chatelherault at Poicton in FRANCE ,Item 19 Table page 115 130(b)

1-1- Andrew HAMILTON,"greatest lawyer of his time" was admitted to Trinity College,Dublin University as "pensioner" ,meaning his tuition was paid,June 18,1682, his matriculation record there reading:" Andrew HAMILTON, born county Tyrone,Ireland, son of Patrick 16 years old",meaning born in 1666.

The next record found of him is in Accomac county,Virginia in 1690 where he then opened a classical academy,and later was employed as a steward to Joseph PRESTON,owner of a large plantation in Northumberland county,Virginia,whose widow,Ann (BROWN) PRESTON Andrew married March 6,1706;studied law and practiced in Maryland before entering practice of law in Philadelphia,Pennsylvania where he died; was admitted to practice at Gray's Inn,London,England,Jan.27.1712/1713 after absenting himself from his native land for 22 or more years,he a descendant of the HAMILTONS of SCOTLAND.130 (b),195(50). Enough has been preserved of his life to prove that he had been highly educated.

His son, James HAMILTON,1-1- , . twice Governor of Pennsylvania used as his official seal the authentic Coat of Arms of Scotland,corresponding to that accepted over the centuries since its first adoption in Scotland in the Fourteenth century and since so used by all including the First Earls of Abercorn,descendants of Sir Claude HAMILTON, son of SIR JAMES HAMILOTN, Regent of Scotland and guardian for infant,Mary,"Queen of Scots, 1543-1558,Second Earl of Arran and Duke of Chatelheralut at Poicton in FRANCE.It seems unlikely that Governor James HAMILTON would have made as insignia of State and dared to so offer it unless he had been entitled to do so

Governor James HAMILTON'S father, Andrew Hamilton,1-1, above may be regarded as member of HAMILTON family who were Earls of Abercorn, Marquis of Hamilton and Dukes of Abercorn.

Sir George HAMILTON was the fourth son of the Earl of Abercorn and was created a baronet in 1760. Sir George HAMILTON'S third son was Anthony HAMILTON was Count Antoine HAMILTON,author of "Memoirs of Count de Grammont and of French Counts and in 1685 was Governor of Limerick.

The first Earl of Abercorn settled in county Tyrone, IRELAND as early as 1619. SEE Sir Claude HAMILTON,pp. youngest son of Sir JAMES HAMILTON,Regent of Scotland, 1543-1558,pp. 130(b),195(50)

Andrew Hamilton,1-1 signed "Andrew HAMILTON" as witness to will of Joseph PRESTON in Northumberland county, Virginia while employed by Preston as steward,Preston's will being proved in that count March 6,1706. 195(20).

Meanwhile Andrew HAMILTON had studied law and been admitted to the bar. His period of life after leaving Trinity College in the 1680s until about 1790 has not prodnced a record available to compiler at time this is being written He may have become bewildered in the disturbed conditions prevaling in the British Isles in that period which induced his departure thence to the American Colony of Virginia,as there is some recorded reference to use by him of an assumed surname,"TRENT" instead of "HAMILTON" on his arrival in the Virginia Colony.His delay to return to Europe for 22 or more years for admission in Gray's Inn to practice law in his native country, which was after rulers on the throne of England at the time of Andrew's departure had been succeeded by 1712/13 when he was admitted to practice there.

."  the Irish virtually seceded after King James,II, came to the throne of the United Kingdom and placed Tryconnel as viceroy of Ireland. Then followed the struggle of 1687-1688, which ended in William,Prince of Orange defeating the Secessionists. While the struggle was at its height William sent Richard HAMILTON as an envoy to the defeated district, but he joined Tryconnel and the secessionits out of loyalty to James,II,King of England,1685-1688, who was a STUART, though he was a Protestant. The forces of William triumphed and there were many Irish refugees from among the nobility and the upper classes.

From the foregoing it may be that Andrew HAMILTON ,a young man, may have joined his kinsmen and consequently came into disfavor or worse when William and Mary became soverign of Gret Britain and Ireland ,130(b) It is significant that this Andrew HAMILTON did not return to the United Kingdom until after the death of King William in 1702. Queen Anne, the last of the STUARTS, was on the throne in 1712/13 when Andrew returned. She d.in 1714.

As "Andrew HAMILTON" he witnessed will of Thomas BROWN in Northampton county,Virginia March 2,1704, recorded there May 29,1705;107(t)

In one of Andrew's addresses before the Pennsylvania Assembly he said:" Liberty, love of which ,as it first drew to me as it constantly prevailed on me to reside in this Province,though to the manifest prejudice to my fortune."

This may refer to a flight he made from Ireland.

In 1735 in defense of Peter ZENGER,printer in New York City Andrew HAMILTON said he:" cheerfully undertook Zenger's defense under great indisposition of the body" for the unfortunate printer and offered "to go to New York without fee or reward under weight of great infirmity of body."*130(h).

In 1739 on taking leave of the Pennsylvania Assembly referred to:"my age and infirmities which daily increase." 130(b) .*Printer,ZENGER was charged with libel against His Majesty's Government. The jury persuaded by Andrew Hamilton's eloquence and reasoning brought in a verdict of "Not Guilty."

This event has come to be regarded as one of the most noteworthy landmarks in America's struggle to secure a free press." and "By many years experience we find that an equality among religions without distinguishing one sect with greater privileges than another is the most effective method to discourage hypoohricy;promote the practice of moral virtues and prevent the plagues and mischief that always attends religious discusssion. This is our (PENNSYLVANIA)Constitution * * *." 130(b,h,i).

As "Andrew HAMILTON", attorney ,of Northampton county,Virginia and Philadelphia,Pennsylvania he made bond in Northamberland county,Virginia for license to marry March 6,1706 to Mary Ann BROWN,daughter of Thomas,then widow of Joseph PRESTON upon which they were m. there March 6,1706 190(f),195(20); Andrew probably survived wife,Mary Ann, as in his will signed July 31,1741,proved in Philadelphia ,Aug.13,1841 as "Andrew HAMILTON of Bush Hill,Philadelphia,Pennsylvania ,recorded there Dec.8,1742 (he died there Aug.6,1741) he made bequests to :: 1"Margaret,daughter,wife of William ALLEN,merchant of Philadelphia" "Son,James HAMILTON," "son,Andrew HAMILTON " and to:

Maude PENCE Ch.(b. Franklin county,Kentucky):1-Allen Scott, Dec.1,1911, p.270 2- 3- ,4-Elizabeth Elwood

1-1-1-1 Allen Scott HAMILTON'S preparatory education was at the University of Louisville,Kentucky, (299 legal education in Law school, Louisville;L.L.D. degree from University of Michigan in 1937;admitted to practice at the Kentucky bar in 1936,member of Louisville and Kentucky and American Bar Associations; served as Probate Commissioner for Jefferson county, Kentucky Court, 1950-1952; elected as Commonwealth's Attorney 1952 where he has since served with distinction his office being 1102 Kentucky Home Life Building, Louisville, 2, Kentucky. By Dec. 22, 1954 he had attained fame for his ability and courage in discharge of his important duties to the public. One of the Kentucky "headlined" its tribute to him: "HAMILTON DESERVES THANKS OF PEOPLE": " this paper will not shirk what it considers a duty in paying Commonwealth's Attorney, Scott HAMILTON, of Jefferson county a tribute that has been valorously earned and richly deserved.

In all truth, the people of Kentucky, and of the nation itself owe a debt of gratitude to that courageous public official who recently dragged a squirming and dangerous Communist from the very nerve center of The Louisville Courier-Journal, over the powerful opposition of the press monopoly to which it belongs, and in brining him to justice by convicting him of the heinous crime of plotting to overthrow of this government.

The battle that Hamilton won over The Courier-Journal and its subsidiaries in the newspaper and radio-television field to bring about indictment of this working Red, along with five others involved in sedition charges, was a monumental one in the course of which his efforts were derided by the Louisville press. But despite unreasoning obstacles placed in his way and the abuse through which the press denounced him as a headline seeker and "a little McCarthy", indulging in a "witch hunt " it is to Hamilton's everlasting credit that he was undeterred from his purpose and for that the nation is better off to day.

It is not worthy of note when a newspaper breaks through barriers set up by officialdom to expose wrong-doing in high places for that sort of service has belonged to the high calling of the press in the past.

It is peculiarly noteworthy, however, and somewhat alarming when the age-old quest of the press must act in reverse and an intrepid official must break through opposition thrown up by embattled Fourth Estate in order to bring a deadly criminal bent on this nation's destruction, to the light of day from a sensitive post in a newspaper's very brain. And that is no easy task since it involved a David in the person of Mr. HAMILTON, as against a Goliath such as is ths Louisville press monopoly. But Mr. Hamilton did it and for that he deserves thanks.

Following conviction of the Red agent a statement by the president of the Courier-Journal to the effect that his services to the newspaper was immediately brought to an end (he had been relieved of his post with pay after his indictment) and that all men are innocent until proved guilty was a commendable action.

The statement hardly explains away, however, the turbulent and terrific opposition of the press which sought to keep the suspect from coming to trial in order that his guilt or innocence might be determined. And it hardly explains away the fact that had not the fighting Commonwealth's Attorney dragged him from his important post from which it was possible for him to have molded the content of the newspaper, a very fine citizen by the name of Braden, but in reality a dedicated plotter against our freedoms and lives, could to-day be assisting in the shaping of editorials, news stories and other comment of the great daily newspaper that dominates the press field in this Commonwealth."

The censure "* * * of the Louisville Courier-Journal and its subsidiaries at the hands of a duly empanneled Jefferson county grand jury for interference with the Commonwealth' Attorney Scott HAMILTON in the Louisville Red hunt that ended fruitfully is found in the statement of the grand jury's report that the conduct of the press "bordered on obstruction of justice." 452

LOUISIANA

With the lapse of more than 150 years the acquisition by the United States of America known as the "Louisiana Purchase"negotiated by President THOMAS JEFFERSON'S able diplomat in Paris,FRANCE to whom he sent JAMES MADISON who together agreed that the United States pay to Napoleon Bonaparte ruler of FRANCE twenty seven million dollars although not authorized by the President to agree to pay more than two million dollars, without waiting for confirmation from the President. The inhabitants of Louisiana,Missouri,Arkansas, Iowa ,Minnesota,North and South Dakota,Nebraska,Oklahoma and those of the most of Kansas,Colorado,Wyoming and Montana can trace back to the Louisiana Purchase though as the deal was consummated the entire region had only 80,000 inhabitants.To-day it is the home of more than 20,000,000 Americans

Iowa farmers tilling the richest soil on earth outside such alluvial regions as the Nile basin may consider with wonder that the United States paid four cents per acre for their land." * * The millions of children of immigrants may wonder whether they could have ever come here is this deal had not assured the continent for the United States.  It is not established beyond doubt who discovered the mouth of the Mississippi River. Spanish explorers preceded the Frenchman,La Salle,but he was the first to claim it for his country. A Frenchman,Jean Baptiste Le Moyne founded New Orleans, and began the importation of Negro slaves from the Guinea coast. The colonists were French.

The by a secret treaty (1762) the territory was ceded by FRANCE to SPAIN,and by another treaty the following year everything east of the Mississippi River, the Iberville River and Lakes Maurepas and Ponchartain was ceded to Great Britain three details creating opposition among the French colonists who began a movement for independence.

A Spaniar with the most un-Spanish name of O'Reilly was sent by his king with a strong military force and put down the popular rebellion by conciliatorily inviting its leaders to a reception and arresting them as his guests.

French Louisiana nevertheless enjoyed prosperous quiet under Spanish rule.

During the American Revolution the Spanish governors side with the United States even before Spain joined the French against Great Britain in Europe.

In 1800 the territory went back to FRANCE in another European deal.. This was not acceptable to the young American republic. France was then the mightiest European power; nor was there ,in those realistic times,a disposition to believe once an ally always an ally.

But Napolean was hard up for money for his wars, his colonial schemes had failed in Santo Domingo and he feared he could not hold the province against Great Britain which was reportedly contemplating an expedition against New Orleans.

Livingston and Madison closed the deal before Napoleon might change his mind or a ruckus could start in Congress over so great an expenditure.

The gain of so vast a territory helped the United States to hold her independence between Britain and France during the Napoleonic wars;established the doctrine of implied powers;gave the new republic the basis for the great expansion and colonization that followed; and assured the dominance of the United States in North America. Not a drop of blood was spilled for this conquest,accomplished by the greatest real estate deal of all time ."

Thomas Edward HAMILTON lived in Baltimore, Maryland Dec.19 1861 when he intervened before William H. SEWARD, U.S. Secretary of War for a friend. 157.

Mrs. Frank Sherwood HAMILTON of Lutherville, BALTIMORE county, Maryland, a member of the Maryland Historical Society died there in 1940-1941. 195(66).

1- John HAMILTON, Sr. and brother (whose name is supposed to have been William HAMILTON,) came from Northern IRELAND and landed at Baltimore, Maryland about 1763 to 1764, on the same boat with other immigrant families there was an Elizabeth __________ and her parents, both of her parents dying on ship, on the ocean voyage and were buried overboard in the Atlantic Ocean. Their orphan daughter, Elizabeth was so distressed, being in her early "teen" years her plight as sole survivior of her parents as to elicit deep sympathy for her from all surviving on board the ship in this voyage, among whom was this John HAMILTON, who married this Elizabeth upon the landing of the boat in Baltimore, Maryland. Ch.(b. Baltimore county, Maryland): 1-John, Jr., Nov.1,1765, 2- Edward, 176_ 3- Samuel, 1774, 4-David, 5-Sarah, 6-Elizabeth

John and Elizabeth moved with their family from Baltimore county, Maryland to Bedford county, Pennsylvania, where their son, John, Jr. enlisted at the age 13 years in the Revolutionary Army, his father, John, being already an army sergeant, 35. This John HAMILTON has been associated with the voyage of immigrants, Archibald HAMILTON and wife, Frances CALHOUN, Archibald's brother, Andrew HAMILTON, H-2, page. 208. from county Tyrone, Ulster, North of Ireland in 1733 through the port of Philadelphia to Lancaster county, Pennsylvania and their sister, Martha HAMILTON, who maried in Augusta county, Virginia in 1738 James HENDERSON. These three born HAMILTON in county Tyrone, Ireland in their traditions mentions the above incident of Elizabeth losing both parents on this voyage and her marriage to a passenger on the boat on the trip on which Elizabeth's parents died is preserved and it was supplied to this compiler by an aged living direct lineal descendant of said emigrants, Archibald HAMILTON and wife, Frances CALHOUN, who remembered this John HAMILTON'S wife's name as "Elizabeth" and also had heard, but had fogotten the surname of the bereft Elizabeth's deceased parents. The conflict between the dates, 1733 and 1763 to 1764 tend to weaken the incident as identifyin the participants as brothers and sister of the John, wife, Elizabeth, as do the two different landing places, Philadelphia and Baltimore for the same ship. There seems to this compiler to be fuller verification for the 1733 emigration coming ashore in Philadelphia, although there is some tradition of its landing in New York City port. As they went first to Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, its seems probable that they landed in Philadelphia, which was on " the beaten path" for immigrants from Ulster, "North of Ireland" for most of the century in which Colonial America received its greatest tide of migration to Pennsylvania and Virginia from Ulster, IRELAND.

In 1853 he bought the Webb mansion one and one half miles south east of the Capitol.

Being an excellent speaker he was appointed in 1849 Attorney General of Texas,had been elected when living in TRAVIS county as its Representative in the Texas Legislature,1851-53;Presidential elector for BUCHANAN in 1856; became a Republican,elect to Congress as an independent Democrat in 1859 as one of two Texas Congressmen until March 4, 1861;vigorously opposed Secession of Texas;Brigadier-General of Texas troops in 1862;Provincial Governor of Texas,1862-1865;Associate Justice of Texas Supreme Court 1866;defeated for Governor of Texas in 1870,after which he retired to private life,living in Austin,Texas where he d.April 11,1875 He and his brother,Morgan Calvin HAMILTON,1-1, above pleaded with their fellow Texans stating boldly their opposition to slavery causing suspicion between them and their friends and neighbors. To save his own life from them so infuriated Andrew Jackson HAMILTON escaped to a mountain retreat,living as best he could on roots and berries a broken leg chaining him for days without water. At home,his wife,Mary waited for days for news of him,their home being burned by Confederate incindiaries and the family suffering social ostracism. The war ended he was appointed by President JOHNSON as Provisional Governor of Texas and went about reordering his life,having a plan of restraint that made him sure that he could continue to live among enemies .He built another family home east of Austin from which his wife,Mary saw her children depart one by one and her husband die, later moving into her new home in the city of Austin,Texas comforted by the presence of a daughter, son-in-law and a grand daughter.She died there in 1915 During the war he had been appointed and commissioned by Secretary of War, Edwin M. STANTON as Brigadier-General and military Governor of Texas Nov.14,1862 and authorized to raise and muster into the United States Army two regiments of Texas volunteers  to provide means of maintaining peace and security to the loyal inhabitants of Texas until they shall be able to establish a civil government. As Ex-Senator " headed a strong Union party at Austin,Texas, who will probably resist all attempts to subdue them..At San Antonio,Texas nearly all the stores were closed and many of the merchants were living in Matamoras,MEXICO" according to a report from the United States Consul there May 5,1862. As Provisional Governor of Texas upon his appointment as such March 29,1865 a general amnesty was granted to all persons who had taken part in the war. Boards were appointed by him as Provisional Governor of Texas to register all loyal voters and put the political machinery of Texas in operation.

Governor HAMILTON showed much generosity toward former political offenders and pursued the policy of recon - struction approved by President JOHNSON. His long and consistent fight against the extremists of his own party for the rights of those who had bitterly opposed him * ,a people ,he believed had wronged him * * * redeemed him in in the eyes of all fair-minded people of all persuasions and"he stands before us a patriot,firm,tried and true,deserving the gratitude of our people and of all parties." Since the Revolutionary War I have lived a part of the time on Holston in North Carolina and a part of the time in Pendleton District,South Carolina,until 1810 when I moved to CALDWELL county where I have since lived.

I entered the service as a volunteer in all three tours against Cherokee Indians. I served with no regular troops nor with any military regiment except my own and that under Colonel SEVIER. I received written discharges, the first by Colonel Christie and the second by Captain ANDERSON.

I entered in AUGUSTA county,Virginia as a private under Captain Christie and the Regiment commanded by Colonel William Christie who lived on New River.

This expedition was ordered against the Cherokee Indians on the frontier. We rendezvoued in the upper end of AUGUSTA county and proceeded to Long Island of the Holston, where we joined our regiment and marched to the Indian Nation and destroyed their towns,Big Island,Old Stoker?,Little Den and others . The Indians fled and sued for peace ,but no treaty session was called,- and we returned home; called out again in 1780 against the same Indians;volunteered as a private under Captain John ANDERSON and Colonel Arthur CAMPBELL; rendezvoued at mouth of Big Creek on Holston River, where we met the regiment of Colonel SEVIER, which preceded us a short time and reached the Indian country before us and just beyond French Broad had a skirmish with Indians in which seven of them were killed on the ground. Sevier fell back a half mile and waited until we came up. Both Regiments were short of provisions, especially Sevier's. Our regiment marched to Indian towns on the Tennessee River and destroyed several including Tellico,-but three Indians killed and sevencaptured.Returned some time in Feb. 1781 "

1- Miriam HAMILTON m. in AUGUSTA county,Virginia David ROBINSON. Ch.(b. there): 1-John Hamilton ,Jan. 24,1782.

1-1- John Hamilton ROBINSON was educated as a physician; went to St.Louis,Missouri soon after the "Louisina Purchase";attaching himself in 1806 or 1807 to Captain Albert Pike's celebrated party who went to Santa Fe and Chihuahua.Captian Pike wrote of Robinson:" He has had the benefit of a liberal education,without having spent his time, as too many of our gentlemen do,in college ,in skimming over the surface of sciences, without ever endeavoring to make themselves masters of solid foundations. Robinson studied and reasoned,-with these qualifications he possessed a liberality of mind too great even to reject a hypothesis because it was not agreeable to the dogmas of the schools,or adopt it because it had all the éclat of novelty.

His soul could conceive great actions, and his hand was ready to achieve,-in short,it may truly be said that nothing was above his genius,nor anything so minute that he considered it entirely unworthy of his consideration.

As a gentleman and companion in dangers, difficulties I,in particular and the expedition generally owe much to his exertions."169(c) The next foregoing quotation as to him was published before the end of 1810.

" Dr. Robinson at Santa Fe and in the Chihuahua neighborhood became very much interested in the fortunes of Mexico,-and in the outlook for a self-determining Mexico. In 1810 he persuaded Secretary MONROE to send him to Chihuahua on State business.Dr. Robinson made his reports during 1810 and 1811. In 1815 he cast his lot with the revolutionists in Mexico and ranked as General of a brigade in their army as it was constituted from 1815 to 1819* * *".

"John Hamilton ROBINSON was early dissatisfied with the incidence of the Southwestern boundary of the Louisina Purchase. In 1819 he published at Philadelphia,Pennyslvania a very large scale map of Mexico,Louisiana and the Missouri Territory,including also the State of Mississippi,Alabama Territory,East and West Florida,etc.desiring to draw the attention of the United States to Texas especially",the enormous area lying between the lines so marked. The boundary lines of the territorial claims of the United States and Spain are marked on this map "

Natchez was the gateway to Texas for much of the United States for some years. Dr.Robinson during his service in Mexico had settled his family at Natchez.He had m. in St.Louis ,Missouri Sophie Marie MICHAU.Several of their children d. of yellow fever there in 1818,where he also died of it Sept.19,1819. This Oliver P. HAMILTON of JACKSON county,Tennessee is obviously the ".O.P." and "Oliver P HAMILTON referred to in the following as abstracted from for many variously designated volumes of the books:"War of the Rebellion." compiled by the United States War Department soon after the surrender of the Confederate States in 1865 and covering the years 1861-1864: " Captain Oliver P. HAMILTON of the 120 Tennessee Confederate States cavalry with 24th.Regiment of Volunteers left Cave City,Kentucky at 4 o'clock P.M. Oct. 23,1861 for a 25 miles night march to attack Captain Joe Underwood at 5 o'clock A.M. Oct.24,1861, returning to Cave City,Kentucky without the loss of any man, capturing some war supplies and 14 persons and wounding and killing others; was ordered arrested and brought to trial as "deserted",Nov.27,1862 by headquarters of the Army of Tennessee; was in camp on head of Jennings Creek, JACKSON county, Kentucky with 700 "rebels",Dec.11,1862;was "Captain of Confederate forces at Stamping Grounds,Tompkinsville,Kentucky thirteen miles from Georgetown,Kentucky engagement July 8-9,1862,to break up Federal encampment there in which he commanded Company D. Tennessee;in Cynthiana .Kentucky July 17,1862 where he was in action,losing one private; his batallion at Kettle Creek was attacked June 19,1863 by the 5th.Indiana Cavalry and claimed to have been routed,-in reports from Glasgow, BARREN county,Kentucky and McMinnville,Tennessee;in command of about 180 mounted men reported as attacking McCullough's 60 men,for whom reinforcements' timely arrival provided counter attack and pursued HAMILTON to Celina,CLAY county,Tenn. in April ,1863,killing 30 and taking the town. Hamilton and men with little advance notice had scattered from Celina into the wooded hills inaccessible to mounted troops,Hamilton's famous race horse being captured.Hamilton was reported April 29,1863 as having resigned and Colonel R.C.Morgan as having command of his force. Sept.1,1863 Hamilton with a command of 600 Confederate and four pieces of artillery was reported as being at Tompkinsville,Kentucky to attack trains from Glasgow,Kentucky; as "Lieutenant-Colonel Oliver P. HAMILTON of Hamilton's Tennessee Batallion,Colonel J. Warren GRIGSBY,Second Brigadier of Kelly's Division, Wheeler's Cavalry Corps,Army of Tennessee,commanded by General Braxton BRAGG,Confederate States were in Chattanooga-Ringgold campaign,Nov.20,1863. Colonels Hamilton ,Hughes and Dougherty's guerillas captured Scottsville,Kentucky,Dec.27,1863 after defeating Captian J.D. Gillums' Company of 52nd.Kentucky Regiment,-taking prisoners. A few days later Major Johnson's 52nd.Kentucky Regiment followed them into Tennessee;killed 40; took 20 prisoners and recovered most of the Scottsville plunder.The second report of Hamilton being killed in battle,the last, on Feb.1,1864 was also premature, as on March 23,1864 the Union commander wrote from Cave Springs,Kentucky:"Rebel Colonel Hamilton and 120 of his men are here. I will forward them to-morrow." and :"Lieutenant-Colonel,Oliver P. Hamilton with 11 men captured on Cumberland River,March 19,1864 in a skirmish from Cave City,Kentucky".By Brigadied-General Edward H. ,Hodson,U.S. Army,District of Southern-Central Kentucky"!"Oliver P. Hamilton ad two others have guerilla bands numbering some 200 fighting men and about twice that number for robbing raids as reported from movements of two United States gunboats and three transports up Cumberland River past Carthage,Tennessee to Creelsboro,Kentucky, concluding that :"Jackson is the only county on Cumberland, or the part of Jackson south of the Cumberland and Overton as far east as Obey's River under control of the guerillas." 78(k),157(25).

The following quotation from recent seemingly exhaustive and penetrating research,ably made,organized and subsequently published to include all HAMILTONS and their descendants among other pioneer settlers in the part of the Colony of Virginia lying west of the Blue Ridge Mountains.It seems to this compiler to be a substantial and deserving enrichment of families gathered herein. Grateful acknowledgement to Mr. W.R.McCANN of Hopewell,Virginia is here made for it.

" As for HAMILTONS of whom on the Virginia frontier there were many whose relationships have been much confused by various writers, ' we are in some doubt as to who was the first on Jackson River and Back Creek who used for a while an Indian camping hut. It is said that trees,from which bark had been stripped to cover such shelters,continued to stand until recently.' The same author says:' William, Alexander and Andrew HAMILTON were very early settlers on the Cowpasture. It is not certainly known whether they were related * * * There are reasons for believing that Andrew, who d.in AUGUSTA county,Virginia in 1790 married Martha____,whose maiden name has been given by one writer as "KINCIAD",which may be correct,but subject to question for lack of supporting evidence,of which we have come across nothing convincing. One of Andrew's sons,Andrew,II, m.May 9,1799 in BOURBON county,Kentucky,as recorded there in book 2 page 2, Elizabeth(or Isabel) KINCAID,a daughter of Captain William,b.in AUGUSTA county,Virginia,Jan.19,1736,m.Eleanor GUY(GAY),who d.May 3,1821,who had sold his farm in AUGUSTA county,Virginia about 1788 and removed with Andrew HAMILTON(Probably Andrew,II), who m. his daughter to WOODFORD county,Kentucky. Also mentioned in will of Andrew HAMILTON,I, is a grandson, Andrew, but the latter could not be the son of Andrew,II,as dates do not mesh. The will of Andrew,I,also mentions,wife, Martha who apparently survived him.

The aforesaid HAMILTONS, and many others of that name in Virginia frontier counties of AUGUSTA , BATH ,. ALLEGHANY, BOTTEOURT ,GRENBRIER, and ROCKBRIDGE,no doubt stem from Sir JAMES HAMILTON, who d. in 1575, second Earl of Arran,who served as Regent of SCOTLAND for little Mary (later Queen of Scots until her marriage into French royalty at the age 15. Sir James had five sons,three of whom settled in Ulster(North Ireland); one of these three had a son or grandson, named Audley Harrison HAMILTON who m. Eleanor ADAMS. Three of their children,Archibald,Andrew and Martha emigrated to America and settled in AUG,USTA county,Virginia . This Archibald HAMILTON late in life recorded his connection to Sir James HAMILTON;Andrew Hamilton d.in 1790 in AUGUSTA county,Virginia,,whose wife,Martha was b.in Londonderry,Ulster(North Ireland),lived in Tyrone county, Ulster and later in Lancaster county,Pennyslvania.Their son Andrew,Jr. m. Elizabeth,(or Isabel) Kincaid,was Ensign in the Revolution,joined the Pisgah settlement in Kentucky and was ancestor of the late John S. WISE,another son,John, was killed by Indians. William, a third son m. Isabel CLEMENS, was a Major and one of the first settlers of GREENBRIER county,Virginia,was ancestor of John M. HAMILTON Congressman from West Virginia.Sarah, a daughter of Andrew, was b. in 1746, m. Major William RENICK of Greenbrier county. Jane,another daughter m. John A., a son of Samuel HODGE of Cowpasture. Mary, a third daughter m.James, another son of Samuel HODGE. Martha , a fourth daughter,b. in 1755 m. Captain James WRIGHT of BOURBON county,Kentucky. Margaret,the youngest daughter m. George BENSON of Highland Martha HAMILTON ,sister of emigrants,Archibald and Andrew, was b in Ireland, m.in 1738 James HENDERSON,b. in 1708,lived in AUGUSTA county,Virginia and had children:David,John,James,William,Sarah,Joseph,Jean,Samuel,Archibald and Margaret.

Archibald HAMILTON, oldest son of Audley Harrison HAMILTON and wife,Eleanor ADAMS m. in Tyrone or Donegal county,Ulster,Ireland Frances CALHOUN."* * * *

" In carefully weighing all above cited literature and other facts regarding the HAMILTONS we incline to the view * * * that Martha HAMILTON ,who m. Captain James WRIGHT was b. in Virginia in 1755. She was a daughter of Andrew HAMILTON and wife,Isabella KINKEAD,both moved from Virginia and settled in WOODFORD county,Kentucky in 1794. Martha's mother was Martha, and not Isabella KINKEAD (KINCAID),who m.May 9,1799 in BOURBON county,Kentucky Andrew HAMILTON,II,a brother of Martha.Martha HAMILTON'S father was Andrew HAMILTON,I,b.in Ireland, d.in Augusta county,Virginia in 1791.

The will of Andrew HAMILTON,II.dated June 14,1820, probated Aug. 1820 in WOODFORD county,Kentucky mentions his wife,Isabella, who survived him, son ,John,deceased,leaving "five children" not named in grandfather's will,"sons,Andrew,Guy and Alexander, and daughters,Sally , wife of German BOHANON, Nancy , wife of Thomas STEVENSON and daughter, Mary HAMILTON."

We also surmise that many a HAMILTON of the Blue Grass region of Kentucky stems from Andrew,II: and we,at times, wonder if the John HAMILTON , a son of Andrew,I ,- whom various historians repeatedly record as "killed by Indians"could possibly be a forebear of the John H. HAMILTON (1771-1861), who is buried alongside his wife,Sarah, (1763-) in Jacksonville Cemetery,Kentucky* * *."446

June 26,1747, grandson of Dr. Gazetanes BALDAIS (pronounced "BALDAY"), surgeon on a French man-of-war which came to the colony of Louisiana. Dr. Baldais remained in New Orleans as Secretary of the first Spanish Intendant. His name remains on French and Spanish records there.

Paul BALDAY came to the Colony of South Carolina. When the Revolution came on he cast his lot with the Partisan soldiers of South Carolina and fought under General Francis MARION, the "Swamp Fox ",who had a camp near the home of Paul BALDAY and wife,Nancy EVANS for a considerable period. The hardships and exposure of this military service undermined his health from which he died a year after the close of the Revolution. In administration of his estate in South Carolina the form of Paul's surname became changed from the original French form,"BALDAIS" to "BALDAY" and has so continued among his HAMILTON descendants.Ch.(of Stephen BALDAY and wife,Mary HAMILTON,b.in South Carolina):1-Paul Hamilton, 1806, 2-William Hugh, April 15,1808, 3-Rebekah Ann, 181_

C-5- Patrick CALHOUN, Esq., pp.10, and 64-75 speaks to descent from inscription on their graves standing in his family cemetery on his home plantation located practically as described in Item 456 page of Bibliography for this book, and will not be repeated here. SEE also page 70 for the discovery within recent year of a prior explorer in that cemetery. The following copied by compiler from copies made in that cemetery as shown in said Item 456, in which it is stated:" We carried flour and by rubbing it on the almost obliterated inscription on the gravestones and brushing it off the incrsiptions on the stones were read." This was done on August 31,1956. Material within parentheses is inserted for fuller identification reference pages for their biographical sketches in this book.

"All the preceding epitaphs are on the same tall stone erected by John C. CALHOUN."

"In Memory of Joseph MOSELEY, Native of Virginia, born January 1st. 1765, died April 19th.1835 in the 71st. year of his age" and

In Memory of Mrs. Mary Moseley, born 3rd.of February 1769, died 3oth of November 1832, aged 62 years 2 months and 22 days. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

NOTE: The next above 2 paragraphs are apparently father and mother of Martha (MOSELEY) CALHOUN, second wife of Col. Joseph CALHOUN, (C-4-1, pp.58-60), although the next following 2 epitaphs copied in said cemetery may be of this Martha ("Patsy")(MOSELY) CALHOUN'S ancestry or near kin:

"William MOSELEY d. March 19,1819, aged 63 years."

"Lucretia MOSELEY died March 30,1817, aged 69 years."

"In Memory of Patrick CALHOUN,(C-5-7, pp.65 and 75-76) The father of Edward,(C-5-7-1, p.75), Martha Ann (C-5-7-2, p.76), Catherine Jenner(C-5-7-3, p.76), Patrick Ludlow, (C-5-7-4-, p.76), Francis Augustus (C-5-7-5, p.75 and Benjamin Allen, p.75), born Feb.3rd ,1784, died Oct.1840. A member of the Presbyterian Church."

" Nancy N.(Needham de GRAFFENREID) CALHOUN, wife of Patrick CALHOUN, Jr and mother of six children, died 1841, aged 54 years. A member of the Presbyterian Church."

"Edward CALHOUN (C-5-7-1-, p.75) born 1809 Died in 1862. Member of the Presbyterian Church."

Frances A. (MIDDLETON) CALHOUN, wife of Edward CALHOUN (C-5-7-1, pp 75 and 76). Mother of Nine (10) children. Five of whom are still living. Born Oct.29,1807 and died Oct.9,1859. Member of the Presbyterian Church."

"Partick, son of Edward and Frances A. CALHOUN"(C-5-7-1 ,p.75) born April 15,1836. Died May 1839. Parents' list call him "Edward" (C-5-7-1-3, p.75 for same dates and not "Patrick."

" William CALHOUN (C-5-4-, p.66) died Dec.10,1840, aged 64 years and 2 months."

"Catherine J (Jenner de GRAFFENREID), wife of William CALHOUN (C-5-4 ,p.66) Died Feb.3,1829, aged 42 years."

"Benjamin Allen (C-5-7-1-10.p.75), son of Edward (C-5-7-1, p.75) and Frances A.(MIDDLETON) CALHOUN, born Sept. 28,1848, died March ,1849."

"Patrick (Ludlow, I) (C-5-7-1-2, p.75). Born Dec.5,1833 Died Sept. 1834". The family record gives these dates instead of years "1883" and 1884" in the copy from gravestone which is an understandable mistake in decipherings so obliterated engravings misreading the "3" for and "8".

"Edward (C-5-7-1-3, p.75) son of Edward (C-5-7-1, p.75) and Frances A. CALHOUN, born April 15,1836, died May 1836."

James CALHOUN (C-5-5 pages 67-68, son of Patrick (C-5, Pages 10, and 64-75) and Martha CALHOUN, and father of James M.,(C-5-5-2, p.68), John A. (C-5-5-3, p.68, William H. (C-5-5-5, p.68), and Sarah, C-5-5-7, p.68 and Caroline,(C-5-5-4, p.68) CALHOUN. Born 1779, Died Jan.31,1845."

"Sarah C(aldwell MARTIN), wife of James CALHOUN, C-5-5, pages 67-68) Died March 1815."

"James L. CALHOUN Died 1815, aged 23 days."

"Dr.H.H.Townes. Born Sept.4,1814. Died May 31,1849."

"In the Memory of Catherine E. (Jenner CALHOUN, C-5-7-3, pp. 75 and 76) TENNENT, Consort of Dr. W. TENNENT and daughter of P. CALHOUN, Jr. She died Oct.14,1842." 456

2-1-2-6-5- *p.333 Rev. Hall *Laurie CALHOUN,p.325 and p 326, ancestor of the 15 families next foregoing, was a minister in the Christian Church ,principally in Tennessee and Kentucky . His ability and activity in gathering and recording for posterity much genealogical data of his branch of Calhoun ancestry and descent becoming available for use in this book has considerably enriched it.

2-1-3-. Rev. Thomas CALHOUN,p.82, spent his life as a minister in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church largely at Lebanon, WILSON county,Tennessee,he being one of the founders of the congregation of that church there. He m. Feb.10, ,1809 Mary Robertson JOHNSTON ,b. The British took General Andrew PICKENS(C-3-2,pp. 50 and 51) and Major Andrew HAMILTON,(H-1-3,pp.139,142 and 143) prisoners. When General PICKENS was weared with walking asked if he was tired. He answered,Yes .The guard replied: 'then r u n ' and struck him.

The next morning a Tory was seen by the wife of Major HAMILTON riding his horse. He told Mrs. HAMILTON that her husband would be hung. But he returned home almost immediately after being released on parole." 464.

" Major HAMILTON was in several battles,including that of Cambridge (now "96" South Carolina."

BASKIN FAMILY.

PREFACE.

The next following pages, not separated into two or more columns in this book are reproduced "fac-simile" from mimeographed pages of "BASKINS-BASKIN FAMILY", a genealogy of the BASKIN Family published Feb.16,1957 by Professor Raymond Martin BELL,of Department of Physics of WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON COLLEGE, Washington, Pennsylvania,a BASKIN descendant.

He made research embodied in his book as early as 1934. He promptly sent a complimentary copy of his book to compiler accompanied by his generous offer that parts thereof desired might be incorporated by compiler in the latter's forthcoming genealogical book entitled,"CALHOUN,HAMILTON,NOBLE,PICKENS,THOMPSON and Related Families" in progress since 1952. This offer was joyfully accepted by compiler,who restricted this grant to him to only the ancestry and descent of William BASKIN, and wife, Mary STUART,"of Scotch descent"sojourning in Ulster("North of") Ireland for the about a century prior to 1730 that BASKIN and the other five families,REID, and other Scotch families lived there, BASKIN family apparently being in Donegal county and emigrating about the same timê and living together in more than one American location for more than one generation.

William BASKIN and wife,Mary STUART came first to Delaware,next in Penhsylvania and by 1740 were in the Scotch-Irish Settlement " in Augusta county, Virginia,whence their sons removed to ABBEVILLE District,South Carolina in 1767.

William BASKIN,wife,Mary STUART, apparently was not younger than a second son of his parents,his father's name in IRELAND has not been learned.

For convenience is listing his descendants in the some 12 generations to date his father has been assigned a designation by Capital letter "B". William,as a second son is designated as "B-2" and each subsequent generation members by the numeral indicating the order of own birth in parents' family and by 12 generations of William and Mary's descendants a child born may be given a "pedigree chain" of the Capitol letter "B-"linked by eleven hyphens ("-") to complete unmistakable individuality distinct from any one else ever born and exact degree of relationship to other descendants.

 "The writer's great-grandmother Priscilla Martin Bell was a great-granddaughter of William Baskins.
459

The writer has been gathering data on the Baskins for many years. He published three mimeographed sheets in 1934. He has attempted to list the children of all the Baskins born before 1800. An outline is given showing the various relationships." 459
Help has been received from many sources.

" This account attempts to give the history of one family in colonial and early America - a record of pioneers. In the Revolution the Baskins fought against King George. In 1861-1865 they were on both sides, with Baskins dying for the gray, and Baskins dying for the blue. Many national events have greatly influenced the lives of members of the Baskin(s) Family." 459

1. The Surname

" The name BASKIN evidently had more than one origin. It first appears in England in 1642 when there is a marriage recorded June 27 of Jane Baskin and Edward Tayler, both of the parish of St. Dunstans in the East, London (Parish Register). On August 13, 1732 John, son of John and Susannah Baskin of Grays Inn Passage was baptised at St. George the Martyr, Queen Square, Holborn, London (Parish Register)." 459

" In Scotland the name BASKEN appears in Banffshire in 1653 where James Basken was collector. In 1675 Alexander Baskin and in 1679 John Baskin, both sons of James Baskin, of Ord, were apprentices in Edinburgh. Ord may have been in northern

Banffshire. On March 8, 1722 in Edinburgh Jane Baskine married William Reid, tailor. The ending -kin is diminutive. The prefix Bas- often meant Red. Nisbet in his A System of Heraldry (1722) gives for Capt. Thomas Baskin of Ord, in the Lyon Register:

> gules, a fesse vair
> crest, a sword and stalk of wheat crossing each other > saltier-ways, the last being depressed of the former > motto, Armis & diligentia

In Ireland the name BASKYN appears in County Dublin in 1439 when John Baskyn owned 1/2 acre in Kilmainham. In 1449 his sons, John and James sold their interest to John Thundry. (Bellew Documents) Another origin of the name was in County Clare. One of the chiefs of ancient Thomond was O'Baskin of the territory of Corca Baiscind, now the barony of Moyarta, County Clare. The name also appears as O'Basken. (O'Hart: Irish Pedigrees) Emily Lawless in her poem Fontenoy 1745 speaks of Corca Bascinn in Clare. From Clare some of the family moved to County Donegal, according to Ronald S. Baskin, of Dublin, whose grandfather was from Co. Donegal. There are Baskins now living in Ardara, County Donegal. In 1810 there were Baskins in County Leitrim.

The name Basquin is found near Charleston, South Carolina in 1770; in Middlesex, England in 1796; and in Quebec and France today. There is likely some connection with the French Basques.

B-2, page 339

Tradition says that the John and William Baskin who settled in Penna. in the 1730s were born in northern Ireland. The William Baskin who settled in Yates Co., New York was born in Donegal, Ireland in 1776. The Calhouns who were associated with the Baskins in Penna., Virginia and South Carolina were from County Donegal. It is probable that John and William Baskin came to America from County Donegal. The spelling of the name has remained BASKIN in some branches and has become BASKINS in others. Today the name Baskin is also carried in Britain and America by members of another faith and origin.

B-2, page 339

The first record of William Baskin is in 1732 when his name appears on the tax list of East Nottingham Twp. Chester Co., Pa. John Baskin is listed 1735 and 1736. In 1735-6 John paid 1/3 and William paid 1/9 in taxes. Both names are gone in 1737. They no doubt moved to the Paxton region just opening. All indications are that William and John came from Ireland to Pennsylvania, William about 1731; John about 1734. Both were married. They likely landed at New Castle, Delaware. East Nottingham was about 15 miles to the west. Paxton was a center for the Scotch-Irish. Many settlers there, after a few years, moved southwest along the Blue Mountains to Augusta Co., Va.

B-2, p.339

It is likely that William did this, for his name is in the Virginia records in 1740. The Pickens, Reid, and Calhoun families did the same. William may have gone because of his wife's people, the Stuarts, who lived in Virginia. Archibald Stuart went from Ireland to Pennsylvania 1727; 1738 to Augusta Co.

* * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *

" "Not liking their Dutch neighbors," many of whom moved into Augusta Co., William Baskin and his six sons planned to move to South Carolina in the 1760s. B-2, p.339 Thomas died just about the time they were ready to go. John died soon after arrival. Charles returned to Virginia where his ties were stronger. This left William, Hugh and James in the Abbeville region of South Carolina."* * *B-2-1,2,3,4,5,6 459

"B-2- William Baskin/ settled in Augusta (then Orange) Co., Va. in 1740. He proved his importation in Virginia in that year, as did John Pickens. (W. W. Scott: A History of Orange Co., Va. 1907). His son, Charles,* was baptized March 15, 1741 by Rev. (B-2-5,p.340. John Craig. William's name appears on a 1742 muster roll. In 1745 he resigned as a constable in Augusta Co. In 1747 he became road overseer. In 1747 he bought 212 acres on Lewis Creek; in 1749 232 acres on Buffalo Run. He had a servant in 1752 and in 1761. " William Baskin, Sr./ had married Mary Stuart, probably in Ireland. There were a number of Stuarts in Augusta Co. William had six sons. All their names are listed in Virginia, except Hugh the youngest: John is first listed in 1756, Thomas in 1758, Wm Jr 1756, Charles 1765, James 1765. " 459

" William Jr/ and John/ were members of Capt Israel Christian's company Aug 9, 1756. William Jr served during the French and Indian War in Penna and was stationed at Fort Ligonier 1761-62. The Virginia House of Burgesses on Dec 11, 1766 gave him £40 for service under Col. Bouquet on the expedition against the Shawnee and Delaware Indians. This was likely the expedition that brought Margaret (Peggy) Baskins of Pa. back from Indian captivity." 459

" The son, John Craig Baskin/- only son of Charles and Mary Craig Baskin - was named for his grandfather, Rev. John Craig. John C. Baskin was a captain in the War of 1812. In his will probated January 1834 he gave his five sons 1083 acres. John C. Baskin and his parents are buried in the Tinkling Spring Cemetery southeast of Staunton, Virginia. A number of his children went to Missouri. Today there are few if any Baskins in Augusta Co. John C. Baskin signed his will as "Baskins". Both spellings appear in the records." 459

The fact that John Baskins migrated to South Carolina, and the Stephens just over the line into Georgia would seem to link this Baskins family with the William Baskin, B-2,p.339 who went from Pennsylvania to the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia (Augusta County) about 1740. About 1767 he migrated to Abbeville, South Carolina. His sons were: Hugh, Charles (1741-1822), James, John, William, and Thomas. William and Mary Baskin are listed in Augusta County records as early as 1745 and as late as 1765.

The book:"CALHOUN,HAMILTON,BASKIN and Related Families,-McPHERSON,August,1957" records about 24,000 persons of whom about 12,000 descend from brother and sister,Patrick CALHOUN,"C",pages 8-10 and wife Catherine MONTGOMERY,or Frances CALHOUN and husband,Archibald HAMILTON,"H-1",pages 133-137.

These ,brother and sister,-and their descent,living during the past nearly three centuries are designated throughout the text of the book by starting with these "ancestral symbols",-"C" for Patrick and with "H-1" for Frances CALHOUN at the beginning of the first of the sketch of this brother or sister,or of the sketch of any descendant of either,or both, with their "ancestral symbols",-"C" and " H-1" repectively.which"symbols" are followed by a"chain" of numbers "linked"together by hyphens - -,a full"pedigree".

The full pedigrees prove that all of these some 12,000 descendants of these two marriages are related,-each to the other,- as cousins in definite "__ times removed". from the father of said Patrick and Frances CALHOUN,of North Ireland and"of Scotch descent". SEE also page 2 and triangular diagrams on pages 3 and 137.

The relationship of these some 12,000 CALHOUN-HAMILTON kin to other CALHOUNS and HAMILTONS in the book,having no letter "C" or "H" in front of their "pedigree symbols" or"chain"of numbers "linked"together by - - followed by their full names on first line of their respective sketches,-nor the relationship of any of the other CALHOUNS or HAMILTONS to each other, further than as severally indicated in their sketches and their respective "pedigree symbols".

The following information obtained by compiler after the book was in circulation is here offered as a supplement to this book:

Mrs. Woodharsh,as indicated in first column of page 180,preserved a traditon there recorded which supports the conclusion that said Patrick and Frances CALHOUN were brother and sister which had been preserved in Calhoun manuscript genealogy by Miss Eliza CALHOUN,Washington,D.C. brought down to 1906 SEE Item 393,first column of page 360,a copy of which was published in 1906.A pen copy of Miss Eliza CALHOUN'found its way into hands of John Joseph CALHOUN,Sr. and through him to his son,John Joseph CALHOUN,Jr.whose widow was living at 4412 Southern Avenue,Dallas, Texas Nov.26,1955 when the wealth of the Sr. and Jr.John Joseph CALHOUN'S genealogical collections became available by copying of it by Mrs.L.C.(Kathry Nell Calhoun CURTSINGER)HILL,Item 476(81)(b)page 362 for me.

Miss Henrietta ("Etta")Zeigler CALHOUN,P.O.Box 225,220 Bailey Circle,Greenwood,S.C.born S.C.Oct.9,1885 preserved and delivered to compiler in Oct.1957 tradition brought down from her grandfather,Charles Montague CALHOUN, page 181 second column,that said Patrick CALHOUN and Frances (CALHOUN) HAMILTON were brother and sister. This grand daughter,Henrietta Zeigler CALHOUN,related that she spent much of her life from early childhood in the home of her grandfather, Charles Montague CALHOUN, and regarded him as always intensively interested in his common CALHOUN and HAMILTON ancestry and was otherwise known to this grand daughter as "one of the most 'clannish' men I ever knew "

This Charles Montague CALHOUN was born in Greenwood,S.C.Jan.11,1838,son of Dr.Ephraim Ramsey CALHOUN,M.D. of Greenwood ,S.C.,born in Abbeville District,S.C. in 1800 and wife,Charlotte Matilda MONTAGUE,son of Ezekiel CALHOUN,II, born Abbeville District,S.C Oct.27, 1770,son of William CALHOUN ,born in county Donegal,North of Ireland in 1723, son of Patrick CALHOUN ,first aforesaid, and wife,Catherine MONTGOMERY,born in Londonderry,North of Ireland in 1683-4. Frances HAMILTON,wife of Ezekiel CALHOUN, II above,was daughter of Major Andrew HAMILTON, born in Augusta county,Va.May 2,1740,died Abbeville,S.C. Jan.27,1835, son of Archibald HAMILTON and wife,said Frances CALHOUN, emigrants from county Tyrone,North of Ireland in 1733 to Lancaster county,Pennsylvania,who were resettled in Augusta county,Virginia by 1738,apparently on the same boat with Patrick CALHOUN, wife,Catherine MONTGOMERY and family.

The concurrence of the tradition preserved and recorded herein from Charles Montague CALHOUN with the tradion through Mrs. Woodharsh seem to confirm that Patrick CALHOUN and Frances(CALHOUN) HAMILTON,first aforesaid, were brother and sister. Had all this been available to this compiler before printing this book he would have so printed in the book,as it seems as well supported and documented as most genealogical research can become.

Devotedly,your CALHOUN-HAMILTON cousin,

L D McPherson

The biographical,genealogical and historical book entitled:"CALHOUN,HAMILTON,BASKIN and Related Families"-copyrighted in August 1957 is offered as typical of Scotch-Irish people.Its text is on pages 1-353 and 363-365.Its first index(geographical), pages 366-379 locate its people and events in their lives in about 5,000 places,who were first found in Northern Europe,-France,England,North of Ireland and some in Germany and Holland most of whom are traced herein to American Colonies(United States).

The second index,pages 380-446 ,identifies about 24,000 people by name,state or country of residence with their services in 9 wars engaged in here and abroad.See legend at top of page 380.

Details of services of these soldiers,sailors and aviators may be used by them and descendants to qualify for membership in patriotic and other national societies.

Readers may check the accuracy of the text at compiler's source of the information using the numerals and letters following(in parentheses) matched against the same numerals and letters in Bibliography,pages 353-363.

On the back of this sheet are two of thousands of ancestral charts which may be made from the book of other people listed in it.

Of all the people in this book about 3,200 were born surnamed HAMILTON,2,300 CALHOUN and 650 BASKIN. The next long lists of births in a single surname are in the following 25:ANDERSON,BOGGS, BROWN,, CAMPBELL,CLARK,DAVIS,HALL,HARRIS,HUTTON, JOHNSON,JONES,McLEOD,McPHERSON,MILLER,NOBLE,PICKENS,PITTS,SMITH,STEWART,THOMPSON,TURNER,WARE,WILLIAMS,WILSON and WRIGHT.

Relatively shorter lists account for births in nearly 100 other surnames.Nearly 400 other surnames list an individual or from one to several families,-predominantly of Scotch origin .Other English -Speaking people including the some 50 millions people of the present population of the United States who are of Scotch-Irish descent may find in this book locations and events in the lives of its people of interest to themselves whether or not the book proves a realtionship in them.

The book is as complete as compiler could make it by the time of printing.It contains 133 photographs of which 120 are of people,it records.

Among its families'lengthy lists of descendants are: Patrick CALHOUN,pages 3-78,80,133-4,137, 139,180,335,338 and 364 and wife, Catherine MONTGOMERY,born in Londonderry county,Ire.1683-4,pp.2, 3,24,58,who moved with their 5 children in 1733 from Donegal county,Ireland to Lancaster county, Pa.where he died in 1741.His family moved in 1746 to Augusta Co.,Va.and in 1756 to Abbeville Dist., S.C.
